Hoover Hears Cox Jobless Plea

FOR CLASSIFIED ADS PHONE GRANT 5400

WEATHER—Fair tonight and Friday; not much temperature change; lowest about 28.

Only Pittsburgh Newspaper Printing International News Service Dispatches.

Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

VOL. 9—NO. 156 28 PAGES THURSDAY, JANUARY 7, 1932 THREE CENTS

WALL ST. CLOSE

KLINE; SUCCOP FILE PLEA TO SHIFT TRIAL FROM HERE

Today

Julius Rosenwald.
This Earth, Our Hothouse.
Mother Said Die. They Died.
Why Steal Neckties?

—By ARTHUR BRISBANE—

JULIUS S. ROSENWALD died yesterday. Sorrowful news for many. He had helped millions and earned the admiration of other millions by his ceaseless, active benevolence. A fine type of the American businessman, he worked endlessly and successfully in the field of intense competition, passing on to those in need the fruits of his labor.

Among rich men, his generosity has perhaps not been equaled, considering the amount of his fortune. He built a great name for his company, Sears-Roebuck, and an infinitely greater name for himself.

FORTUNATELY HE leaves his son, Lessing Rosenwald, and other children, that will carry on benevolent plans that death has checked.

And as executive head and president of his business, he leaves Gen. Wood, well-trained in the American Army, well chosen by Mr. Rosenwald, thoroughly tried through difficult years, and reassuring to his stockholders.

DR. KEESOM, of Holland, has produced in his laboratory a temperature close to absolute zero, which is "the entire absence of heat," fixed by science at 491 degrees below zero, fahrenheit. Dr. Keesom produced a temperature of 489 below in a space of 10 cubic centimeters.

IN THAT TEMPERATURE we live and roll on our little planet with its tropics and warm sunshine. Four hundred and ninety-one degrees below zero is all around us, in the ether, outside of our few miles of atmosphere.

We should be grateful to God for this finite hot house provided so mercifully in infinite time and space.

THE YOUNG brothers, Harry and Jennings killed a man, then killed six others, in a fight for freedom. Their mother, nearly 70, sent word through the newspapers:

"Kill yourselves, rather than be caught."

They did it, shot each other to death, one in his last breath calling out to the besieging posse:

"Come and get us, we are dead."

Nothing in wild west literature can surpass that.

THE PRISON of this life has a very thin wall. Those that will go through easily and settle with all authorities EXCEPT those on the other side of the wall. That EXCEPT keeps many here.

CROWDS ON Fifth avenue, New York, yesterday watched thieves running, policemen shooting.

The thieves had stolen neckties. Fifth avenue merchants, looking, wondered what the thieves intended to do with neckties, how they intended to sell them. If they had a definite plan they could make more money revealing it than they could by theft.

ONE INGENIOUS little merchant in a small New York street had in his window a sign that amused Max D. Steuer, the able lawyer, and some of his friends as they drove by. It read:

"The depression is over, the panic is on. Neckties 25 cents."

The thieves should have consulted him.

GOV. ROOSEVELT, of New York, addressing the Legislature yesterday, formally entered the race for the Democratic nomination in 1932, not in so many words, but in fact.

Looking toward Washington, he "viewed with alarm" President Hoover's doings, and, mapping out his views for restoring state and national prosperity, he takes his place as head of the Democratic party.

Several other known and not known hope and expect to take that place from him before the convention meets.

OPPORTUNITY IS here for those that have ready money, and some in the world of opportunity have success forced upon them. The Chase National Bank, by compulsion of business methods, sues to foreclose a mortgage of 16 millions on the Lincoln Building in New York City.

That building cost 30 millions and will, in a normal future, bring in two and a half millions, 5 per cent on 50 millions of dollars, after upkeep and taxes.

JAPAN JAILS five British seamen as spies. They were not spies, only admiring Japanese scenery.

Japan at this moment of war is nervous and excited. But let us not criticize too freely. We did some foolish things, believed some foolish yarns in the war, and set detectives on our best air fighter, because he had a German name.

We should demand our rights and protect our nationalists, but it is too soon to forget that some of our local officials shot dead two young men, one the nephew of Mexico's President, for no reason apparently except that they were not Americans and therefore might be dangerous.

THE ANTI-SALOON League of America wishes you to know that contributions would be welcome just now. The Bank of Westerville, O., has failed, and the league had its money in that bank.

At that news there will be some eyes moist and some dry, the moist eyes, curiously, will be those of drys, and the dry eyes those of wets. The annoying thing is that the profane will ask why Providence didn't take the trouble to look after that particular bank.

(Copyright, 1932, King Features Synd., Inc.)

COX MAKES JOB PLEA TO HOOVER

President Tells Leader of Marchers Final Battle on Unemployment Has Begun

By DAVE JONES
Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Father James R. Cox, who led Pennsylvania's army of more than 14,000 unemployed men to Washington in a demand for a $5,000,000,000 federal relief bond issue, today told President Hoover:

"Unless the unemployed get direct relief, God help the country!"

President Hoover expressed his sympathy for the unemployed, but did not commit himself on relief measures. He said:

"I have considered that the vital function of the President and of the federal government was to exert every effort and every power to the restoration of stability and unemployment in our country which has been so greatly disturbed, largely from abroad.

SPENDING MILLIONS

"The federal government is spending now half a billion dollars above normal to give employment.

"World-wide depressions and their result in unemployment are like great wars.

"They must be fought continuously, not upon one front, but upon many fronts. It cannot be won by any single skirmish or any panacea. In the present, and what I believe is the final campaign against the de-

(Continued on Page Six, Col. One.)

PICTURES ON PAGE 3

19 PRISONERS BREAK JAIL

FAYETTEVILLE, W. Va., Jan. 7.—(INS.)—Using a cell door as a battering ram, 19 prisoners shattered window bars in the Fayette County Jail today and escaped.

Two of the prisoners were charged with murder, while the other 17 were indicted on felony charges by the grand jury yesterday.

Reaching the street, the inmates dispersed in different directions. Deputy sheriffs and guards, augmented by city police, began an immediate search. The rapidity in which the men disappeared baffled authorities as they rushed about the city and outlying districts.

50 Killed in Train Wreck Near Moscow

MOSCOW, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—At least 50 persons were killed and scores were wounded in a train wreck 14 kilometers northwest of Moscow Saturday, it was learned today.

Find Women Fliers Dead In Wreckage

NEWVILLE, Pa., Jan. 7.—(INS.)—Bodies of Mrs. Ruth Stewart, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Debbie Stanford, of Toronto, Ontario, who disappeared Tuesday while flying from Pittsburgh to New York in a fog which covered the mountains near here, today were found crushed beneath the shattered white monoplane in which they had planned a flight to South America.

The bodies were located on desolate Bowers Mountain, west of here, where the plane crashed on a steep rocky slope.

A searching party that raced 30 miles over rough mountain roads from Newville, then struck out afoot through thick forest, found the two youthful society matrons this afternoon.

The body of Mrs. Stewart, whose enthusiasm for flying led her to "swap" planes with her guiding pilot, was pinned under the shattered monoplane. Nearby lay Mrs. Stanford's body.

Both apparently had met instant death. Mrs. Stewart was disfigured almost beyond recognition. Mrs. Stanford had suffered less cruelly in the smashing fall resulting when the plane failed to clear the rim of the mountain.

Bodies of the victims were lifted from the wreckage and placed in an automobile. The bodies arrived here early this afternoon and were to be taken to Harrisburg, where the grief-stricken parents of the St. Louis aviatrix are staying. They had accompanied their daughter and her companion in another plant from Pittsburgh until the women vanished in the fog.

A detail of state police was ordered out from Newville to guard the wrecked plane from souvenir hunters while attempts are made to determine cause of the crash.

Wreckage of the plane was first sighted by J. Paul Lukens, pilot of an autogiro that took off from Philadelphia to join the unprecedented search.

Army Flier's Body Found Near Elkins

ELKINS, W. Va., Jan. 7.—(AP.)—The body of Lieut. E. H. Bobbitt, Jr., 24, was brought to Elkins this morning from the mountains where his army plane crashed on a homebound flight Christmas Day.

Seven and one-half hours were required to remove the body from the wilderness where the flier died while seated in the cockpit of the plane.

Handbills Scoring Cox Bring Arrest

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Detectives today after a scuffle arrested a man who was distributing radical literature among the unemployed who marched to the capital.

The literature he was distributing said Father James R. Cox, the Pittsburgh priest, did not represent the workers and urged them to adopt vigorous methods to bring unemployment relief.

GREAT WALL INVADED BY JAPANESE

Tokio Troops Enter China Proper; Believed on Way To Capture Tientsin City

BULLETIN.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Definite action "sweeping and unmistakable" in the Manchurian situation, has been decided upon by the interested powers, the State Department said today.

By EDWARD HUNTER
International News Service.

MUKDEN, Jan. 7.—The Japanese army that seized control of all Manchuria today invaded China proper, passing south of the Great Wall where it comes down to the sea in the Gulf of Liaotung.

Tientsin, the Chinese fear, is the objective of the next Japanese drive.

DEAD IN PLANE WRECK

—Women Lost in Pennsylvania Mountains—

MRS. RUTH STEWART

HAROLD (GENE) MYERS GENTRY SHELTON

Pilot Shelton, St. Louis aviator, who led the airplane search in Pennsylvania's mountains for the two missing women pilots, and Correspondent Myers, International News Service and Sun-Telegraph writer, who wrote his stories from Shelton's soaring airplane.

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

MRS. DEBBIE STANFORD

The two women fliers found dead in the wreckage of their cabin monoplane, widely hunted for hours after it took off from Pittsburgh to fly to New York.

Clear and Colder, No Flood Danger

Clear skies and moderate temperature today marked continuation of the mild winter weather. Tonight will be slightly colder with the mercury dropping to around 28, the Weather Bureau predicted. The rising rivers reached a stage of 17.5 feet at the Point this morning with likelihood that they would go to 19 feet, 6 feet below flood mark, by midnight.

King George Guarded Against Influenza

SANDRINGHAM, England, Jan. 7.—(INS.)—Special precautions were taken today to protect King George from an epidemic of influenza which has spread through the royal residence here.

Prince George, the Duke of York, and the child princess, Elizabeth, all were stricken.

Japanese Release 5 British Sailors

TOKIO, Jan. 7.—(INS.)—The five British sailors arrested and jailed following charges they entered a fortified zone in violation of war department rules were released today from the Hokkaido jail.

The five seamen will face a Yokohama court on charges which have grown out of a further investigation, alleging they took photos and drew maps.

Max Leslie Leaves Hospital After Week

Recovered from his illness which kept him confined to West Penn Hospital for nearly a week, Senator Max G. Leslie, former Republican leader, was back in his home in Fisk street today. He was discharged from the hospital yesterday.

PUBLIC INFLAMED, JUDGE BIASED, MAYOR, AIDE TELL HIGH COURT

Mayor Kline, unexpectedly asking the Supreme Court in Philadelphia today for a change of venue to remove his trial from Allegheny County, struck out at Judge James H. Gray, District Attorney Andrew T. Park and Pittsburgh newspapers.

Joined in his appeal by his co-defendant, Bertram L. Succop, discharged Director of Supplies, with whom he is accused of irregularities, the Mayor contended that a fair trial here would be impossible and that:

1—The President-Judge of Quarter Sessions Court (Judge Gray) denounced Mayor Kline and his administration in a prominent Pittsburgh pulpit last November 15, a few days before "it was generally believed" the Mayor's trial would begin.

2—District Attorney Park has been delaying the Kline-Succop trial and even yet has not notified the defendants as to the trial date.

3—Pittsburgh newspapers have published "unfair news items and editorial comment" and cartoons have depicted him as "King Charles" and "Inbad the Mayor," while Succop has been presented as a goat eating out of a tin can.

District Attorney Park announced he would fight the Mayor's application, which automatically postpones his trial scheduled for January 19.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Mayor Charles H. Kline, of Pittsburgh, and Bertram L. Succop, former Director of the Department of Supplies of that city, today took steps in the Pennsylvania Supreme Court for a change of venue in their trial on indictments charging them with misbehavior in office.

The Supreme Court allowed a rule to show cause why writs of certiorari should not be issued to remove the records in the cases and direct the Allegheny County Quarter Sessions Court to certify the proceedings to the Supreme Court. The rule is returnable January 21. In the meanwhile all proceedings in the case are stayed.

Kline and Succop are under indictment in conection with the purchase of certain supplies for the city.

The order allowing the rule was signed by Chief Justice Robert S. Frazer.

It is usual for the Supreme Court to dispose of such a matter on petition and answer and without oral argument, unless the court desires to hear such argument. It was ordered that a copy of the rule be served immediately upon the District Attorney of Allegheny County.

Kline and Succop filed a joint petition, Edward L. Kearns representing Succop and Edward G. Coll and Charles B. Prichard acting for Kline.

The petition set forth that indictments were found against them on June 25, 1931, and that the offenses charged are all common law misdemeanors and not felonies.

The petitioners declare that for many years prior to the election of Kline as Mayor there was much political and factional strife with a resultant ill-feeling and hatred not only among political leaders and their lieutenants and fol-

(Continued on Page Two, Col. One.)

FATHER KILLS 5 CHILDREN, SELF

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo., Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Olive Davenport, 50, killed five of his children by striking them over the head with a hammer in their farm home near Patton, Mo., early today, seriously wounded his wife and another child, and then shot himself to death with a shotgun. Davenport apparently went insane.

The tragedy left only one child in the family of eight, unharmed.

CITY PLANS TAX REBATE SUITS

Civil suits to collect $9,000, representing rebates to politicians and businessmen on penalties and interest due on delinquent city taxes, were being considered today as the outcome of the grand jury's presentment in the investigation of Roy D. Schooley, former City Treasurer.

Similar action may be taken to collect on a $60,000 check held in the Treasurer's office but never cashed, said to have been tendered by a real estate operator for taxes.

Controller James P. Kerr conferred with District Attorney Andrew T. Park today, presumably on the Schooley case. Park said no date had been set for reconvening the December grand jury to hand down indictments recommended in its presentment, which named Schooley, his missing former investigator, Arthur G. Burgoyne, and LaSalle Girts, corporation representative.

Long-sought County Audit Under Way

The audit of the county's fiscal affairs pledged in their campaigns by Commissioners Charles C. McGovern and C. M. Barr was to begin today. M. C. Conick, of Main & Co., will have charge of the audit. The contract for the job on a per diem basis will be submitted to the commissioners today. Conick is sitting in on the budget sessions.

Collapses in Job Parade, $1,000 Found in Pocket

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(INS.)—J. M. Cylkowski, 50, of Mt. Washington, Pittsburgh, one of the unemployment marchers who accompanied Father James R. Cox to the capital today, may have been unemployed, hungry, cold and underclothed but he was $1,050 removed from being broke.

This sum was found on him at Emergency Hospital, where he had been taken following his collapse from exposure.

John M. Cylkowski is a trombone player, residing at 900 Montooth street. He has been out of regular employment since May, according to members of his family. His wife, Mrs. Anna Cylkowski, conducts a grocery at that address.

His wife was astonished, apparently, when informed that her husband had $1,050 in his possession. She said she believed the money was her husband's life savings, which he had drawn from the bank without the knowledge of his family.

Morgan 'Sentences' Girl To Attend Church

On her promise to attend church and lead a better life, Jean Norbit, 24, won her release today before newly-appointed Magistrate J. Scott Morgan, substituting for the first time in East End Police Court.

Miss Norbitt was arraigned following her release from Homeopathic Hospital where she was taken, police say, after she had swallowed poison.

She denied writing two love notes found in her room in South Highland avenue, or knowing the young man to whom they were addressed. After questioning the young woman, Magistrate Morgan ruled:

"You are discharged on your promise to attend church and lead an upright life."

Morgan was coached in his initial appearance by his predecessor, Councilman William J. Soost, former Traffic Court Magistrate. He was taking the place in police court of Magistrate Charles Papale ill in a hospital.

A Story of Fascinating Beauty Lurking in All Big City Jungles

"THE BEAST OF THE CITY"

Turn to Page 1, Part 2, of Today's Sun-Telegraph for the First Thrilling Chapter

Jack Lait's New Serial Will Raise Heart Beats—Stand Your Hair on End

KLINE AND SUCCOP IN VENUE PLEA HOLD JUDGE ENEMY

PRESS, CHURCH HOSTILITY CHARGED

Complain of Editorials and Cartoons; Park Accused Of Delay in Calling Trial

(Continued from Page One)

lowers but also among the citizens of the city and the county.

VOTE DRIVE CITED

The primary campaign in 1929 preceding the September primaries declared the petitioners was hard-fought and gave rise to many false and malicious charges and innuendoes reflecting upon Kline and his administration of which Succop was a part.

Mayor Kline avers that one of his opponents for the Republican nomination for Mayor was a sitting judge of the Common Pleas Court of Allegheny County, now deceased. The candidacy of this sitting judge was "ardently and aggressively aided and supported by another sitting judge who now is, and has been for some months past, the duly assigned sitting judge of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace in which court the said indictments against your petitioners are now pending and due to be tried."

The primary campaign and the campaign at the following November general election of 1929 engendered much ill-feeling against him, Mayor Kline avers, with practically all the newspapers of the City of Pittsburgh "through sympathy with those opposing him and possibly from other improper and unworthy motives joined in attacking him and his administration and those connected therewith, including your other petitioner Bertram L. Succop."

COMPLAINS OF CARTOONS

The petitioners further aver that for more than two years past and especially during the period beginning January 1931 the newspapers have conducted "a vicious and unrelenting campaign of adverse and unfair publicity against your petitioners."

Kline declared that he was subjected to unfair news items and editorial comment calculated to hold him and Succop up to public contempt and ridicule and that he was depicted in cartoons as "King Charles," "King Charles the First," and was "Ihan the Mayor." In many of the cartoons Succop was depicted as a goat eating out of a tin can, the plea stated.

The petitioners stated that in the month of January 1931 a disappointed bidder for contracts for furnishing certain city supplies addressed a letter to City Council. This letter made public certain charges of unfairness and favoritism against Succop and his conduct of the Department of Supplies.

CHARGES HELD FALSE

The petition stated further that these charges were false, unfounded and unfair and never have been supported by facts or otherwise proved true. As a result of the charges, the petitioners again were subjected to a spirited attack which caused much public agitation and discussion and a grand jury investigation followed, out of which came indictments against the two city officials.

All of the indictments and the counts contained in them it is averred are based on highly technical legal grounds, and upon a fair and impartial trial of the same will be found to be based either on no facts whatever or on misconception of the law and misconception of such facts as may be involved.

The petitioners assert they are entirely innocent of any crime charged or attempted to be charged in the indictments.

The returning of the indictments had the effect of further stimulating public discussion and comment, it is further set forth, and an effort was made to connect Mayor Kline with other persons tried or sentenced.

CHARGE TRIAL DELAY

Mayor Kline and his fellow-petitioner charge that the District Attorney has been delaying their trial since the beginning of the Quarter Sessions Court term following the summer recess, notwithstanding that they were ready for trial in September. The petitioners say that although they are entitled to a reasonable notice of the date of listing the cases for trial, they have so far received no information as to when the cases will be listed.

Kline also sets forth that his removal of the City Treasurer from office as the result of alleged irregularities has resulted in more newspaper comment and agitation against him and his administration so that a fair trial on the indictments cannot be had.

The petitioners charge that the delay in bringing the indictments to trial since last September has given opportunity for newspapers, certain organizations and other opponents to take advantage and ferment public sentiment against them.

DENIES OFFER TO QUIT

Mayor Kline asserts that there was absolutely no foundation for a rumor spread throughout Pittsburgh and Allegheny County during November and the early part of December that he had offered to the District Attorney to resign as Mayor if the indictments were dropped. He declared that this rumor was for the purpose of embarrassing him and Succop at the trial.

The Mayor also charges that the president-judge of Quarter Sessions on Sunday, November 15, 1931, notwithstanding the fact that it was generally believed throughout the city that the case would be brought to trial within a few days, publicly appeared on the platform and in the pulpit in one of the prominent churches and denounced the Mayor and his administration.

The minister of the same church, it is further stated, at the same time and from the same pulpit also publicly denounced the petitioners. These denunciations were printed in the Pittsburgh papers and the president-judge of the court and the minister have not yet denied responsibility for the statements.

The petition concludes:

"Wherefore, your petitioners, protesting that they are not guilty of the offences charged in said indictments, respectfully submit that they are willing, ready and anxious to meet the trial of the issues involved in any district removed from the great inflammation, excitement and prejudice existing in the public mind in Allegheny County."

PARK FIGHTS MOVE

District Attorney Park, who has summoned 60 witnesses for the Kline-Succop trial scheduled for January 19, today declared he would oppose the application to take the trial out of Allegheny County. He added:

"We will fight it. A change of venue would entail an awful expense—$10,000 or more. We will not throw away county money if we can avoid it.

"The trial cannot begin on January 19, however, as the return date on the Supreme Court's rule is January 22."

Park denied he had not notified the Mayor's side of the trial date, contending such notice was sent to Attorney Prichard.

CITES CHURCH ATTACK

In referring to Judge Gray's pulpit speech the Mayor added that a minister had spoken in similar denunciation from the same pulpit.

The minister was the Rev. Dr. George W. Shelton and the pulpit was that of the Second Presbyterian Church.

Judge Gray was quoted as saying:

"The present Mayor when he took office announced his allegiance to the outworn principle, 'to the victor belongs the spoils.' When he announced that he would betray the trust of the people."

Dr. Shelton said:

"The time to get ready for the next mayoralty campaign is now. We've been ruled by thieves."

Friends of the Mayor, anxious that he will come through victorious, were predicting that the change of venue, if granted, would place the trial in Westmoreland County.

Judge Gray, told of the Mayor's references to his speech, had nothing to say.

THE ABSENT LAWMAKER -:- By Quin Hall

In Today's Paper

All in a Day	Page 4
Beast of the City	Page 17
City Wed	Page 10
Clubs	Page 8
Comics	Pages 26, 27
Finance	Pages 22 to 25
Lisfelt	Page 18
Magazine, Fiction	Page 14
Paris Fashions	Page 8
Radio	Page 11
Society	Page 8
Sports	Pages 20, 21, 22
Stage, Screen	Pages 12, 13
Walter Winchell	Page 15

Held as Slayer

NORA JOHNSON BONNELL

Mrs. Bonnell, 42-year-old divorcee, who today at Clarksburg, W. Va., is held for grand jury action on charge of shooting to death Theodore F. McDonald, 44, as he dined in a Weston restaurant with another woman. She said: "I'm guilty!"

MELLON OUSTER MOVE DELAYED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Consideration of the Patman resolution impeaching Secretary Mellon was postponed today by the House Judiciary Committee until next week.

This action was agreed upon by committee members because of the delay in having the resolution reach the committee formally through parliamentary channels.

It was the first time in the many years since Mellon entered the cabinet that a formal move for his impeachment had been made.

"High crimes and misdemeanors" was the general—and required—designation of the accusations. Violation of a law of 1789, designed to prevent Treasury secretaries from engaging in business or commerce was the principal charge, accompanied by the argument that heavy stockholders in industrial concerns, shipping lines, etc., constitute commercial activity. The point has been much debated.

MURPHY URGES U.'S. JOB AID

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Federal relief for the unemployed was indorsed before the Senate Manufacturers Committee today by Mayor Frank Murphy, of Detroit.

Testifying on bills calling for direct federal appropriations to aid the needy, Murphy added the state government also ought to participate.

He said his city's relief work has been greatly curtailed because of limited funds. He described it as being on "a survival basis."

Walter S. Gifford, head of the President's unemployment relief committee, will appear tomorrow.

Collapses in Store, Dies in Hospital

John E. Cook, 81, of 167 East Francis avenue, Brentwood, died this afternoon in South Side Hospital from heart trouble, aggravated by a fractured left arm, suffered when he was jostled in a shopping crowd and fell to the floor in a downtown store, December 14, the Coroner reported.

Jobless Secretary Held in Robbery

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., Jan. 7.—Louis Popov, 47, secretary of the Unemployed Council of Avella, Pa., was arrested here today, accused of holding up the Podauff family and Hell's Kitchen barbecue last night. Marco Sablisk, of Wellsburg, was arrested last night and a third man escaped.

Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.
Vol. IX—No. 156.
Thursday, January 7, 1932.
Published evening and Sunday at the office of the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph, Telegraph Square, Pittsburgh, Pa. Price: Daily, 3 cents; Sunday, 10 cents.
Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Pittsburgh, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Wilson Birthplace Opened As National Shrine

STAUNTON, Va., Jan. 7.—(AP.)—The Manse where Woodrow Wilson was born, the son of a Presbyterian minister, was open today as a national shrine.

Judge John Barton Payne, national Red Cross chairman, and Interior Secretary in Wilson's cabinet, in his dedicatory address last night eulogized the war-time President as "not only the first citizen of the United States but the first citizen of the world."

Mrs. Wilson was the guest of honor at a reception at the Manse and later at a banquet.

Judge Payne said Wilson was "witty, bright, cheerful and thoroughly in earnest," and "whenever he parted from a friend he had a reason."

He praised Wilson's administrative career, saying there was "more constructive legislation during his first term of office than during the term of any president since his time."

CLASH ON BEER BILL LIVENS SENATE

Brookhart Scores Move to 'Shift Tax From Rich to Poor;' Farm Gain Cited

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Prohibition debate between Republican Senators Brookhart, of Iowa, and Bingham, of Connecticut, today engaged Senate attention.

Bingham started the row by introducing an amendment to his 4 per cent beer bill restricting the use of the beverage to sales in hotels and restaurants. He mentioned that "The Crusaders," an anti-prohibition organization, favored it.

Brookhart, a militant prohibitionist, complained that the crusaders "are assuming a Christian title for an unchristian purpose." He shouted:

"In addition, the purpose of these beer bills is to transfer the income taxes from the big taxpayers to the laborers and common people."

Bingham retorted:

"If we could legalize 4 per cent beer, we would produce a market for the farmers of the state of the Senator from Iowa for 100,000,000 bushels of grain. Moreover, the people who like to drink beer would have no objection to paying a small tax to help meet our tremendous deficit."

Prohibition legislation was pigeon-holed today by the House Judiciary Committee, pending receipt of President Hoover's message on law enforcement.

Chairman Sumners said after the executive session that he was without definite information on when the President's message was expected, or whether it would touch on prohibition.

STIMSON DENIES U. S. BLAME IN BOND LOSSES

State Department Declares It Never Gave Approval To Any Foreign Loans

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—A formal denial came today from the State Department of any responsibility for losses the public might have had in buying foreign bonds. The department said:

"No foreign loan has ever been made which purported to have the approval of the American government as to the intrinsic value of the loan."

In its 2,000-word statement, which came as a reply to a denunciation by Senator Glass (Dem.), of Virginia, the department said that its simple statement of the absence of objection to a loan could not be considered as approval of it.

Senator Glass charged that the State Department was responsible for any losses to the American public because of foreign lending.

The Stimson statement came while the Senate Finance Committee was hearing read warnings by former Secretary of State Kellog and by S. Parker Gilbert, agent general of reparations in 1927, suggesting that American bankers be cautious in handling foreign loans.

The committee also heard a Commerce Department official tell how a Bolivian bond issue had been approved by the State Department because of strained diplomatic relations between that country and this.

He was James C. Corliss, specialist on Latin-American finance, and he said that Latin-America had over-borrowed in 1928 and 1929.

More than $800,000,000 worth of Latin-American bonds floated in this country since the war are now in default, he said.

The committee was told yesterday the Commerce Department had "reluctantly" given its consent in 1928 to a $23,000,000 loan to Bolivia because of troubled diplomatic relations with Latin-America.

BUY AND GIVE, SLOAN URGES

BOSTON, Jan. 7.—(INS.)—Buy as well as give—this was the paramount suggestion for economic recovery given to businessmen today by Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., motor magnate. He said:

"The spirit of co-operation and helpfulness to those in want, which has attended the present situation, is an inspiration to all, but it should be recognized that we can help importantly, and perhaps more fundamentally, by buying as well as by giving."

Urging confidence, he said the people of the world are not going to accept the lowest standards of living, but on the other hand, are going to demand a higher and higher standard.

MOLINARIS IN THE CITY

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

CONDUCTOR, MME. BERNARDINO MOLINARI IN PITTSBURGH

The arrival today at Pennsylvania Station of Europe's famous couple. He will conduct the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra in its Sunday night concert. Mme. Molinari will sing the solo numbers.

Gets License

MISS ELIZABETH B. DONNER

MISS DONNER SOON TO WED

MEDIA, Pa., Jan. 7.—(INS.)—Elliott Roosevelt, 21-year-old son o. Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York, was granted a license to marry Miss Elizabeth Donner, 20, daughter of William H. Donner, wealthy Villanova, Pa., manufacturer, at the Delaware County marriage license bureau here today.

Miss Donner was accompanied by her father. Young Roosevelt listed his business occupation as "advertising." The wedding, it is understood, will take place soon at the Donner residence. Their engagement was announced several weeks ago.

Miss Donner's father is widely known in the steel industry. He was the founder of Monessen and Donora, Western Pennsylvania industrial towns, the latter named after him. He is a former president of the Cambria Steel Company and chairman of the Pennsylvania Steel Company. Mrs. Donner's first husband was the late Norwood Rodgers of Bellevue.

MOLINARI HERE FOR CONCERT

Musical circles were aroused to keener interest in the forthcoming concert of the Pittsburgh Symphony Society today with the arrival of the famous European conductor, Bernardino Molinari, who will be guest leader.

Molinari, accompanied by Madame Molinari, makes his first appearance in the United States this season in Pittsburgh, coming direct from Rome. Arriving at the Pennsylvania Station simultaneously with the beginning of the society's rehearsals in the Moose Temple, the conductor evaded all questioning in anxious anticipation of immediately taking up the baton. His face radiated joy as the society manager, Edward Specter, rushed him to the rehearsal.

Senator Seeks Data On Radio Advertising

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—(AP.)—A resolution calling for the survey by the Radio Commission of the extent of commercial advertising programs over the radio was introduced today by Senator Couzens (Rep.), of Michigan.

GUFFEY STARTS DRIVE TO AID ROOSEVELT

Pittsburgher in Washington To Round Up Delegates For New York Governor

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Groundwork for a drive for Roosevelt delegates from Pennsylvania to the Democratic National Convention was begun yesterday by Joseph P. Guffey, former Democratic National Committeeman in Washington.

Arriving here from his Pittsburgh home in advance of his party's national committee meeting Saturday, Guffey reiterated his claim that at least 66 of Pennsylvania's delegation to the convention will be for Gov. Roosevelt's nomination for the presidency. Guffey said:

"Pennsylvania is strong for Roosevelt and that's all there is to it. I don't believe Ritchie can get to first base in our state."

Regarded as the leader of the state Democratic organization, Guffey minimized the effect of Ritchie's indorsement by John Hemphill, Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania in 1930. Hemphill, an ardent anti-prohibitionist, has declared for the Maryland governor because of his pronounced views on the wet-dry issue.

Assistance in his Roosevelt drive was pledged Guffey today by two of Pennsylvania's three Democratic members of Congress, Representative Boland, of Scranton, and Haines, of Red Lion.

Col. Church Sees Fanatics Control Democrats

Organized forces of bigotry and fanaticism will rule the Democratic national convention, Col. Samuel Harden Church, leader of the Liberal Party in America, predicted today, commenting upon Chairman John J. Raskob's letter to the Democratic party. Raskob warned his partisans that the prohibition issue must be met by the coming convention.

In his statement Mr. Church said:

"The Republican leaders have made it plain that they will adopt a bone-dry platform and renominate President Hoover as their bone-dry candidate. It seems equally sure at this moment that the Democrats will declare for prohibition enforcement and nominate Gov. Roosevelt, of New York, who will then play the seductive role of Mr. Facing-Both-Ways, in Pilgrims' Progress. And thus, with either of the old parties victorious, the country will have four more years of graft, crime, drunkenness and public shame."

RAPS DEMOCRAT TARIFF BILL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Undersecretary Mills, of the Treasury, today told the House Ways and Means Committee that the administration is strongly opposed to the Democratic tariff bill.

Responding to the invitation of Chairman Collier, Mills appeared at hearings on the tariff as representative of the Treasury, State and Commerce departments when hearings were resumed today. He said:

"The Treasury does not approve of this measure and sees no occasion for it. Its intent is to deprive the President of authority he now possesses."

Mills referred to that provision which would take away the President's authority under the present flexible tariff provision. The bill would authorize the Tariff Commission to report to Congress on changes in duties instead of to the President.

On Time 20 Years, Scorns Alarm Clock

SHARON, Pa., Jan. 7.—Twenty years on the same job without being late is the record made by John H. Lindsay, head of the order department at the Sharon Steel Hoop Company plant. Lindsay was given special recognition by plant officials. He said:

"I never have to use an alarm clock to get up in the morning."

Files as Bankrupt, Commits Suicide

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Jan. 7.—After filing a petition in bankruptcy in Federal Court, Pittsburgh, Isador Tenor, 50, a furniture dealer, returned to his home here and ended his life by inhaling gas. The body was found in the home by his son, Leon Tenor. He leaves his widow and seven children.

2 White Women Captives Of Savages, Tribe Says

DARWIN, Australia, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—A story that two white women are being held captive by savages in the Far North of Australia is being told by members of the Myall tribe.

Newspapers are demanding the government send a search expedition, aided by airplanes, into Arnhem Land to bring the women out.

The Myalls, a primitive tribe with a good reputation, declare that two white women, one old and one young, have been in Arnhem Land "for many moons" and are regarded as powerful witches by their captors.

Eight years ago, the steamer Douglas Mawson, a small coastal trader, was lost, with all hands, in the stormy Gulf of Carpentaria, North Australia. It was known that the captain's wife and daughter had been aboard, and the possibility of their having been rescued and captured was investigated.

Land and sea parties could find no trace of them, but many Australians consider there cannot be any doubt about their fate.

The first thing the aborigines would do, it is stated, would be to break the women's noses so they would be flat like those of the aborigines themselves.

ROSENWALD BURIAL DETAILS CLOAKED TO AVOID DISPLAY

SIMPLE RITES LAST WISH OF BENEFACTOR

Hoover Among Notables Expressing Regret Over Death of Philanthropist

International News Service.

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—No flowers will adorn the bier of Julius Rosenwald, nor will grieving throngs follow the procession to the grave today.

As he lived, so was the illustrious benefactor of mankind to go to his final rest, without pomp, without pretension.

Mr. Rosenwald

Mr. Rosenwald's final uttered wish when, at last, he realized that death was beckoning him, was:

"A small and inconspicuous funeral."

And to guard against the slightest violation of that deathbed desire his stricken family shielded every detail of burial arrangements, save the single announcement that the funeral would be held today. Where and exactly at what hour the simple rites will be held was known only to the departed philanthropist's immediate family.

PASSED AWAY IN SLEEP

Mr. Rosenwald, whose benefactions to humanity in money alone exceeded $55,000,000, died yesterday afternoon in his sleep at his suburban Ravinia home. Since last April he had fought the ravages of hardening of the arteries, complicated by heart and kidney ailments. He was 69 years old.

One of his sons, Lessing Rosenwald, said:

"Prior to his death, Mr. Rosenwald expressed the desire that the funeral services be limited to the members of his immediate family and that there should be no flowers. The family requests friends cooperate to make this possible."

TRIBUTES POUR IN

Death of the noted philanthropist shocked Chicago, the city he had chosen wherein to carve out his career and whose wealthiest citizen he became through his success as a merchant. Tributes to his life and achievements poured in from all parts of the nation and from all walks of life. Among them was an expression of regret from President Hoover.

That Mr. Rosenwald had waged a gallant fight to the last, even when he knew death was but a matter of hours, was the revelation today of his chief physician, Dr. Herbert Pollack, of New York City. Summoned from their separate homes, the philanthropist's children came to Ravina mansion eight days ago when the dying man's condition grew critical.

CALLS HIS CHILDREN

They were not allowed to enter the sickroom for fear the knowledge of their presence in the house might upset the patient. But Mr. Rosenwald heard their voices in the corridor and asked that they come to his bedside. Dr. Pollack said:

"Each one of his children invented an excuse for being in Chicago. Mr. Rosenwald heard them all and smiled knowingly."

Mrs. Rosenwald and the children were at the bedside when death came. The children are: Lessing and William Rosenwald, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Edith Stern, of New Orleans; Mrs. Alfred K. Stern, of Ravinia, and Mrs. Adele Levy, of New York. Besides his widow and children, Mr. Rosenwald is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Max Adler and Mrs. S. L. Eisendrath, of Chicago, and one brother, Louis Rosenwald.

McCormick, 'Fifi,' Silent on Luncheon

CHICAGO, Jan. 7. — (AP.) — Fowler McCormick and his wife, the former "Fifi" Stillman, are back home today, but have nothing to say about their trip to New York, assertedly to have luncheon with her former husband, James A. Stillman, and to discuss the future and welfare of the two Stillman children now sheltered by McCormick.

Harvard Youth Hurt In Fall From Hotel

BOSTON, Jan. 7.—(INS.)—A mysterious fall or leap from the roof of a one-story building adjoining a Back Bay hotel today resulted in serous injuries to George P. Earling, 19, Harvard junior and son of a Milwaukee businessman.

See GIMBELS DOWNSTAIRS

STORE ADS ON PAGES 4 and 19

PINCHOT CHEERING JOBLESS ARMY

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

THE REV. JAMES R. COX CHEERING UP RAIN-SOAKED FRANK DuPONT AND LEO B. SCHOENER

Father Cox pictured during a halt as he went back along his line of autos, cheering up his paraders. These two men, from Lock No. 4 and Charleroi, huddled beneath a big tarpaulin.

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

UNEMPLOYED . . . MARCHING TO TELL THE WHITE HOUSE MAN

A typical group, separated by miles from the ones before and after, in the long parade of jobless men following Father Cox to Washington. Assorted sizes, assorted costumes, assorted ages, assorted colors, claiming only to be workmen unable to get work to do.

5 BOMBS FOUND IN INDIAN TRAIN

CALCUTTA, India, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Five live bombs were found in a first-class compartment in the Darjeeling Express when it arrived here this morning.

They were discovered before they had done any damage and police began a search for those who had placed them there.

It was the first evidence reported of any departure from the Gandhi principle of non-violence.

The Nationalists, meanwhile, appeared to have taken to cover and, although trade was paralyzed as a result of the boycott against British goods, government authorities felt confident that they could deal with any emergency.

PLOT DENIED

NEW DELHI, India, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Reports from London today that an attempt had been made here on the life of Viceroy Lord Willingdon were described this afternoon as absolutely without foundation.

France Pays Honor To General Pau

PARIS, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—The French nation paid supreme homage, with full military honors, today to the memory of Gen. Gerald Pau, one-armed veteran of the War of 1870 and the World War, in a funeral ceremony at the Invalides. He won the right to burial in the historic spot, where the body of Napoleon lies, through his command of field troops in the war. It was the anniversary, the location, of the funeral of the late beloved Marshal Joffre, conqueror of the Marne.

Street Car Passing Auto Violation Cited

Passing street cars on the left is the principal law violation of Pittsburgh drivers, the monthly report of the Traffic Safety Observers indicates. Seventy-one such violations were reported by the 500 citizens observers during December. Other leading offenses included failure to obey stop and go lights, 53; too fast for safety, 41; weaving driving, 40, and failure to yield right of way to another car, 38.

LENZ FACES BIG BRIDGE TEST

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—A last-minute drive for material for argument will begin tonight in the great contract bridge match.

Recognizing that Ely Culbertson's lead of 14,175 points cannot be overcome without extraordinary and unprecedented luck and cards, Sidney S. Lenz, his chief rival in a month's test of contract bridge bidding systems, will try at least to maintain the plus for those rubbers in which his partner has been Winfield Liggett, Jr.

Lenz and Liggett have made 2,665 more points in the last 34 rubbers than have Culbertson and partner. There are 13 rubbers left to play in the 150-rubber match. If, when the last card is laid down tomorrow night, Lenz and Liggett are still plus as a combination, followers of the 1-2-3 system will maintain that the Culbertson lead was due largely to Oswald Jacoby, who resigned from the match in a dispute with Lenz over bids and play.

Culbertson's partner tonight will be a newcomer to the match, Howard Schenken. Mrs. Culbertson will return to the table tomorrow night.

AID BEING SENT STRAGGLERS

Two trucks today continued picking up the stragglers of Father James R. Cox's jobless army, who were stranded between here and Lewistown.

Cy Seibert, labor leader and an aide of Father Cox, yesterday led a fleet of six large trucks which brought 571 of the men back to Pittsburgh.

Seibert reported that nearly double that number still are along the highway between here and Lewistown, many of them having only improvised shelter against the growing cold.

He said he would ask Pittsburgh police to send out a state-wide teletype ticker request for police to give the men shelter until trucks can reach them.

In Harrisburg, where the army stopped to hear an address by Gov. Pinchot yesterday, 292 of the men were permitted to sleep in the basement of the Capitol last night.

Others of the pedestrian contingent of the army came to grief in Maryland when they were caught riding freight.

Twenty-six were being held in the Baltimore jail and seven in Hagerstown.

WATCH MOVIE DURING FIRE

WASHINGTON, Pa., Jan. 7.—Several hundred persons, unaware of a $20,000 fire which blazed two floors above, calmly sat through a performance in Warner Brothers' State Theater, North Main street, last night.

The fire, believed to have started in the control room of Radio Station WNBO, destroyed a number of valuable instruments in the studio, including the control board and microphones. The station, owned by the Frigga Simplex Radio Laboratory, was on the third floor of the three-story frame and brick theater building. Damage was also caused by smoke to several nearby stores. Washington firemen fought the blaze.

Boy Artist of Job March In Hospital, Misses Trip

Instead of being the youngest member of Father Cox's jobless army, Emil J. Sitka, 17, of 1711 Liberty avenue, was convalescing in Mercy Hospital today, reading newspaper accounts of the march to Washington.

Artist Sitka

Sitka, a pupil of the Boys' Central Catholic High School and staff artist on the school paper, made 200 banners for the paraders. He had been working on them for weeks and was prepared to go along with the thousands of unemployed men.

Monday, the day before the march, Emil was stricken with appendicitis, which required an operation.

Sitka's father is dead, and his mother is an invalid. Father Cox is supporting the boy. Sitka's friends say he is rapidly progressing in the field of art.

N. J. Baby Weighs 18 Pounds at Birth

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Anthony Caruso, Jr., shows indications of being a "big" man. Born yesterday, he weighed 18 pounds.

Mt. Lebanon Lions Dine Fathers, Sons

Mt. Lebanon Lions Club held their father and son banquet in the auditorium of the Lutheran Church, Academy avenue, Mt. Lebanon, last night. Toys and souvenirs were given to the sons. Ford Miller was master of ceremonies. Darrell V. Martin, Sun-Telegraph radio editor, and Louis L. Kaufman, WCAE announcer, were among the speakers. Other WCAE stars entertained the guests.

Auto Plunge Into River Kills Driver

John Pasquale, 45, of 7624 Frankstown avenue, was drowned late yesterday when his automobile got beyond control near Montrose and backed into the Allegheny River. His companion, Gerald Arthur, of 8029 Frankstown avenue, escaped unhurt, jumping from the machine.

Kingsford-Smith Hops for Australia

HAMBLE, Hampshire, Eng., Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Air Commodore Charles Kingsford-Smith left today in his airplane Southern Star on the first leg of a return flight to Australia.

HITLER SUPPORT SOUGHT FOR HINDENBURG

Bruening and Leader of German Nationalists in Conference at Berlin

BERLIN, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Chancellor Bruening received Adolf Hitler, militant leader of the National Socialists, this evening in a conference to discuss this year's presidential elections and other pressing political matters.

Hitler, whose power as leader of the National Socialist has been growing rapidly, has been invited by Bruening to confer with him and Gen. Wilhelm Groener, the minister of defense.

It was reported on excellent authority that they were making a bid for Hitler's support and that of the Nationalists to re-elect President Paul von Hindenburg for another term.

They are doing this, it was said, on the theory that the re-election of the old Field Marshal would be the best proof Germany could give that her people stand solidly behind the things he represents.

It was assumed they were prepared to make certain concessions to Hitler in exchange for his support.

At the Nazi headquarters a member of Hitler's staff said he could not tell what the leader's attitude would be, but those familiar with the general attitude at the Nazi headquarters believe that Hitler is not entirely opposed to President Von Hindenburg's re-election.

LLOYD GEORGE IMPERILED IN SEA STORM

Veteran British Leader Arrives Home; Health Reported Much Improved

PLYMOUTH, England, Jan. 7. — (AP.) — David Lloyd George, veteran British Liberal leader, arrived with his wife and daughter today on the steamer Rajputana from a tour of the East Indies and said he experienced the worst night he ever spent aboard a ship during yesterday's storm.

Mr. Lloyd George said he and other passengers had a narrow escape during the height of the hurricane in the Bay of Biscay when a tremendous roll threw the furniture around.

Except for yesterday's experience, he said, his trip was delightful.

The wartime Prime Minister looked extremely well, but refused to say anything about the political situation except to remark that his views, as expressed during the election campaign last November, are unchanged.

Miss Megan, Lloyd George's daughter, said the improvement in her father's health was "amazing." She said:

"When we started out on the trip, he was not allowed to walk more than a half mile at a time around the deck. On the way back he walked a good five miles every morning and took an active part in sports about the ship."

Prize Dogs, 3 Champions, Saved in Fire

PHILADELPHIA, Ja. 7.—(AP.)—Lives of a score of pedigreed dogs, including three champions, being groomed for the annual Madison Square Garden show in New York next month, were threatened by fire last night in an animal hospital here.

Among them were the Sealyham champion, Cock o' the Walk, owned by Mrs. Franklin Pierce, of Pitman, N. J.; a Schnauzer champion, Heinrich von Sprohblitz, owned by Stewart H. Harrison, of Harrisburg, and an international champion Afghan hound, Boomerang, owned by Mrs. Thomas J. Williamson, of Pittsburgh. Boomerang is valued at $6,000.

The animals were led to safety by attendants and the blaze was extinguished with little damage.

Father of 8 Freed In Relief Thefts

WASHINGTON, Pa., Jan. 7.—George W. Wyland, 47, married, father of eight, was freed and given a supply of groceries after being arrested accused of taking 11 relief orders from the poor directors office where he had gone for relief.

Woman Inducted In Baldwin Post

Allegheny County's only woman township Commissioner — Mrs. Alice Linnert, of 824 Becks Run road—was inducted into office last night at the reorganization meeting of the Baldwin Township Commissioners.

BOY'S SLAYING BLAMED ON 'GRUDGE'

Sanity Test Sought for Man Held in Gunplay; Glenfield Lad Wounded in Mishap

Lieut. Frank Ferris, of the homicide squad, said he would recommend that a sanity commission be named for John Massaro, 21, of 621 Thompson street, held in the fatal shooting of Ray Pricchione, 18, of 53 Maxwell way.

Shot in the head and hip last night as he left his home, the youth died early today in the Belvedere Hospital. He told detectives he knew of no reason for Massaro shooting him.

Massaro told detectives, they said, that he shot Pricchione because of a "personal grudge." Two rambling notes were found on Massaro indicating he intended to end his life, detectives said.

County detectives today were investigating the shooting of Donald Hageman, 17, of 347 School street, Glenfield, by Walter Trapp, 16, of Haysville. Sewickley police said the shooting was accidental but are holding Trapp pending the outcome of Hageman's injuries.

The shooting occurred in the home of Benjamin F. Harpester, Glenfield, where the two boys found a rifle in the basement. While they were examining it, the gun was discharged, a bullet striking Hageman in the chest. He was taken to the Valley Hospital at Sewickley where his condition was said to be fair.

THE WEATHER

Local Forecast.

Fair tonight and Friday. Not much change in temperature. Lowest temperature tonight about 28 degrees.

Hourly Temperatures.

12 Midnight	44	6 a. m.	32
1 a. m.	44	7 a. m.	32
2 a. m.	43	8 a. m.	33
3 a. m.	42	9 a. m.	35
4 a. m.	41	10 a. m.	40
5 a. m.	40	11 a. m.	43

Sunrise today .. 7:45 Sunset today .. 5:08

Observations for the 24 hours ended at 8 o'clock this morning.

Time.	Temp.	Rain.	Wind.	Weather.
8 a. m.	34	72	W-S	Pt. Cldy.

Temperature and Precipitation.

	1931 Last year	1930	1929	1928	1927	1926	1925
High	50	62	60	61	54	53	58
Low	30	32	30	41	34	33	34
Mean	40	48	45	51	44	43	46
Precip	00	00	02	00	00	00	00

Bulletin.

Observations taken by the United States Weather Bureau. The official temperature readings were taken at 8 o'clock. The normal temperature is for 24 hours ended at 8 o'clock this morning. Precipitation is for 24 hours ended at 8 o'clock this morning.

Station.	Temp. 8 A.M.	Pre.	Station.	Temp. 8 A.M.	Pre.
Atlanta	44	02	Honolulu	78	00
Atl. City	36	02	Jacksonville	52	00
Bismarck	10	00	Kansas City	30	00
Boise	26	00	Memphis	40	00
Boston	34	00	Nashville	40	00
Buffalo	28	00	New Orl.	50	00
Chicago	34	00	New York	34	02
Cincinnati	36	00	Norfolk	42	00
Cleveland	32	00	Oklahoma	34	00
Columbus	34	00	Omaha	22	00
Detroit	30	00	Parkersburg	34	00
Des Moines	22	00	Peoria	30	00
Detroit	30	00	Phila.	36	00
Duluth	16	00	Pitts.	34	00
Erie	30	00	Portland	34	00
Harrisburg	36	00	Rapid City	24	00
Helena	20	00	Salt Lake	30	00
Huron	14	00	San Antonio	52	00
Indianapolis	34	00	San Diego	58	00
Jacksonville	52	00	San Fran.	52	00
Kansas City	30	00	Seattle	38	00
Key West	72	00	Spokane	28	00
Los Ang.	54	00	Tampa	58	00
Louisville	36	00	Toledo	32	00
Memphis	40	00	Washington	38	00
Milwaukee	26	00	Wilmington	34	00
Minneapolis	14	00	Yellowstone	12	00
Nashville	34	00	Yellowstone	12	00
Lynchburg	34	00	*Below zero.

River Conditions.

The rivers are still rising slowly. Stage at Franklin is 7.0 feet. Parkers Landing, 7.2; Lock No. 10, 13.9; Lock No. 9, 12.2; Pittsburgh, 17.5; Dam No. 4, 14.9; Dam No. 3, 14.0; Dam No. 2, 15.4; and Dam No. 1, 16.3. The dams are down. The rivers will continue to rise slowly. About 19 feet indicated on the Pittsburgh gage about midnight, and about 21 feet at Wheeling Friday afternoon.

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

FATHER COX AND GOV. PINCHOT ADDRESSING THE JOBLESS ARMY AT HARRISBURG

Gov. Pinchot welcoming Father Cox's Jobless Army to Harrisburg on its way to Washington, D. C., to convince the federal government of Pittsburgh unemployment. The Governor spoke.

COUNTY HIRES LESHER, STAFF

Former County Solicitor Mortimer B Lesher and his staff of assistants Frank B Ilte, B B McGinnis, Charles Lale Jr and Artemus C Leslie have been retained by the Board of County Commissioners as special counsel at the same salaries they have been receiving. This action was taken Chairman Charles C Mc Govern said because of litigation which they may have pending before the courts.

Until a report is made by Lesher of the activities of his assistants no new appointments will be made in the Solicitor's office, Controller Robert G Woodside advised the Commissioners that their actions legal. The county solicitorship will remain vacant probably for several days.

48 WIVES WORK AT MAYVIEW

Forty-eight married women who receive support from their husbands are on the payroll at Mayview, Dr. James S. Hammers superintendent informed City Council today. The report followed a request made by Councilman Harry A Little as a preliminary to discharging such women for the sake of economy.

Dr. Hammers pointed out that many could not be dispensed with due to the technical nature of the work. These included women physicians, superintendent of nurses, attendants and heads of wards for the insane.

Council referred the communication to a committee. Reports from other departments are expected.

All In A Day

By Mark Hellinger

AMONG RECENT Broadway yarns is the one of Minnie, the manicurist. It's true, too, which makes it more authentic if less interesting. At any rate, Minnie's business life was like those of all manicurists. She earned her living in an offhand manner.

Her home life, however, was slightly different. There was but one man for Minnie—and she loved him like this column loves its dots. She could see no man but her man, and she lived accordingly.

Her sweetheart, however, looked at matters in a slightly different light. He liked Minnie, but his ideas of marriage did not include that lady. A rather handsome bird, he was not overburdened with coin of the realm and it was his notion that when he married his bride would be the possessor of many pretty dollars.

For almost three years Minnie and her boy friend traveled about together. She often spoke of marriage. But her sweetheart always sighed softly.

"We can't do it, honey," he would murmur. "We haven't the money. No use of us getting married when we can't get a decent home for ourselves. Just let's wait a while."

This was strictly the old stalleroo. And nobody knew it better than Minnie. From some of the words the boy friend had dropped when he was slightly stewy, Minnie knew that he was on the lookout for a gal with the dough. But what was she to do about it?

One evening when the sweetheart called for her she rushed into his arms, her eyes wide with excitement.

"Oh, Joe!" she cried. "Read this wire that just came. Oh, my goodness, I'm so excited."

Joe grabbed it.

"By the terms of your grandfather's will," it read, "you are entitled to an inheritance of $50,000. Please communicate with us at once and make arrangements to come here as soon as possible to sign the necessary papers."

The wire was signed by a firm of attorneys in Los Angeles, Cal. The boy friend pressed Minnie close and looked into her sparkling eyes.

"I'm very happy for your sake, dearest," he said softly. "Very, very happy. Have you wired those lawyers yet?"

Minnie nodded. And the very next afternoon the sweetheart had Minnie on the phone in her shop.

"Listen, dear," he said. "We've been going together for a long time. I love you and you love me. What do you say to hopping down to City Hall and getting married this very afternoon?"

Minnie's answer was a foregone conclusion. They were married that very day. Her husband was most attentive to her. They were as cooing a couple as ever were bound to have a fight in later years. After a week or so her husband spoke to her.

"Dearest," he asked affably, "isn't is about time you made arrangements to go to Los Angeles and see about your money?"

Minnie went off into a loud laugh.

"Oh, darling," she responded, "I forgot to tell you about that. It was all a joke, you know. Oh, sure, I have no money. Ha, Ha, Ha."

And that's all there is to the story. With the exception of the fact that—during the middle of the last "ha, ha"—Minnie's husband grabbed his hat and left the room. That was two years ago, and Minnie hasn't seen him since!

* * *

VIRTUALLY everybody, I imagine, knows the old racket of the stewards on the ocean liners who call returned passengers upon the phone and attempt to sell them phony booze. In spite of the fact that people know the game inside and out, you'd be amazed how many of them fall for the old gag day in and day out.

A certain actor, for instance, recently returned from Europe on a certain boat. Since he's one of the best spenders in the business, he was very naturally a target for the steward racket as soon as he reached his New York apartment. The voice on the phone assured the actor that they had succeeded in getting off five cases of the very best stuff. Would he care to buy?

The actor, without taking time to think it over, agreed to the purchase. That night the five cases were delivered and paid for. The next day, when he told some friends about his buy, they laughed at him.

"Well, you poor mug!" he was told. "Don't you know that you fell for the oldest racket in the world? You bought nothing but a load of bootleg hooch. You ought to be ashamed of yourself."

Returning home, the actor sent some of the bottles out to be analyzed. Thinking the matter over, he grew more and more disgusted with himself. Calling in the employes around his apartment, he commenced to give the stuff away. In the midst of his generosity the phone rang. It was the same chap who claimed to be the steward.

"Mr. M," said the voice, "we succeeded in getting off three more cases. Would you care to buy them?"

The actor grew furious. He angrily shouted that he was no ordinary target for a gyp game. He insulted the "steward" right and left and then hung up on him. He then proceeded to give away more of the liquor. Pretty soon he had but six bottles left of his original five cases.

"In the morning, when the actor had forgotten all about it, the chemists returned their analysis. They reported that the liquor had absolutely no imperfections and was the finest stock that could be bought in any country! . . .

* * *

A CERTAIN Broadwayite, whose name would not be familiar to you even if I were to use it, made a mistake. He was happily married. But, like so many others, he did not realize it. When his wife sued him for divorce he suddenly discovered that he was madly in love with his wife. But then it was too late.

For four years now that husband has been paying weekly alimony to his wife. She never remarried. Neither did he. The husband pleaded for forgiveness, but his wife would never relent.

Every week his alimony checks are always made out in the same fashion. In one corner appears the inevitable line:

"Because I was a fool." . . .

VETERANS HERE IN 'ROUNDUP'

Bugle corps and delegations from 45 American Legion posts in the county will attend a "membership round-up" celebration under the auspices of the Allegheny County Committee of the Legion tonight at Carnegie Hall, North Side.

Sealed packages of membership cards will be delivered by each post and taken to Harrisburg tomorrow by an automobile convoy escorted by state troopers and headed by Ronald L. Thompson, county membership chairman. A stop will be made at Altoona and the caravan will arrive at Harrisburg Saturday, being met by Gov. Pinchot.

Marriage Licenses

Henry Weber, Jr.	Pittsburgh
Florence Hamler	Pittsburgh
Louis Mauro	Pittsburgh
Helen Kaczorosa	Pittsburgh
James O. Flower	Pittsburgh
Virginia Goldsbur[illegible]	Sewickley
Sylvester G. Alt	Sharpsburg
Mary Robinson	Pittsburgh
William J. Crock	East Liverpool, O.
Cora D. Johnson	East Liverpool, O.
John Klotz	Duquesne
Thelma Boser	Duquesne
Edward P. Dier	Millvale
Jennie Maliszek	Millvale
Walter S. Bauer	Sharpsburg
Anna Hildman	Millvale
George Bolz	Munhall
Theresa Toth	Smithton
Benjamin F. Chester	Butler
Mary J. Haines	Reading
Grant L. Shamburg	Marion
Mary Kravina	Greensburg
Alva L. McKinney	Beaver
Anna M. Schiffler	Beaver
General Tate	Aliquippa
Lucille Draker	Aliquippa

SWEEPING REDUCTIONS

IN THE PRICES OF

W.L. DOUGLAS SHOES

Much lower prices for really better shoes — with the W. L. Douglas name to guarantee dependable quality and honest value in every pair. That's the kind of price reduction that means something.

You still have your choice of our complete stocks

The finest leathers in the latest styles. Honest W. L. Douglas shoes that give you lasting looks and long wear, at the lowest prices since 1917.

MEN'S $6.50 6.00 5.50 Now $5

MEN'S $8.50 8.00 7.50 Now $7

NEW LINE OF MEN'S at $4

WOMEN'S $6.50 6.00 5.50 Now $5

WOMEN'S $7.00 Now $6

BOYS' NOW REDUCED TO $2.50, 3.00 & 3.50

"AMERICA'S BEST KNOWN SHOES"

203 FIFTH AVE. 417-419 E. OHIO ST., North Side

EAST LIBERTY: 6237 FRANKSTOWN AVE.

WHEELING: 1209 MARKET ST.

Open Saturday Evenings

The Donahoe Label Protects Your Table

Great Week-end Sale

Lowest January Price in 16 Years

DONAHOE'S Famous "93 Score"

BUTTER

3 lbs. for 89c

Single pound, 32c. 2 pounds, 62c.

There's one thing we want to hammer home—it's this: we sell only ONE grade of butter—the BEST. Costs us a premium and an extra bonus to get it—but we DO get it—and it costs YOU no more.

best selected April eggs 2 doz. for 37c

—double candled; every egg guaranteed good—special

Fifth Avenue Whitehall Eggs, 2 doz. 73c My-Te-Good Eggs, browns and whites, 2 doz. 61c

MY-TE-GOOD COFFEE

—formerly 3 lbs. $1.25

3 lbs. for 50c

Give your taste a chance to tell you how GOOD this Coffee is. It will save you money on your future coffee bills. Fresh from our roasters every day.

Swiss Cheese 39c lb.

—finest Swiss made in the U. S. A. We sell only ONE grade—the BEST. No extra charge for slicing.

Cream Puffs 6 for 25c

—a REAL special—they're filled with whipped cream while you wait—see them made here in the store.

Cashew Nuts 55c lb.

—freshly buttered and salted—their appetizing fragrance makes you hungry. Priced very low.

Maple Syrup gallon can 1.89

Regular price is $2.25 a gallon for this genuine Somerset County pure maple syrup.

MY-TE-GOOD Pears, Apricots or Cherries

Regularly 28c a can, now 20c can.. 5 large cans $1

Lowest Price Ever Sold--

Donahoe's Famous Shankless Hams

—method of preparing patented in the U. S. and Canada — special, whole or half ham 17c lb.

Only the choicest meat of the ham remains on a Donahoe Shankless Ham—you pay only for that part of the ham you can actually use.

Finest Chuck Roasts 14c lb.

—every cut a center cut—and you have the added protection of U. S. inspection—any size

Dunlevy's Sliced Bacon 21c

—Old English style—cellophane wrapped—1-lb. pkg.

Golden Young Ducks 27c lb.

—plump, meaty, tender—extra special, at .....

Best Diamond Walnuts 3 lbs. for 89c

—fancy franquettes—finest grown; 30c lb.

Breaded and Fried Oysters 43c

—Maryland Beauties—hot from our ovens—doz.

Straight Beef Bologna 18c lb.

—lowest price this quality has ever been sold..

Donahoe's Creamy Fudge 29c lb.

—Chocolate or Vanilla, nut-topped—pan included

Fresh Mushrooms 79c

—finest white, cultivated in underground gardens—picked today, sold tomorrow—fresh daily at Donahoe's. 4-quart basket..

Snowball Cauliflower, 2 heads 35c
Fresh Carrots, 2 large bunches 15c
Sweet Red Emperor Grapes, 2 lbs. 23c
Sweet Juicy Tangerines, 2 dozen 33c

EAT at Donahoe's

—big specials in our cafeterias Friday 10:30 A. M. to 8 P. M.

Broiled Whitefish OR Fried Blue Pike OR Esterhazy Steak OR Roast Fresh Ham
with Peas in Butter
French Fried Potatoes
Chocolate Gem
Rolls and Butter
Coffee, Tea or Milk
40c

where only the BEST is good enough

Donahoe's

"On the Avenue"

The Food Store of Pittsburgh

Prices Good Thursday and Friday

Your money buys better meals for less at DONAHOE'S

Another Convenient Store—421 SMITHFIELD ST.

PITTSBURGH to Bellefonte by TELEPHONE 75c

After 8.30 P. M. only 45c

See page 1 of your Telephone Directory

GIMBELS PITTSBURGHS GREATEST DOWNSTAIRS STORE

SIXTH AVENUE AT SMITHFIELD STREET PITTSBURGH — PHONE AT. LANTIC 4600

The New Year's Outstanding Men's Clothing Event in the Downstairs Store!

Men's Suits & Overcoats

From a Famous Maker—We Cannot Mention His Name Because of the Low Price!

Clothing That Retails All Over the Country at 22.50 to 29.50

14.75

It's great to announce a sale like this! It's great to know that Gimbels Downstairs Store secured from a famous manufacturer who is known from coast to coast for his clothing (the finest we have ever sold at 14.75) for the men of Pittsburgh! Come in tomorrow and check the clothing detail for detail . . . and then imagine yourself trying to find anything finer for the money. Many are only one of a kind—we advise EARLY attendance!

Suits at 14.75

Fine all-wool worsteds, blue serges, cheviots, cassimeres in blues, grays, tans, browns, oxfords.

Overcoats, 14.75

Boucles, fleeces, oxfords, meltons, plaid-backs, herringbones. Neat dressy styles . . . All new 1931 and 1932 models. Plenty of BLUES and oxfords, also grays and browns. Sizes 35 to 44.

GIMBELS DOWNSTAIRS STORE . . . MEN'S WEAR . . . UPPER LEVEL

FOR OTHER GIMBEL NEWS, SEE PAGES 5 AND 19

K. R. HAMMERS HEADS NOBLES

Karl Rex Hammers today is potentate of Syria Mosque, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, having been elected at the annual Shrine meeting last night. Other officers elected are: Edward D. Friebertshauser, treasurer; James W. Barber, recorder; Harry E. McLain, J. Howard Martin, J. Milton Ryall and Edward M. West, re-elected Imperial Council representatives; James H. Lytle, Mr. Barber and Fred W. Henninger, re-elected members of Syria Improvement Association; John Dimling, re-elected, and C. H. Landerfeld elected to succeed the late John A. Murphy, on the executive committee.

John G. Daub was elected chief rabban; David Timothy, assistant rabban; T. Ralph Barr, high priest and prophet; Lucius McK. Clumrine, oriental guide; John Farris, first ceremonial master, and Benjamin S. Barbour, second ceremonial master.

AUTO KILLS BOY, PARENTS ILL

Three-year-old Vincent Gatto lay dead in his home at 67 Congress street today while his father, James Gatto, recovering from injuries suffered in an explosion, was en route to Pittsburgh from New York, following a futile attempt to find work, unaware of the tragedy.

The child was struck by an automobile near his home when he ran into the street to recover a ball. Police said the driver was George W. Rodgers, of 112 Craft avenue.

Mrs. Gatto, receiving treatment in Mercy Hospital for broken blood vessels, left the hospital yesterday to greet her husband.

Older boys have been selling newspapers to contribute to the support of the family.

USE VICK PLAN

VICKS Nose & Throat DROPS — VICKS VapoRub

for BETTER CONTROL OF COLDS

PITTSBURGH TO Cumberland, Md. by TELEPHONE

55c

After 8.30 P. M. only 35c

See page 1 of your Telephone Directory

Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"Please Let Me Alone"

Out of sorts...disagreeable! Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped so many women whose nerves are frayed by those dreadful "monthly" headaches.

(Advertisement)

Have Color in Cheeks

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should try Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets — a substitute for calomel — were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 20 years of study.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound. Know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and help overcome constipation. Take nightly and note the pleasing results. Millions of boxes sold yearly. 15c, 30c, 60c.

Coach Excursions
EVERY SUNDAY
$2.00 ROUND TRIP
Cleveland
$1.00 YOUNGSTOWN and NEW CASTLE
REGULAR TRAIN
Lv. Pittsburgh 8:10 A. M.
Low Week-End Fare
Round Trip
$6.00 . . . CLEVELAND
Tickets issued for train leaving Pittsburgh 11:45 P. M. each Friday and all trains Saturday each week. Valid in Pullman Cars Upon Payment for Space Occupied.
Consult Ticket Agents for Further Information
PITTSBURGH AND LAKE ERIE R. R.

FIND IT AT GIMBELS FOR LESS

300 New Fur-Trimmed
COATS
Made to Sell for $25 to 39.75
18.75

Market conditions and an unusually fortunate purchase make this dramatic sale possible. These are exceptional coats for 18.75—featuring the newest style details. Most of the coats are Black, but you'll also find your favorite high colors. Lavishly trimmed with these precious furs:

Beaver—Baby Lynx—Krimmer—Caracul—Natural and Dyed Wolf—Red Fox and Marmink

Sizes 14 to 20; 34 to 44; 35½ to 45½

COATS . . . THIRD FLOOR

Boucle, Lynx trimmed. Misses' sizes.

Luxurious Marmink collar and cuffs. Women's sizes.

Boucle trimmed with Krimmer. Misses' sizes.

GIMBELS

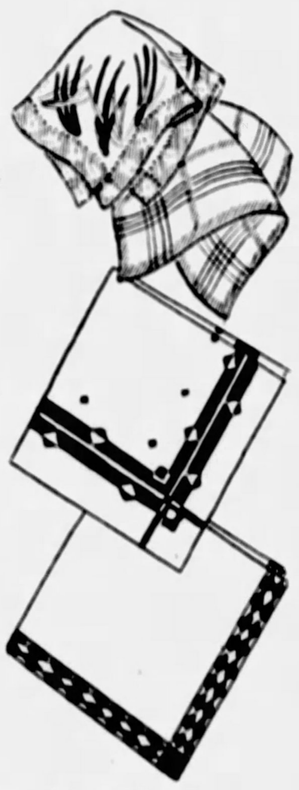
SIXTH AVE. at SMITHFIELD ST. PHONE AT. 8400 TEL. SHOPPING GR. 8400

Boys' 6.95
2-Knicker
SUITS
3.95

Special for Friday!

4-piece suits, full cut and roomy. Good sturdy woolens. Tans, browns, grays. Fully lined knickers. 8 to 16 years.

FOURTH FLOOR



Men's, Women's
'Kerchiefs
20 for $1

White with printed borders and neat hems. Serviceable 'kerchiefs for every day use, made to stand many launderings. Especially desirable for school.

Linen 'Kerchiefs

Women's. White with colored appliques and hand-rolled hems. Or pure white, hand-embroidered 6 for $1

Linen 'Kerchiefs

Women's. White with 1/16 hemstitched hems. Solid color linen 'kerchiefs. Each 10c

HANDKERCHIEFS
STREET FLOOR

Color-Fast Printed and Solid Color
Hooverettes
1.00

You will feel so much better around the house if you have plenty of these gay new Hooverettes. In colors that retain their original brightness through many washings; and fresh-looking white dimities. Some with crisp Organdie ruffles and pockets; others self-trimmed. All are sleeveless. Sizes for small, medium and large women.

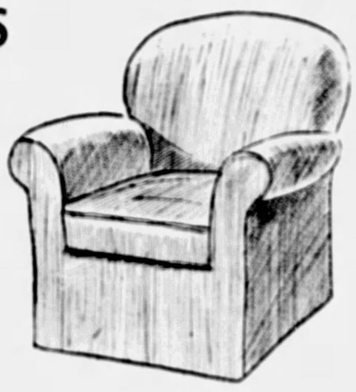
HOUSE DRESSES . . . SECOND FLOOR

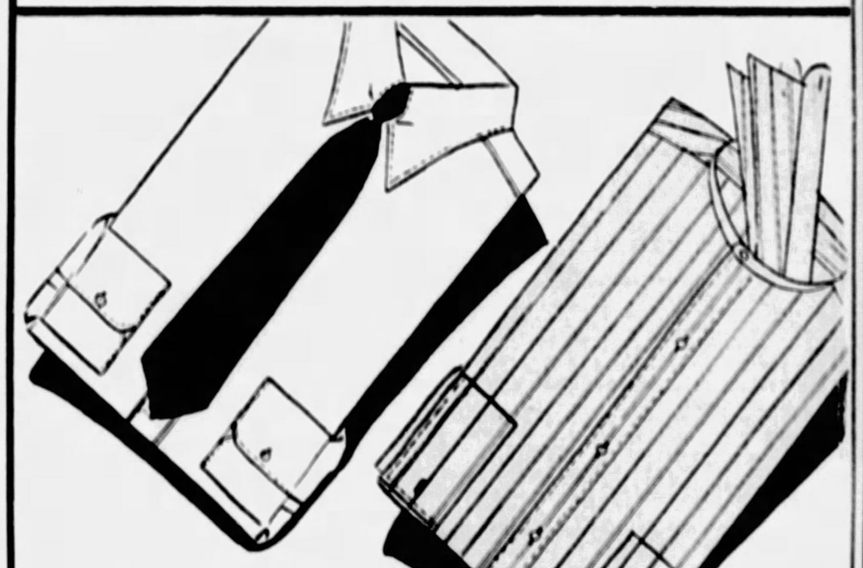
New Low Price on 8-Pc. Slip Covers
25.95

Sofa and 2 Chairs With 5 Separate Cushions

Cut and tailored over your own furniture at the lowest price ever. Complete selection of striped denims and jaspe cloth, all pre-shrunk; special prices on odd pieces. Slight additional charge for out-of-town orders.

SLIP COVERS . . . EIGHTH FLOOR





Regrouped From Regular Stock—1.39 and 1.59

SHIRTS
95c

Hurry, you chaps who are bargain hunters! Here's a sale that don't come every day. Fine count, pre-shrunk broadcloths with collar attached in white, tan, blue and green; neckband in white. Woven madrases, figured and striped.

MEN'S SHIRTS . . . STREET FLOOR

SALE SOCIETY BRAND SUITS $29
CONTINUES—REGULAR $39 TO $65 GRADES

CONGRESS GETS DEMANDS OF MARCHERS

Father Cox's Delegation Met by Davis, Kelly at Capitol; to See Hoover

Continued from Page One

pression. I have laid a program before Congress and I trust we will secure its early adoption.

"The real victory is to restore men to employment through their regular jobs. That is our object.

"We are giving this question our undivided attention."

Before he went to the White House to meet Hoover, Father Cox led his ragged followers through streets lined by spectators.

It was a strange parade with the shabby marchers, many of them in the tatters of their World War uniforms, singing college songs and popular hits as they waved American flags at the onlookers.

HEADED BY BAND

They moved through the city eight abreast, an orderly procession headed by the North Braddock Fire Department Band.

They gathered in the plaza of the Capitol and cheered as Father Cox mounted the steps and presented copies of his petition to Senator James J. Davis and Congressman Clyde Kelly.

When the ceremonies there were over, the priest, accompanied by Father Casimer Orlimanski of Natrona Heights, Earl C. Dean of Homestead, and George L. Erwin of Pittsburgh, went to meet the President.

At the conclusion of his interview, Father Cox started rounding up his army to return to Pittsburgh.

Some of his followers suggested they remain in Washington overnight. He answered:

"We're not hanging around Washington."

VISIT UNKNOWN'S TOMB

His plans call for a brief stop at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington, a radio broadcast and then to turn his 1,000 autos toward Pittsburgh, making but one stop, at Fort Necessity, Fayette County, en route.

In presenting his petitions on the Capitol steps, Father Cox said:

"More than 14,000 jobless men from Pennsylvania towns have journeyed all the way across the state to present their right for work. It is a God-given right and it is presented by Christian men."

Senator Davis, in accepting, replied:

"I accept this petition and will gladly present it in the Senate. One fine thing about these men is that they have come here with the American flag as their standard."

Congressman Kelly said:

"Your demonstration is a symbol of the great problem of our time."

SING 'AMERICA'

Presentation of the petitions ended, Senator Davis called on the men to sing. They joined him in the strains of "America."

Then Father Cox said:

"I want everyone to take the pledge to the flag for which we will live and die."

The voices of the thousands of marched rose in a great roar as they repeated the words of the pledge as Father Cox spoke to them.

Even before the army had filed from the Capitol grounds, and while Father Cox still was on his way to meet the President, Congressman Kelly had presented the petition to the House and it had been read into the records.

Washington and Capitol police, who had been concentrated for emergencies, had nothing to do. They said that they expected no trouble and had been assembled only to guard against possible disorders by Communists not connected with Father Cox's army.

As the marchers neared the Capitol, with Father Cox, Mayor Eddie McCloskey of Johnstown, and Matthew A. Dunn, blind Pittsburgh member of the Legislature at their head, a woman ran from the lines of spectators and threw her arms around the priest's neck.

EMBRACED BY MOTHER

It was his mother, Mrs. Julia Cox, who had come from Pittsburgh to witness the demonstration.

Near the head of the procession were two banners. One read:

"Long Live the Rev. Cox."

The other:

"Experienced Men From Father Cox's Army Are Needed in the Cabinet."

Father Cox, before the march started, made a scathing criticism of the attitude of Congress in view of the present nation-wide suffering. He said:

"The so-called representatives of the people in Congress are not helping the country.

"They are bound to their masters.

"This country is seething with revolt.

"In a country bursting with wealth, we are entitled to employment. We want more gardens and fewer bread lines."

URGES PUBLIC WORKS

Father Cox's petitions ask that the $5,000,000,000 be used for the creation of work in public construction, including highways, public buildings, hospital, in rural districts, reforestration, flood control and water power conservation."

His plan is similar to that recently suggested by William Randolph Hearst.

The petitions also demand that Congress immediately apportion sufficient money to states and municipalities to permit welfare agencies to clothe and feed the needy unemployed.

Farm loans, the petitions averred, are another necessity which must be given immediate attention.

Money for these appropriations, Father Cox suggested, could be raised by increasing the surtaxes on large incomes and inheritance taxes and by the levying of a large gift tax to prevent evasion of the inheritance levies.

Soaked by a chilling rain, the shabby crusaders of unemployment reached Washington late last night.

SUFFER FROM COLD

They camped in vacant buildings and behind improvised shelters, wrapped in rain-drenched blankets or lying in close-knit groups, uncovered, to stay the biting chill of the night.

Washington police said 2,250 trucks and other autos had been counted carrying the jobless army and that more machines were straggling in when that figure was recorded.

Most of the men went to bed hungry last night, their last meal having been in Harrisburg at noon yesterday when Gov. Pinchot provided them with coffee and sandwiches.

At daybreak, as the army rolled from its dampened blankets, steaming coffee and short rations were passed out by the District of Columbia unemployment committee, the Salvation Army and church agencies.

Eight army rolling kitchens from Fort Myer finally arrived and the marchers, already partially assembled for the march to the Capitol, broke ranks and descended on them in droves.

Father Cox had little sleep last night.

He refused an invitation to spend the night in Senator Davis' home. Instead, he spent most of the night and morning scurrying about the improvised encampments, making certain his followers were as comfortable as possible.

Campus Bride

MRS. EDWIN W. IRWIN

The former Miss Esther Wallace Scott, of Washington, Pa., the bride of End Irwin, three years a varsity football player at Washington and Jefferson College, as the climax of a campus romance. They'll live at Red Bank, N. J., Irwin's home.

BLAST IN PARK INJURES 3

Three men, one a county park employe and the others tank repairmen, are recovering today from burns and bruises suffered yesterday when an explosion ripped the roof off the tank house in North Park.

The victims are W. A. Sellers, a park employe, W. L. Poland, Carnegie, and Robert Tarsie, 300 Chalfont street. The latter two had gone to the park to repair an air valve and were accompanied by Sellers, resident of the park. When the explosion occurred the men crawled 2,000 feet to the park office for aid, and were sent to Presbyterian Hospital.

According to a report made to A. R. Dallesio, of the Grant Building, employer of Poland and Tarsie, gas had accumulated in the tank house and exploded. The tanks furnish pressure for the water system in the park.

Alyce McCormick, Film Actress, Dies

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Jan. 7.—(AP)—Death has ended the promising career of Alyce McCormick, 30, who recently had important roles in "Frankenstein," "Bad Girl" and "The Spirit of Notre Dame." She died from pneumonia.

Gang Firing Squad Kills War Veteran

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—(INS)—Gangster executioners early today marched John McEvilly, 37, World War veteran, along a Brooklyn street, stood him up against a wall and killed him with a volley of five shots.

TEXT OF PLEA MADE BY COX FOR JOBLESS

Five Billion Bond Issue, Tax on Large Incomes and Aid to Farmers Urged

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The text of the petitions demanding unemployment relief, which Father James R. Cox and his army of Western Pennsylvania's unemployed were presenting today to the Seventy-second Congress, follows:

WHEREAS, in this land of ours, the United States of America, the soil is rich, the earth is bursting with abundance, the bins are filled with grain, the storehouses are laden with goods, the shelves are overflowing with merchandise, the vaults are stacked with bars of gold, and the very channels of trade are choked by the undistributed surplus of the products of mill and mine and farm; and,

WHEREAS, at the same time, eleven millions of men and women offer their brawn and brain to the masters of work—but in vain; and,

WHEREAS, these men and women, having exhausted their meager resources, with strength wasted, their bodies ravished by slow starvation, their spirits broken by despair, now lack shelter, are exposed to the cold, the rain, and the snow, and stand hungry in breadlines—mute symbols of an economic order out of joint; and,

WHEREAS, their children, undernourished, deprived of milk, often without shoes and without winter clothing, their development arrested and their growth stunted, are prey to the blighting diseases of malnutrition; and,

WHEREAS, evictions abound, families break up, and the foundation of ordered society is being undermined; and

WHEREAS, the colossal wealth of these United States has been gathered into the hands of but a few, who own or control not only industry, but the natural treasures of the earth—coal and oil, copper and iron, and even the power generated by the fall of waters; and,

WHEREAS, the individual merchant and artisan are being driven from the market-place, from behind the counter and the work bench by huge organizations which add unit on unit to their endless chains; and,

WHEREAS, a handful of men, in control of vast wealth, are strengthening their hold upon the governments of the states and of the nation and ever more directing the course of legislation; and,

WHEREAS, fearing that liberty and equality will perish in this land, that free men will be replaced by wage slaves, that monopolistic trusts will rule this country, and that these intolerable hardships will breed bloody uprisings and arouse armed revolts, the people of these United States are determined to reconsecrate this country to a true democracy, where every person, poor or rich, shall have an equal opportunity to work and to earn a decent livelihood, so that all may attain a standard of life which will assure individual contentment and a peaceful society; now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED—by the army of Jobless marching under the leadership of Father Cox:

FIRST—That Congress appropriate $5,000,000,000 to be raised by the issue and sale of bonds and to be expended for the creation of work in public construction, including highways, public buildings, hospitals in rural districts, reforestation, flood control, and water power conservation.

SECOND—That Congress immediately appropriate to the several states and municipalities, according to their need and number of unemployed, sufficient sums of money to be distributed, through agencies now functioning, for the purpose of providing food, clothing and shelter to the needy and hungry who are out of work.

THIRD—That Congress appropriate sufficient sums of money for loans to re-establish the farmer, the backbone of a free nation.

FOURTH—That the money for these appropriations be raised by the increase, up to 60 per centum, of the surtaxes on large incomes, effective on incomes earned in the year 1931; by the immediate raising of the federal inheritance taxes on large estates up to 70 per centum; and by the levying of a large gift tax to prevent the evasion of the inheritance taxes, an evil now so flagrantly practiced; and be it further

RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be delivered by the Rev. Father James R. Cox to the President of the United States, to the Vice-President, as presiding officer of the Senate, and to the Speaker of the House.

$10,000 Gems Taken In New York Home

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—(AP)—Theft of jewels valued at $10,000 from the five-story private residence of Mrs. Frances A. Kissel, in East Sixty-seventh street, was disclosed last night by police.

Police said an unsuccessful attempt at robbery in the apartment of Louise Groody, musical comedy actress, was made yesterday morning.

Two Drown as Shark On Hook Upsets Boat

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 7.—(AP)—A large shark caught on a fishing line capsized a rowboat in the treacherous waters south of Descanso Point, Lower California, yesterday, and two men drowned.

Missing Student Found as Hiker

Emilio Pacitti, 15, Duquesne University preparatory school student, missing from his home at 87 Magee street since Monday, was located hitch-hiking through Sewickley early today and detained by police.

Returned to his home here, Pacitti refused to tell his parents why he had left or where he had been. Fears that he had been kidnaped and slain were held by Pacitti's father, who said he had received a letter threatening the boy.

3 Pamphlet Passers Get 5-Day Terms

Three Liberty (W. Va.) men were jailed for five days today pending investigation of their distribution of pamphlets at Forbes street and Braddock avenue yesterday. Michael Stone, 37, organizer for National Miners' Union, said they had come here to arouse interest in a mass meeting to protest electrocution of nine Negroes in Alabama. The others were Nig Bishofer, 48, and Mark Rukavine, 36.

MacDonald Returns, Faces World Issues

LONDON, Jan. 7.—(INS)—Prime Minister J. Ramsay MacDonald returned to London today from Lossiemouth, Scotland, where he had spent the holidays. The Premier went immediately to No. 10 Downing street, where he plunged into consideration of state affairs.

A cabinet meeting was to be called as soon as possible and the problems of taxation, tariff, disarmament and reparations were to be tackled immediately.

Mussolini Lifts Ban On 'Ben Hur' Film

ROME, Jan. 7.—(AP)—Premier Mussolini revoked yesterday a government order halting presentation of the moving picture, "Ben Hur," in 24 houses in Italy. Showing of the film was resumed, but it was understood it cannot be shown again in this country after its present run.

The picture, filmed in the vicinity of Rome nine years ago, was opposed because it represented the ancient Romans as being cruel.

Judge Musmanno Tries First Case

County Court Judge Michael M. Musmanno tried his first case yesterday, after having ascended the bench Monday. It was a trespass action brought by Fort Pitt Supply Company against Pittsburgh Railways Company, in which the former company alleged that one of its trucks had been damaged by a street car. The jury returned a verdict of $200 for the plaintiff.

McCann's Fresh Foods Pay Dividends in Health

Variety and freshness

VEGETABLES

Specials for the weekend!

Broccoli

bun. 23c

Big bunches! Carefully trimmed! You'll like this member of the cabbage family, served with a great gob of golden butter. Delicious!

Spinach

2 lbs. 15c

Fresh! Crisp! Free from sand! Not a trace of bitterness. Cut up one or two hard boiled eggs in it. Good for the children.

New Carrots

2 bun. 15c

'Tis said, carrots are good for the complexion, so eat oodles of them. Good when diced into a jellied raw vegetable salad.

Red Beets

2 bun. 15c

Tender and finely-flavored! How good they'll taste served cold with a dash of vinegar! or steaming hot swimming in butter.

Heart Celery

2 bun. 39c

New shipment! Just arrived this morning! Bunches trimmed of coarse, outer stalks! You buy only the sweet, crunchy-crisp hearts.

Ice Lettuce

2 hds. 25c

Big, sound heads of crisply-cupped, green leaves from the Imperial Valley. Extra large heads.

Bulk Bargains

that save you real money!

Macaroni or Spaghetti	3 lbs. 25c
Strained Honey	5-lb. pail 75c
Blue Rose Fancy Rice	5 lbs. 25c
Oatmeal or Rolled Oats	5 lbs. 25c
Superior Brick Cheese	lb. 17c
Black Walnut Meats	lb. 79c

A Sale of LAMB

and we don't mean mutton

Legs and Loins

lb. 27c

We don't know just when a lambkin graduates into the grownup class; but we take no chances. When we say we have "lamb" for sale, we mean lamb! You know, there's all the difference in the world in the flavor of lamb and mutton. For Sunday's dinner, could you improve on a leg o' lamb with mint sauce and fluffy mashed potatoes, peas and a crisp salad?

Forequarters of Lamb . . lb. 17c

As a change serve . . . Beef Liver lb. 25c

Liver served with bacon curls makes a quickly prepared dinner that the family will relish once in a while. Liver from Yearling beef is tender and delicious.

For the bacon curls . . Oriole Bacon strip $1

Strips average six to seven pounds each and it's Swift's Bacon! Five thousand pounds were sold last Saturday! Fry it . . . broil it . . . cook vegetables with it.

Here are the sunshine foods . . . low priced!

Butter 'n' Eggs

Tub Butter 3 lbs. $1

This is McCann's famous butter, rich in vitamin "D". You and your children need this extra "sunshine" . . . it's free with every pound of McCann's Butter!

McCann's Roll Butter 3 lbs. 89c

Fresh Eggs 3 doz. $1

The kind of egg you greet at the breakfast table without suspicion. Every member of the family should have at least one egg a day. Brown and white shells.

Shellwhite Fresh Eggs 2 doz. 83c

McCann's Favorite

COFFEE

3 lbs. 49c

Every penny is in the coffee! No need to pay for a tin container every time you buy McCann's coffee . . . it's less than twenty-four hours from the McCann roaster to you.

FISH

that's a real treat!

Fresh Fillets cut from Baby Haddock lb. 17c

Very different from ordinary fillets . . . cut from Baby Haddock. Fry and serve with a baked potato for a delicious fish dinner.

Stewing Oysters, pt. 29c

Solidly packed cans . . . fresh!

McCANN'S

Diamond at Ferry, Court 4400 — TWO STORES — Highland at Kirkwood, Hiland 8400

This advertisement effective Thursday, Friday, Saturday

Health Food Demonstration Next Week

9 JURORS FIRED AFTER FREEING RUM SUSPECT

Three Women Who Sought to Convict Charge Coercion In Liquor-Running Case

Nine jurors were summarily discharged from further duty in Criminal Court by President Judge James H. Gray after they had found not guilty a man whom state troopers said they had caught transporting liquor. The defendant had not taken the witness stand to deny the charge.

Visiting Judge Norman T. Boose, of Somerset County, before whom the case was tried, declared the verdict to have been miscarriage of justice, and reported the facts to Judge Gray. The latter exonerated three women members of the jury, who declared they had voted for conviction, but said the foreman of the jury had cowed them into changing their vote.

BULLDOZING CHARGED

Judge Gray said:

"It was a clear case of bulldozing. Such jurors are not wanted in the court."

There were six men and six women on the jury, with Leonard Stanton, Negro, laborer, of 2225 Wylie avenue, as foreman. The others dismissed were Mrs. Marcaretha Weiman, rear 136 Brownsville road, Mt. Oliver; Mrs. Sadie Klug, 407 Lydia street, Carnegie; Mrs. Violet Clark, 2610 High street, Harrison Township; James W. Armstrong, Highland avenue, Cheswick; Fred Badke, 102 Martsolf avenue, West View; Orville L. Dally, 1416 Duffield avenue, Pittsburgh; William A. Gehring, 3216 Grace street, Munhall, and Gottlieb Schwartz, 522 East Ninth avenue, Tarentum.

ACCUSED BY TROOPERS

They had tried Frank Witte, farmer, of Cheswick, arrested for transporting liquor October 28 by State Trooper P. A. Rittleman, who, with other troopers, testified they followed Witte's car and arrested him in a Springdale restaurant while delivering a can of moonshine in a sack. Eight empty one-gallon cans were in his car, they testified.

Instead of putting Witte on the stand, Attorney Esler W. Hays went at once to the jury with his argument. It found Witte not guilty, but directed that he pay the costs, amounting to $73.39.

(Advertisement)

ENDS ASTHMA AGONY OF 6 YRS. IN 24 HOURS

New Prescription Works Wonders. Trial Supply Sent FREE.

"For 6 years I suffered the terrible tortures of asthma, gasping, strangling, choking, coughing and wheezing. Tried everything, but only temporary relief.

"Then a new prescription came into my hands. It stopped all choking and gasping almost instantly. Within 24 hours I could lie down and sleep in comfort all night long. It was really astonishing how soon I got well and I haven't had one attack since. My recovery was so complete that I had no trouble getting a $10,000 life insurance policy. The doctor couldn't find a trace of asthma.

"If you suffer in a similar way this new prescription should quickly end your asthma tortures as it did mine. Try it. I will gladly send you a generous trial supply FREE. Write today to O. W. Dean, 211-B Dean Bldg., Benton Harbor, Mich."

Colds on the chest may mean serious congestion. This congestion in bronchial tubes and air passages must be relieved by bringing fresh blood to the congested parts. Rubbed in freely, the deeply penetrating qualities of BAUME BENGUE (pronounced Ben-Gay) stimulate outer-chest circulation, lessen deeper congestion and usually breaks the cold up over night.

Ben-Gay relieves the pains of rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica and neuritis quickly and safely without harmful drugs. Ben-Gay has been prescribed for over 30 years, for every pain of nerve and muscle. Ask for Ben-Gay and do not accept weaker substitutes.

Ask for Ben-Gay
The Original Baume Bengué

(Advertisement)

End Rheumatism Lemon Juice Helps

A good, reliable way to stop rheumatic pain, no matter how acute or chronic, is to add the juice of four lemons to a package of the REV PRESCRIPTION, which can easily be mixed in your home. This simple and economical home remedy has helped thousands to banish rheumatism, neuritis and muscular Pain. This mixture makes a full quart of the best medicine money can buy. Costs only a few cents a day. Shows results in 48 hours. It is for sale, recommended and guaranteed by all Mayflower Drug Stores, Dow Drug Stores, and other leading druggists.

PITTSBURGH TO
New York City by TELEPHONE
$1.50
After 8.30 P. M. only
85c
See page 1 of your Telephone Directory

Check . . . and Double Check . . . Your Shirt Supply!

HORNE'S Shirt Sale

The Public Has Been Confiding in Us

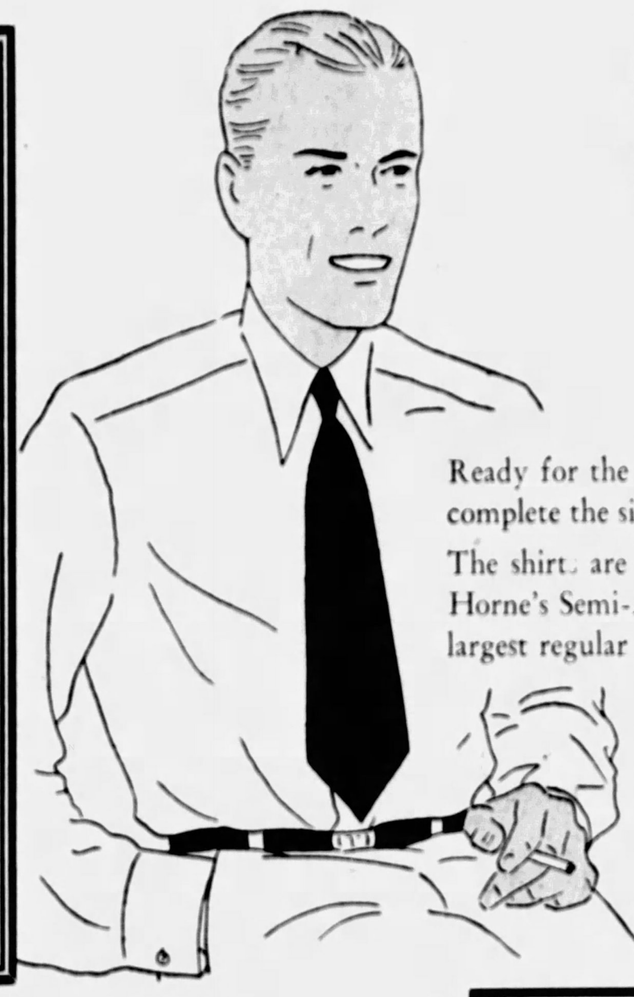
On the eve of the New Year, we mailed thousands of questionnaires to people all over Allegheny County to ask their merchandise wants of the near future, and to ascertain the qualities and prices they are seeking.

The replies pouring in daily are bringing us specific answers to these questions, and many helpful and interesting suggestions besides.

These questionnaires were sent to names chosen at random, on a geographical and income basis, from a mailing list of more than one hundred thousand names, and represent a true cross-section of the entire shopping public.

Our buyers are already in the market acting upon leads obtained from the earliest returns.

Watch our advertisements daily for these Customer's Sales that will bring you the things you have asked for, at the prices—and sometimes less—that you've said you want to pay.



$1.25 EACH

Ready for the second day's selling with reserve stocks brought out to complete the size and pattern assortment.

The shirts are every inch the high type that Pittsburgh looks for in Horne's Semi-Annual Sale. They are made to our specifications by our largest regular resource and at this new low price represent the finest values we have ever offered in this event.

The styles and patterns were selected after careful study of men's preferences this season. All colors are guaranteed fast. All broadcloths are pre-shrunk

If you failed to get yours today, check over your shirt needs and be here bright and early tomorrow!

... The Men's Store, Main Floor ...

Take Notice, Wearers of Foot Saver Shoes

Regularly $10.50 and $12.50 . . . .

$7.85

Tomorrow we inaugurate a Clearance of these widely known shoes, at a very special price for these standard qualities.

The group includes several hundred pairs from our regular stocks, augmented with new models from the manufacturer. All are extremely smart styles in popular types—all with the built-in metal arch and combination last which "fit the foot in motion" and have made Foot Savers famous for comfort-with-smartness.

Step-in pumps, one-straps, and oxford styles—black and brown kid, black and tan calf. Not all sizes in every style—but all sizes (4 to 9) and widths (AAAAA to C) are well represented in the group.

... Horne's, Fourth Floor ...

Semi-Annual Markdown

Men's Suits Overcoats

$29 Overcoats and Two-Trouser Suits
$21

$50 Hand-Tailored Overcoats and Suits
$36

$37 Overcoats and Two-Trouser Suits
$28

$65 Deluxe Suits and Overcoats
$46

The twice-a-year opportunity to buy Horne's regular stock clothing at deep reductions. Wide choice of materials in men's and youngfellows' models—all sizes in each price group.

... The Men's Store, Third Floor ...

Fine Coats

That Have Been $100 to $175

$75

Now, a large, varied group of our finer coats for women come down to this moderate figure, offering a delightful treat to seekers of luxury "at a price." . . . Many of the coats are individual models, and in any case there are but a few of a kind.

Richly trimmed with exquisite qualities of Persian lamb, mink, beaver, natural lynx, kolinsky, red fox, blue-dyed fox, Hudson seal (dyed muskrat), cocoa squirrel.

Misses' Coats, a limited number of fine ones, also have been reduced to this price.

... Horne's, Women's and Misses' Coat Sections, Second Floor ...

Order Awnings Now and Save 15%

This special discount will be applied to all orders for new awnings received this month.

With 1932 prices for awning materials considerably lower than last year it's worth while to look ahead to spring needs. Awnings will be billed to you when delivered.

... Horne's, Fourth Floor ...

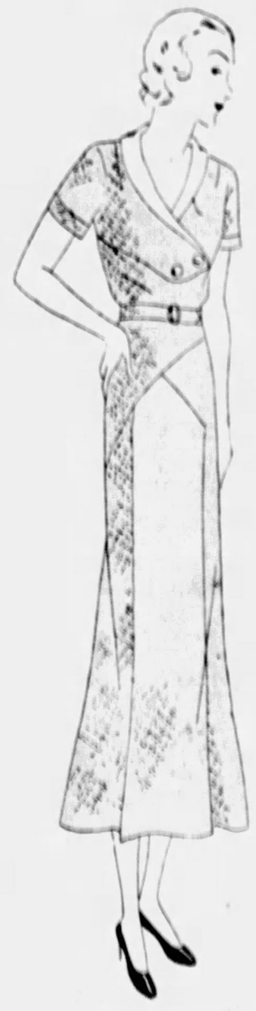
Take a Course of Golf Lessons

Keep in form—keep the old eye sharp and the swing well oiled, with a few sessions in Horne's golf cage under the expert tutelage of "Jock" Sutherland, assistant pro at Fox Chapel.

A card entitling the holder to a series of ten lessons is $10—individual lessons in proportion.

Drop in any time—Mr. Sutherland is here every day—or phone COurt 3000, Golf Shop, for an appointment.

... Horne's Golf Shop, Third Floor ...



In the January Sale of All-Day Dresses

Cotton Frocks

$1.75 $2.75

You'll wonder how they could ever be so inexpensive, when once you've seen these lovely new spring prints and spring fabrics! But they're just one of the surprises in this January Sale of All-Day Dresses.

Practical broadcloths in cheerful prints for house wear—sheer prints with a "sunny afternoon" air—new corduroy piques and smart new cotton meshes in sports styles. And their distinctive finishing touches, their careful, accurate sizing are indisputable proof of their fine quality.

Women's and Misses' Styles in Regular and Half Sizes.

All-Day Dress Section, Third Floor

In Mayfair —With— Patricia Pitt

An eastern debutante is in town. And of course she'll be feted. She's Elizabeth McGinley who made her debut in June at Milton, Mass. Elizabeth's father, Thomas A. McGinley, and Mrs. McGinley, of Sewickley Heights, will give a small dinner for her in the Allegheny Country Club Saturday night to be followed by dancing. Elizabeth arrived Tuesday morning from Boston and will return early next week.

* * *

News of a wedding of great interest here comes from Reno. Mrs. Madeline Horne West, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth M. Horne of New York and Pittsburgh, became the bride of James Madison Austin of New York Tuesday.

Mrs. Austin is a sister of Franklin J. Horne and Mrs. Howard Voss of New York, and a niece of Mrs. B. F. Jones, Jr., and a cousin of Mrs. Maitland Alexander of Sewickley Heights.

Mr. Austin was captain of infantry with the 80th Pioneer Regiment in the Argonne during the World War. He was educated at St. Luke's School, Wayne, Pa., Davidson College, North Carolina, and the Wharton School of Business at the University of Pennsylvania.

Married In Reno

* * *

Attracting many of the social set will be the First Pittsburgh appearance of Mary Wigman at Carnegie Music Hall tomorrow night in a program of primitive, classical and modern dances.

To See Dancer

Patronesses for the event include such well-known people as Mrs. George E. Shaw, Mrs. S. N. Benham, Mrs. Sidney A. Chalfant, Mrs. Clarence B. Brenneman, Mrs. Donald Clark, Mrs. J. C. Bradley, Mrs. Lewis M. Alpern, Mrs. William Walker, Mrs. Charles L. Taylor, Miss Dorothy Black, Miss Irene Stewart, Mrs. William M. Robinson and Mrs. Enoch Rauh.

Others are Melus Rhodes, Betty Nicholson, Mrs. Howard A. Noble, Glendinning Keeble, Mrs. R. W. Harbison, Percival A. Hunt, Mrs. Robert L. Finlayson, Mrs. H. B. Rust, Mrs. Charles Dreifus, Mrs. Daniel M. Clemson, Miss Elizabeth Craft, Miss Ella L. Bascom, Mrs. E. J. House, Miss Edith A. Bower, Dr. Bernard Cohn, Mrs. J. W. Campbell, Mrs. Owen Stephens, Miss Charlotte Smith, Miss Helena V. Beegle, Mae Henderson Canon, Mrs. A. B. Pergament, Miss Florence Trimble, Miss Ida Spruiter, Miss Marie Carroll, Mrs. E. Bramson, Mrs. P. H. Colker, Miss Nina M. Browning, Miss Helene Welker, Mrs. T. Carl Whitmer, Mrs. M. Snyderman, Miss Lillian Mosher, Miss Ruth McCollough, Miss Jean McGirr, Miss Mary McCarthy, Mrs. E. S. Cook and Mrs. William J. Powell.

* * *

Among the mid-winter weddings to interest Pittsburgh society will be that of Mary Ellen Rheutan of Cleveland and Joseph Hayes Girdler, son of the Tom Mercer Girdlers of Cleveland, recently of Sewickley. The ceremony will take place in Cleveland February 6.

Evelyn Doris Runger To Wed Tarentum Man

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Runger, of Mt. Lebanon, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Evelyn Doris Runger, to J. Glenn Wolford, son of Mrs. Alice Wolford, of Tarentum. Miss Runger is a graduate of Muskingum College and her fiance of the University of Pittsburgh. No date has been named for the wedding.

Patricia Pitt's Comment on Society Happenings

CLUB TO GIVE VALENTINE PARTY

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

MISS HELEN PENDLETON . . . HER WEDDING SET FOR JAN. 23

Miss Pendleton, daughter of Maj. and Mrs. Alexander G. Pendleton, who has set January 23 as the date of her wedding to J. Boyd McKown. Miss Pendleton made her debut in November, 1929.

Juniors of Braddock Preparing For Affair on February 9; To Meet on Tuesday

Although its January meeting has not yet been held, plans are already under way for the valentine party which the Braddock Junior Woman's Club will have on February 9. The meeting for this month is set for Tuesday evening in Mrs. Charles Geisler's home, Hawkins avenue, North Braddock. The hostess will be assisted by Miss Clara Edwards and Miss Helen Westland.

At roll call the girls will respond with New Year's resolutions. Mrs. John McFarland will give a book review. Miss Florence Davis will discuss "Politics and Will Rogers." Miss Lorna Oakley will quote from Arthur Brisbane's column "Today," in the Sun-Telegraph. Miss Westland will review Mary Roberts Rinehart's autobiography, and Mrs. William Elkin will complete the program with the fifth chapter of the original story being written by club members.

* * *

The Rev. F. C. McCown, pastor of the Mt. Lebanon United Presbyterian Church, will address the Southern Club tomorrow afternoon, speaking on "The American Home."

Dr. McCown

Mrs. Jacob Simpson Payton, chairman of the music and art committee of the Twentieth Century Club is being assisted this afternoon by her vice chairman, Mrs. William P. Witherow, and Mrs. Daniel M. Clemson. Mrs. J. Hanson Rose, Mrs. Frederic I. Merrick and Mrs. Howard A. Noble. Today's event is the recital by Frederic Baer, baritone.

* * *

As a benefit for the Montefiore Aid Society, Mrs. Birdie Feldbaum and Miss Mariom Davis will be hostesses at a bridge party Saturday evening in the Morrowfield Apartment Hotel. Important business will come up at the society's board meeting in the Y. M. and W. H. A. on Monday evening.

* * *

Dr. Benjamin H. Williams, of the University of Pittsburgh, will lead the international relations round table discussion at Saturday's meeting of the American Association of University Women in the Women's City Club. Dr. Williams will have "The Disarmament Conference" as his subject. Dr. Earnest George Kuhlman, of the Children's Hospital, will speak at 2:30 on "The Well Baby Clinic in Pittsburgh." The social hour at 4 will be under the direction of Mrs. D. Elizabeth Hill and her aides.

A.A.U.W. Meeting

* * *

A committee composed of Mme. Paul Purchard, L. Weber, M. Carroll and H. E. Walker will hereafter direct the musical and dramatic programs for Le Foyer Francais. Mr. Weber is planning novel entertainment for Wednesday evening, January 27.

The Rodef Shalom Sisterhood is bringing Mrs. Alice Singer Trier to Pittsburgh for its anual reciprocity day on January 21. Although only in her twenties, Mrs. Trier has gained a wide reputation as a speaker. She is to talk on "Youth's Point of View" here. The concluding meeting of the sisterhood's child study class will take place Monday afternoon and will be addressed by Rabbi B. Benedict Glaser.

Eastern Speaker

Court Allegheny Plans Benefit Saturday

On Saturday afternoon, Court Allegheny, Catholic Daughters of America, will hold a card party in the auditorium of Oppenheim-Collins for the benefit of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

Miss Elizabeth Grady is general chairman.

* * *

The members of the Edgewood Country Club will hold a card party tomorrow evening at the club. Mrs. J. H. McGrady, Jr., is chairman of the affair.

* * *

Israel Hahn, of Pittsburgh, sailed from Baltimore for Europe yesterday on the City of Havre.

* * *

Miss Marie Louise Forrester, of Tulsa, Okla., has left for Columbus, O., after having been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. R. Nuttall, Jr., of the North Side. Last week she appeared at the Penn Theater with the Rodion Dancers.

* * *

Pittsburghers who sailed from Baltimore on Tuesday on the steamship Chatham for Miami, Fla., included Mrs. Anna G. Pulson, J. P. McTighe, Mrs. E. G. Cole, Jr., Otto Hensel, Daniel Matter and Mrs. Minerva Altman, of Manor, Pa.

Miss Dora Kades Engaged To Wed Dr. Harry Ruth

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kades, of Wayne street, Harrisburg, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dora Kades, to Dr. Harry Ruth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ruth, of Richmond, Va.

Miss Kades is a graduate of State Teachers' College, Indiana, Pa., and attended the University of Pittsburgh. Dr. Ruth is a graduate of the Medical College of Virginia and attended Virginia Polytechnic Institute. No date has been announced for the wedding.

Drama League Hears O'Neill Play Analyzed

A smartly dressed audience of nearly 400 persons, members of the Pittsburgh Drama League and their friends, heard Alan Scott, of the Theater Guild, speak in the Hotel Schenley ball room last night. Mr. Scott analyzed the O'Neill play "Mourning Becomes Electra," which will open at the Nixon Theater January 18.

CLUB NOTES

Miss Grace Woodrow, of Morals Court, is to address the Emsworth Parent-Teacher Association tomorrow afternoon in the school auditorium. Mrs. Roy Sayre will have charge of the music.

* * *

The annual New Year's tea which the Alumni Association of Margaret Morrison Carnegie College holds in honor of the senior class is set for Saturday afternoon in the recreation hall of the college. Receiving with the president of the association, Mrs. W. H. Harrold, will be Miss Eleanor Riesmayer and Miss Barbara White, vice presidents, and the officers of the senior class.

To Honor Seniors

* * *

While committees under the leadership of Mrs. Albert P. Burchfield, general chairman of the annual budget appeal of the Young Women's Christian Association of Pittsburgh for $133,000 are being organized, members of the "Y" are holding their annual election for board of directors. The election results will be announced next Thursday evening at the opening dinner meeting of the annual city-wide canvass. Board candidates are: Miss Ida M. Allerton, Mrs. Albert P. Burchfield, Mrs. E. E. Cole, Mrs. D. J. Kennedy, Mrs. Walter C. Leonard and Mrs. John R. McCune, for three-year term, and Mrs. Thomas H. Eddy, Mrs. Harry F. Bauman, Mrs. Robert D. Campbell and Miss Edna Love are nominating committee candidates.

Holding Election

* * *

Under auspices of the flower committee of the B'Nai Israel Sisterhood, the second annual bridge-luncheon will be held Monday for the benefit of the flower fund.

* * *

The Bradford Woods Woman's Club will meet in the home of Mrs. John Scott tomorrow evening. Mrs. Edgar Jackson will assist the hostess.

* * *

A program that was a bit different was given by the Fortnightly Review of Mt. Lebanon yesterday under the caption, "The American Melody." Mrs. H. B. McBeth, to her own accompaniment and through a monologue, introduced the program. Mrs. Lucille Miller Werner sang a group of Negro spirituals; Mrs. M. L. Gardner sang Indian music and, to Mrs. McBeth's accompaniment, Mrs. M. S. Kimmel read Longfellow's "Hiawatha." Mrs. W. E. McKnight, of Gaylord avenue, was hostess.

Unusual Program

* * *

An interesting afternoon was enjoyed by the Edgewood Woman's Club yesterday when Chaplain A. E. Fletcher, of the Western Penitentiary, spoke on "Reclaiming the Criminal" and Mary Colcord Estpep sang, with Mrs. James H. Early accompanying.

FREE WITH EACH PERMANENT WAVE FREE
A WONDERFUL SKIN REJUVENATING FACIAL!
For a Short Time Only!

LA MAREE PERMANENT WAVE $1.25 Long or Short Hair
MR. De COSTANTINO
Famous ladies' hair cutter is now associated with this shop—his many friends and patrons are invited to visit him.
Extra Special! Any style of ladies' or children's hair cutting 25c
GLORIA WAVE $2.50
Open Evenings Except Wed. & Sat.
ROOSEVELT BEAUTY SHOPPE
601 PENN AVE., 2nd Floor, ATlantic 5197

Straw + Ribbon
Fashion's Newest TURBANS
2.45
"How do you do it at 2.45?" delighted customers ask. That's our secret, but here they are in brown, tile, green, Nassau blue and black.
FOURTH FLOOR
MEYER JONASSON'S

Resolution
Decide to join our Christmas Club To-Day

A CLASS FOR EVERY PURSE

Class 5—5c the first week and increasing 5c each week for 50 weeks ... $63.75
Class 5A—$2.50 the first week and decreasing 5c each week for 50 weeks ... $63.75
Class 10—10c the first week and increasing 10c each week for 50 weeks ... $127.50
Class 10A—$5.00 the first week and decreasing 10c each week for 50 weeks ... $127.50
Class 25—25c each week for 50 weeks ... $12.50
Class 50—50c each week for 50 weeks ... $25.00
Class 100—$1 each week for 50 weeks ... $50.00
Class 200—$2 each week for 50 weeks ... $100
Class 300—$3 each week for 50 weeks ... $150
Class 500—$5 each week for 50 weeks ... $250
Class 1000—$10 each week for 50 weeks ... $500
Class 2000—$20 each week for 50 weeks ... $1,000

Plus 4% on payments made regularly

The DOLLAR SAVINGS BANK
Assets over $50,000,000.00
The only mutual savings bank in Pittsburgh
338-344 FOURTH AVENUE
Pittsburgh, Pa.

Reduced Fares Over Sunday
$6.00 Round Trip New York
$5.00 Round Trip Philadelphia
Saturday, January 9
SPECIAL TRAIN OF ALL STEEL COACHES

Leave Pittsburgh	7.50 pm
Leave East Liberty	8.02 pm
Leave Wilkinsburg	8.07 pm
SUNDAY, JANUARY 10
Arrive North Philadelphia	5.13 am
Arrive New York (Penna. Station)	7.25 am
RETURNING
Leave New York (Sunday, January 10)	7.20 pm
Leave North Philadelphia	9.17 pm

Arriving Pittsburgh early Monday morning
Pennsylvania Railroad

THE NEW For MAID & MATRON

DRESSES
To Wear Right Now and Thru the Spring
15.50

You distinguished wearers of sizes 36 to 42! Join in our cheers for the dress sketched left. It's the truly handsome type never found under $25. Feel the weight of the heavy Canton crepe. Note the richness of the eggshell lace on black.

Sketches to the right with jacket on or off pack most of the bright new notions into one smart ensemble. The brief jacket, molded tight, the sling scarf, the combination of sheer wool and silk. Black with lime, eggshell, banana, red, black or grey print. One of each, so hurry! Other thrill givers include Roshanara ensembles, resort colors, trick wee jackets, stunning prints, tight under-sleeves with short-sleeved jackets. Sizes 14 to 42.

SECOND FLOOR

MEYER JONASSON'S

COLORED WOOL FROCKS TO BE POPULAR FOR EARLY SPRING

Sketched in Paris

Paris Bureau, Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

PARIS, Jan. 7.—If you think that wool is all wound up, now that early spring things are in the air, you are very much mistaken. For the wool frock is more popular than ever, with houses showing them and women buying them quite as a matter of course. There's nothing more useful than a wool dress, however it be made, that is, entirely simple, or else with a wealth of unobtrusive yet very smart detail. The latest type is favored here and one sees such frocks at lunch time at the very smartest places, worn by the very smartest women. As wool sheds its heavy weight and texture, it also sheds its sombre outlook and so we enjoy wool frocks done in bright, even vivid colors. And the bright green or red frock in woolen will be all the go for early spring wear. Color is a grand thing and we certainly all do need cheerful notes right now. And since we have all learned to handle a color and subdue it to our own type, it has lost its only drawback.

* * *

IN THE DRAWING are sketches of two woolen frocks done in bright colors and worn at luncheon at a very smart restaurant, the Grand Vatel. To the left is a green wool frock, simple but devastatingly smart. The tailored bodice opens over a white silk pique vest with a round flat collar finished by a bow of the green dress fabric. The three box-pleats on the skirt are stitched halfway down before being released. Across the front only is a narrow box-pleated peplum.

* * *

THE OTHER FROCK is by Vionnet and is of lightweight wool in bright red. The draped collar is formed by using a long scarf of the material and attaching it in front to the top of the vertical panel on the bodice, the scarf being softly draped in folds. The panel on the bodice widens to a real godet on the skirt. Black suede makes the belt which fastens in back with an enamel buckle in red and black. The bishop sleeve is gathered in at the wrist with a group of folds. Although only a brief description has been given of this model, a study of the sketch will quickly reveal the individuality and wealth of the treatment.

(Copyright, 1932, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Macfarlane Names 3 New Tipstaffs

Three new tipstaffs appointed in Common Pleas Court by President Judge James R. Macfarlane are Charles F. McIntosh, 609 River avenue, Avalon; Owen H. Garrison, Wilkinsburg, and Carl Egner, 380 Lehigh avenue. They succeed the Rev. George J. Buck, who died recently, and John W. Williams and Thomas W. Conway, retired.

DAULER-CLOSE FURNITURE CO.

REORGANIZATION SALE

Prices Reduced

50% to 75%

FINE FURNITURE

Lamps - Oriental Rugs

Selling At Less Than Cost

636-638 SMITHFIELD ST.
PITTSBURGH

LEVEE BREAK FLOODS TOWNS

GLENDORA, Miss., Jan. 7.—(AP.)—The flood-swollen Tallahatchie River has torn through the levee at Twilight, Miss., and a blanket of water was spread over Southeastern Tallahatchie County today towards Tippo, Macel, Sharkey and Paynes.

These villages are across the river from Glendora. The break, a gap of 35 feet, through which a 12-foot wall of water burst last night, was expected to relieve the river pressure here and at points south.

As refugees deserted the newly-swamped areas, residents to the north sought the body of a Negro farmer, Amos Smith, who was drowned in Cassidy Bayou, north of Webb, yesterday as he attempted to save a herd of 20 mules. That area already has 50,000 acres inundated by back water.

Los Angeles Gets Chrysler Auto Plant

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 7.—(INS.)—An automobile assembly plant costing more than $2,000,000 and providing employment for several thousand men was announced yesterday by Walter P. Chrysler, head of the corporation. The plant will occupy more than 30 acres within the city limits.

Card Party to Help Fourth Ward Relief

Weekly dances are to be continued by the Fourth Ward Relief Fund, with a charity card party arranged for Tuesday, to raise funds for needy families in the district. The dances are held each Saturday night at 218 Oakland avenue. Tuesday's affair will be held in the same hall.

Deliciously Different Chops

Try this famous recipe

Split a chop so it will open like a book. Spread inside generously with Gulden's Prepared Mustard. Close sides, fasten with two toothpicks, and cook slowly with some butter, basting frequently. Serve with pan gravy. Your family will be enthusiastic over this recipe of Roger Cretaux, Chef of Hotel Roosevelt. Gulden's makes simple dishes taste twice as good!

GULDEN'S mustard

USE AS A SEASONING IN COOKING 15¢

go after that COLD

QUICK AND HARD!
Don't "fool" with your cold. Treat it promptly—this quick, sure way. Go straight to the nearest drug store. Ask for Mentholatum. Use it immediately and clear your head in a hurry.
Put just a bit in each nostril. Then you can breathe again! Rub Mentholatum vigorously into your throat and chest to prevent or break up congestion. Buy Mentholatum now! Use it now—for quick action!
MENTHOLATUM
MENTHOLATUM
30¢ IN TUBE OR JAR
MENTHOLATUM
for chapped skin

Awnings Fifteen Per Cent Off Regular Prices

ROSENBAUM'S
SIXTH, LIBERTY & PENN
ATLANTIC 4500

STORE HOURS.
9 A. M. to 5:30 P. M.
Saturdays to 6 P. M.

JANUARY SALES

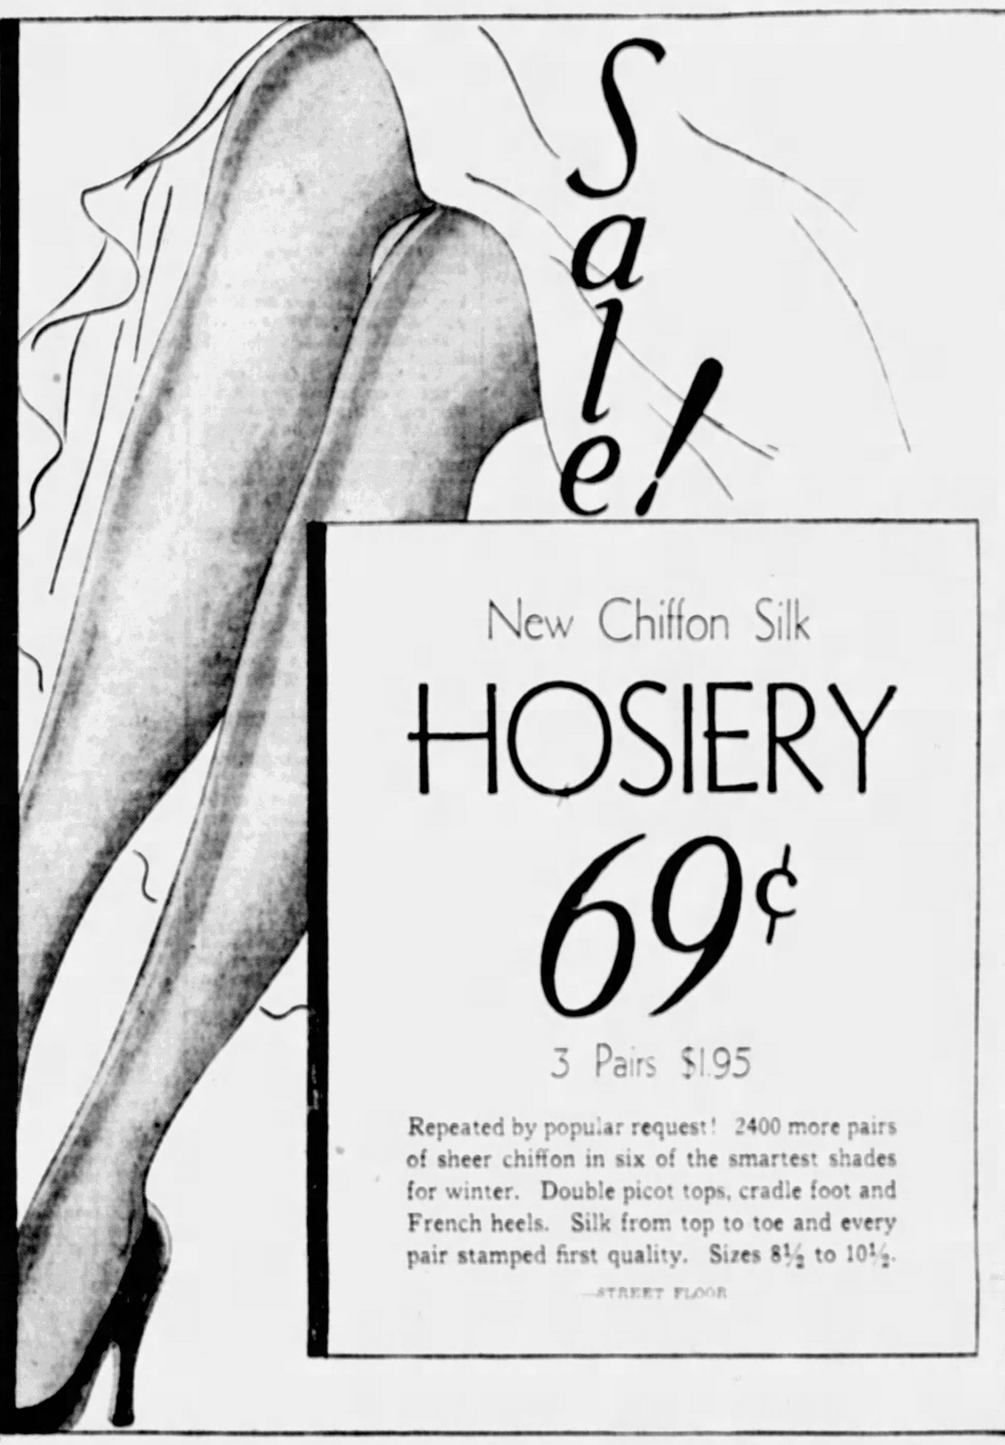
New Printed RAYON Crepes

59c Yd.

New! Special Purchase of Regular 95c Quality

Brand new 1932 prints . . . attractive designs and colorings . . . similar to fabrics right now in our own stock at 95c a yard. Green, brown, navy, copen and black grounds. Washable. 39 inches wide.

—FOURTH FLOOR



Sale!

New Chiffon Silk HOSIERY

69¢

3 Pairs $1.95

Repeated by popular request! 2400 more pairs of sheer chiffon in six of the smartest shades for winter. Double picot tops, cradle foot and French heels. Silk from top to toe and every pair stamped first quality. Sizes 8½ to 10½.

—STREET FLOOR

Men's Necktie Party

. . . Now On! Thousands of hand-tailored, margin silk-faced ties. Hundreds of beautiful new patterns—figures, stripes and plain colors. Regularly $1 and $2.50. Special at . . . . . 55¢

—STREET FLOOR

Friday Specials

RUGS

Regularly $24.75 to $27.50

$19.75

Velvet and Axminster Rugs in Four Room Sizes . . . 6x9, 7.6x9, 8.3x10.6, and 9x12 ft.

$1.95 Axminster and Velvet Carpets, for rooms, halls and stairs, yd. $1.00
Inlaid Linoleum, square yard 97c
Felt Base Floor Cloth, square yard 39c
9x18 Rubber Stair Treads, 6 for $1.00
27x54 Rag Rugs 79c

—NINTH FLOOR

½ off SALE

Humphreys Radiant GAS HEATERS

Closing out entire stock—limited number in each group

$15.00 Humphrey's Radiant Heater $7.50
$16.50 Humphrey's Radiant Heater $8.25
$22.00 Humphrey's Radiant Heater $11.00
$23.50 Humphrey's Radiant Heater $11.75
$49.00 Humphrey's Radiant Heater $24.50
$45.00 Humphrey's Radiant Heater $22.50
$25.00 Humphrey's Radiant Heater $12.50

—EIGHTH FLOOR

Marquisette Curtains

Ruffled Curtains with full Priscilla tops and smart tailored curtains. Figured marquisette, some with colored figures. Tailored Curtains with valance . . . all 2¼ yds. long. $1.00

—NINTH FLOOR

CITY WED -:- Story of a Young Married Couple Caught in Big City's Net -:- By FAITH BALDWIN

Bill Gets Several Tempting Offers for Advancement In His Business

(Continued from Yesterday)

CHAPTER XVII.

Bill went over to Nevis and lifted her out of her long wicker chair. She was wearing the gay, thin, floppy pajamas which Della had sent out to her. She looked cool and young, and her very short hair was curled as tightly as a child's over her little head. She was tanned; and because by experimenting, she had found the lotions best suited to her skin, and to the ravages of the climate, her skin was as smooth and fresh as a child's. Bill said, sitting down with her in his arms, "I don't see how you do it. You look marvelous and you've so much energy."

"I had it all along," she told him, "but I wouldn't put it to work. I was too busy being sorry for myself. I had lost interest in everything."

"In me—?"

"No. Never in you. But—I wasn't sure of myself where you were concerned. Olive. Linda. Everything. And because I wasn't sure I—just sort of crawled into a hole and pulled it in after me."

"Sure now?"

"Yes, I'm sure," she said. "Bill, do you know, I love it here—with you?"

He said, deeply moved:

"You—darned little wonder! Come on, I've got a new book on white sugar making. Borrowed it from Hayes. I'll go in and take a shower and put on pyjamas—though not, I regret, as giddy as yours—and we'll go in and read. What say?"

Summer came and went. A happy summer, serene and still and terribly hot. But Nevis laughed at the heat. "Do your worst!" challenged Nevis, armed with showers and the thinnest of voile lingerie and great bottles of eau-de-cologne and round, fat cans of bath powder. She ordered rattan curtains, she kept the shades down, she had electric fans going, she was spendthrift in the matter of ice and there was always coffee extract and lime juice and rounds of fresh pineapple for Bill when he came in, hot and tired; always clean linen laid out and a couch made soft with cool pillows for him to rest on, while Maria got supper.

BECOMING ACCLIMATED

Hayes said, coming often to dinner, while Linda was away:

"You kids have certainly learned a trick or two about being comfortable."

Nevis told him, laughing:

"The sad part of that is that I might have learned it before, but didn't."

She was looking well, if thin. She had found out just how much she could do without overdoing and just how far her nerves would stretch without snapping or fraying. She discovered an excellent Spanish doctor, in Ponce, one of the handsomest men she had ever seen and one of the best physicians. She went to him once a month, and sent Bill to him almost as often.

In the autumn Linda returned. Hayes had gone up a few weeks previously to attend to some business and to bring her back and had left Bill in full charge, with a free hand. And on the boat, returning, were Walter Mason and Margaret, who introduced themselves promptly to the cordial Hayes.

"We haven't let the kids know," Mason said, "we wanted to surprise them."

While Linda and Margaret talked trivialities on the deck, Mason and Hayes sat in the smoking room and talked sugar industry and Bill, mostly Bill.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR BILL

"He's all right," Hayes said. "It looks as if I'll have to spend six months of the year in New York. I'm more than willing to recommend him as general manager, in my absence. And to carry on with it, on my return, as far as that is concerned, as my assistant, see? He's taken a real interest, he's quick, nothing gets by him. He's honest—a rare gift—and he's popular. We can use him here. The question is, will he want to stay? There was more opportunity for Bill in the other company, only he wasn't exactly happy there. I'll amend that. I'll say there would have been more opportunity had the outfit been so organized that a newcomer could get ahead. But it isn't. You don't mind my being comparatively frank at the expense of a rival?"

"No," said Mason. "I don't mind. You see, Nevis, when she was up, told me some things Bill wrote others. I didn't believe 'em. Since then I've seen a chemist who had been fired! Along about the time Bill came down. He talked from the shoulder. I'm beginning to see things. Of course, I can't start in with the big stick. Frankly, it's against my own interests. But I can use my influence to get Bill back on the old job with a freer hand and a different position. But that would mean taking him away from you. And, moreover, I have another thing in mind for him."

"New York?" asked Hayes, shrewdly.

"Yes. Not a lot of money to start, but I'll give him some stock as a sort of bonus, and there's a lot of room at the top. If he wants it."

Hayes said, tinkling the ice in his glass:

"I hate like hell to lose him. But I wouldn't stand in his way. Look here, we'll put it up to him, shall we—and see what he says? And leave it to him?"

He added: "He'd be a fool not to go back to New York. But I won't tell him that," Hayes concluded, grinning.

They wirelessed from the boat. Nevis was at San Juan to meet them. Bill couldn't get off, she said. "Grandstand play," Hayes told her gaily, but well pleased, nevertheless.

They motored back. "Lord, it's grand to see you," Nevis said, holding Margaret Mason's big competent hand in both of her own.

"You look great," Mason told her, "better than you did when you left us, even. How come...?"

She said, smiling, quoting Hayes:

"I've learned a trick or two."

She was perfectly radiant. She had learned more than a trick or two. She had learned something, on the day the Mason's wireless had reached her, which would make all the difference in her life and Bill's.

She asked:

"Uncle Walter, what's up your sleeve?"

"A couple of things," he told her, "but they're up to Bill. For instance, Mr. Hayes wants him to stick around down here; or I can give him a job here with his old outfit, or I can take him back to New York. Which shall it be?"

Nevis was pale under her tan. She said, after a pause:

"You'll have to ask Bill. As you say, it's up to him."

She had that to think about on the trip home. And, arriving, Bill met them, very spick and span, waving a letter. "Hey, folks!" He embraced everyone, regardless of relationship or sex—"Golly, it's good to have you back . . .!" this was to Hayes and Linda . . . "Lord, it's swell seeing you . . .!" this was for the Masons . . . "and I've got a barrelful of news."

Nevis asked, her hand on his arm:

"Who's the letter from?"

"Sam Burton." Bill answered and grinned at her.

She said quickly:

"Sam? We haven't heard from him for ages. Are he and Daisy engaged . . .? actually?"

"They sure are! But that isn't the half of it! Lord, what a host I turned out to be! Let's go into the shack everyone . . ." He turned to the Hayes . . . "You'll want to get along home. But I took the liberty of having Maria and your Conchita fix us up a meal of sorts, here at the house. Why not come in and wash up here and eat with us? You must be dog tired."

"Suits me," said Hayes, looking at Linda.

Supper was a cold one, with cold drinks and hot coffee. Afterwards they sat about on the porch. Linda said: "I'm too comfortable to move, but I must be going on home. Coming, Tim . . .? I must unpack a little before we get to bed, Nevis, you're a lamb. I'm so glad to see you again."

Hayes said: "I'll walk up with you, Linda. But I'll be back. I want to talk to Bill."

When they had gone, Bill said, lighting a cigarette: "Sam wants us to come home. Business has picked up, like a million. They want me back, on the old bond-racket. They'll give me a desk of my own, as I had before and a chance at a partnership. What do you know about that?" he asked beaming.

Walter Mason drew on his pipe and watched the dim smoke float out on the still air. He asked quietly:

"Mean a lot of money, won't it?"

"Up to me, how much. After this experience, gosh, I could sell anybody anything," said Bill. "How about it, Nevis?"

She said, quietly, but her heart pounded:

"You'll have to decide for yourself. Whatever you want to do is all right with me. But Uncle Walter has a proposition for you, too."

Mason said, quickly:

"Two, really. I can place you back in the Guayabal company at an increase of salary and with a much better chance at getting on. But I have a second proposition to make. I can find a place for you in the New York end of our business. An executive-engineering job. Your experience here will be invaluable. I can't promise you more than six thousand a year to start. But you'll go up rapidly. I will put a block of stock in your name. You were to have it when I died anyhow, or rather, Nevis was. You kids might as well have it now. It will mean a little extra income and it will mean you'll feel you're working for yourself. How about it? What do you want to do?"

Bill said, after a moment:

"An embarrassment of riches! Father wants me to come home. I've had a cable. It seems that my beloved cousin isn't doing so well."

Walter Mason suggested casually:

"Don't make up your mind all at once. Your aunt and I are going over to Guayabal tomorrow. You can think it over. I have to stay down here a week or more. Talk it over with Hayes here and with Nevis. And do what you think best."

That night, when the Masons had gone to bed and Hayes had gone on home, Bill and Nevis stayed out on the veranda and watched the palms, darker than the dark sky, and listened to the vague night noises, the sliding sound of lizards on the roof, a distant voice upraised in anger, the wind blowing.

Bill said, on a deep breath:

"Well, talk about being hit all of a heap! Nevis, what do you want me to do?" He leaned forward and took her hands in his own. "Tell me honestly. You must. I know you are happier down here now than you were; more contented. But you don't belong here, really. Look at it this way. If I stay on here, you can be a sort of little Queen Bee in your own right. As Hayes' assistant I'll work up to ten thousand. I'll stay there, there won't be much further to get, you see. Hayes is a young man, and even if he did die there's no guarantee that I'd take his place. These outfits aren't run by inheritance and jobs are entailed. I'm not being callous, you understand; I'm just looking ahead. We could afford trips North for you, and we'd rate a bigger house, a car of our own and more servants. If I go over to the bigger crowd—Uncle Walter's—I'll have a hard time at first, putting it over. They don't like me any too well there. But we'd manage. And after a long time, there might be a chance at a general managership there, too. Owning stock won't hurt, of course. But in the meantime you would go under in a place like that, not from the climate so much—you've learned to beat that pretty well—but from the politics and jealousies and general atmosphere. It isn't half bad here, in the smaller crowd."

(To Be Concluded Tomorrow.)

(Copyright, 1931, by Faith Baldwin. Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Fall of Slate Kills California Miner

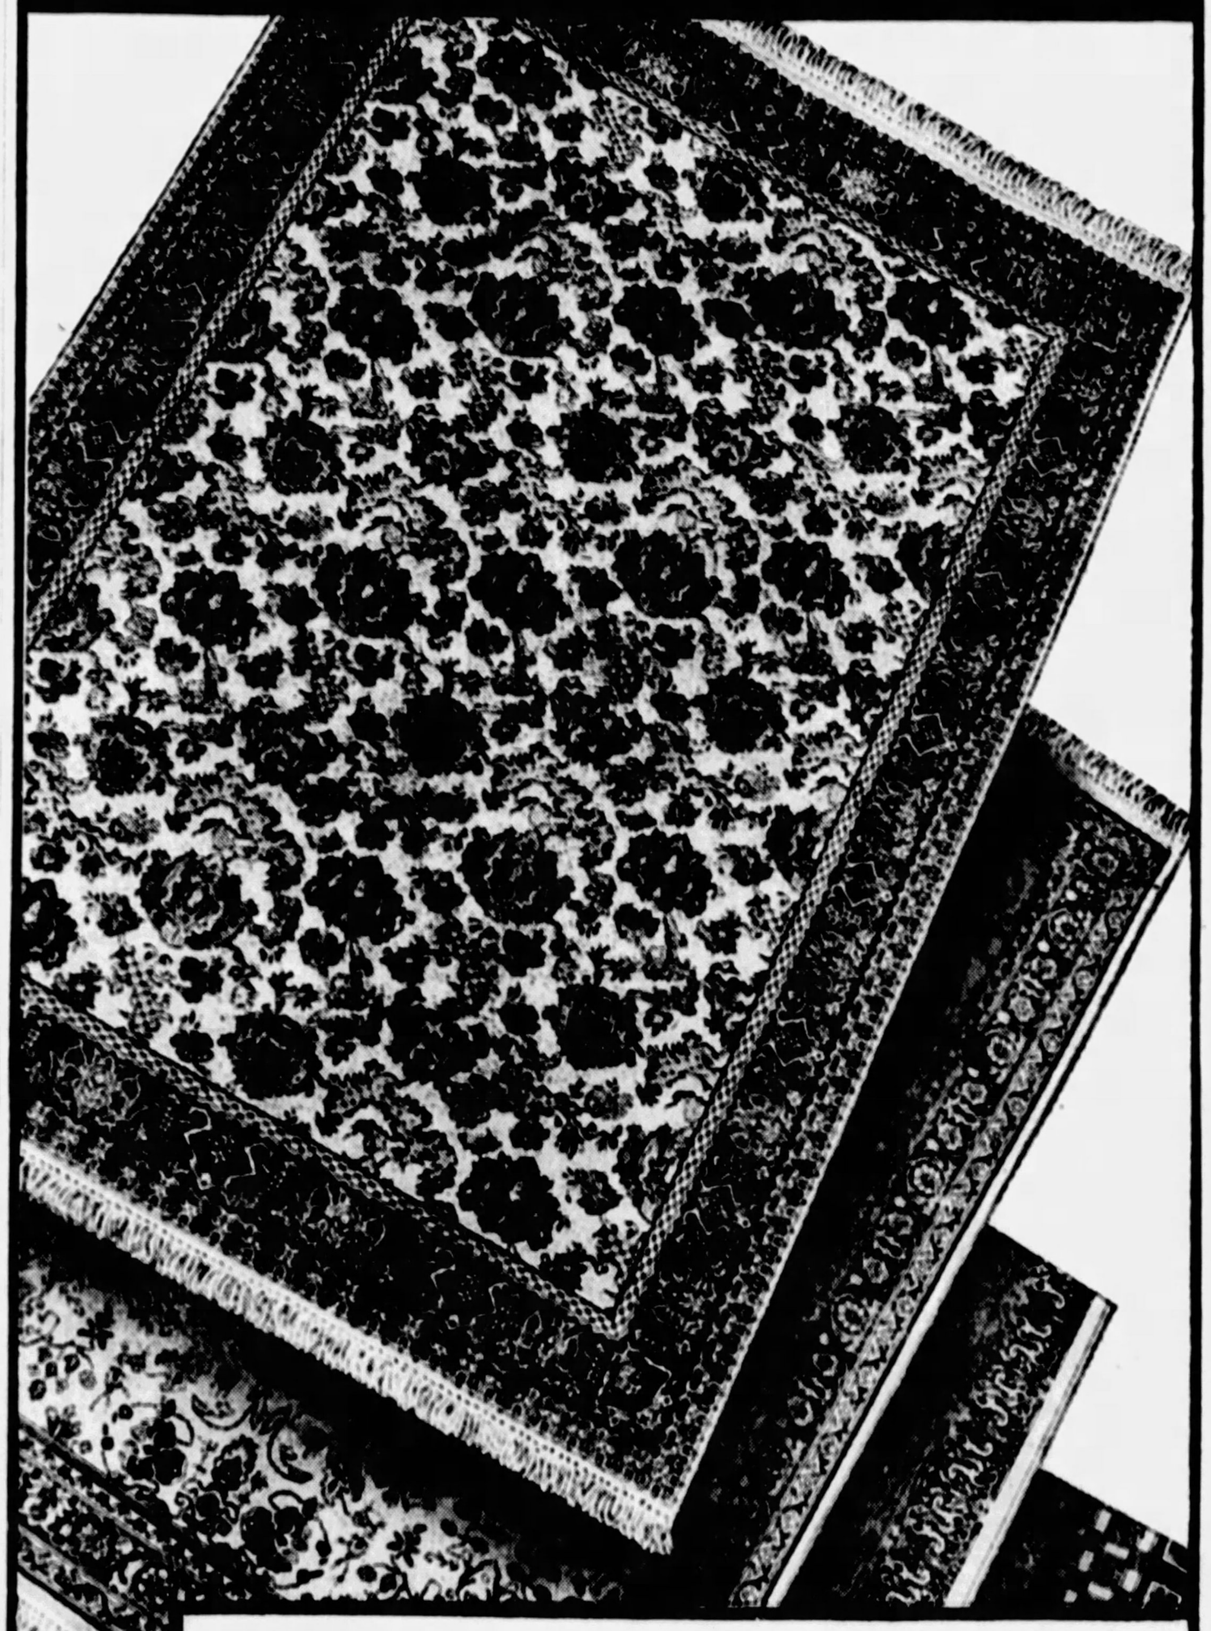
BROWNSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 7.—Crushed under a slate fall in the Vesta No. 4 mine, Adam Petzko, 44, California, was fatally injured. He leaves his wife and five children.

USE 3 TIMES STOP COLDS

Join the thousands who prevent infections through the nose from dust, which cause colds, sinus trouble, catarrh, coughs, by using Kondon's Jelly three times a day. This simple practice will give you a healthy head all winter. Drug stores, 30c and 60c.

KONDON'S QUICK RELIEF FOR NOSE, HEAD AND THROAT

FRANK & SEDER



Challenge Sale Feature!

$45 to $55 ROYAL Wilton Rugs

$29.95

Pittsburgh's Best Value! No Doubt About It!

Size 9x12 feet! Jacquard Weave! Linen Fringed Ends! Here are rugs that will preserve their original beauty for years and years and years . . . and at practically the cost of ordinary Axminsters. Come in and see these Royal Wiltons . . . woven like the most expensive rugs, of 3-ply wool carpet yarns. Note their thick, tight, velvety surface; the close, firm, solid back. Best of all, compare them with other rugs you've seen priced up to $55.

$5 Deposit Holds Any Rug for Future Delivery

FRANK & SEDER—FIFTH FLOOR

Gives you 3 times more for your money yet kills germs in 10 seconds

PEPSODENT ANTISEPTIC goes 3 times as far because it can be diluted with 2 parts of water. That's economy for you. Why waste money on antiseptics that must be used full strength?

WE stress the great economy of Pepsodent Antiseptic because it convincingly proves Pepsodent Antiseptic's unique germ-killing power. When fighting colds, irritated throat and Bad Breath (Halitosis), remember there are really only two leading kinds of antiseptics. On the one hand you have the mouth wash that must be used full strength to be effective. On the other hand you have Pepsodent Antiseptic—utterly safe when used full strength, yet powerful enough to be diluted with two parts of water and still be effective! Pepsodent Antiseptic is at least three times as powerful as other leading mouth antiseptics. Hence it goes three times as far—gives you three times as much for your money—and gives you extra protection against stubborn colds, and throat irritations. When choosing your mouth antiseptic, be sure you choose the one that kills the germs even when diluted with water! Insist on Pepsodent Antiseptic—and be safe! Be safe—and save money!

2 Radio Programs Nightly on N. B. C. (except Sunday) brought to you by Pepsodent. Amos 'n' Andy 7 P. M., KDKA. The Goldbergs 7:45 P. M., WCAE. Tune in Tonight

BAD BREATH (Halitosis)

The amazing results of Pepsodent Antiseptic in fighting colds and sore throat prove its effectiveness in checking Bad Breath (Halitosis). Remember Pepsodent Antiseptic is 3 times more powerful in killing germs than other leading mouth antiseptics. Remember, it kills germs even when diluted with water!

Some of the 50 different uses for this modern antiseptic

Cold in Head
Throat Irritations
Voice Hoarseness
Bad Breath
Cold Sores
Canker Sores
Mouth Irritations
After Extractions
After Shaving
Minor Cuts
Blisters
Loose Dandruff
Checks Under-Arm Perspiration
Tired, Aching Feet

Pepsodent Antiseptic

BESTOR ON NETWORK :-: Yellow Jacket-Bulldog Hockey Broadcast :-: LOIS MORAN ON WCAE

Thursday, January 7

4:45 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Tea Dansante (cont'd).
KDKA—Jack and Jerry Foy, Hill Billies.
WJAS—George Hall (cont'd).
KQV—Songs of the Season.
WWSW—Studio Program.

5:00 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—"The Jungle Man," Carveth Wells.
KDKA—Coffee Matinee.
WJAS—Ross Gorman's Orchestra.
KQV—Melody Parade.
WWSW—Items of Interest.

5:15 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Frances Bowden.
KDKA—Coffee Matinee (cont'd).
WJAS—Ross Gorman (cont'd).
KQV—Melody Parade (cont'd).
WWSW—Book Man; Items of Interest (cont'd).

5:30 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Airs of the Day.
KDKA—Kiddies' Klub, C. A. Wakeman.
WJAS—Cornell Cooper, tenor; Cora Vroom, pianist.
KQV—Sacrat until 7:30 p. m.
WWSW—Song Auction.

5:45 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Russ Colombo and His Orchestra.
KDKA—Weather, Sports Review.
WJAS—Reis and Dunn.
WWSW—Items of Interest.

6:00 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Empire Room Orchestra.
KDKA—Who's News Today; Dispatch; Radio Hill Boy.
WJAS—Sundown Serenader.
WWSW—Music With Your Meal.

6:15 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Empire Room (cont'd).
KDKA—Apex Travelers, directed by Zoel Parenteau.
"March of the Musketeers"
Signature—Chansonette ..... Friml
Les Toreadors, "Carmen Suite" ..... Bizet
La Paloma (requested) ..... De Yradier
When The Moon Comes Over The Mountain (symphonic arrangement) ..... Johnson
March of the Musketeers ..... Friml
Two Hearts Swing in Three-Quarter Time ..... Stolz
At Dawning (requested) ..... Cadman
WJAS—Alicia Fuller, concert pianist.
WWSW—Your Meal (cont'd).

6:30 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Mark Shields on "Politics and Unemployment."
KDKA—Travelers (cont'd).
WJAS—Connie Boswell, songs.
WWSW—Alvin and Teddy Austin.

6:45 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Stebbins Boys.
KDKA—Lowell Thomas.
WJAS—Frank Stretz's Music.
WWSW—Country Store.

7:00 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Lumberjacks.
KDKA—Amos 'n' Andy.
WJAS—Myrt and Marge.
WWSW—Schenley Trio.

7:15 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Charlotte Shallenberger, soprano; Juda D'Ayne, pianist.
KDKA—Jesters.
WJAS—Bing Crosby, baritone.
"I Surrender, Dear"
Now That You're Gone ..... Crosby.
Some of These Days ..... Crosby.
Paseo Moon ..... Orchestra
I Surrender, Dear ..... Crosby.
WWSW—Schenley Trio (cont'd).

7:30 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Weather; Golden Trail of Melody.
KDKA—Westinghouse Pioneers: Zoel Parenteau, director, and male quartet—Gene Baldridge, Dick Fulton, tenors; Reed Kennedy, baritone; Russell Mitchell, bass; Aneurin Bodycombe at the piano.
"Love Sends Roses"
Signature—Vita ..... from "The Merry Widow" ..... Lehar
Excerpts from "The Red Mill" ..... Herbert
Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms ..... Quartet.
At Your Command ..... Barris
Symphonic Arrangement.
Curtain Music.
Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses ..... Openshaw
I Love a Parade ..... Arlen
Quartet and Orchestra.
WJAS—Editing the News.
KQV—Aces of the Air.
WWSW—Behind the Kitchen Door, sponsored by the Baur Baking Company.

7:45 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—The Goldbergs.
KDKA—Zoel Parenteau (cont'd).
WJAS—Quarter-hour with Morton Downey and Anthony Wons.
"Naughty Waltz"
Remembrance ..... Morton Downey.
Windflower ..... Orchestra
Naughty Waltz ..... Morton Downey.
Syncopated Love Song ..... Orchestra
You Are Somebody Else ..... Morton Downey.
KQV—Aces of Air.
WWSW—Ballad Singers.

8:00 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Lois Moran, guest artist; Rudy Vallee's Orchestra.
KDKA—Dixie Songsters.
"Go Down, Moses"
Walk Together Children ..... Chorus
Go Down, Moses ..... Chorus
Angels Watchin' Over Me ..... Chorus
Heaven ..... Chorus
Get On Board, Little Children ..... Chorus

Pittsburgh Stations

245.8m	WCAE	1220kc.
305.9m	KDKA	980kc.
232.4m	WJAS	1290kc.
217.3m	KQV	1380kc.
199.9m	WWSW	1500kc.

COLDS

RUB Musterole well into your chest and throat—almost instantly you feel easier. Repeat the Musterole-rub once an hour for five hours . . . what a glorious relief!

Those good old-fashioned cold remedies—oil of mustard, menthol, camphor—are mixed with other valuable ingredients in Musterole to make it what doctors call a "counter-irritant" because it gets action and is not just a salve.

It penetrates and stimulates blood circulation and helps to draw out infection and pain. Used by millions for 20 years. Recommended by many doctors and nurses. All druggists.

To Mothers—Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

MUSTEROLE
EASIER THAN A MUSTARD PLASTER

WE NOW PRESENT

By DARRELL V. MARTIN, Radio Editor

IRENE HARDING, Pittsburgh girl at NBC, is to play the organ for Morning Devotions (WCAE every morning at 8:15) starting next Monday . . . Captains of the rival teams are to be summoned to the WWSW mic'rophone at 8:15 tonight, previous to Jack Keou h's description of the Yellow Jacket-Windsor Bulldog hockey game . . . The Sun-Telegraph sports analyst is to be assisted by Carl W. Snatto, hockey expert . . . Lois Moran, one of Pittsburgh's contributions t the cinema world, is 'tudy Vallee's guest on WCAE at 8 o'clock . . . People are s'll talking about the Amos 'n' Andy impersonations by Sisters of the Skillet the night of WCAE's dedication . . . the boys a on KDKA at 8:45 tonight . . . and rumor has it that they and Gene and Glenn are due for Pittsburgh theatrical appearances soon . . . Listen for the crash of the cym al in Haydn's "Surpri Symphony" on WCAE at 9 o'clock tonight . . . "Papa" Haydn, the great Austrian composer, and a playful soul, said he injected the cymbal crash to excite the ladies in the audience . . . Lew Conrad with Walter Winchell on WCAE at 10 o'clock and Bobby Rollins, tenor, with the Sun-Telegraph Night Club at 11.

Darrell V. Martin

* * *

Question a Day:

Not long ago you predicted something would happen to the Amos 'n' Andy act. We're waiting. What is it?—Josephine M., Trafford, Pa.

Answer—If they suddenly go off the air about February, don't say this department didn't warn you.

* * *

Bestor on Network

Don Bestor's Orchestra goes network next Monday afternoon from 1:30 until 2 and on Mondays and Fridays thereafter at the same hour . . . KDKA is to feed the program to the blue network . . . The suggestion of broadcasting Bestor was made to Merlin H. Aylesworth, president of NBC, by this column and to John T. Royal, program director of NBC, by Gene Gaudette, Bestor's press agent.

* * *

Father Cox Speech

If arrangements are completed in time, WCAE will broadcast a speech by Father James R. Cox, leader of the unemployment army which visited the Capitol today, at 6:30 tonight. The broadcast will originate in Fredericksburg, Md.

* * *

Studio Lights

Ten beautiful girls of the George White "Scandals" are to sing the hit of the show, "Life Is Just a Bowl of Cherries," for Collier's Hour listeners on KDKA Sunday night . . .

Clark Gable and Marie Dressler are priming for an NBC-WCAE stunt from Hollywood Saturday night at 8 o'clock . . .

We've been asked so many times we must answer . . . Ford Miller played the part of "Popeye" in the WCAE dedicatory program . . . and when he had finished it was Glenn, of Gene and Glenn, who bellowed, "Well, blow me down!"

"If they'd only have television for that new Bath Club series," moans Jim Hughes at WJAS . . .

Jackie Heller, who comes to the Penn tomorrow with Benny Davis' Revue, is the same fellow who dodged mitts at Motor Square Garden some years ago and played the ukulele with Pat Haley on WJAS . . . Jackie, soon to get a contract with CBS, joined big time in 1925 with Art Landry at the old Grand on Fifth avenue.

Is this odd? Four men at the North School on Duquesne way, located in sequential rooms, have first names whose initials spell the call of W-C-A-E . . . they are Walter Donke, Charles Rice, Albert Fornsworth and Edward Vorndran . . .

* * *

Orchestras signing the registry book at KQV are counted as one person, we learn from Roy Verret, who informs us that 43,864 visitors saw the beer mug cartoon in the stipling of Studio A last year . . . The beer mug design is a queeriosity at this station, and one proves that he has visited the station before by designating it in the conglomerous mass of black and silver paint . . . it's a puzzle . . .

Here's a chance for some local station to do listeners a good turn . . . Paul Tremaine's Orchestra is to play at the Pitt Junior Prom on Friday, January 15. . . .

NBC has gone abroad to bring in Supervia, Spanish prima donna soprano, to surprise the boys and girls at Columbia.

Today's Tid Bit:

Lew Abel can't use his car for several days yet—in applying for his 1932 license plates and replying to the question regarding the type of tires, he inserted the word "cushion." The state Automobile Department wrote back and asked if he really had solid truck tires on his car or if he meant "pneumatic." Until Lew gets his corrected application in, he can't use his car.

WWSW—The Bath Club—Margaret Santry will interview Eve Garrette.

"Goin' Home"
Medley ..... Orchestra
Say the Word
Falling in Love
You Forgot Your Gloves
Goin' Home (from "Good Companions") ..... Barbara Maurel
Interview ..... Margaret Santry and Guest
Finale
Wedding of the Birds ..... Orchestra
Quartet Specialty
Unspoken Bliss

KQV—High School Days, directed by Uncle Henry.
WWSW—Studio Program.

8:15 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Rudy Vallee (cont'd).
KDKA—Rin Tin Thriller.
WJAS—Abe Lyman's Band and Glee Club.
KQV—High School Days (cont'd).
WWSW—Hockey Game. Yellow Jackets vs. Windsor Bulldogs, direct from Duquesne Garden.

Parade of Players
Jack Keough, Sun-Telegraph sports analyst, will introduce players of the rival teams before the game. Later he will describe the action, play-by-play.
The hockey game broadcasts are sponsored by the Gulse Furnacing Company.

8:30 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Rudy Vallee (cont'd).
KDKA—Inquiring Reporter.
WJAS—Kate Smith and Her Swanee Music.
"Who's Your Who-zis?"
Home ..... Orchestra
Moonlight Sweetheart
Who's Your Little Who-zis
Curse of an Aching Heart

KQV—Bide Dudley's Column; Variety Time.
WWSW—Hockey Game (cont'd.)

8:45 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Rudy Valle (cont'd)
KDKA—Sisters of Skillet.
WJAS—Angelo Patri, "Your Child."
KQV—Aden K. Lowther, tenor.
WWSW—Hockey Game (cont'd.)

9:00 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Dramatic Musicale.
"Papa" Haydn
With Verdure Clad from "The Creation" ..... Haydn
She Never Told Her Love
Misty Clare
Surprise Symphony—2nd and 3rd Movements
KDKA—Julia Sanderson and Frank Crumit.
"My Heart Stood Still"
Stuck on the Beaters
Julia Sanderson and Frank Crumit
Sometime
Julia Sanderson
Casey Jones
Frank Crumit
Barcarolle
Orchestra
Figure It Out for Yourself
Frank Crumit
My Heart Stood Still
Julia Sanderson and Frank Crumit
I Miss You Most of All
Hello Ma Baby
Frank Crumit
Wrong Number
Julia Sanderson
Marche Andalouse
Orchestra
Way Down in Iowa
Julia Sanderson and Frank Crumit
WJAS—Mills Brothers.
"Nobody's Sweetheart"
Mississippi Mud
Sweet Sue
Concentratin' On You
Rhapsody
Nobody's Sweetheart
KQV—The KQV Players.
WWSW—Hockey Game (cont'd.)

9:15 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Dramatic Musicale (cont'd)
KDKA—Crumit (cont'd.)
WJAS—George Lyle, baritone; May Margaret Hagarty, pianist.
KQV—Players (cont'd.)
WWSW—Hockey Game (cont'd.)

9:30 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Adventures of Sherlock Holmes.
KDKA—Maxwell Ensemble, Lanny Ross, tenor; Don Voorhees' Orchestra; the Songsmiths, Male Quartet; Randolph Weyant and Scrappy Lambert, tenors; Leonard Stokes, baritone; Bob Moody, basso; Ken Christy, accompanist.
"Loves Old Sweet Song"
Moonlight and Roses ..... Lanny Ross
Some Sunday Morning ..... Orchestra
We'll Have a Nice Home in the Morning ..... Quartet
Good Night Moon ..... Orchestra with Tenor Interlude
Love's Old Sweet Song ..... Quartet
She Didn't Say Yes ..... Orchestra
Call Me Darling ..... Lanny Ross
All of Me ..... Orchestra With Tenor Interlude
WJAS—Love Story Drama.
KQV—Jimmy Zummo's Orchestra.
WWSW—Hockey Game (cont'd)

9:45 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Adventures (cont'd).
KDKA—Don Voorhees (cont'd).
WJAS—Love Drama (cont'd).
KQV—Jimmy Zummo (cont'd).
WWSW—Aeronautical Interview.

10:00 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Lew Conrad and His Orchestra from Boston, Emerson Gill and His Orchestra from Cleveland.
Walter Winchell
KDKA—Dance Gypsies.
"Song of Lonesome Guitar"
Shadows on the Wall
You Were My Salvation
Song of a Lonesome Guitar
Between the Devil and the Deep Blue Sea
My Consolation
I'll Be Good Because of You
The Cutest Kid in Town
There Will Come a Time
WJAS—The Trumpeteers with Edwin C. Hill.
KQV—Silent until midnight.
WWSW—Tommy Tucker's Music.

10:15 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Dance Hour (cont'd).
KDKA—Gypsies (cont'd).
WJAS—Trumpeteers (cont'd).
WWSW—Tommy Tucker (cont'd.)

10:30 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Dance Hour (cont'd).
KDKA—Clara, Lu and Em, Household Sketch.
WJAS—Nat Shilkret's Orchestra and Alex Gray, baritone.
"My Gal Sal"
Medley:
Bend Down Sister
Tea Tea ..... Orchestra.
My Gal Sal ..... Alex Gray.
Me ..... Orchestra.
Trees ..... Alex Gray.
Medley:
Chicago
On to Minnesota
Way Down Yonder in New Orleans
California, Here I Come ..... Orchestra.

10:45 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Dance Hour (cont'd).
KDKA—Paris Night Life.
WJAS—Jack Miller, Songs.
WWSW—Good Night.

11:00 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Sun-Telegraph Nite Club—Jack Keough, master of ceremonies.
KDKA—Sport Review; weather.
WJAS—Good Night.

11:15 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Nite Club (cont'd).
KDKA—Wildcat Fiddlers.

11:30 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Nite Club (cont'd).
KDKA—Don Bestor's Orchestra.

11:45 P. M.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Nite Club (cont'd).
KDKA—Don Bestor (cont'd).

12:00 Midnight.
WCAE, Sun-Telegraph—Weather; Good Night.
KDKA—Mildred Bailey and Orchestra.
KQV—Dale Harkness Orchestra.

12:15 A. M.
KDKA—Good Night.
KQV—Dale Harkness (cont'd).

12:30 A. M.
KQV—"Red" Fluke's Orchestra.

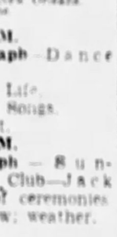
1:00 A. M.
KQV—Good Night.

TEN BEST BETS

6:30—WCAE—Mark Shields.
8:00 WCAE—Lois Moran.
8:15 WWSW—Hockey Game. Yellow Jackets, Bulldogs.
8:45 KDKA—Dear Sisters of the Skillet.
9:00 WCAE—Music Drama: Life of "Papa" Haydn. WJAS—Mills Brothers.
9:30 KDKA—Lanny Ross.
10:00 WCAE—Lew Conrad. WJAS—Trumpeteers.
11:00 WCAE—Sun-Telegraph Night Club of the Air.

Cunningham RADIO TUBES

Save 25% to 33⅓% on a complete set of new Cunninghams for most popular receivers.



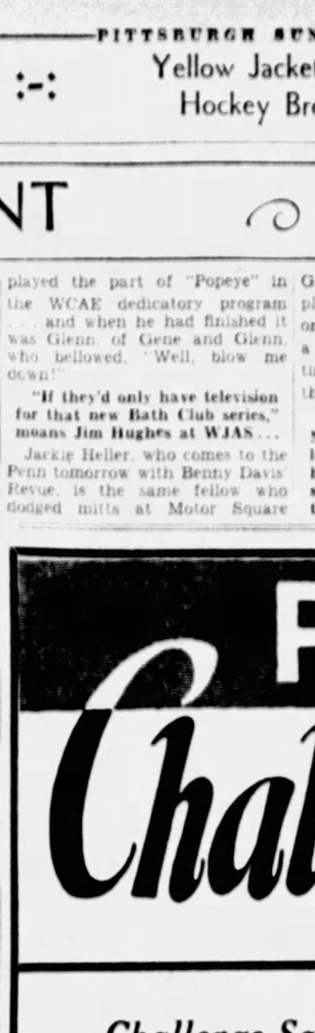
EXPERT RADIO SERVICE
FREE TUBE TESTING
In your home. Any radio checked free when you purchase a complete set of Cunningham tubes. Headquarters for Zenith, RCA Victor, Brach, Atwater Kent, Philco, Edison and Columbia sets.

Columbia Music Co.
"The Old Reliable Store"
101 Sixth St. Atlantic 4655
Open Saturday Until 9:00 P. M.

FRANK & SEDER Challenge Hour Sales

Here we are with the FIRST group of FAMOUS FRIDAY HOUR SALES of the NEW YEAR . . . and every person looking for BARGAINS ought to be here when the clock strikes 9 TOMORROW MORNING . . . These are values that CHALLENGE any in the town Friday . . . Read EVERY ITEM . . . note the HOUR when it will be sold—then COME AND SAVE.

Challenge Sale Feature!



Lacy-Knit Sweaters $1.98

$2.98 Values

Value Gems These! Sweaters with diagonal lacy-knit weaves that suggest hand-made stitches. Newest colors and color combinations. Sizes 34 to 40.

Companion Sale!

New Wool Skirts $1.59—$2.59

A Challenge to the whole "skirt-wearing community" . . . rich, new woolens in fashionable colors. Beautifully styled and fitted. All sizes.

Second Floor

Second Floor—Clearance!

Women's and Misses' SILK DRESSES

½ PRICE AND LESS

Formerly Priced to $10.75, Now $5

Formerly Priced to $20.00, Now $9

If you don't mind choosing from incomplete selections, here's a real treat in Value-Giving! Smart, silk frocks, from higher-price ranges . . . light and dark colors . . . one and two-of-a-kind . . . NOW at prices that do not cover cost of materials. Women's and misses' sizes.

Finer Dresses, formerly $25 to $39.75

Dresses from our finer dress section, NOW $16. Sizes for every Woman and every Miss!

FRANK & SEDER—SECOND FLOOR

9 AM to 10 AM

Velvet Rugs, 77c
7x50 in. Perfect quality; 11.69 grades. Off colors; many patterns. 5th Fl.
Felt Slippers, 49c
Clean-up of Women's Felts, Comfys, Zapons. Values to $1. 3rd Floor
Gowns, 3 for $1
Women's Hand-made. Fine nainsook, in white, pastel shades. 1st Fl.
Ironing Set, 39c
Ironing board, pad and cover. Good quality, strong, durable. 5th Fl.
Blades 10 for 25c
90c value. Will fit Gillette razor. Limit 10 blades. Street Floor
Curtains, pr. 39c
Ruffled valance sets, combined with scrim or marquisette. Fifth Floor
Girls' Coats at $3
Sizes 7 to 14. Camel-hair and dress coats. F. & S. Sub-Basement
Work Shirts, 39c
MEN'S blue chambrays. Triple-stitched. 14 to 17. Basement
Men's O'Coats, $6
Grey and brown; wool-mixtures. Sizes 35 to 42. F. & S.—Basement
Slippers, now 39c
Women's leather-sole slippers; cuban heels. Basement Annex

FRANK & SEDER

10 AM to 11 AM

Damask, yd. 29c
48-in. 36c quality. Heavily mercerized; white with colored border. 5th Fl.
Leather Coats, $5
Boys' regular $8.95 front quarter horsehide coats. Sizes 6 to 16. 4th Floor
Rugs, now $8.88
$15 values. 9x12 Velvets, 7x9 and 6x9 Axminsters. Irregulars. 5th Floor
Child's Undies 29c
Children's flannelette gowns, combinations and slips. 39c, 59c val. 3rd Fl.
Hose, Pair 59c
Women's Silk chiffon, picot tops. Also service weights. First Floor
Wash Frocks, 45c
$1 value. Broken lots. Washable; sleeveless or short sleeves. 3rd Fl.
$5 Dresses, at $3
Silk wool crepe and print dresses from our regular stock. 1st Floor
Boys' Shirts, 39c
Plain and fancy broadcloths; worth 69c each. F. & S.—Basement
Undies, 2 for 25c
Women's rayon and cotton undies; worth 50c each. Sealed. Basement
Ticking, yard 24c
Imported; guaranteed featherproof. Blue, red, tan stripes. Bsmt. Annex

FRANK & SEDER

11 AM to 12 Noon

Men's Sox 7 for $1
Rayon & wool mixture. Right weight for winter wear. All colors. 4th Fl.
Tots' Frocks, 97c
To $2.98 values. Silk dresses, slightly soiled. Sizes 6 to 6X in lot. 3rd Fl.
Raincoats, for $1
$1.95 val. Boys' raincoats of black leatherette. Sizes 6 to 18. 4th Floor
$2 Carpet, yd. $1
Axminsters. Fancy figures, mottled, etc. For hall runners. 5th Floor
Enamel, qt. 85c
4-hr. drying; $1.50 values; white and colors. Fifth Floor
Comforts at $1.74
$2.75 value. Full bed size. Good quality. All colors. Fifth Floor
Shoes, now $1.39
MEN'S. Also big boys'; black oxfords; sturdy soles. Basement
Boys' U. Suits 39c
Big boy and panty waist styles. Heavy winter weight. Basement
Felt Hats, at 19c
For WOMEN; formerly sold to $1.88. All head sizes. Basement
Pajamas, now 69c
MEN'S flannelette and broadcloth; frog trimmed. All sizes. Basement

FRANK & SEDER

12 Noon to 1 PM

Pajamas, 2 for $1
Men's fancy broadcloth and novelties. Middy & button front. 4th Floor
Trousers at $1.29
To $4 val. Men's trousers in dark and medium patterns. Fourth Floor
$5 Felt Hats, 50c
Clearance of millinery, regularly priced up to $5. Third Floor
Gloves, pair 39c
Women's Washable fabrics. 8-button lengths. Slipon style. 1st Floor
Linoleum, at 79c
Sq. yd. 2-yd-wide rolls. Rich inlaid designs. Bring measure. 5th Fl.
Men's Shirts, 69c
Mussed from handling. Also odds and ends. Collar-attached, etc. 4th Fl.
Shoulderettes 75c
Warm and snuggly shoulderettes in tearose, orchid, black. 2nd Floor
Hose, pair 14c
WOMEN'S rayon & wool hosiery, wanted colors. 8½ to 10. Bsmt.
13 Str. Treads $1
9x18 in., maroon. Nosings attached. Worth 15c each. Basement Annex
Dresses, now 39c
WOMEN'S. Odd lots, broken sizes. Worth $1 each. Basement

FRANK & SEDER

1 PM to 2 PM

Mufflers, now 39c
Men's. Odds and ends. Square mufflers, slightly mussed. Rayons. 4th Fl.
Crepe Dresses 75c
Women's $1.98 Rayon Crepes. Dark Prints. Broken sizes. 3rd Floor
Tots' Frocks, 69c
To $1.98 val. Tots' wash frocks. Panty & straight styles. All sizes. 3rd Fl.
Men's Gloves, $1
Wool, warm, lined Capeskin gloves. Perfect quality. Brown, tan. 4th Fl.
Drape Rods 69c
To $2.50 values. Fancy over-drop rods with center ornament. 5th Floor
Marquisette yd 5c
40 inches wide. Ivory shade. Part bolts. Reduced. Basement Annex
Child's Hose, 11c
Full-length fancies; variety of patterns. Worth 22c pair. Basement
Dancettes, at 39c
Women's and misses'; lustrous quality rayon dancettes. Basement
Wom.'s Shoes $1
Novelty and arch-support health shoes, reduced. Basement Annex

FRANK & SEDER

2 PM to 3 PM

Union Suits at 59c
Men's heavy weight, cotton rib; white and ecru. Ankle length. 4th Floor
Odd Rugs $26.95
Sample Axminsters, seamless. 9x13 to 9x18 ft. Gorgeous colors. 5th Fl.
Remnants at 35c
To $1.95 values. Damask, Casement, many other remnants. Fifth Floor
$1.65 Undies 94c
EXTRA SIZE. French Rayon Crepes, nainsook, crepes. First Floor
Slippers, now 43c
CHILDREN'S. 79c values. Clean-up of felts & Zapons. 3rd Fl.
Sweaters now 39c
Misses' and children's. Coat and slipovers. $1 values. Basement
Floorcover at 29c
SQUARE YARD; 6 ft. wide. enamel finish; seconds. Bsmt. Annex
$1 Blankets 58c
White sheet blankets; large, 70x90 in. Fleecy finished edges. Bsmt. Ann.
Paints, gal. $1.39
Ready mixed; ground in linseed oil. In colors only. Basement Annex

FRANK & SEDER

3 PM to 4 PM

Blankets, now 68c
$1.29 value. Part wool blankets, sateen bound. In blue only. Fifth Floor
Handbags at 69c
Novelty, pouch, underarm styles. Some with zippers. All colors. 1st Fl.
Elec. Clocks, 88c
Lincoln electric clocks. Guaranteed. Novelty ebony case. First Floor
Men's Vests $1.49
Corduroy. Regular $3.95. Blanket lined, double-breasted. 38-46. 4th Fl.
Drape Sets, $1.29
$1.98 val. Striped taffeta sets with valance and tie-backs. 2¼ yds. 5th Fl.
Table Cover, 49c
51x51. Imported colored border cloth. Also 48x48 Dutch covers. Bsmt. Ann.
Handbags, at 19c
While 168 last. To $1.25 value. Limit one to a customer. Basement
Dress Shirts 39c
MEN'S soiled and mussed; formerly $1 each. Basement
Boys' Pants, 45c
Wool-mixtures; light and dark shades. Sizes 7 to 18. Basement

FRANK & SEDER

4 PM to 5 PM

Throw Rugs, 59c
Wilton samples. Plain colors, all bound; at price of binding alone. 5th Fl.
New Scarfs, 49c
Women's silk-and-wool scarfs in Ascot and Chanel styles. 8th Floor
Lace Panels, 39c
To $1.50 values. Many patterns and lengths. Some to match. 5th Fl.
36-In. Muslin, 5c
YARD. 12½c value. Durable quality. Bleached. Fifth Floor
12 Stair Treads, $1
9x18-inch. Heavy quality rubber. With nosing attached. Fifth Floor
Men's U. Suits 49c
Heavy ribbed; winter weight. Actual $1 values. All sizes. Basement
Bloomers 2 at 25c
Children's; heavy flannelette. Worth 39c each. F. & S.—Basement
Child's Shoes, 39c
Odds and ends from previous sales. While they last. Basement
Wall Paper at 89c
Room lot. 10 wall, 20 yds. border. Suitable for any room. Bsmt. Annex

FRANK & SEDER

COMEBACK :-:

Lloyd Hughes Back in Films As Rich Young Fellow In 'Miracle Man'

BY HARRISON CARROLL

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 7.

Hollywood may be quick to forget, but it always is ready to cheer a comeback.

Lloyd Hughes, who hasn't done much of late, is being given a warm welcome at Paramount, where he will play in "The Miracle Man." His part is the rich young man who finances the show after his sister is cured of a serious illness. Back in the silent version, W. Lawson Butt played the role.

Lloyd Hughes

Many fans, I think, will be surprised to learn how much Lloyd Hughes has been in the films. He made his first appearance years ago. His most memorable role, of course, was when he and Mary were a talented team. His last production was "Moby Dick."

HOLLYWOOD DOINGS

The secret is out. Frances Dee's new steady is Charles Boyer, the French actor who has been appearing in foreign versions.

Few know of it, but Carmelita Geraghty was badly shaken up in an automobile accident the other day. Though not seriously injured, she was knocked unconscious.

Frances Dee

Lest some audiences object too much to seeing Wallie Beery in "Hell Drivers," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer has commissioned Ralph Graves to write a happy ending to the picture. Exhibitors will be offered the choice.

John Barrymore is ill again. It's the flu. Before the attack, he turned down all film company who have taken tests for the role of the Baron in "Grand Hotel."

Wallie Beery's new six-passenger plane has been delivered.

SAM IN LENDING MOOD

The suave Melvyn Douglas who draws a pay check from Samuel Goldwyn will turn a while longer in New York. His work opposite Claudette Colbert in "The Wiser Sex" moved Paramount to borrow him again for her next picture. This, as you may know, is a story called "Sensation." Cam-

THEATER CLOCK

NIXON: Vivienne Segal in "The Chocolate Soldier." Matinee Saturday at 2:15 p. m. Nightly at 8:15 p. m.

ALVIN: Eugene O'Neill's "Strange Interlude." Daily at 5:45 p. m.

PENN: Greta Garbo in film, "Mata Hari." Daily at 10, 11:52, a. m., 1:49, 4:14, 5:46, 8:40 and 10:28 p. m. Benny Davis on stage.

STANLEY: Marian Marsh in film, "Under Eighteen." Daily at 10:04 a. m., 1:04, 3:34, 5:26, 7:56 and 10:21 p. m. Buddy Rogers on stage.

WARNER: Winnie Lightner in film, "Manhattan Parade." Daily at 10:30 a. m., 12:15, 2:15, 4:15, 6:15, 8:15 and 10:15 p. m.

FULTON: Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell in film, "Delicious." Third week. Daily at 11:03 a. m., 1:14, 3:25, 5:36, 7:47 and 9:58 p. m.

DAVIS: Marilyn Miller in film, "Her Majesty, Love." Daily at 12:05, 2:07, 4:09, 6:11, 8:13 and 10:15 p. m.

HARRIS: Lew Ayres in film, "Heaven on Earth." Daily at 12:10, 2:34, 5:01, 7:25 and 9:53 p. m. Vaudeville on stage.

ENRIGHT: Marilyn Miller in film, "Her Majesty, Love." Daily at 11:30 a. m., 1:10, 4:16, 5:56, 8:24 and 10:38 p. m. Vaudeville on stage.

SHERIDAN SQUARE: Lawrence Tibbett in film, "The Cuban Love Song." Daily at 1:42, 4:25, 8 and 10:33 p. m. Vaudeville on stage.

AVENUE CINEMA: "Comrades of 1918." German war film. Daily at 1:20, 3:20, 5:20, 7:20 and 9:20 p. m.

ACADEMY: "Kuddling Kuties." Burlesque show. Twice daily, 2:15 and 8:15 p. m.

Hollywood Forgets, But Remembers, Too :-:

Stage Shows and Pictures on the Way

Norma Terris and Charles Winninger will be seen in the Nixon next week in Vincent Youman's musical version of "Smiling Through."

"Emma," an intimate story of American family life and starring Marie Dressler, opens tomorrow in the Penn. Benny Davis will be on the stage.

Sylvia Sidney comes to the Stanley screen tomorrow in "Ladies of the Big House." The stage will have James Dunn.

"Delicious," musical film co-starring Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell, begins a third in the Fulton today.

The Davis, beginning tomorrow, will present Kay Francis in "The False Madonna." This film also comes to the Enright Saturday.

Frederic March is starred in the talk version of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," feature opening Saturday in the Warner.

Shows now open in the Sheridan Square are Weber and Saturdays. The next film in this theater will be "Possessed," with Joan Crawford and Clarke Gable. New vaudeville will be on the stage.

"The Inn at the Rhine," German film, opens Monday in the Avenue Cinema.

Irene Dunne comes to the Harris screen Saturday in "Consolation Marriage." There will be vaudeville on the stage.

The burlesque "Girls in Blue," will come to the Academy Sunday midnight.

Haiti Viewed From Air In Film

THE GLOBE TROTTER

A flight over the mountains of Haiti by United States Marines is shown in the current issue of Hearst Metrotone News with a graphic description by the Globe Trotter. Included are scenes of the ruins of the magnificent citadel built in 1801 by the Black King Henri Christophe.

Intercollegiate ski jumping matches at Lake Placid furnish many thrills.

Ten thousand mummers make the streets of Philadelphia gay with their annual New Year's parade.

President and Mrs. Hoover are shown at the White House on New Year's Day greeting 5,000 persons.

Prof. Albert Einstein, German scientist returns for the second time to California to study at the Pasadena Technical Institute.

News and Notes About Stage and Screen :-: AMUSEMENTS :-:

FILMLAND.

LOEW'S United Artists
PENN
STARTS TOMORROW
Loew's January Festival Hit No. 3
MARIE DRESSLER in "EMMA"
Giving to the Screen a New and Wonderful Character
See Special Ads on This Page
ON THE STAGE
A Punch Packed N. Y. Revue
BENNY DAVIS
And His "New Broadway Stars of the Future"
Last Times Today
Greta Garbo—Ramon Novarro
in "MATA HARI" and
BILLY HOUSE in N. Y. STAGE REVUE

HERE SHE IS EVERYBODY!

Laugh and Cry with—

MARIE DRESSLER

Do you remember her magnificent performance in "Min and Bill" and "Politics"? Marie Dressler achieved the heights of perfection then—but wait till you see her in her newest drama of laughter and tears—Emma! Here is a picture which will live in your memory forever. So hilariously funny, so replete with pathos and beauty, it will undoubtedly survive as one of the truly great dramas of the screen. The great Dressler surpasses her finest previous performances. She'll make you laugh—she'll make you cry—and she'll send you away happy at having experienced the thrill of seeing this marvelous picture.

IN HER LATEST METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER MEDLEY OF MIRTH AND PATHOS

EMMA

with RICHARD CROMWELL
JEAN HERSHOLT
MYRNA LOY
Story by FRANCES MARION
Adaptation and Dialogue by LEONARD PRASKINS
Additional Dialogue by ZELDA SEARS

The masterpiece of Director Clarence BROWN

STARTS TOMORROW! LOEW'S UNITED ARTISTS PENN

AND ON THE STAGE

A Super-Smashing CAPITOL THEATRE, N. Y., Revue, Featuring America's Popular Composer, BENNY DAVIS Your Favorite Entertainer and His "NEW BROADWAY STARS OF THE FUTURE"

With JACKIE HELLER and SUNNY O'DEA PITTSBURGH'S OWN SPARKLING FAVORITES

FILMLAND. FILMLAND.

FULTON
MATINEES ONLY 25c UP TO 6 P. M.—CHILDREN 10c
THIRD TRIUMPHANT WEEK
STARTS TODAY AT 10 A. M.
JANET GAYNOR CHARLES FARRELL
In the Wistful and Heart-Warming Love Story That Abounds With Joyous Fun and Music
IT'S THE TALK OF THE TOWN!
Delicious with EL BRENDEL
NEVER BEFORE SUCH A HIT!
A love story that is deliriously different! And what a comedy of errors—and what a tangle of laughter and romance. A handsome American falls in love with a beautiful Russian actress before a Parisian beauty and a jovial Irish detective pursues her.

AMUSEMENTS.

NIXON Tonight 8:15
LAST 3 DAYS
The Popular Musical Comedy Stars
Vivienne SEGAL and Charles PURCELL
In Oscar Straus' Charming Operetta
The CHOCOLATE SOLDIER
Unrivalled Cast of Principals
Brilliant Ensemble—Special Orchestra
Nights ..... 50c to $2.50
Wed. & Sat. Mats. ..... 50c to $1.50
NEXT WEEK—SEATS TODAY
VINCENT YOUMANS PRESENTS
The New Musical Play
SMILING THROUGH
*Norma Terris *Ada-May
*Chas. WINNINGER *Tom POWERS
Nick Long, Jr. Michael Bartlett
Dallas Welford Marion Balleu
And a Noteworthy Company of 75
Symphony Orchestra Dr. Hugo Kirsch-ner Conducting
Prices: Nights $1 to $3.50; $2 to $4
Wed. & Sat. Mat. 50c to $1.50; $2 to $3.50
Week Jan. 18—Mail Orders Now
THE THEATER GUILD Presents
The Fourth Production of the Fourth Pittsburgh Subscription Season
EUGENE O'NEILL'S Trilogy
MOURNING BECOMES ELECTRA
Prices $2, $2.50, $3, $3.50, $4, $5 (No Tax)
Starting 5:00 o'clock. Dinner intermission
Nine or 7 No matinees

SHERIDAN SQ.
NOW RKO KEITH VAUDEVILLE 25c to 60c
SAMPLES OF 1932
With JOE SIEMEYER
SOUTHERN GAIETIES
WEBER and RAY
ROY ROGERS
ON THE SCREEN
LAWRENCE TIBBETT in "The Cuban Love Song"
With LUPE VELEZ
Complete Change of Program Saturdays and Wednesdays

CINEMA 609 LIBERTY AVE. "Comrades of 1918" Astounding! Dramatic!
Adm. 25c—Nite 50c. AT. 6300

AMUSEMENTS.

Shubert ALVIN NOW
EUGENE O'NEILL'S
STRANGE INTERLUDE
Curtain 5:45 Dinner Recess 7:45-9
PRICES—50c, $1.00, $1.50, $2.00

CARNEGIE HALL—THIS Fri. & SAT. Nights
WIGMAN World's Greatest Dancer
$1 to $3.85 at Mellor's, Max Bregle, May

ACADEMY 2:15 MIDNITE SHOW 8:15 TODAY
Columbia Burlesque
"KUDDLING KUTIES"
With SIDNEY PHILLIPS and JACK LA MONT

PITTSBURGH to York, Pa. by TELEPHONE
95c
After 8:30 P. M. only
55c
See page 1 of your Telephone Directory

You, Too, Will Find the Results Satisfactory.
SUN TELEGRAPH CLASSIFIED ADS

I. K. S. Players to Open Subscription Series

The Irene Kaufmann Settlement Players will present "The City," three-act melodrama by Clyde Fitch, early next month as the first play of their 1932 subscription series.

FILMLAND. FILMLAND.

WARNER BROS. THEATRES

LAST DAY STANLEY "BUDDY" ROGERS in Person In DICK POWELL'S Stage Revue On Screen Marian Marsh in 'Under 18' LAST DAY

STANLEY

He's Here Tomorrow!
—IN—
DICK POWELL'S
Smashing Stage Show!
Singing, Wise-Cracking, Dramatizing That Famous Scene in the Doctor's Office from "Bad Girl!"

BE AMONG THE FIRST TO WELCOME HIM TO PITTSBURGH!

James DUNN

Famous Screen Star of "Bad Girl," "Over the Hill" and "Sob Sister"

IN PERSON

with Your Great Favorite
That Famous "Wanna Buy a Duck" Comedian
JOE PENNER
(Himself) with VERA MARSH, his girl friend of "Blue Skies"

CONDOS BROS.—TIFFANY TWINS
16 DANCING DARLINGS

ON THE SCREEN

"To Love Until Death Do Us Part"

Life Tore Them Apart On Their Wedding Day!
SYLVIA SIDNEY
Actress & Darling Now Refused to
"Ladies of the Big House"
Paramount's Dramatic Masterpiece
With
Gene Raymond—Wynne Gibson
BERNIE ORGANLOGUE
DAVID BROUDY OVERTURE

DAVIS

STARTS TOMORROW!

Her Love Was Counterfeit . . . Yet It Made Two People Happy!

Kay FRANCIS at "The FALSE MADONNA"

Paramount's Romance-Drama of a Dazzling Queen Whose Beauty and Charm Was Her Social Passport!
—with—
WILLIAM BOYD
CONWAY TEARLE

Last Day
MARILYN MILLER
—with—
BEN LYON
—in—
"Her Majesty Love"
—with—
W. C. FIELDS
LEON ERROL
Ford Sterling
Chester Conklin

You'll See a New KAY FRANCIS In This Drama of a Strange Masquerade!

WARNER

STARTS SATURDAY!

Can Man Separate the Devil From Himself? . . . Has Every Human a Dual Character? . . . A Lover by Day . . . A Fiend by Night!

DR. JEKYLL and MR. HYDE

Paramount's Mystifying Romance Featuring
FREDRIC MARCH
In a Thrilling Dual Role
—With—
Miriam Hopkins
Rose Hobart

Last 2 Days
Manhattan Parade'
Featuring
Winnie Lightner
Charles Butterworth
And Smith & Dale

LIBERTY Penn & Shady Montrose 1081 RUTH CHATTERTON in "ONCE A LADY" Also "THE VIKING"—the one picture you will never forget. Afternoon and Eve.—All Seats 25c—Children 10c

BRUSHTON THEATRE DOUBLE BILL "MAD PARADE" and "SOB SISTER"

GARDEN LAWRENCE TIBBETT and LUPE VELEZ in "THE CUBAN LOVE SONG" | TRIANGLE EAST LIBERTY Read Howes "Anybody's Blonde;" also Bert in "Taboo"

Beer Power's Aid in Play Writing

By GEORGE SEIBEL

Tyrone Power dead in Hollywood, where he had gone to play in a talking picture of "The Miracle Man," brings to mind some interesting experiences with one of the most mercurial of actors. The grandson of a very famous Irish comedian, he could easily have been the successor of Edwin Booth if he had had the poise of America's greatest Hamlet. But he was moody and unstable. I recall when he was acting the Drainman in the Nixon, with Walter Hampdon playing "The Servant in the House," Charles Rann Kennedy's half-religious drama. Power's performance was a masterpiece, because it suited his psychology.

George Seibel

But I found him full of wrath and gloom. On the billboards in front of the theater his name was in smaller letters than some other name—or perhaps the other name was printed above his name—and this indignity couldn't be borne. He was ready to leave that night for New York. He was finally prevailed on to finish the week, but I think the next week found him back on Broadway nursing his grievance and looking for another engagement.

POWER'S FIRST HITS

I saw Tyrone Power the first time in Mrs. Fiske's production of "Becky Sharp," the play based on Thackeray's "Vanity Fair." As the old roue, Lord Steyne, he was superbly unforgettable. Another of his great successes was Judas in Mrs. Fiske's production of Paul Heyse's tragedy, "Mary of Magdala." That was perhaps the finest achievement of his career. Again it was a part that fitted in with the querulous and moody elements of his character.

Proverbially "hard to manage," managers hesitated to take him up as a star, because they did not know when he would fly off at a tangent.

Yet he was personally, in hours of ease, a genial soul and boon companion. I remember one night in the old Lincoln Hotel when he ordered half a dozen bottles of beer after hearing I wanted to write a comedy:

"You must drink beer if you want to write a good comedy. Nobody can write a good comedy unless he drinks beer."

If our merry playwrights want to succeed today, they'll have to move to Munich or Pilsen.

LOVE OF FINE ART

Not alone with beer and such earthly things, but with music and art Tyrone Power had sympathies. I recall an incident that happened in the proud days when Pittsburgh had a symphony orchestra of its own.

We were to have breakfast at the Schenley Hotel. Power told me to call his room whenever I arrived. So I went to the desk and told the clerk to call Mr. Power. "He's just gone into the dining-room," the clerk told me.

So I went to the door of the dining-room and looked in. There, throned in solitary majesty, I saw, not Tyrone Power, but Emil Paur, conductor of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra.

So I went back to the clerk and told him it was Tyrone Power I was looking for, and he called the room, and after a few minutes Tyrone Power came down.

When I told him about the odd coincidence, he wanted to meet Paur, whose symphony, "In der Natur," he had heard.

We went to Paur's table, and I made them acquainted, with a poor pun about "the Power of drama and the Paur of music." And we all had breakfast together—a very jolly meal, because Emil Paur had seen "The Servant in the House" and admired Tyrone as the Drainman.

THE REST IS SILENCE

The last time I met Power was when he was here with the all-star cast of "Diplomacy." Charles Coburn, George Renavent and he were at my home after the play—and Tyrone was very unhappy. His wife had died—and he had a part unworthy of his powers. He was full of gloom and despair, as he usually was, only a little fuller.

He joined Fritz Leiber's company afterward, appearing as the Ghost in "Hamlet," as Brutus in "Julius Caesar," and in other important roles. But he was undependable and dissatisfied, and left. This season he again joined Leiber's company, playing the same roles. Then he went to Hollywood, having another big chance in "The Miracle Man," when he was stricken with heart disease and died two hours later.

"The rest is silence!"

Th. Walter Winchell Column Appears Today on Page 15.

FILMLAND.

ENRIGHT

LAST 2 DAYS! MARILYN MILLER in "HER MAJESTY LOVE" With BEN LYON and The Four Horsemen of Lady W. C. Fields, Leon Errol, Chester Conklin, Ford Sterling On Stage VAUDEVILLE Headed by Sid Marion—Nat Nazarro—Pockett's Mountaineers—Nixe, Flores & Tahoe—Hanne Harrison's Circus. 25c Till 6 P. M.

Last 2 Days! On Screen! A Terrific Dramatic Spectacle! LEW AYRES in "Heaven on Earth" With Anita Louise On Stage VAUDEVILLE Five Tremendous Acts Headed by PRIMROSE SEMON Rubber Rolling — Four Roberts and Other Big Acts 25c Till 6 P. M.

BOGGS & BUHL

STORE HOURS: 9:30 A. M. TO 5:30 P. M. SATURDAYS, 9:30 A. M. TO 9:30 P. M.

Announcing a New Dept. for

BIRDSEYE Frosted Foods

Our Greatest Sale In 15 Years!

Nationally-Known
RUGS
$59.50
Made to Sell at $115

The maker told us the price was too low to use his name—but you'll recognize it woven on the back of each rug. Same high quality rugs we have sold at higher prices for 25 years. A splendid selection of best selling patterns. An OPPORTUNITY to save! 9x12 ft. size, $59.50. Other sizes and prices listed below.

$102.50—8.3x10.6-Foot Rugs	$ 57.50
$157.50—9x15-Foot Rugs	$ 95.00
$189.00—9x18-Foot Rugs	$115.00
$195.00—11.3x15-Foot Rugs	$123.00
$ 73.75—6x9-Foot Rugs	$ 41.00
$ 45.00—4.6x7.6-Foot Rugs	$ 25.00

—Domestic Rugs, Third Floor—

The whole country is talking about these new miracle foods—the newest and most revolutionary idea in the history of food—which we now bring to you.

Birdseye Frosted Foods are utterly different from anything you have ever seen. Imagine fresh berries and fruits coming to your table in the dead of winter as fresh and flavorful as though they had just been picked.

Birdseye Foods offer to Pittsburghers fresh ocean foods and fish impossible to purchase in any market here. They bring to the housewife the finest foods, which are all ready to cook. No cleaning—no fuss. You prepare and serve them exactly as they come from the individual packages—scrupulously clean and sanitary. Birdseye Foods are economical to buy. You get what you pay for! THERE IS NO WASTE!

You Are Invited to Inspect These and Other Miracle Birdseye Foods

LEGS OF LAMB
Trimmed, ready for the oven.

STEAKS
Tender, fine-flavored tenderloin, sirloin and porterhouse—every steak delicious.

CHICKEN
Ready to roast, broil or fry.

FISH
Flaky, white fillets; cleaned and boned.

RASPBERRIES
That in look, taste, flavor and condition are as if they had just been picked.

CHERRIES
Red, sour cherries, pitted for pies.

SPINACH
That does not have to be washed.

PEAS
That do not have to be shelled.

This New Department is located in our Grocery Department on the first floor.

Sale! Cast Aluminum Utensils—$2.85

"Good Health" utensils are made of heavy cast aluminum. They are gleaming, beautiful and lasting. May be used for waterless cooking. Made by a well-known manufacturer. Never before sold at prices as low as now, either by stores or by house-to-house canvassers.

13-inch Oval Roaster—$2.85.

French Coffee Pot—$2.85.

11-in. Griddle and 12-in. Double Fry Pan—$2.85 set.

2-qt. and 3-qt. Covered Sauce Pans—$2.85 set.

6-in. Skillet and 4-qt. Covered Sauce Pan—$2.85 set.

8-qt. Dutch Oven with Trivet—$2.85.

Large Griddle Boiler—13½-in. and 2-qt. Covered Sauce Pan—$2.85 set.

9-inch Skillet and 10½-inch Skillet and Cover—$2.85 set.

—Housewares, Basement—

January Clearance CURTAINS

$2.50 Fringed Net Panel Curtains	$1.50 ea.
$3.50 Fringed Net Panel Curtains	$2.50 ea.
$4.95 Fringed Net Panel Curtains	$2.25 ea.
$8.50 Fringed Net Panel Curtains	$3.50 ea.
$2.50 Flat Net Curtains	$1.50 pr.
$3.50 and $3.95 Flat Net Curtains	$2.50 pr.
$2.95 Flat Net Curtains	$1.95 pr.
$4.50 Flat Net Curtains	$2.95 pr.

Two Exceptional Lots Ruffled Curtains

$2.50 to $3.50 Ruffled Curtains—Solid Ecru—Pastel and colored figures—$1.50 pair.
$3.95 to $5.75 Ruffled Curtains—allover embroidery or colored figures—$2.50 pair.

Fringed Marquisette and Plain Net Panel Curtains

3-inch and 6-inch fringe across bottom, $1.95 to $2.50 Panels—$1.25 ea.

Fine Embroidered Net Panel Curtains

Several in two widths—to match—fringed and plain.

$3.95 Panels	$1.95 ea.
$4.95 Panels	$2.50 ea.
$6.50 Panels	$3.25 ea.
$7.50 Panels	$3.75 ea.
$10.00 Panels	$5.00 ea.

Fine Bed Spreads ⅓ and ½ off

$2.65 Toile Chintz Spreads	$1.35 ea.
$5.95 Toile Chintz Spreads	$2.95 ea.
$18.50 Rayon Taffeta Spreads	$9.25 ea.
$22.50 Rayon Satin Spreads	$15.00 ea.
$28.50 Tailored Taffeta Spreads	$19.00 ea.
$45.00 Tailored Taffeta Spreads	$30.00 ea.
$50.00 Tailored Taffeta Spreads	$33.50 ea.
$57.50 Tailored Taffeta Spreads	$38.50 ea.

—Curtains, Third Floor—

TELL IT TO SALLY -:- -:- Follow This Unusual Feature Day by Day -:- -:- By SALLY MARTIN

We Don't Deserve Good Luck Unless We Go After It

Are you sitting around being sorry for yourself, chewing your nails and wishing you had the breaks?

Are you envying others, thinking what a wash out your life is and wanting to snap out of it, but afraid to try?

Then you'll weep big splashy tears of sympathy when I tune in on Gay's broadcast.

And will I take your hand and hold your head and weep with you and for you.

Listen and see.

"Twelve years ago I could have sent you but a single postcard. I was young then. Now I could send you a whole book of them. I need your advice badly. My whole life is a tangle.

HAS NO FRIENDS

"I am 27 years old. I never grew very tall. Many years ago I stopped reading and studying. I live in a mental lethargy. I am a coward. I am afraid of a cat. The literature makes me want to run. When things are too hard I turn nervous. That is why I failed to leave home when the time came; why I never learned shorthand or anything like that.

"Now if I were to stop studying myself and start studying arithmetic as the charity workers who come to our place want and urge me to do, I should have to begin with two and two make four.

"I don't know what to do. I fight my bad habits with will power alone but I don't seem to get anywhere. Do you know of a quicker method? I long for happiness but I have no friends. I could have the friendship of a very nice young man but I'm afraid to take a chance on it for I don't think it would take him long to find out I am unfit for friendship.

"Oh! If I could only wake up some day and find all this were only a bad dream! I know I don't amount to much as a human being but don't you think I deserve a little luck?

"GAY"

Don't I think you deserve a little luck. No Gay, I don't! Not when you haven't the ambition to go after it.

You can't expect to sit plodding in a corner and have Luck walk up to you and say "here I am." We make our own luck in this world. We ultimately make our lives what we want them to be.

Alas, you are not even trying. You're just sitting back weeping about yourself and telling yourself that you're the world's worst bet which is of course just a slick alibi for your own laziness and cowardice.

What you honestly believe is that Life has handed you all the hard knocks and given other humans all the breaks which is the bunk.

Open your eyes and look around you. Forget yourself for a moment and study other lives. Many of the greatest souls in the world have had handicaps far beyond any you ever had.

CROWD OUT FEAR

Edison invented a machine that flooded the world with music yet he was deaf. Robert Louis Stevenson gave the world great masterpieces of literature while he was dying of tuberculosis. Nellie Revell wrote that wise and humorous book "Right Off the Chest" while she was almost completely paralyzed and thought she would never walk again.

Stop fighting those habits of yours with "will power alone." Stop brooding about them and yourself. Get up and move! Act! Find something to do that will fill your empty hands and empty head until those fears and habits are crowded out.

It will take work and hard work but when you've done it you'll find a new life shining and fine and free! You'll be a real woman. You won't have to sit around and wish for "luck."

(Copyright, 1931, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Fay King Tells of Girl Who Achieved Career Mapped Out for Another

SHE GREW UP TO BE A GORGEOUS REAL BLONDE
I ADORE MY HOME AND CHILDREN!
I WOULDN'T GIVE UP MY CAREER!
GEE! SHE CAN DANCE AN' RECITE!
FAY KING

By FAY KING

The other day I was thinking of two little girls I knew long ago.

One was so pretty, with long golden curls. She took dancing and elocution lessons, and everyone predicted she would be a great actress some day.

The other was a shy straw-colored little youngster, whose eyelashes and eyebrows were so pale it seemed she didn't have any.

Well, the golden one grew up to be a decided brunette, married and was happy without ever attempting the brilliant career everyone predicted.

The little straw-colored one grew up to be a gorgeous true blonde, and actually achieved everything that was mapped out for the other one.

Life is like that.

And I am pleased to hear that both are happy!

(Copyright, 1931, by Daily Mirror, Inc.)

Heart of a Wife -:- Continuation of Love's Reawakening

By ADELE GARRISON

Mary Verbally Squelches Vampish Miss Arlen

I caught my breath in panic as Avis Arlen's voice called to Noel and daddy was waiting. I knew Mary's temper and guessed that she had endured about all that she could stand. If Noel showed any signs of discomfiture because of his close embrace of Mary, which Miss Arlen could not help seeing, I feared the usual result of the match dropped into the powder magazine.

But Noel did not move even the tiniest muscle of the arm that held Mary so closely. Avis Arlen was nowhere in his horizon of sight or thought, but she forced herself there.

"No-el don't you hear Avis?" she demanded with so sublime a disregard of the tableau before her eyes that I was divided between wondering admiration at the sheer audacity of her and disgust at the persistence of her pursuit of Noel. But Mary evidently had reached the limit of her endurance. I heard an explosive little sound at the end of Miss Arlen's cooing appeal then Mary flung herself clear of Noel's encircling arms and put her lively, mutinous face close to that of Avis Arlen.

"Look here Cleopatra of whatever reincarnation you fancy yourself," she said. "I've sat around and grinned like a Cheshire cat and watched you do the la-de-da with a come-hither look in your eye until I am so fed up with it I think I am going to have the gout. I don't know what you have been pulling this summer, although I have a very vivid imagination, and I don't care a heated hitge of the place. You are welcome to all the soulful poetical seances you have held with the boy friend while he has been away. Every engaged man is entitled to a little cavorting in the pasture when he is temporarily out of harness. But he's come back home now. I've looked him over, and even a moron with two eyes could see that he has sort of lost his taste for good gray poets. So I'm giving you warning that I have restaked the claim on the lad and if you try to jump it again, I am likely to smear those mascaraed eyelashes of yours so far down your face that you can taste them. Now run along and tell papa on me if you want to, but if you are as deep as I think you are you will save your face." Chinese fashion, and simply tell Papa that his darling son will be there in a minute. As it stands now, there are only four of us who know about this little scene. Noel and I, naturally, aren't going to mention it, and Auntie Madge is safer and more silent than any church that ever had a steeple. So it is up to you whether anybody else knows about it. But don't forget what will happen to you if you get rash while I am gone or after I come back again. That's all. Beat it."

At Mary's first words Avis Arlen had stepped back a pace, and she kept on retreating with Mary following her, until her back was against the wall. Her hands were flattened against the wall on either side of her, and I knew that underneath her artistic makeup her face was pallid with fear and astonishment. She did not speak a word—indeed she had no chance to say anything—and when Mary flung the last contemptuous "beat it" at her and turned disdainfully away, Avis Arlen scuttled through the door to the living-room as if she were a rabbit hunting a bramble bush.

"I am sorry, Noel," Mary said humbly, all the truculence dropping from her and leaving her limp, exhausted. "I know I am a horrid, ill-bred beast to stage such a stunt as this, but I just couldn't help it. That girl's been rubbing my fur the wrong way ever since she came in this evening. I kept on being a perfect lady as long as I thought you might have fallen for her—"

"Fallen for her!" Noel's voice was a protesting wail. "Mary!"

"But you did, you know, darling," Mary said, in the voice of a mother telling her small son that she knew he was responsible for the missing strawberry jam. "I'm not an absolute moron, you know, and the doctors say I am in full possession of my five senses, so don't try to kid me or yourself into any illusions about your summer literary affinity. By the clay pipes of old Eli! There's a good nickname for her, the 'S. I. A.' That's the name I am going to call her for the next hundred years or so, the 'S. I. A.' But this isn't what I started out to tell you. I just wanted to explain why when I found out you were all my own boy after all, the sight of her trying to pry you away just sent me berserk. Will you forgive me?"

"Forgive you!" Noel's voice was eloquent, but not so much so as his arms as they swept her close to him again.

"But this must be goodby, dearest." Mary said an instant later. "Your father will be coming himself if we do not get a move on. There," she kissed him full on the lips, "that's a promise I'll be good. I must go now." She put her hand upon his arm, hurried him to the door and fairly pushed him through it. Then she caught at my arm.

"Oh! Auntie Madge!" she wailed, "what an unspeakable vulgar little girl I've been!"

There was that in her voice which told me that she was very near a fit of wild sobbing.

(Continued Tomorrow.)

(Copyright, 1931, Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.)

The Beauty Box

By HELEN FOLLETT

Don't believe the mirror. It exaggerates every defect of the complexion. The reflection in the looking glass is seldom flattering.

A red nose is a real beauty ill, not one that is just in your eye. It calls for a well-regulated diet with plenty of fruit and vegetables. Cold feet will make it flame up. Stimulate the circulation of the body by rubbing moist salt into the flesh and spraying with cold water. Local treatment for red nose calls for anointing with oxide of zinc ointment.

The white of egg face pack will gladden the heart of the woman whose tissues are sagging. Beat the egg white slightly, adding a few drops of cold water. Spread upon a clean skin surface. When the epidermis begins to draw and tighten, bathe away the pack, dry, tap in a heavy skin food for five minutes. Remove the skin food with a soft cloth, never with soap and water, or the good effects will be lost.

(Advertisement)

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a dark, bad taste and your breath is foul; skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

How to Keep Well

By DR. ROYAL S. COPELAND

Sensitivity Tests Found Helpful in Curing Asthma

One of the most distressing conditions that doctors encounter is the disease called asthma. If you have ever seen a person in an asthmatic attack you realize the suffering and anguish that the afflicted one must endure.

Dr. Copeland

A person is said to have asthma when he has repeated attacks of difficult breathing. The attacks may last for a few minutes or continue for several hours. In this attack there is a spasm of the windpipe and of the smaller tubes that supply air to the lungs. The breathing becomes so difficult that it seems as if the patient might choke because of lack of air.

Often the color of the face turns dark and the lips become blue. Breathing is more difficult when lying down. The sufferer assumes some awkward position in an attempt to breathe more freely. There is violent coughing after each attack, and a great deal of stringy sputum is raised.

I am happy to say that within the past few years great strides have been made in the treatment and cure of this disease. The causes of asthma are now divided into three groups. The treatment depends upon the correct classification of the disease.

The first group is often described as the "extrinsic" group. These cases are believed to be caused by a sensitivity to some substance coming from outside the body. When the individual is exposed to one or more of these substances he develops an asthmatic attack.

There are many of these substances, but pollen, animal furs, dusts, and certain foods are the principal offenders. To treat this type of asthma it is necessary to find the offending substance. This is done by "sensitivity tests," made by injections into the skin. It is necessary first to find what the irritating substance is, then it must be avoided.

The second group is known as the "intrinsic" group and consists of cases that are believed to be due to disorders within the body. The most common of these disorders are infected teeth and tonsils, nasal deformities, sinusitis, inflammation of the gall bladder and appendix. Constipation, nervousness, lack of fresh air and exercise, as well as continued overwork without proper rest must be considered. Remarkable success is obtained when the cause is removed.

The third group is most difficult to classify and to treat. It is usually seen in individuals beyond 40 years of age. The cause is not definitely known, but it is believed to be due to a weakness of the muscles in the windpipe and bronchial tubes. It is often found in sufferers from chronic bronchitis. Change of climate is of greatest benefit. Repeated attacks weaken the heart and lungs and such persons should have periodic examinations by the physician.

(Copyright, 1931, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

(Advertisement)

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist.

Correct Manners

By MRS. CORNELIUS BEECKMAN

Hotel Tipping

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

I expect soon to be living at a hotel conducted on the American plan, and there are several little matters that puzzle me. Whenever I am in this city I always read your column, so quite naturally I turn to you and shall be most grateful if you will assist me.

1. How frequently should one "tip" one's waitress in the dining room? How large should the tip be?

2. How often should the maid caring for one's room be tipped, and how large should the tip be? B. S.

1. If you have the same waitress all the time, you will probably find it more convenient to tip her at the end of each week. What you give as the fee depends on many things . . . that is why no one can tell you definitely what to give . . . on the kind of service that is given, on the type of hotel, and, principally, on one's native generosity. The minimum would, I think, be a dollar a week and from that "on up," according to all the things that I have mentioned.

2. The same thing would apply to the maid who cares for your room. And about the same amount.

An Invitation

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

I read your articles every night, and now I have a question to ask.

If Mrs. Jones tells Mrs. Smith to tell me that she wants me to come for supper on Monday night, shall I accept the invitation or wait until Mrs. Jones personally invites me? E.

If I were you, I should wait until Mrs. Jones herself invites you to come to dinner. This round-about kind of invitation is carrying casualness too far, I think . . . don't you?

(Copyright, 1931, Premier Syndicate, Inc.)

(Advertisement)

Quickly Ends Gastritis Pains

"I was troubled with gastritis. I would be in such pain and misery could not sleep or lie in bed. Then I tried ACIDINE," says H. W. Bushnell, Detroit. "It is doing wonders for me. I work every day and must eat heartily to keep up in this game of life."

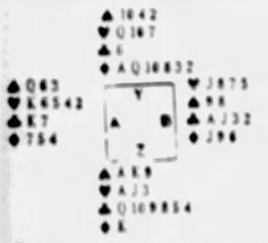
Find gas, sourness, heartburn, distress, sleeplessness, headache resulting from acidity. Make your antacid ACIDINE, made your stomach trouble or money back. All druggists have ACIDINE.

Contract Bridge -:- OFFICIAL SYSTEM As Adopted by Leading Authorities

By E. V. SHEPARD

Needless Loss of Games Often Happen on First Trick

Few players look ahead far enough. When the first lead is made and dummy is boarded the declarer too often is still chatting or thinking about the previous hand instead of studying the lead made dummy and his own hand. The hand shown below affords an illustration of the necessity of thinking of your play to the first trick.



Bidding of the hands went Z 1-Club; neither A nor B did anything except pass. Y 1-Diamond. Z 2-No Trumps. Y 3-No Trumps.

The opening lead was A's fourth-best heart. Deducting 4 from 11, Z knew that B held two higher cards of the suit led than the 4, probably the king lay with A. B played his 8 and, without thinking, Z won the trick with his jack, costing him game. Z did not realize the error he had made until he had won a trick with his king of diamonds and attempted to gain entry to dummy. Of course he could not enter Y's hand. Z led his 3 of hearts. A took the trick with the king. Y's 10 was played and B's 9 fell. Of course A knew that only the ace of hearts was missing from his hand; he did not care whether that was held by B or Z, because Y's queen and the missing ace must fall together, so he led back a low heart and Z was in the lead with five perfectly good diamonds staring at him from dummy with no possible means of entering Y's hand.

Z gave A a club trick and the latter ran off his two good hearts upon which B discarded two worthless diamonds and Z let go one spade and one club. A spade lead put Z in again. He led a club. B's jack won the trick and a return lead of a spade took out Z's last card of that suit with his clubs still unestablished. Another lead of clubs put B in. A was smart enough to discard his blocking spade so that A took his two spade tricks, giving A-B a total of eight tricks, defeating Z by four tricks.

All Z had to do to fulfill his contract was to win the opening lead with his ace of hearts, instead of his jack, lay down his king of diamonds, lead a small heart which A must win. No matter what return A made Z must finally win 10 tricks, one trick more than his game contract. Dumb play costing five tricks is expensive; certainly Mr. Hoover never would excuse such waste.

(Copyright, 1931, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

SORE THROAT

There's a world of winter comfort in Bayer Aspirin tablets. If you take them only to break up colds, you know only half the story. Three tablets crushed in a little water will relieve the sorest throat with one good gargle. That's what the specialists use in cases of sore throat. That's what you ought to use at home—every time you want throat comfort and protection from infection. Remember, every case of tonsilitis began with just a sore throat! Don't neglect any sore throat. Gargle with Bayer Aspirin at the first tickling felt. Take a couple of tablets for that headache that comes with a cold—for neuralgia, neuritis, or similar pain. If it's genuine Bayer, it can't hurt the heart.

BAYER ASPIRIN

Now!—Kotex Price Reduced

KOTEX can now be bought at a new low price. Never more than 35c. Think what this means to women who want the finest possible sanitary protection!

No question mark hovers over Kotex. No incessant doubt as to how it was made, where, under what conditions.

In matters so closely associated with health, only the highest surgical cleanliness is good enough. Such cleanliness as Kotex offers.

Kotex is pure. Cut, folded, packed—all by machine. Scrupulously clean and safe in every way. Made in air-washed, sunlit factories. Of tested and re-tested materials. Inspected 76 times before it is considered perfect enough for your use. When buying it wrapped make sure you are getting genuine Kotex.

Never pay more than 35c

KOTEX

Sanitary Napkins

(Advertisement)

DEPEND ON ZEMO TO RELIEVE ITCHING ECZEMA

Soothing, healing, invisible ZEMO is used in thousands of homes to bring relief from the torture of itching, burning Eczema. ZEMO has been used for twenty years with remarkable success to stop itching and draw the heat and sting out of the skin, and help clear away Rashes, Ringworm, Pimples and other annoying skin or scalp irritations. Extra Strength ZEMO especially adapted for chronic cases. All Dealers 25-60c, $1.00. Extra Strength $1.25.

COLDS AREN'T WHAT THEY USED TO BE

GRANDMOTHER used to tie a stocking around her neck for a cold. Father swore by a hot mustard foot-bath. But the modern way of relieving a cold is simply to breathe a delightful fragrance—Vapex.

Discovered in 1915 during a wartime epidemic of influenza in England, the use of Vapex has swiftly spread all over this nation. Millions of people find quick relief for their colds with this pleasant inhalant.

Easy to use—just a few drops on your handkerchief or the ends of your pillow. Safe—even for little children. Economical—the $1 bottle contains 100 applications (one cent apiece).

Don't forget the name—V-A-P-E-X.

Breathe your cold away with

VAPEX

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

E. FOUGERA & CO., INC.

Distributors of Medicinal Products Since 1849

Listen to the symphonic Mills Brothers broadcast every Monday and Thursday evening at 9 O'clock over Station WJAS and associated stations of the Columbia System.

Have you what is commonly called that Tired Feeling?

"Mother, I do wish you were well and strong"

"I just can't go on"—how often you hear this.

So often the reason is simple—that good body of ours has "run-down" under the strain of our way of living . . . pressure of work and worry.

Those important precious red-blood-cells that mean so much to vitality become lowered in count . . . the hemoglobin percentage begins to fall and we wonder "what is the matter."

If this is your trouble, why not take steps to overcome it—remembering that a "tired feeling" may be a warning . . . so are pimples, boils and paleness. A general run-down condition means a lack of normal resistance to infection and disease.

Sometimes it is a lagging appetite that leads to underweight and ill health.

You cannot be low in strength and be happy—let's be happy.

For generations S.S.S. as a tonic has been helping people gain New Strength, better health and happiness. Its successful record of over 100 years in restoring strength and vitality to the blood surely warrants your giving it a good trial.

You should know that S.S.S. has the distinct advantage of being composed of fresh vegetable medicinal ingredients in concentrated form . . . it is Mother Nature's formula.

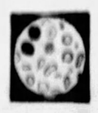
Why not start taking S.S.S. today?—the larger size represents a price saving.

S.S.S.

Why you should be interested in your Blood Count

(Left) Microscopic view of healthy red-blood-cells. They carry nourishment and oxygen to every part of the body, they also remove impurities from the tissues.

(Right) Weak red-blood-cells—only 60 per cent of normal strength. Such a condition is often responsible for body weakness, paleness, sallow complexion, pimples and boils.



KAUFMANN'S Downstairs Store

Fifth Avenue Pittsburgh

Telephone Shopping GRant 7000 — All Other Calls Atlantic 1000

Tomorrow—a Downstairs Feature!

Substandards of 1.25 Quality — 69c pair

Use the Coupon Below for Mail Orders or Call GRant 7000.

Full-Fashioned Chiffon Hosiery

3 pairs for $2.00

Beautiful crystal clear chiffon hose . . . full-fashioned with dainty French heels, picot tops, cradle foot and hidden reinforcements. Substandards of a famous maker . . . you'll recognize the label on every pair. Colors are—Fall Nite, Light Gunmetal, Tahiti, Matin, Indotan, Off-Black and Smoketone.

In All Wanted Sizes . . . 8½ to 10

KAUFMANN'S . . . DOWNSTAIRS STORE

Mail Order Coupon

Kaufmann's Downstairs Store, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Please send me ..... prs. Chiffon Hose at 69c pair as advertised.

Size
Colors

Name ..... Cash ☐

Street ..... Charge ☐

City—State ..... C. O. D. ☐

Great January Selling!

$1 to 1.25 Qualities! — 69c

Women's Flannelette GOWNS

Samples of 1.00 to 1.25 Qualities!

That's enough to say they are very unusual values . . . especially for this very heavy quality flannelette in V and round neck styles. Plain colors, colored stripes, long sleeves. Regular sizes.

KAUFMANN'S . . . DOWNSTAIRS STORE

A Great Savings Opportunity!

Regularly 4.95 Pair — 3.95

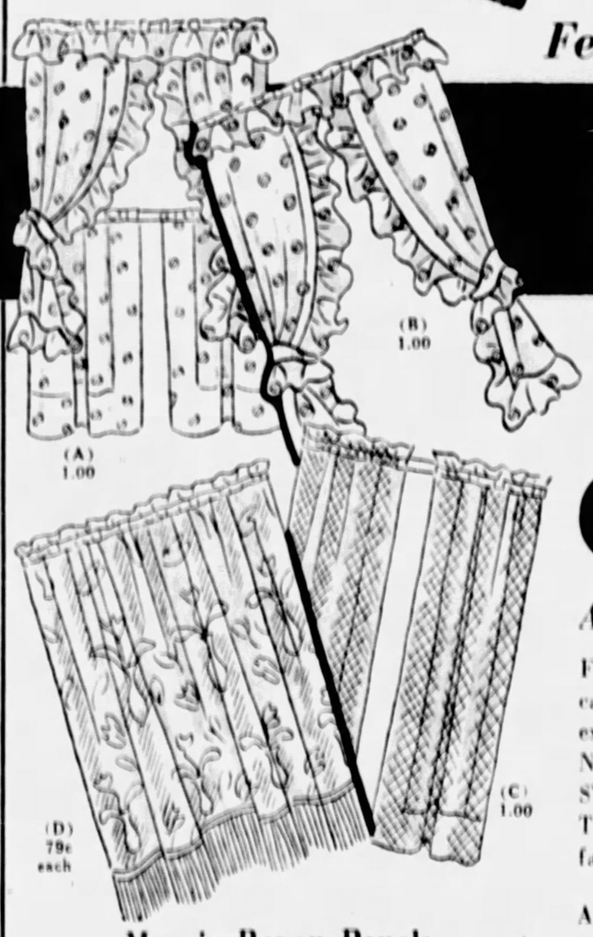
1000 Prs. Kaufmann's Special Arch-Support SHOES

That Sell Regularly for 4.95!

That's why we say hurry and buy these shoes . . . they're taken right from regular stock, and marked down for this special selling! 8 styles in all in sizes 3 to 12, widths AAAA to EEE. Black kids and patents.

KAUFMANN'S . . . DOWNSTAIRS STORE

Feature Curtain Event!



1.00 pair

Over 2000 Pairs of Higher Priced New Curtains

At a Remarkably Low Price!

Four of the best sellers of the season . . . you can buy them now at much less than you ever expected. The popular TAILORED BOSTON NET CURTAINS, PRISCILLA RUFFLED STYLE, crisp sheer dotted voile! Voile COTTAGE CURTAINS in coin dot pattern. All are fast colors and washable!

A—Cottage curtains with colored dots.
B—Priscilla ruffled curtains. Colored dots.
C—Boston tailored net in suntan shade.

Mosaic Rayon Panels

Beautiful new patterns and of usual $1 quality. Each..... 79c

Mail and Phone Orders Filled While Quantities Last!

KAUFMANN'S DOWNSTAIRS STORE

See Other Kaufmann Announcements on Page 16

WALTER WINCHELL On Broadway

(Copyright 1931, Daily Mirror, Inc.)

Things I Never Knew Till Now

(And I'm sorry I learned)

That the U. S. Gov't is "doing everything" to aid the jobless—yet the nation's postoffices are shy 50,000 needed workers. What's more, the G. O. P. at 8th Ave., New York, has installed a machine. It sells stamps.

That the singing of "The Wearin' of the Green" was once a prison offense in Ireland.

That on the Bowery, New York, for a quarter, you can get a dormitory bed. For an extra dime—you can have a private room!

That the lone bench in Washington Square especially "Reserved for Women and Babies Only" is always filled—with men.

That the director of Yerkes Observatory is blind.

That James Otis, patriot, often expressed the desire that he be struck dead by lightning . . . He was!

That Brooklyn cops chopped through a brick wall to save a pussycat and got it freed safe and sound. Then they killed it!

That King George is barred from the House of Commons sessions.

That Omar Khayyam's real name was Abu-Z-Fath Umar Ibn Al-Khayyami Ghivath Al-Din and that Omar's Rubaiyat—(the original Persian work, I mean), is a mediocre work!!! (Ask authorities, then!)

That granite is the hardest of rocks, diamonds the hardest of minerals. Thick Broadwayites have the hardest of heads—and Wall Street brokers, as you know, have the hardest of hearts.

That because they thought he was a Christian, Max Reinhardt has been blessed by various men of the cloth. But Max—in case you didn't know, and you probably never did—is really Moses Goldman!

That Bill Cody (Buffalo Bill) couldn't even shoot straight!

That a letter mailed from one rim of the Grand Canyon to the other—about 10 miles apart—must travel 1,505 miles, through four States, before it can be delivered.

That Arabic numerals are of Hindu origin.

That 16,000,000 tons of rain and snow fall upon the earth each second of the day—1,382,400,000,000 tons a day! Proof? Yeah! See "The Realm of the Air" (Bobbs-Merrill).

That the Chinese code forbids red autos. (Religious reasons).

That the late Doc W. F. Carver (World's Greatest Rifle Shot) was the rightful owner of all the land in St. Paul and Minneapolis.

That New York's new $562,000 fireboat, the Harvey, hailed as the best and most modern of all such craft in the world, hasn't a radio!

That when you're ice-skating you steer by turning—the head!

That the Lorentz-Fitzgerald theory means simply that a Pullman car is shorter when in motion than when standing still.

That Edgar ("On The Spot") Wallace, an orphan at 9 days, was adopted by a couple, who, wanting a girl, mistook Edgar for such.

That in France, once, it was indelicate to mention a lady's kerchief. (Haw! In France, yet!)

That "niece" formerly referred to any relative—even a male. That "bachelor" once applied to unmarried femmes, as well.

That once it was against the law in Massachusetts to celebrate Christmas. Punishable by prison term and fine.

That cats can't see better in the dark. They can, however, see better in the twilight—but so can I. (Meowwwww!)

That Lucrezia Borgia was not a poisoner nor a murderess. Her contemporaries wrote very highly of her.

That if you laid all the paragraphers Who Can't Think Up An Idea Of Their Own from end to end, what a wonderful sight it would be.

That a good many of the collar ornaments worn by the U. S. Marines have stamped on the opp. side "Made in England." Why?

That Hellinger has 11 namesakes—all of them being tailors, and florists, and all are listed in the East.

That Bermuda, which bars autos, has one of 'em.

That Greta Garbo certainly has more reason than you know to run from news photographers.

Master of Hounds Freed in Cruelty

HYTHE, Kent, England, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—The master of the Mid-Kent Stag Hounds and secretary of the Hunt were acquitted yesterday of cruelty in hunting a deer, and the magistrate dismissed the summonses against them.

Boy Bank Robber Sentenced 10 Years

SHAWNEE, Okla., Jan. 7.—(AP.)—A 10-year suspended sentence was given yesterday to Orville Burch, Tennessee youth, who robbed the First National Bank at McCloud, Okla., of $600 last Saturday and attempted to escape in an airplane.

MANY COUGH SYRUPS CONTAIN

DOPE

BUT NOT THIS ONE!

"Love has always been an exceptionally healthy boy—I'll knock on wood for that! So, when he caught a real bad cough, I was worried. Smith Brothers Cough Syrup worked wonders! He lost every trace of his cough—fast!" Mrs. L. Clarke, Scarsdale, N. Y.

THE LAW SAYS: If the cough syrup contains DOPE, the label must say so. This law is made for your protection!

Read the label of Smith Brothers Triple Action Cough Syrup. No dope mentioned there! On the contrary, it says in plain English, "Contains no narcotics, opiates, or habit-forming drugs." This is your positive assurance that Smith Brothers' is SAFE. Safe for you. Safe for your child. Instead of dope, "Triple Action"—an approved, scientific principle—stops even a stubborn cough quickly and surely. . . . Children like the taste. Only 55c.

SMITH BROTHERS

TRIPLE-ACTION COUGH SYRUP

contains no Dope

Hard, Large Pimples Lasted Several Years. Cuticura Healed.

"My face started to break out with pimples and blackheads. The pimples were hard, large and red, and festered and scaled over. They itched and burned causing me to scratch, and scratching caused sore eruptions. They disfigured my face and the irritation prevented me from sleeping. The trouble lasted several years.

"I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after the first treatment my face felt better, and in a month's time I was completely healed, after using one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment." (Signed) Harvey Troutman, Box 943, Reading, Pa., July 13, 1931

Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c. Talcum 25c. Sold everywhere. Sample each free. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. H, Malden, Mass."

McCREERY'S

WOOD ST. AT SIXTH AVE. — ATLANTIC 4600

In the January Selling!

2.95

100% All-Silk Satin

Gowns

That look like $5.95!

Sweeping to your ankles . . . tied with ribbons above the waistline, to make them look like Gainsborough gowns! Two models trimmed with lace . . . note the new Duchess patterns with which this gown is appliqued!

Another that's simplicity itself . . . finished only with hemstitching, rolled hems and ribbons. Rose, Blush, and Blue.

Sizes 15, 16 and 17

(Second Floor)

WATCH McCREERY'S IN 1932!

And you'll find convincing proof that McCreery quality costs no more than the commonplace!

THIS year let the Union Savings Bank Christmas Club help you save for next Christmas. Join today and try this easy weekly deposit plan. There are twelve different classes. In one class you pay only 25c per week.

Checks will be sent to all members early next December.

Capital and Surplus $4,000,000

Union SAVINGS BANK

FRICK BLDG.—FIFTH AVE. & GRANT ST.

KIDNEY AGONY? Quick relief from torture of backaches, burning, stinging pains. Santal Midy works the way prescribed by doctors. Sold by druggists throughout the world.

SANTAL MIDY — SANTAL CAPSULES MIDY — FOR BLADDER CATARRH

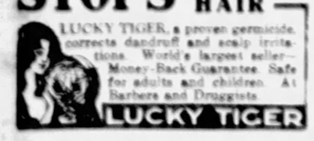
PILES

Obstinate, painful, itching or blind cases, grateful relief comes at once. Pyramid Pile Ointment acts as poultice, relieves pain, soothes irritation, tends to remove cause, and in many cases produces a permanent cure in a few days. Don't suffer with piles. Get Pyramid today. Trial tube with pipe, 25c; regular size, 50c. All druggists.

South Hills Post To Present Program

South Hills Post No. 156, American Legion, will be host to members, the auxiliary and ex-service men at a free entertainment tonight in the Washington School auditorium, Mt. Lebanon. Luke Barnett will be master of ceremonies, directing the program "Battle of Paris." Arranging the affair are George W. Cooper, chairman; Maj. John H. Shenkel, Roy H. Uhlinger and Arthur R. Kiefer.

STOPS FALLING HAIR



LUCKY TIGER, a proven germicide, corrects dandruff and scalp irritations. World's largest seller—Money-Back Guarantee. Safe for adults and children. At Barbers and Druggists.

LUCKY TIGER

Advertisement

Best Remedy for Cough Is Easily Mixed at Home

You'll never know how quickly a stubborn cough due to a cold can be conquered, until you try this famous recipe. It is used in millions of homes, because it gives more prompt, positive relief than anything else. It's no trouble at all to mix and costs but a trifle.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey to make a full pint. This saves two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough medicine, and gives you a purer, better remedy. It never spoils, and tastes good—children like it.

You can actually feel its penetrating, soothing action on the inflamed throat membranes. It is also absorbed into the blood, where it acts directly on the bronchial tubes. At the same time, it promptly loosens the germ-laden phlegm. This three-fold action explains why it brings such quick relief even in those severe coughs which follow cold epidemics.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway Pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form, and known as one of the greatest medicinal agents for severe coughs and bronchial irritations.

Do not accept a substitute for Pinex. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

WILLS DISPOSE OF $59,500

A life interest in the $25,000 estate of William Hillmar, Jr., of Lincoln way, McKeesport, was left to his widow, May Hillmar, by his will with remainder to their children.

Mrs. Martha Reed Loynd, of Tarentum, is given a life estate unless she remarries, in the $18,500 estate of her husband, James W. Loynd, also occupancy of their home, with remainder to five children.

John Pfirman, Indiana Township, left his $16,000 estate to his wife, Caroline Pfirman, and six children.

BATHER HURT, ASKS CITY PAY

Damages of $1,406 for injuries suffered at the Highland Park swimming pool were demanded yesterday from City Council by Ralph Fagan, of 6304 Anderson street, Squirrel Hill.

Fagan charged negligence by pool employes was responsible for his injuries and loss of time from his employment. He asks recompense at $75 a week.

The accident occurred, according to Fagan, when he slipped on soap left on the floor of the pool bathhouse. He holds city employes were responsible for removing the cakes from the floor.

Police Cut Not Urged By Building Owners

The Pittsburgh Building Owners and Managers' Association has sent a letter to City Council pointing out that at no time have the building owners recommended a reduction of the police and fire forces. The letter does not condemn or approve Council's action in reducing the police and fire payrolls, but merely defines the position of the association.

GLASSES! FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Open Daily to 8 P. M.

ASTOUNDING VALUE!

Beautiful, engraved frame, with concave spherical lenses, large, comfortable, strong. $5.75 value.

BIFOCALS, far and near vision in one frame. $10.00 value..... $4.50

OCTAGON RIMLESS, latest style glasses, $12.50 value, complete.. $5.85

$2.50 COMPLETE

EXAMINATION INCLUDED

LEVINE & OPTICAL CO. Established 28 Years

4th Floor, Keenan Bldg. 642 LIBERTY AT SEVENTH ST. (Elevator)

CHILDREN GIVEN SPECIAL CARE

Try the Tonic

GULF COAST

"The American Riviera"

for that Winter Fag

Junk that Winter fag. Take the trail of the sun and date your Winter holiday from the moment you step on the train.

Loaf all day long on the Gulf Coast's sunny beaches. Play to your heart's content at every sport that suits your mood. Try your skill on the string of golf courses, stretched like emerald beads along the American Riviera. But don't wait until you reach the Gulf Coast to begin your rest and fun.

The Pan-American ALL-PULLMAN

The luxurious comforts of a fine hotel, together with the pleasure of your favorite club. Observation and club car, maid and valet service, lounge rooms and shower baths, radio. Nationally famous dining car service. No extra train fare. Take this swift up-to-the-minute train from Cincinnati or Louisville and be on the Gulf Coast the following morning. Other fine L. & N. trains from Cincinnati, Louisville, Chicago and Evansville.

New Orleans, the Winter capital of society and sports is at her gayest and loveliest now. See the gardens in the French Quarters that painters and authors have exploited for a hundred years. Enjoy the thrill of the races and every other sport. Enjoy the Mardi Gras festivities, February 4-9.

The Southwest. Week-end your way west, if you like, and visit famous places as you go. The L. & N. connects at New Orleans with splendid trains to Houston, Galveston, San Antonio, Dallas, Ft. Worth, El Paso, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

California by way of the L. & N. and New Orleans is California by way of the sun. Take The Pan-American at Cincinnati or Louisville and connect with fine trains to California at New Orleans. The ideal California winter route. Stop-over privileges.

L&N

We will gladly supply free Gulf Coast literature, quote fares, and assist you in planning your trip.

J. W. CAREY, Traveling Passenger Agent, 527 Henry W. Oliver Bldg., Phone Atlantic 2605, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Interesting cruises, 12 to 16 days and longer, from New Orleans to the golden Caribbean, Central America, etc. Details on request.

Reduced round trip winter fares now available. Special short limit fares during March and April.

Louisville & Nashville R. R.

Lucky—

If You're a Bit Short—Here Are

Spring Styles in Half Sizes!

You can wear them with little or no alterations, you know! The rough silk (B) . . . Heavy sheer crepes in the new beige as well as darker shades (A) . . . Silk crepes with contrasting print scarfs (C). Sparkling smart prints. Just what you need to pep up a jaded winter wardrobe!

16.50

Sizes 12½ to 26½

INEXPENSIVE SHOP . . . FOURTH FLOOR

Just Unpacked—900 Lovely

WASH FROCKS

1.75

A Value Only Possible in Our January Sale—7 Styles

Eyelet Batiste! Poplin Prints!

Every frock fairly sparkles with newness . . . There are "tricky" new sleeves, perky bows, novel necklines and belts—some of the skirts with knee pleats. You'd guess the price to be much higher!

Sizes 16 to 44

HOME FROCK SECTION . . . SIXTH FLOOR

SHARP DETOURS TO LOWER PRICES

To Signalize the Rugs Return to Our Ninth Floor, We Offer

SEVERAL HUNDRED 9x12 FT. RUGS

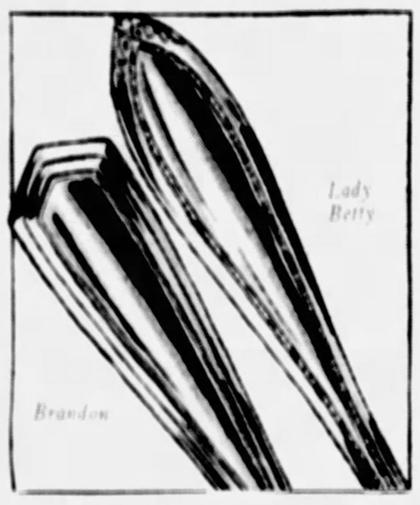
19.75

Lowest Previous Price 28.50

"WILL you buy 300 of these rugs IF we make it worth your while?" said the president of a large rug mill to our selector. In brief, HE did and WE did, and that's how these handsome new rugs, with their new medallion centers and smart allover patterns, come to but 19.75. The weave's Axminster—heavy, durable, perfect.

8.3x10.6	18.75	6x9	12.95	27x54	2.75
7.6x9	16.95	11.3x12	36.50	36x63	3.75

KAUFMANN'S . . . NINTH FLOOR



REDUCED!

Lady Betty and Brandon Patterns

International Sterling

A special selling of these two standard patterns in sterling silver at the following prices while the quantity lasts:

Coffee Spoons	each 63c
Tea Spoons	each 66c
Bouillon Spoons	each 99c
Ice Tea Spoons	each 1.25
Dessert Spoons	each 1.58
Table Spoons	each 1.98
Salad Forks	each 1.19
Dessert Forks	each 1.58
*Dessert Knives	each 1.98

*Brandon Pattern Only.

FIRST FLOOR

Do You Wear a Larger Headsize?

ADORIAS

—in the new straws or combinations of straw and felt—are the smart answer to your search for youthfully, becoming hats. A special choice

5.00

FIFTH FLOOR

Now! A

NEW LINOLEUM DEPARTMENT!

All Lit Up—With Bargains

Something had to be done. We weren't getting the proper perspective on our beautiful new linoleums. SO—we tore up the old department—root and branch—and made a new one. The daylight is wonderful. You can really SEE what you're buying. And more linoleums than you could see outside of a linoleum factory. Prices are at the famous "lowest-in-twenty-years" level. Come and see.

9x12 Gold Seal Congoleum Rugs

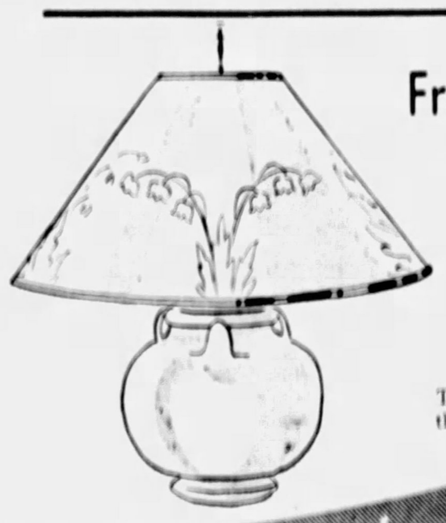
7.50

Congoleum Gold Seal Rugs, 9x10.6—6.65; 9x9 ft.—5.65; 7.6x9 ft., at 3.75

Congoleum by the now, sq. yd., 55c.

Armstrong's Inlaids, sq. yd, 1.25.

NINTH FLOOR



From the Famed Fulper Kilns

3.95

COMPLETE

The Fulper kilns are known for their glazes in multi-color. Exquisite are these lamp bases in tones of Jade, Venetian blue, cinnamon tan and antique ivory. The shades are paper parchment, in harmony, and with spray or floral designs.

FIFTH FLOOR

KAUFMANN'S

FIFTH AVENUE

SEE OTHER KAUFMANN ANNOUNCEMENTS ON PAGE 15

PITTSBURGH

THE BEAST OF THE CITY ∫ ∫ By JACK LAIT

CLASSIFIED ADS BUY, SELL, RENT FOR YOU

Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

METROPOLITAN DISTRICT NEWS

THURSDAY, JANUARY 7, 1932

TWO FAMILIES RESCUED FROM HOMEWOOD BLAZE

COMMISSIONER BOARD FORMS CABINET OF 7

Election Bureau Will Be Headed by Vickerman; Salary Cuts Predicted

The new board of county commissioners yesterday adopted unanimously a resolution effective January 16, creating a cabinet of seven department heads at $8,000 a year each. There will be directors of highways, property and supplies, parks, airport, elections, law department and of the board for the assessment and revision of taxes.

John W. Vickerman, of Bellevue, president of the state Adult Bible Class Association, was the first director to be appointed. He will head the Elections Bureau. His name was proposed by Commissioner C. M. Barr.

LAUDS M'GOVERN

The resolution creating the departments was presented by Commissioner Charles C. McGovern. After its adoption Commissioner Barr said:

"The credit for this new departure in the administration of the county government is entirely due to Commissioner McGovern. He thought it out. We have studied it carefully and believe it means efficiency and a big saving to the taxpayers."

PAY SLASH LOOMS

With a general downward revision of salaries in prospect—probably a 25 per cent cut for all county employes—the Commissioners were to resume work today on the 1932 budget.

After slicing various items yesterday, they eliminated $23,069 from the requests of seven departments.

They cut $5,400 from the Registration Commissioners' budget, $1,875 from the Board of Viewers, $3,895 from the Coroner, $215 from the Clerk of Courts, $200 from Quarter Sessions Court, $7,509 from County Court and $3,195 from the District Attorney's budget.

No action will be taken on salaries until after the budget paring is finished.

Pittsburgh Buyer Drowns in New York

Seized by cramps, Andrew Foster, 40, of 222 North Beatty street, drowned last night in the swimming pool of the Level Club in New York. Mr. Foster, merchandise buyer for a downtown department store, was in New York on business. Life guards worked over him with inhalators for more than an hour.

Bellevue Wife Asks Divorce Over Cruelty

Hope Young Srodes, 32 Grant avenue, Bellevue, charged cruelty and indignities in her suit seeking a divorce from James Lewis Srodes, of Division lane, Beaver, filed in Common Pleas Court. They were married September 29, 1929.

Japanese Can't Intimidate Our Heroes at Home

By ARTHUR 'BUGS' BAER

Let's see how happy the happy New Year was until it collapsed from laughing too much.

Gandhi in jail up to his ears. American consul slugged in Manchuria and a man in Washington, 8,000 miles from the fight picks up a telephone and hollers:

"You can't intimidate me."

Congress is voting on thousands of relief bills. Gov. Roosevelt's message was just another news reel.

The banks, railroads and power companies claim the government shouldn't go into private business. But when things get tough they make the government a member of the firm.

The way to figure how we stand on European loans is to add it all up, divide it by four and forget the answer.

If Raskob is really trying to put Al Smith into the White House then Al has a good damage suit against him.

And even though there is a war in Manchuria the League of Nations is still doing business during alterations.

(Copyright, 1932, Distributed by Universal Service, Inc.)

HEROINE OF THE STORY!

Murder Suspect Captured In Coal Mine After 17-Year Search

A thrilling three-mile race through the dark levels of a coal mine at Coverdale is believed to have brought to a dramatic climax today a 17-year search for an escaped convict, sentenced to die for murder.

Protesting his innocence, the suspect, Louis Ross, 43, a coal miner and father of five, was spirited to Clarksburg, W. Va., where early today officers said Ross "strongly resembled" the fugitive known to them as Frank Pauletta.

Meanwhile in Ross' home at Coverdale, owned by the Pittsburgh Terminal Coal Corporation, his wife, Mrs. Nellie Ross, 39, and their four children faced an uncertain future. Mrs. Ross said:

"I think they've got the wrong man. Louie never did anything to arouse my suspicion. I met him just 17 years ago in Grafton, W. Va., and we were married shortly after. He has always been a good husband and worked when he could find it. We came to Coverdale in December from Brownsville, and Louie has been getting one or two days' work a week."

One of the Ross children, Helen, 15, has been unable to attend school because of a lack of shoes. Another, Frank, is 2.

The arrest was made by Constable Ben Smith, of Bethel Township.

Smith, whose investigation centered on Ross as the alleged fugitive, went to the Coverdale mine yesterday to arrest the miner.

They met in the semi-darkness of the pit. Informed of Smith's purpose, Ross turned and fled. For three miles Smith and Ross stumbled over ties and rails, dodging projections, before the hunted man surrendered.

Speeded to the West Virginia border, the fugitive was turned over to West Virginia authorities.

Judge John W. Robinson, who sentenced Pauletta and Former Sheriff Ross Stout, identified Ross as the fugitive today in Clarksburg.

Pauletta was convicted of the murder of Frank Chillbart, in 1914.

While awaiting transfer to the state prison at Moundsville for execution, Pauletta escaped through a sewer.

Typhoid Epidemic Orphans Nine Ill Children

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 7.—Nine children, ranging in age from 18 months to 20 years, became orphans yesterday with the death of their father, James Pritts, of Normalville, at Connellsville State Hospital from typhoid fever.

The mother died three weeks ago and every child is ill with the same disease. Four of the children are in the hospital here and five are confined to bed at home.

MARKET LEASE ACTION SLATED

Two proposals for operation of the Diamond and South Side market houses were to be acted upon today by City Council and Solicitor Charles A. Waldschmidt. Council has legislation providing for leasing Diamond Market to stall keepers at an annual rental of $10,000 for five years, with an additional five years for $20,000 annually.

Stall keepers at South Side Market have asked the structure at an annual rental of $1,000, all expenses to be paid by the tenants. Council recently abolished appropriations of $12,000 for operating the South Side site as part of its economy program.

BEAST OF THE CITY

By JACK LAIT

Vice Ring Leader Arrested After Competitors Are Found Murdered

CHAPTER I.

Magistrate Ethel Moore waved an impatient hand, cleared her husky throat, and barked:

"Two years—next case."

The cringing figure in the witness chair jerked up as though an electric current had struck it. Then hesitated. Then collapsed.

"Take her out. I hate that acting business."

The girl tried to straighten up. She turned two large, dry, uncomprehending eyes toward the judge. She tried to say something. She started a gesture—

Rude hands seized the girl and dragged her from the chair to the wire cage on the right. They tossed her in and she fell in a lump. Gentle hands—those of the other prisoners—helped her to a rude bench.

"Poor kid," breather a slender, blonde girl, as she patted the luckless head.

"Step on it, sister—you're next," came a sharp command. A hefty matron was bristling over her. The door slid open.

"Daisy Beaumont—Daisy Beaumont," the clerk's croak echoed through the court. With a toss of her platinum top, Daisy walked out of the coop. Several men had shuffled to the night-court bar of justice. A beefy man in civilian clothes with copper etched and chiseled all over him; a skinny, Semitic man with glasses, carrying an imitation leather brief case; a tall, thin rat with shifty, vicious eyes; and Daisy stood between the stool pigeon and her mouthpiece.

DENIES CHARGES

She turned scornfully to the scum, and he mustered up a hollow sneer. She shot the detective a glance that seemed to spit on him with her eyes; she turned her face up toward the magistrate, who was surveying her with critical belligerency—and with feminine envy.

"What's the charge?" hoarsed Her Honor.

"S'licitin'," barked the detective. "We broke in her room on Wes' Forty-sevent' street an' she was in dere wit' dis man and she was—"

"You're a liar—he came in with you!" cried Daisy.

The lawyer motioned her excitedly not to. The magistrate leaned down and looked over her horn-rimmed glasses.

"You're in a courtroom, young woman. One more word out of you and—proceed, officer—it's getting late."

"She had dis here ten-dollar note—marked—in her stockin'," ruthlessly continued the officer, smoothing out a wrinkled bill.

"I never saw that. I haven't seen $10 in a month," cried Daisy.

"Take the witness chair," commanded the court. "If you're so wild to talk—talk."

Daisy stepped up, took her seat, crossed her silk-wrapped slender legs and looked unflinchingly at the magistrate. The clerk went through the joke of swearing her. Her lawyer bustled over to that end of the bar.

"Tell Her Honor your story—who you are—what all this is about," he said, with some strutting and yet with a voice of sympathy with his client.

"I came here 10 days ago from —"

A SEVERE SENTENCE

"That doesn't interest me," snapped the court. She looked at her wristwatch, compared it with the wall clock and shifted in her judicial arm-chair. "Come along—I have a meeting to make. If you'll take a plea I'll give you the minimum—one year—"

"But, your honor," protested the lawyer, "we have character witnesses, and the defendant, I am sure, can convince you of the utter falsity—"

"Plead her guilty, Greenberg. You know me. I'm in a hurry."

"I'm not guilty. This is all a dirty outrage. I was getting dressed to go out and hunt a decent job when that cop broke in and that skunk right behind him and——"

"Shut up. I've given you every chance. Will you plead guilty?"

"No! I couldn't. I wouldn't. I'm not guilty——"

* * *

"Three years in Bedford Reformatory...next case!"

Ed Fitzpatrick, smiling, easy-going and good-looking, fingered the buttons on his vest. His older brother, "Fightin' Jim," rugged, a king of a man, leaned back, his hands folded.

"Ed," he began in a soft tone which seemed incongruous with his impressive appearance, "I've used a little yank to drag you out of the sticks and down to headquarters. That's not usually my way, even if you are my brother. I like to see a man get up on his own merits. But I had a reason in what I did—and I figure it's for the good of the department."

"Old fierce Fightin' Jim softens——" grinned Ed.

CORRUPT VICE SQUAD

Capt. Fitzpatrick slammed his fist down on the table with a bang and jumped out of his chair. He walked up and down the room a few minutes and then stopped in front of his younger brother.

"Listen to me, Ed," he said, the tone of his voice hardening. "This Vice Squad to which you are assigned is one of the rottenest in the whole service."

"Fine bunch to get your innocent kid brother mixed up with," said Ed, still grinning.

"That's just it! We need a few up-and-up men in that outfit. And that's where you fit in."

Capt. Fitzpatrick was wagging his finger under his brother's nose. The latter snapped at it. Jim frowned and walked to the window. He gazed outside and then wheeled.

"I'm going to tell you one case—and it goes for a thousand. I got the lowdown that a young girl was framed by a vice squad cop. Same old racket. He was working with a Spic stool pigeon and they framed this kid. Oh, I guess she isn't any violet, but the whole rap was so raw it turned my guts. They broke in, planted a 10-case note on her, had the skunk testify she took him to her flat for immoral purposes. They tried first to make her kick in, and when she didn't or couldn't, they went through. And that nearer-my-God-to-thee she judge sent the kid up for three years. Why, man, it's a crime. If these fellows go on like this there's going to be one hell of a kickback and the whole department will have the lid blown off and our own families'll be ashamed to be known as livin' off cops' dough. But I think I'm going to spring the kid."

RUSH TO MURDER SCENE

He laid a hand on the other's shoulder. "I know no Fitzpatrick will stoop to such things—and what I've done ain't as much for you—as for the police department. See?"

"I see, Jim," said Ed, getting up and grasping his brother's hand. For a moment the two

(Continued on Comic Page.)

DAISY BEAUMONT

Miss Beaumont, whom you know, of course, as Jean Harlow, "Platinum Blonde" of the movies, the heroine of "The Beast of the City," new serial story starting now on this page.

ILL BABY GIVEN BLOOD RALLIES

South Side Hospital physicians today were making a valiant fight to save the life of 3-year-old Howard Kemp, of 102 South Fourteenth street, suffering from hemorrhages of the throat.

The boy's condition was reported slightly improved following a blood transfusion in which the victim's uncle, John Cusick, of 104 East Meyers avenue, Carick, was the donor. The uncle gave more than a half-pint of blood when an appeal was broadcast yesterday afternoon over the police radio for donors. More than 10 men, including several policemen, appeared at the hospital, but the blood of the uncle selected as the most suitable.

The boy became critically ill in his home Tuesday when an artery burst in his throat, it was said.

Oakland Traders Name Clarke Head

Anthony H. Clarke is the new president of the Oakland Board of Trade. At the annual meeting of the board, Clarke, with these other officers was elected: Vice presidents, E. C. Brainerd, John A. Freyvogel and Robert P. Alexander; secretary, Charles I. Westerfield; treasurer, O. C. Young, and solicitor, Howard Neely.

BABY SAVED IN FIRE

One of Nine Rescued in Homewood Today

(SEE OTHER PICTURES ON PAGE 19) Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

EUGENE FERRARA, 18 MONTHS . . . ON HIS DADDY'S SHOULDER

Eugene, one of nine saved today when a passerby roused sleepers at 7404 Idlewild street. Eugene's Daddy is Ralph Ferrara.

TRAPPED CHILD IN LEAP TO SAFETY

Bus Employe Sees Flames And Helps Save Periled Persons as Home Burns

Two families—six children, three adults—were routed from their beds and rescued from their burning home in Homewood early today through the spectacular efforts of Clarence Harencane, 33, of 7745 Calhoun street.

One of the children, Ralph Ferrara, Jr., 14, trapped on the third floor, reached safety by dropping 30 feet into the arms of Frank Madole.

The families were those of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ferrara and five children, including an 18-month-old son, and Mrs. Betty Milletary and her 11-month-old son, of 7404 Idlewild street.

SEES FLAMES

Harencane, an employe of Pittsburgh Motor Coach Company, was walking home from work when he saw flames on the first-floor of the three-story brick house.

He climbed to the porch roof, rapped on the second-floor windows and awakened the Ferrara family with his yells.

Ferrara handed out the baby, Eugene. Harencane stepped to the adjoining porch roof of Joseph Varni and left the baby with the Varni family.

Then he helped out Mrs. Ferrara, Antoinette, 22, Sarah, 21, and Carmela, 18.

Ferrara hurried to the rooms of Mrs. Milletary and assisted her and her son, Eugene, who was ill with a cold, to the street by the rear steps.

BOY LEAPS

Asleep on the third floor, young Ralph Ferrara found flames confronting him when he tried to come down the stairs. He stepped to a cornice outside a third floor window and saw Madole, a roomer, in an adjoining house, standing in the Ferrara yard.

Madole urged the boy to jump into his arms. Ralph did. Both tumbled to the ground as the boy fell 30 feet, but neither was injured.

The fire started in the basement, possibly from an overheated furnace, Fire Chief William Zollinger, who estimated the damage at $7,000, reported.

It was a sad beginning of the days for Ferrara, for this is his fifty-first birthday.

SQUIRE INDICTED FOR EXTORTION

Justice of the Peace John G. Metz, of Kennedy Township, and his two constables, Jacob Esau, of Neville Township, and William Berg, of Avalon, were under indictment today, charged jointly with blackmail and conspiracy to blackmail, and individually with extortion.

They were charged with attempting to extort $75 from Miss Angeline Miller, of Robison road, Stowe Township, December 4.

Metz faces more than 30 charges of misconduct in office, mostly alleged extortions.

Second Fire Fought In Paint Factory

Smoldering oilsoaked rafters in the fire damaged Armstrong-McKelvey Paint Company, burst into flame early today. Engine Company, No. 48, of the North Side called out on a still-alarm and poured water into the ruins more than five hours. It was the second time in 48 hours fire companies had been called to the paint company plant swept by fire last February.

Dr. Miller to Talk On 'Property Idea'

Dr. Nathan Miller, professor of economics at Carnegie Institute of Technology, will discuss "The Development of the Idea of Property" at an open forum Sunday night at the Roosevelt Building, 1862 Center avenue. A general discussion will follow.

Sentenced 60 Days In Theft of Tools

Robert Hoffman, 48, of 128 Forty-fourth street, admitted in police court today that he attempted to "frame" Peter Molacos to collect $1 for the recovery of tools worth $95 which Hoffman had stolen. He was sent to the workhouse for 60 days.

WILL ROGERS SAYS

SINGAPORE, Jan. 7.

To the Editor, Sun-Telegraph:

You heard about the equator?

Will Rogers

Well, here is a town that is straddle of it. It runs right through my hotel room and in all the beds here they have a long, narrow pillow that lies longways. It's supposed to be some aid to you in keeping cool, and it's called Dutch wife. This used to be a wild port, but this Dutch wife is the extent of its devilment now.

Yours, WILL.

Their Father Taken to Answer for Old Slaying

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

CATHERINE, 16 JOHN, 12 HELEN, 15 MRS. NELLIE ROSS, 39, HOLDING FRANK, 2

THE LITTLE COVERDALE FAMILY OF LOUIS ROSS, 43, SUDDENLY ARRESTED AS DOOMED MAN WHO ESCAPED 17 YEARS AGO

$50 in Prizes Weekly For News Tips

Are you alert? Do you wish to make your alertness pay? The Sun-Telegraph is presenting the opportunity. Every week it is offering a total of $50 in prizes for NEWS TIPS telephoned to the News-Tips Editor, Grant 6500.

If you know of an accident, of a business merger, of a big building project—that is NEWS. Watch especially for unusual stories about children and animals and for stories that lend themselves to interesting pictures.

For the best exclusive news tip of the week $15.00 will be given; for the second best, $10.00; and for the next 25 best, $1.00 each.

PHONE NEWS-TIP EDITOR, GRANT 6500.

THREE BANDIT SUSPECTS HELD FOR COURT

Two Captured in Chase Following Rug Company Holdup; Two Identified

Three men were held for court in the Penn Avenue Police Court today in connection with the holdup late yesterday of the Oriental Rug Company, 3435 Bigelow boulevard.

Those held were Michael Dubee, 21, of 121 Forty-seventh street; John Brabson, 23, of 321 Johnston avenue, and James Puntello, 24, of 1 Hayden street. Dubee was captured after a chase of several squares by Lieut. William Lilburn and Patrolman Martin Corcoran, who said the saw Dubee and a companion fleeing from the place. Brabson and Puntello were arrested several hours later.

H. Kazenjian, proprietor, and Miss Helen Marusik, 20, identified Dubee and Brabson as the men who bound them with adhesive tape after threatening them with revolvers. Kazenjian said they took $2 and a watch from him. Puntello was alleged to have been an accomplice who acted as a lookout. He denied the charge.

After the hearing, the three were turned over to city detectives for questioning in other holdups.

A youth who threatened T. J. Schwartz, manager of the Rom Cash and Carry store, Kells and Brushton avenues, with a revolver as Schwartz was closing the store last night, escaped with $500 from the cash register, according to a police report.

James Saxinger, of 548 Keystone street, told detectives that while he was putting his automobile in his garage in the rear of his home, a robber held him up and took his car and $15.

Lady Blandford Dies In England at 84

LONDON, Jan. 7.—(AP)—Albertha, Lady Blandford, mother of the Duke of Marlborough and one of the most noted of the figures of Victorian England, died today at the age of 84.

Proposed

GEN. FRANK ROSS M'COY

Gen. McCoy, U. S. A., stationed at Atlanta, suggested by the U. S. for membership on a neutral commission to investigate the Sino-Japanese troubles.

Missionary Society To Meet Tomorrow

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Emory Methodist Episcopal Church, North Highland avenue and Rippey street, will meet tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. S. S. Little will be leader and Mrs. H. V. Jamison will conduct the service of worship. A study book review will be presented by Mrs. D. W. Yeasley and Mrs. Vida McCullough McClure will sing.

M'INERNEY DIM ON SMASHING OF WINDOWS

'Troubles,' or 'James If You Please,' to Be Heard When Memory Improves

Former Police Lieut. James (Troubles) McInerney, recent candidate for Sheriff, didn't deny, neither did he admit, when arraigned in Central Police Court today, that he had tossed first one brick through a window of the Duquesne Hotel, in Market street, then another brick through a window of the Grand Hotel.

But Magistrate Leo Rothenberg, holding the prisoner for a second hearing, advised:

"Jimmy, I don't think you're in shape for a hearing this morning. You'd better rest up until tomorrow, when you'll be in better condition to remember what happened."

Others testified they did remember. Frank Kramer, manager of the Duquesne, and Tom McQuillan, clerk at the Grand, told of the resounding window crashings shortly after midnight.

This was McInerney's testimony:

"I went to the Grand Hotel and asked Johnny Elliott for a cigaret, the big bum! I used to drive taxis with him. He said, 'Why should I give you a cigaret?' When he refused I was sorry I asked the big bum for one."

When Patrolman Albert Miller, describing the arrest, referred to the prisoner by his nickname, "Troubles," McInerney warned:

"James, if you please, James."

Locked up since arrested, McInerney returned to his cell until bail was arranged after the hearing.

Mother Believes Daughter Kidnaped

Stating she believed her daughter had been kidnaped, Mrs. Bertha Stizer, of 1038 Grant avenue, Duquesne, today asked the Missing Persons Bureau to search for the girl, Dolores, 18. Mrs. Stizer said she disappeared November 28. Neighbors said Dolores, without hat or coat, entered an auto in front of her home.

'TROUBLES'--ER, JAMES, IN HEARING

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

MAGISTRATE ROTHENBERG JAMES M'INERNEY PATROLMAN ALBERT MILLER

The hearing in police court today for former Police Lieut. McInerney, arrested for brick-throwing through two downtown windows. Once referred to as "Troubles," his long, famed nickname, he warned: "James, if you please, James." The magistrate held him for another hearing.

MUSIC :-: String Symphony Ensemble

Carnegie Lecture Hall

PROGRAM

Homeward ..... Greig
Minuetto, Preludio and Serenata from Pergolesi's Stabat Mater .... Van Westerhout concerto grosso per il Santissimo Natale (Christmas Concerto) ..... Manfredini (Pastorale, largo; allegro.)
Organ, Harp and Ensemble.
Andante from String Quartett opus 30 ..... Tschaikowsky-Glazounow
A Chippewa Lullaby ..... Busch
Bagatelle (The Bee) ... Schubert
Adagio ..... Elgar
Organ, Harp and Ensemble.
Fuga in A minor ..... Bach
(By request)

The String Symphony Ensemble, with Oscar Del Bianco directing, gave its fifth concert of the season last night in Carnegie Lecture Hall, before a larger audience than heretofore. There was no soloist, and if the second half of the series shows as much improvement as the first half, then the ensemble will be well on its way.

Mr. Lissfelt

The program was diverse, as before, and leaned a little too far towards short numbers, a feature which tends to create no definite mood for the evening's music. There was also a tendency towards slow movements throughout the concert. Van Westerhout's suite and the Manfredini concerto were well worth an introduction; both showed the best playing of the ensemble and had some attractive, though dignified, tunes.

J. FRED LISSFELT.

Beer and Wine Seized In Moose Lodge Raid

Twenty-four pints of home-brew and one-half gallon of wine were seized by prohibition agents in a raid upon the Daisytown Moose Lodge, Washington County. They reported arresting John G. White as the bartender.

Homebrew, moonshine and gin was reported seized in a raid in Eighth avenue, Homestead; a still, 2,000 gallons of mash and five gallons of moonshine whisky at 5424 Dyke street.

Graham on Board For Culver Award

Dr. Ben G. Graham, superintendent of public schools, has been named to serve on a committee in charge of presenting a $6,000 scholarship including all expenses at the Culver Military Academy to some Pennsylvania ninth grade boy. Six boys will be selected throughout the state and will compete for the award to be based on scholarship and general ability.

FISH

At Your Nearby

A&P MARKET

Thursday and Friday your favorite A&P market will feature the following items, any of which will make a delightful dinner:

Fillet of Haddock (Boneless)	lb	14c
Baby White Fish (Freshly Dressed—Practically Boneless)	lb	18c
Blue Pike (Freshly Dressed—A Fresh Water Fish)	lb	21c
Yellow Perch (Freshly Dressed—Finely Flavored)	lb	19c
Sliced Halibut (White Flaky Meat)	lb	27c
Sliced Salmon (Deliciously Fresh—Full of Flavor)	lb	27c
Stewing Oysters (Large Extra Standards)	pint can	25c

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO.

"I swore off harsh irritants"

THE LONGEST NAME IN MAZDA LANE!

"Twelvetrees" is a tough name on electric lights, but Helen wouldn't change it . . . not even after she middle-aisled it. She's a Brooklyn girl. She studied art but paints only her own furniture now. Helen is Hollywood's best bridge player. She loves to climb mountains . . . where even the goats have to wear skid chains. Watch for her new RKO-PATHE Picture, "PANAMA FLO." Helen's smoked LUCKIES for two years . . . and there was no price tag on her statement . . . LUCKY STRIKE is grateful!

"Certainly I am on the LUCKY list. Last summer, while camping in the high Sierras, I hiked six miles to get my supply of LUCKY STRIKES. I swore off harsh irritants when the talkies first started—and I've smoked LUCKY STRIKES ever since. And that improved Cellophane wrapper of yours—with the little tab for easy opening—is a gem."

Helen Twelvetrees

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

And Moisture-Proof Cellophane Keeps that "Toasted" Flavor Ever Fresh

TUNE IN ON LUCKY STRIKE—60 modern minutes with the world's finest dance orchestras and Walter Winchell, whose gossip of today becomes the news of tomorrow, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N.B.C. networks.

GIBSON BODIES BROUGHT HOME

The bodies of Mrs. Florence Reynolds Gibson and her daughter, Margaret, 7, found shot to death in their Gary (Ind.) home, passed through Pittsburgh this morning en route to Vandergrift for interment. They were accompanied by William R. Gibson, Sr., retired metallurgist, father of William R. Gibson, Jr., who is held on murder charges. Testimony given yesterday by a Negro maid, authorities said, convinced them of Gibson's innocence.

The bodies were taken to the home of William C. Lace, brother-in-law of Mrs. Gibson, for burial tomorrow. The elder Gibson had gone to Indiana to aid his son, an industrial metallurgist, in his defense. The Gibson family formerly resided in Vandergrift.

PUPILS LUNCH AT ST. MARY'S

From 100 to 125 poor children are fed daily at noon on school days in St. Mary's Parochial School, Lockhart and Nash streets by the St. Vincent de Paul's Society of the parish. Eight women from the parish cook and serve the meals.

A great deal of the food is contributed; the remainder purchased.

The daily menu varies and includes noodle soup, veal and beef stews, ham and cabbage, macaroni, bread, milk, cake and apples. Twice a week, surplus food is distributed among poor families in the parish.

Hero and One of His Rescued in Homewood Fire

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

CLARENCE HARENCANE WITH LOUIS MILLETARY, 11 MONTHS

Mr. Harencane, 7745 Calhoun street, with one of the youngsters in the families he routed out to escape fire.

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

FIREMEN IN THE BURNED INTERIOR AT 7404 IDLEWILD STREET

Breaks Stick Over Waiter, Robs Cafe

Shattering a small stick over the head of John Robey, 21, of 335 Robinson street, Oakland night waiter in the Red Star Restaurant, 17 West Lacock street, North Side, a lone robber early today escaped with $5 from the cash register. Robey was uninjured.

Rochester Home Damaged by Fire

Fire early this morning did $1,000 damage to the home of John Scarheo, 469 Park street, Rochester.

OBITUARY

McGrath Funeral.

Funeral services for Joseph M. McGrath, 50, of Denver, former Pittsburgher, were held this morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. Ella McGarey, of 209 Jucunda street, Knoxville. Requiem high mass was said in Canice's Church. For 18 years he had been chief service inspector for the Denver Water Company and at one time he was chief machinist at Jones & Laughlin Steel Company.

Farrell Funeral.

Funeral services for Miss Grace A. Farrell, executive secretary of the Y. W. C. A., Chicago, will be held tomorrow at 4 p. m. at the home of her brother, Raymond P. Farrell, 419 Barr avenue, Crafton. She was a graduate of Oberlin College, and had been connected with Y. W. C. A. work in Pittsburgh, Kansas City, Baltimore and Chicago.

Mrs. Patrick Donahue.

Mrs. Margaret M. Donahue, 61, died yesterday at her home, 26 Emerson avenue, Crafton. She leaves five daughters, Mrs. John F. Sullivan, Mrs. James F. Burke, Mrs. R. C. Colbert, Mrs. D. B. Gibson and Mrs. John J. Rudge, and 12 grandchildren. She was a member of St. Philip's Catholic Church.

Klein Funeral.

Funeral services for Miss Mary B. Klein, of 1223 Juniata street, North Side, were held today. Miss Klein, a lifelong resident of North Side, died Sunday. Requiem high mass was celebrated at St. Joseph's Catholic Church.

Barney Rosenthal.

Funeral services for Barney Rosenthal, 66, who died in the West Penn Hospital yesterday, will be held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. C. Bash, 1328 South Negley avenue, tomorrow. He was a former president of the Tree of Life Congregation; a charter member of the Mother Lodge, Knights of Pythias; a member of B. P. O. Elks Lodge 11.

Mrs. Fannie F. Robin.

Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie Finkelpearl Robin, widow of Max Robin, formerly of Pittsburgh, will be held at the home of her brother, Dr. Henry Finkelpearl, 5325 Fornes street, Pittsburgh, tomorrow afternoon. She died this morning at her home in New York. Dr. Samuel H. Goldenson, of Rodef Shalom Congregation, will officiate. Interment will be made in West View Cemetery tomorrow.

Kuntz Funeral.

Funeral services for Mrs. Matthew Kuntz, 83, who died Tuesday, will be held tonight at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emma Brown, 1119 Marshall avenue. Interment will be tomorrow.

3 Storekeepers Fined Over Punch Boards

Three East McKeesport storekeepers, after pleading guilty in Criminal Court to possession of punchboards, paid $25 fines and entered on one-year paroles yesterday. They were sentenced by Judge James H. Gray.

The defendants, arrested October 15, were Samuel Reitz, of North Braddock, who has a store in Fifth avenue, East McKeesport; B. E. Holstein, proprietor of a store at 1108 Fifth avenue, East McKeesport, and Oscar Lofgreen, owner of a store at Greensburg avenue and Broadway, East McKeesport.

COUNTY PLANS PAYROLL LOAN

Allegheny County will have to borrow money from the banks to meet its January payrolls, Commissioner Charles C. McGovern announced at yesterday's budget hearing. He said:

"We are starting out with $242,000 in the general fund, a million less than at the beginning of last year, or for many years past. We will have to borrow from the banks to keep going. We are going to have a hard job making the budget fit the income.

"Like fresh snow in the sunshine the Department of Public Works has melted away. As soon as the remainder of the $100,000,000 building program of the last eight years is finished the skeleton remaining of the department will also disappear. There will be a great many positions abolished. This is not the Commissioners' choice but a necessity."

Missions Council Elects Pittsburgher

TORONTO, Ontario, Jan. 7.—(AP)—The Rev. John McDowell, of New York, yesterday was re-elected president of the Home Missions Council. Chaney A. Richardson, Pittsburgh, was elected a member of the executive committee.

Man Hit by Auto Found Along Road

Walter Jones, 35, was in the Rochester General Hospital today suffering from lacerations of the head received last night when he was struck by an automobile near Conway. He was found on the highway.

GIMBELS PITTSBURGH'S GREATEST DOWNSTAIRS STORE

SIXTH AVENUE AT SMITHFIELD STREET, PITTSBURGH, PA. — PHONE SHOPPING GRANT 8400 — ALL OTHER CALLS ATLANTIC 4400

MANUFACTURERS' CLOSE-OUT SALE!

Women's $1 GOWNS

59c

Plain, stripe flannelette. Long length, set-in sleeves. Reg. extra sizes.

Upper Level

Women's HOSE, 2 pr.

25c

Sizes of 9½ to 11. Mostly 1st grade. Chiffon. Lisle and picot tops.

Upper Level

MOTOR OIL 2-Gal. Can

89c

100% Pure Pennsylvania. Medium or heavy grade.

Lower Level

Women's GLOVES

39c

Plain, fancy styles. Washable nappa fabrics.

Upper Level

Women's $1 GIRDLES

59c

Side and front hook models. All elastic stepins. All sizes.

Upper Level

Genuine PEWTER

89c

Bread trays, water pitchers, creamer and sugar, relish dishes. Will not tarnish.

Upper Level

Manufacturer's Surplus Stock

1932 Dress Silks

All Are 38 Inches Wide!

Choice of Plain and Printed Crepes and Novelty Weaves. Good assortment of styles and colors in the group to select from. For dresses, lingerie needs.

50c YARD

No Mail, Phone Orders

GIMBELS DOWNSTAIRS—LOWER LEVEL

Sale! Table Lamps

Famous 'Betsy Ross' Make Complete With Matching Shade at This Low Price!

Pottery bases in over eight different styles and colors. High-grade lamps—all are wired and outfitted.

2.98

Mail, Phone Orders, GRant 8400

DOWNSTAIRS, LOWER LEVEL

New Arrivals for Friday!

Print Frocks

Values You'll Recognize as Being Extraordinary at 2.95

New Prints!
Smart Crepes!
New Combinations!

Never were values as great as in this group at 2.95. The styles and colors are really gorgeous—you must see them to realize their worth. SIZES 14 to 20 and 38 to 46—Misses and Women.

LOWER LEVEL

Here's a Real Sensation!

2-Yr. Guaranteed Bed Sheets

81x90 Inches

Guaranteed to launder and keep appearance for two years! Buy them by the half dozen—it's worth it at this Great Saving!

69c EACH

GIMBELS DOWNSTAIRS—LOWER LEVEL

500 Kitchen Chairs

Manufacturers' Surplus Stock, Specially Priced, at

Popular Windsor Style 79c

Genuine hardwood, sturdily constructed. All are unfinished. Hurry, for these.

Mail, Phone Orders, GRant 8400

DOWNSTAIRS, LOWER LEVEL

EARLY Morning Specials

Real Values That Won't Last Long. Better Hurry for Yours. Sorry, No Mail or Phone Orders!

Curtain Samples, Ea. Fine grade, 1¼ to 2¼-yard pieces. Nets and Marquisettes — 10c

Regular 1.00 Pewter Bowls, sherbets, bon bon dishes, etc. — 39c

Girls' 1.95 Gym Suits "Lafayette." Light, dark blue regulation style. 8 to 16 — 1.39

Women's 1.00 Corsets Also Girdles, Step-ins. Brocades and Coutils — 59c

Tots' 1.00 Sweaters Wool Slip-ons. Round or V neck. 2 to 6 years — 44c

Dress Ginghams, Yard All fast colors. Neat checks and plaids — 8c

Wash Fabrics, Yard "Fast colors." Many pretty sheer fabrics — 9c

14x19 Drain Boards Enameled sink borders. Slightly damaged — 49c

Linoleum—Sq. Yd. Assorted patterns and colorings. 1000 yards — 28c

Bath Rugs, Each 24x44-inch size. In patterns and colorings — 75c

50-lb. Mattresses, Each All with rolled edge. All bed size — 3.94

Bed Lamps, Each Celanese or parchment shade. Completely wired — 97c

Men's Hankies, 12 For Irregulars of 10c grade. In white only — 89c

Boys' $1 Leather Mitts Lined capeskin with wool wristlets — 39c

4 Big Domestic Specials!

'Cannon' Towels

5 For 48c

Double thread, full bleached. Colored borders. Medium size.

White Blankets

74c ea.

70x99 size. Warm, fleecy blankets for these cold nights.

81x99 Bed Sheets

74c ea.

With fast color rose, blue, green, orchid or yellow hems.

66x80 Blankets

1.39 pair

French gray with pink or blue striped borders. Double blankets.

GIMBELS DOWNSTAIRS STORE—LOWER LEVEL

Men's Sale of

Sweaters

100% Wool

1.59

V-neck pullover style. 2-ply baby shaker in plain colors, self-Jacquard designs. Sizes 36 to 44.

Mail, Phone Orders, GRant 8400

DOWNSTAIRS—UPPER LEVEL

Tots' Fast Color

New Spring Suits

Special, at

39c

Fast color Broadcloth and Linene in solid colors or colored shorts and white blouse. Many new models. Sizes 2 to 6 years.

Mail, Phone Orders, GRant 8400

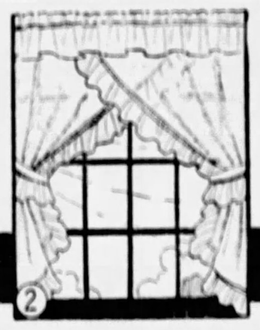
DOWNSTAIRS—LOWER LEVEL

Manufacturer's Surplus Stock 5000 Prs.

Regular 1.00 and 1.25 Grades

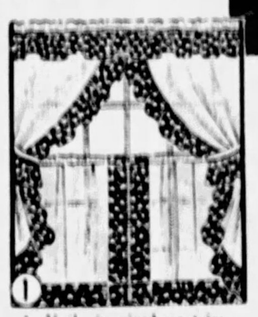
CURTAINS

Because the Manufacturer wanted to clear his stock before Inventory, we were able to purchase this group of curtains at a price we never dreamed possible for such fine quality and styling.



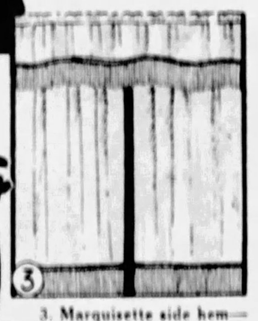
2. Marquisette with wide ruffle. 45 inches across top. Cream or ecru.

There are 5 styles to choose from. All curtains 2 1/6 yards long. Every housewife should recurtain every window in the home at this great, unusual saving!

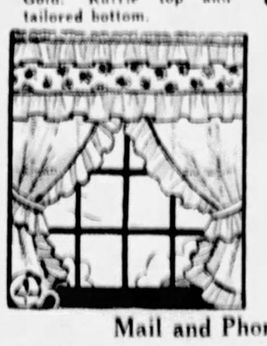


1. Voile in gingham trimming of Green—Blue—Gold. Ruffle top and tailored bottom.

50c PR.

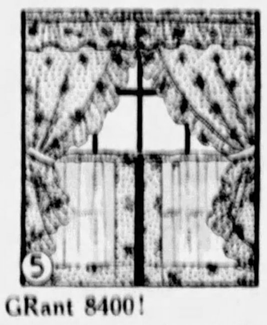


3. Marquisette side hem—Fringed bottom—50-inch Fringed valance. Cream or ecru.



4. Voile with wide ruffles. Colored stitching on edge of ruffles. 50-inch flowered alpaca valance. Rose—Blue—Green—Gold—Orchid.

5. Voile in printed figures of Green—Blue—Gold. Ruffle top and tailored bottom.



LOWER LEVEL

Mail and Phone Orders Filled—Call GRant 8400!

5000 Yds. Hardwood Rug Surround

4 Yards for $1

Manufacturer's Surplus Stock which we bought at a great saving to bring this Low Price! A quality that will wear and always look good.

Regular 2.25 Inlaid Linoleum — Sq. Yd., 87c
Regular 89c Kitchen Linoleum — Sq. Yd., 49c
7.95 Congoleum 9x12 Rugs, 'seconds,' 4.79

DOWNSTAIRS—LOWER LEVEL

Women's "Vat-Dyed"

New Spring Frocks

Hooverettes and Smocks

59c

New spring styles and colors. All are well made—full sizes. Fast colors, too! Sizes 16 to 48.

Mail, Phone Orders, GRant 8400

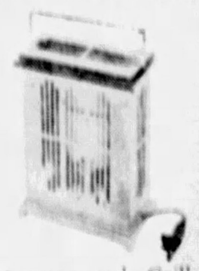
DOWNSTAIRS—UPPER LEVEL

New Shipment These

Modernistic Electric Heaters

$1

For Alternating or Direct Current



Made of 26-gauge steel. Grille design on four sides, top. 14 inches high, 11⅛ inches wide, 5⅜ inches deep. Guaranteed 900 burning hour element.

Mail, Phone Orders, GRant 8400

DOWNSTAIRS—LOWER LEVEL

FOR OTHER GIMBEL NEWS, SEE PAGES 4 AND 5

CARNEGIE FIVE WALLOPS PRESIDENTS, 59-22

SUN-TELEGRAPH SPORTS

TWENTY | THURSDAY, JANUARY 7, 1932 | BEST IN PITTSBURGH

JACKETS, WINDSOR CLASH

Sport Comment

By JAMES J. LONG

Pitt-Duke Test Awaited. Greb's Weight-Making.
Badgers Seek New Tilt. Ruth Ballyhoo Starts.
Champs' Temperaments. Savoldi Sees Irish Win.

STRUGGLE TO SETTLE OLD ARGUMENT

WITHIN THE NEXT week an argument that has been going on for a number of years may come close to being settled. That is, the long-standing question as to the superiority of University of Pittsburgh basketball over that played by Duquesne University, or vice versa. There was a time, not so long ago, when Duquesne had the only college basketball team in this district worth mentioning. Then, about 1927, the Panthers came into the foreground, where they have remained ever since.

Chick Davies

During this time the supporters of the two schools have engaged in numerous arguments, none of which could be settled satisfactorily because there was no opportunity for a decisive test or an actual comparison that would show the relative merits of the teams representing the institutions in the court game. But this season is to bring the answer, for the fives are to meet next Wednesday night on the Stadium floor, for the first time in their careers. Each will play one other game in the meantime, Chick Davies sending his Bluff charges against West Virginia Weslevan in the Duke gym Saturday night, and the Panthers facing Syracuse University in Syracuse on the same date.

IT IS FORTUNATE that both schools boast good quintets this season. Sometimes it happens that two teams whose followers have been crying for a meeting come together when one or the other is not at its best. But there will be no such situation when the Panthers and Dukes clash. Chick Davies has one of the best teams in the history of the Bluff institution, and Doc Carlson at Pitt, while his outfit lost six out of 11 games on the long trip to the Pacific Coast, still thinks he has a pretty good ball club.

In fact, all three local major schools—Pitt, Carnegie Tech and Duquesne—have such good teams this year that the one winning the city title may have a strong claim to the district championship as well. For the meeting of Pitt and the Dukes holds attention, and they are awaiting it eagerly as one of the high spots of the season.

SPEAKING OF PITT basketball, it develops the Panthers made such a hit when they met Wisconsin at Milwaukee in the first game of their western trip that the Badger athletic authorities are seeking to please the fans by arranging a return contest.

Dr. W. E. Meanwell, Wisconsin coach, has made overtures for such a game to be played in Madison on February 8, and in all probability the Panthers will accept. Western newspapers quote Dr. Meanwell as saying it was "a pleasure to meet a team as good and as strong as Pitt and as a fine a sportsman as Dr. Carlson."

ONE OF THE boxing veterans who greeted Max Schmeling on the latter's return to this country says he found the champion full of boyhood spirit and happy in mixing with the throng. Heavyweight title holders alternately have liked and disliked the mob, he recalls. John L. Sullivan always had a crowd around him. Jim Corbett, though he didn't go in for the higher learning, was much on the order of Gene Tunney. Bob Fitzsimmons was a hail fellow well met, a practical joker and congenial companion and a natural showman who usually was in the swim of the multitude.

Jim Jeffries

JIM JEFFRIES, who succeeded Fitz on the throne was surly, short-tempered, had few close friends and evaded the mob. Tommy Burns was a colorless individual and to this day no one knows whether he was for the crowd or against it.

Jack Johnson was a roisterer and bon vivant, whose social activities on all continents and the islands between kept him on the front pages. Jess Willard was like Jeffries, and no one ever saw much of him without raising at the box office first. Jack Dempsey's idea of a good time was to gather his friends about him in a big city hotel. Tunney held himself aloof or hid out, and reaching him was no easy matter.

IN EXPRESSING CONFIDENCE that Battling Battalino will succeed at the task of taking off 19 pounds for his featherweight title fight with Lew Feldman in New York tomorrow night, Hype Igoe, veteran critic, recalls that the greatest feat of weight-making that ever came to his notice was accomplished by the late Harry Greb, when the Pittsburgher made the middleweight limit for Mickey Walker.

Greb showed Igoe a schedule that he had tacked up over the mirror in his bedroom. The day he started to make 160 pounds for Walker he weighed exactly 178. He listed each day on the card and designated the weight he must attain on that particular day in order to keep on a perfect pruning schedule.

"TOMORROW WILL BE Monday and I'll be at 177," Greb told Igoe. "On Saturday I'll be at 172. The following Wednesday I'll be at 168, as this list shows. On the day before the fight I'll be down to 160 exactly. I'll hold that weight over-night and dry out half a pound. I'll come in at 159½ pounds and I'll bet you a new hat that I don't weigh more than a quarter of a pound above or below that mark when we scale in." Igoe adds: "Having my doubts about the success of such a weight arrangement, I took the bet. I paid. Greb came in at exactly 159½ pounds. He laughed when I saw him being fitted to a new $10 belly."

WITH BABE RUTH announcing that he will demand another two-year contract at $80,000 per season following the statement made by Col. Jacob Ruppert early in December that he never again would pay that sum to any ball player and that the Bambino would have to take a reduction in pay, the big ballyhoo is on.

You may expect to hear that stuff for perhaps the remainder of the winter, with the two apparently miles apart as sentiments unable to come to terms. It never fails to work out well for publicity purposes. It will be good for a story a day.

FINALLY IT WILL be announced that an agreement has been reached. Ruth probably will get what he wants, the photographers will be called in and there will be a big hurrah over the signing of a contract.

Whatever Ruppert pays the Babe will come back to him with interest, for in the meantime Ruth and the Yankees will get about a million dollars worth of free advertising and the fans will be in a lather of excitement for the opening of the season.

Joe Savoldi

JOE SAVOLDI predicts that Notre Dame will keep right on rolling along in football, winning a large majority of its games each season under Jess Harper and Hunk Anderson. "Those two know their football from A to Z, and Notre Dame, I believe, will carry on to its share of national titles," Savoldi said. "Coach Rockne's death was a serious blow to the sport, of course. Rock had something about him that gave a fellow the feeling that he wanted to go out there and tear the other team apart. He had the knack of instilling what some folk call fighting spirit in a player to a greater degree than any other coach I ever knew. He was hard on his boys, but fair. The only question that fits Rock and answers the question of his phenomenal success is that he was one of the boys, unquestionably knew his football, and knew the right way, the right instant and the right place to act in a crisis."

W. & J. UNABLE TO STOP TECH OFFENSIVE

GAMES TONIGHT

W. Va. Wesleyan vs. Waynesburg at Waynesburg.
W. and J. vs. Loyola at Baltimore.
Brooklyn at Fairmount.

By JESS CARVER

If Carnegie Tech's future basketball opposition for this season isn't any tougher than Wash-Jeff last night, the Tartans are through dropping decisions for the campaign. After the Tech Plebes had nosed out the Prexy frosh, 39-35, the Tartan varsity performers walloped the Presidents 59-22 and, to tell the truth, could have made it much worse had they so desired.

As it was Coach Buzz Hogan kept his first stringers in there longer during the second half than appeared necessary. He evidently figured they needed the workout, for the score read 53-20 before he sent his second five into the action.

TECH STARTS FAST

Tech started off in a mad rush, piling up a 14-1 lead almost before the late cash customers had become firmly wedged in their seats. Wash-Jeff was taken completely by surprise so dominating was the play of the Skibos. It started out to be a rout and wound up worse.

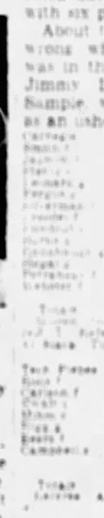
At the end of the half Tech led, 31 to 12. Capt. Jimmy Leonard, of Tech, led his team in point getting during the first 20 minutes of play with three baskets and a foul. Headley of Wash-Jeff, who played an end on the football team, accounted for two goals from the court to keep the Presidents as much in the running as they were.

If the first half was bad for Wash-Jeff, the second was disastrous. The Presies might as well have been hiking with Father Cox's pilgrims as have been out there in that Tartan gym. Tech rolled up 37 points to 9, scoring 15 field goals to 3 and outplaying the bewildered Red and Blackers in every department of the game.

HEADLEY W.-J. STAR

Four Skibo performers accounted for five goals each. Bobby Smith, Eddie Stentz, Red Ferens and Jimmy Leonard, sinking a quintet each. Headley adding a third goal in the second half, finished out in front for Wash-Jeff with six points.

About the only thing that went wrong while the Tartan varsity was in there was one pass, which Jimmy Leonard threw to Bill Sample, who was parading about as an usher. The lineups:



DUKES IN SPECIAL DRILLS

Special drills for the Wesleyan College zone defense will begin in the Duquesne University gymnasium this afternoon according to Coach Charles R. "Chick" Davies. Saturday night the Red and Blue open their home season against Cliff Battles and his West Virginia mates in the Duke gymnasium.

There is a comparatively green team on the Bluff since eight out of 10 men are sophomores and the captain, Bunk McGeever, is the only senior on the squad. In their close game with Grove City College, the Dukes showed a certain amount of power, but likewise they showed a number of rough spots which most certainly will have to be polished.

MORRYS BEAT Y.M.H.A.

The Morrys tripped the Y. M. H. A., 27-25, in last night's outstanding independent floor engagement. Uniontown copped from Carmichaels, 32 to 23, in the Five County League. St. Michael's Juniors trimmed St. Canice, 29-14, in the Lyceum League. Goodwill and the Burkes scored wins in the Metropolitan circuit, and St. Mary's won from the New Brighton Merchants, 50 to 27, in the Beaver County League. The Goldenson Vanities beat the Homewood girls, 57-8.

GREENLEAF LEADS

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Ralph Greenleaf, of Iowa, world pocket billiard champion, increased his margin over Andrew Mourer, of Pawtucket, R. I., yesterday by winning the 300-point match, 300 to 227, in the 18.2 balkline tournament here. Greenleaf, who won one of the six games played and leads, 154 to 327.

FIGHT RESULT

At Baltimore, Jay Raymond defeated Bruno Jacobs, 10 rounds.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

(Reg. by U. S. Patent Office)

By RIPLEY

(On request, sent with stamped addressed envelope, Ripley will send proofs and details of anything depicted by him in these cartoons.)

KERR CHEW
SNEEZE CORNER IN UNIONTOWN, PA WHERE THE STREETS KERR AND CHEW CROSS
ROY LYNDE FERNALD of Winterport, Me. AGE 29 YRS HAS EARNED 8 COLLEGE DEGREES!
A.B. ..... UNIV. of MAINE
A.M. ..... UNIV. of MAINE
LL.B. ..... BOSTON UNIVERSITY
LL.M. ..... BOSTON UNIVERSITY
M.ED. ..... BOSTON UNIVERSITY
B.S. IN ED. ..... BOSTON UNIVERSITY
A.M. ..... HARVARD UNIVERSITY
PH.D. ..... BOSTON UNIVERSITY
THE TUATERA - of New Zealand (2½ Feet Long) IS THE ONLY LINEAL DESCENDANT OF THE GIANT DINOSAURS OF THOUSANDS OF YEARS AGO
IF FIGURES NEVER LIE WHERE DO THE WRONG PHONE NUMBERS COME FROM?
THE SWIMMING ROOSTER of Lake Union, Seattle GOES FOR A PLEASURE SWIM DAILY
COWBOYS ARE NOT BOWLEGGED
THEIR CHAPS AND TROUSERS TAKE THE SHAPE OF THE HORSE - AND MAKE THEM APPEAR THAT WAY

EXPLANATIONS OF RIPLEY'S CARTOONS OF YESTERDAY—THE GREATEST FARMER IN HISTORY—The largest farm in history was owned until recently by Gen. Don Luis Terrazas, who several times was governor of the state of Chihuahua, Mexico, in which it was situated. The farm covered an area of 10,000,000 acres, equal to 11-3 the area of the state of New York. An inventory of this colossal farm conjures up memories of the empires of old. On its mountains and through its valleys roamed more than a million cattle, 700,000 sheep and 100,000 horses, requiring the services of more than 2,000 horsemen, herdsmen, shepherds and huntsmen. Each year 150,000 head of cattle and 100,000 sheep were slaughtered in the abattoirs of the proprietor. On the farm were five reservoirs and more than 300 wells were constructed at a cost of more than $1,000,000. The farmhouse, one of the finest homesteads in the world, cost about $2,000,000 and, with a retinue of 100 male servants, easily accommodated 500 guests at a time. The extent of this territory concentrated within a single hand and the grand scale on which it was maintained were among the chief causes of the Mexican Revolution and the policy of expropriation of land inaugurated by the post-revolutionary governments of that country. THE GEMSBOK—The little gemsbok, or South African anteiope, is not particularly fierce, but its long, sharp horns make it one of the most feared animals that roam the Veldt. Its straight, fine horns, deeply annulated next to the base, are about 45 inches long and equal to its body height. It has been known to best the lion in an encounter, and a skeleton of a lion has been found living together with that of a gemsbok, transfixed by the horns of the latter. The gemsbok figures on the republic's coat of arms. When seen in profile its two horns appear as one. This circumstance probably gave rise to the belief in the unicorn of myth and legend.

TOMORROW: THE BOTTLE OF NOTHING.

C. OF C. SLATES GRID FETE

University of Pittsburgh and South Hills High School city champions last season, will be the guests of honor at the annual football championship award luncheon of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce Saturday, January 16. The affair will be under the auspices of the recreation committee of the Pittsburgh Chamber, of which T. E. Whiter is chairman.

New bronze trophies, emblematic of the championship, will be presented by Chairman Whiter in behalf of the chamber to the captain of each team. Teams winning the championship three times become permanent owners of the awards. The silver cups which the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce has given in the past now are in permanent possession of Pitt and the Westinghouse High School.

A huge silver cup, the award of the city of Pittsburgh, also will be presented Pitt by John S. Herron, president of City Council.

Judge John P. Egan, of Common Pleas Court, will be the principal speaker. The luncheon will start at 12:15 p. m. Sound pictures of local football contests will be shown at the conclusion of the meeting.

Other guests of honor will include Chancellor John G. Bowman, Secretary Samuel B. Linhart and Coach Dr. John H. Sutherland, of the University of Pittsburgh; Dr. Thomas S. Baker, president, and Clarence Dravo, graduate manager of athletics, of Carnegie Institute of Technology; Rev. J. J. Callahan, president of Duquesne University; Dr. Frank Aydelotte, president of the Board of Education; Dr. Ben G. Graham, superintendent of Pittsburgh public schools; R. E. Wilson, principal, South Hills High School.

Hockey Game On the Air Tonight

The hockey game at Duquesne Garden tonight between the Pittsburgh Yellow Jackets and the Windsor Bulldogs will be broadcast over the radio through Station WWSW, with Jack Keough, of WCAE, at the microphone, assisted by Carl Shatto, hockey writer for the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

All of the remaining games on the Yellow Jackets' schedule will be broadcast by WWSW as will also be the leading basketball games on the schedule of Pitt and Carnegie Tech.

WESLEYAN TOPS W. VA., 26-25

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Jan. 7.—(AP.)—West Virginia Wesleyan took a basketball thriller from West Virginia University last night, 26 to 25. The lineup:

Wesley	Fg.	F.	Pt.	West. Va.	Fg.	F.	Pt.
Fuller, f	0	2	2	Abruzzino, f	2	3	8
Dull, f	2	1	5	Dugle, f	0	0	0
Battles, c	5	1	11	Cybulski, c-f	4	0	8
Hendricks, g	0	1	1	Rule, g	2	2	6
Daily, g	2	0	4	Dobson, g	1	1	3
Kuhnsman, f	0	1	1	Dorfeld, c	0	1	1
				Wilson, c	0	0	0
Totals	10	6	26	Totals	9	7	25

Referee, Buxton; Umpire, Wallace.

DAVIS-ELKINS WINS

BALTIMORE, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Davis & Elkins continued its Eastern basketball invasion last night by defeating Loyola of Baltimore, 37 to 25.

HARVARD ICEMEN COP

BOSTON, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—The Harvard hockey team overwhelmed the St. Mary's (Canada) Flexiet, 11-2, last night.

Y.M.H.A. MEETS AKRON FIVE

STANDING OF THE TEAMS

	W.	L.	Pct.		W.	L.	Pct.
Akron Firestones	5	0	1000	Y. M. H. A.	1	3	.250
Akron Goodyears	4	1	.800	Warren	1	3	.250
Oil City	3	2	.600	Detroit	0	5	.000

The Y. M. H. A. team will seek its second consecutive victory in the National Industrial Basketball League when it lines up against the Akron Goodyears, tied with the Akron Firestones, for the lead in the circuit. The game will be played on the local floor tonight.

The Goodyears boast a fast team, coached by Edgar (Smiley) Weltner, former Ohio State star. Olson and Bolton are two aces, not to mention Stash Wrobleski, former Pitt ace.

The Y. M. H. A. defeated Fort Wayne in its most recent league game and since has won over Cumberland in a non-league tussle. In three other league games, the locals have bowed to both Akron teams and Oil City.

In last night's Industrial League contest, played at Oil City, the Clevelanders defeated Oil City, 38 to 36.

Tolan to Train At Charleston

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Eddie Tolan, former Michigan track star and holder of the official world record for the 100-yard dash in the time of 9.4, will begin training for the Olympic trials here Monday.

Tolan, a post-graduate student at West Virginia State College, a Negro institution, will train on Laidley Field stadium's cinder path for the preliminary sectional trials. Tolan will be entered in the Iowa sectional.

Basketball Scores

YESTERDAY'S GAMES

COLLEGIATE

Carnegie Tech	59—W. & J.	22
Carnegie Tech Plebes	39—W. & J. Frosh	35
Allegheny	27—Grove City	17
W. Va. Wes	26—West Virginia	25
Army	36—Buffalo	18
Bill Tradyers	37—Centenary	18
Virginia	53—Wm. and Mary	32
Pennsylvania	28—Dickinson	16
Navy	37—V. M. I.	15
Muhlenberg	36—Mt. Alto	16
Dartmouth	37—Lowell	17
Princeton	35—Columbia	22
Brown	32—Holy Cross	18
Davis Elkins	37—Loyola, Balt.	25
Syracuse	36—Rutgers	19
North Carolina	49—Portland	23
Cashlins	38—Towson	21
Mississippi A. C.	50—Howard	18
Louisville Y. M.	31—Georgetown	24
Arizona	53—Occidental	18
Olympic Club	39—California, Los	25
Murray Teach	41—Hobart, Texas	29

SCHOLASTIC

Verona	14—Franklin Twp.	5
Steelton	45—Lebanon	22
New Twp.	29—Monmt	18

FIVE COUNTY LEAGUE

Uniontown	32—Carmichaels	23

LYCEUM LEAGUE

St. Michael Jrs	29—St. Canice	14

METRO LEAGUE

Goodwill	39—Penn Labels	20
P. F. Burkes	22—Goodwill	11

BEAVER COUNTY LEAGUE

St. Mary's	50—N. B. Merchants	27

NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL

Cleveland	38—Oil City	36

INDEPENDENT

Calvary M. E.	28—First Presby	18
Jo Jo	53—Yorkboys	24
Morrys	27—Y. M. H. A.	25
St. John's	31—Panthers Y	18
St. X. Scholastics	41—Five Mile	17
Wagners	30—Bilkys	14
C. F. Bilkys	34—First Christian	14
N. Boroughs Y	47—Community	20
Trinity Angels	25—Avalon Jrs	15
Protestants	40—N. S. Olympics	18
Royal Pirates	31—Bonarets	15
Wilmerding, Y	43—Butler	27
Turtletown Y	41—Kingsley House	20
Etna Elks	24—Canonsburg	16
Christs	37—St. Paul	18
J. C. James	47—Carnegie Club	12

GIRLS

Goldenson	57—Homewood	8

PROFESSIONAL

Chic. Cubics	25—Chicago Bruins	24

BILLY KISH BOWS

Billy Kish met to William Kuhnemuller to 42 to 40 innings in the Greater Pittsburgh Billiard League, at Tobin's parlors, last night.

Hockey Summary

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

GAMES TONIGHT

Windsor at PITTSBURGH.
Detroit at Syracuse.

STANDING OF THE TEAMS

	W.	L.	T.	G.	GF.	Pts.
Buffalo	10	7	0	20	51	20
Detroit	9	7	1	19	51	19
London	7	7	1	15	53	15
Windsor	8	7	1	17	56	17
PITTSBURGH	6	7	1	13	45	13
Cleveland	7	10	1	15	48	15
Syracuse	4	10	1	9	44	9

NATIONAL LEAGUE

LAST NIGHT'S RESULT

Chicago	4—Detroit	1

GAMES TONIGHT

N. Y. Rangers at Montreal Maroons.
Montreal Canadiens at N. Y. Americans.
Boston at Detroit.

COLLEGIATE

LAST NIGHT'S RESULTS

Toronto	2—Princeton	1
N. Y. Boston	4—Yale	2
Harvard	11—St. Mary's	2
Army	6—Colgate	4

By CARL W. SHATTO

The Yellow Jackets will attempt to even their season series with Windsor and regain a half interest in fourth place in the International Hockey League standings when they meet the Bulldogs, circuit champions, at Duquesne Garden at 8:30 tonight.

The first Pittsburgh-Windsor meeting was staged here and resulted in a 5-0 victory for the locals. Since that time the Reidmen have absorbed 5-1 and 6-0 setbacks at the hands of the title-holders, and the yellow shirts will have to do some considerable scoring to convince the Windsor cheering section that the first triumph over the champions was no mistake.

DUNNING IN DEBUT

Stu Dunning, sturdy right wing obtained from the Cleveland Indians in exchange for Milt Halliday, accompanied the Jackets home from Windsor, where they were treated in a very disrespectful manner on Tuesday, and will make his Pittsburgh debut in a Jacket uniform tonight. He will be teamed with Earl Miller, at center, and Ty Arbour, at left wing. It is probable that this trio will perform as the first relief line.

Doc Romnes, veteran wingman making his third start in Pittsburgh regalia, will continue to skate with Eddie Rodden and Cliff Barton.

Pittsburgh penalties played no small part in the Windsor win on Tuesday. Five Jackets were sent to the cooler in the first period, when the Bulldogs piled up a 3-0 lead, and at the finish the penalties totals were: Pittsburgh, 9; Windsor, 2. The invaders may find that the lack of home officiating reduces the efficiency of their attack.

OPEN GAME EXPECTED

A Pittsburgh victory will enable the Jackets to draw two points ahead of Cleveland and place them back on even terms with the fourth-place Bulldogs. A Pittsburgh defeat will leave the locals stranded four points behind the leaders, and in danger of elimination from a play-off berth.

An open, high-score game is anticipated. Neither team stresses close back checking, and no low-score Pittsburgh-Windsor game

(Continued on Page Twenty-Two.)

REIDMEN OUT TO EVEN SERIES TONIGHT

B. DREYFUSS RECOVERING

Late reports on Barney Dreyfuss, Pirate owner, who underwent a somewhat serious operation yesterday in Mount Sinai hospital, New York City, are encouraging. With the Pittsburgh magnate are Mrs. Dreyfuss, and Mr. and Mrs. William E. Benswanger, the latter being the daughter of the Buccaneer owner.

On the advice of his local physician, Dreyfuss went to New York about three weeks ago. Ten day hence he underwent a minor operation which was beneficial, but the Pittsburgher experienced a more serious ordeal yesterday.

It was stated at local headquarters that Dreyfuss probably would remain in the New York institution for several weeks. Meantime, Manager George Gibson, Treasurer Benswanger and Secretary Samuel Watters will conduct the baseball business here.

Dreyfuss will be 67 years old on February 23. He has been actively associated with baseball since 1888.

MORAN MADE PILOT

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Herb Moran, of Rochester, N. Y., who was scout for the Montreal team of the International League, has been elected manager of the Williamsport baseball team, of the New York-Pennsylvania League. He is a former major league player, having played with Brooklyn and Boston, both as a catcher and outfielder.

ALLEN, RUDOLPH WIN

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Johnny Allen, of Kansas City, and Rudolph Kopp, of Cleveland, remained unbeaten in the New York State six-day bicycle race, which started Monday night, when Allen defeated Joseph Fogarty, of Binghamton, N. Y., 123 to 58, in seven innings.

HARPSTER MAY QUIT GENEVA BERTH

NEW CONTRACT SAID TO SHOW SALARY CUT

BEAVER FALLS, Jan. 7.—Inasmuch as it has been reliably reported he has been offered a substantial decrease in salary, it is not expected here that Head Coach Howard Harpster, of Geneva College, will return next season.

It was indicated that the present financial condition of the local institution calls for a general cutting of expenses, and that was the main reason for the alleged chopping of Harpster's contract, although he has been an outstanding success during his two years here.

ATHLETICS SHOW LOSS

Geneva is well satisfied with Harpster's work, but reports are that he has balked on the salary cut.

Geneva is feeling the current depression. Never flush with money, even when times were good, now that times are bad the Covenanters find the going very tough.

For the last two years Geneva athletics have shown a loss.

There is some question as to whether Don Lovewell, line coach, will be here next year. Geneva may not even hire him in 1932 if things don't look up financially for the institution, it is said.

HARPSTER SILENT

Harpster, questioned here concerning his contract renewal at Geneva, said that he had been offered a new one, but refused to disclose its contents. He is holding the matter under advisement for the present, he said.

Bowler Rolls 300 Score Two Nights in Row

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 7.—(AP.)—A perfect score of 300 was rolled by Charles Ray in a City Bowling League match game here last night. Ray Tuesday night rolled another perfect score in an informal pick-up game.

MILL CREEK, VANGS PLAY

The polo team of the Mill Creek Riding Academy, Youngstown, O., will arrive in Pittsburgh by automobile late Saturday afternoon for a return engagement with the Vang team of the local league in Hunt Armory that night. The Mill Creek riders, headed by their captain, Frank Williams, No. 1 Post, are expected to give the Vang team the toughest game of the city indoor season.

ROVERS BATTLE SWITCHMEN

By TOM BIRKS

The big soccer game of Saturday finds the league-leading Union Switch and Signal team clashing with the Pittsburgh Rovers at Leslie Park.

On Sunday, the fans will have the Bridgeville-Morrys National cup game, and there are rumors that interesting things will happen at this game.

The Castle Shannon Juniors will make the trip to Akron to meet the National amateur champions, and expect to take a licking besides getting a share of a poor gate.

The last Pittsburgh Club to make the trip to the Rubber town lost $150.

Olympic Tryout Meets Are Carded

The men's Olympic swimming tryouts are to be held at Cincinnati on July 15, 16 and 17. The men's fancy diving and water polo will be held at Pasadena, Cal., on July 23, while the women's tryouts will be held at Central Park, New York, July 9 and 10.

Final boxing tryouts are to be held at Soldiers' Field, Chicago, on July 15 and 16. The women's track and field tryouts will be held at Chicago on July 15 and 16.

LOCAL GOLFERS QUALIFY

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 7.—C. M. Scott, of the Pittsburgh Field Club, and J. D. Wallace, of Oakmont, teed off this morning in the first round of match play for the mid-winter amateur golf championship over the Miami Country Club course. Scott is opposing J. B. Huhn, of New York, in the third sixteen, and Wallace is tackling O. Davis, of Miami, in the fourth.

Scott had 45-45—90 in the qualifying round, and Wallace, 50-49—99.

Win Day, of Chicago, led the field of 65 players with a card of 38-35—73.

Willie Macfarlane, of Tuckahoe, N. Y., and Ralph Stonehouse, of Indianapolis, put their best shots together for cards of 33-36—69 to win first prize in the annual Miami-Biltmore professional best ball tournament.

Tilden Is Victor Over Vin Richards

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Bill Tilden defeated Vincent Richards, his foremost rival for world professional tennis honors, here last night. The Philadelphian turned his more youthful opponent back by scores of 6-2, 6-3, 6-1.

The veteran Francis T. Hunter vanquished Albert Burke, professional champion of France, 6-4, 7-5.

'GATORS TRIP GENEVA

MEADVILLE, Pa., Jan. 7.—With Harry Dennison playing the title role, Allegheny College passers engaged Geneva's Covenanters in their home opener last night and administered a 27-21 setback to the invaders. The lineup:

Allegheny	Fg	F	Pt	Geneva	Fg	F	Pt
Davidson, f	5	2	12	Manning, f	2	1	5
Railston, f	1	1	3	Fair, f	2	1	5
Conn, c	1	1	3	Ransom, c	2	1	5
Garbara, g	1	1	3	Aultman, g	0	2	2
Reiger, g	0	3	2	Montgomery, g	1	5	7
Totals	8	11	27	Totals	8	10	24

Referee—Fitting.

U. S. C. ELECTS BROWN

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 7.—Jay Brown, tackle, has been elected captain of the University of Southern California 1932 football team.

(Advertisement)

Dr. R. H. M. Mackenzie

Pittsburgh's Oldest and Longest Established

SPECIALIST

Whose Best Reference Is the Fact That He Has Been Located On Penn Ave.—34 Yrs.—On Penn Ave.

When in need of the services of an EXPERT SPECIALIST, consult Dr. Mackenzie and get the benefit of his many years of experience in handling the following conditions: STOMACH and LIVER conditions, GAS and bloating after eating, palpitation of the heart, ANEMIA, HEART DISEASE, KIDNEY trouble accompanied by swelling of the feet and legs, BLADDER conditions causing pain, frequent scanty and burning irritations and disturbing [illegible] night's sleep, BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASES, ECZEMA, ASTHMA, ULCERS or any old discharging SORES, WEAK BACK, WEAK NERVOUS RUN-DOWN conditions with loss of PEP, RHEUMATISM in all its forms including sciatica and all female ailments. RUPTURE, PILES and all RECTAL conditions, GALL-STONES or any ENLARGEMENTS, SWELLINGS or TUMOR-LIKE GROWTHS treated without cutting. Blood and urine tests made. ADVICE FREE. Dr. R. H. M. Mackenzie, 648 Penn Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa. Hours 9 to 5 daily. Evenings 6 to 8:30. Sundays and Holidays 9 to 2.

SCHOOLS HONOR GRID SQUADS

By JULIUS LEVIN

College football stars will be the principal speakers at banquets to be given tonight for the members of the South High and Charleroi football squads. The South banquet, given by the businessmen's association, will be staged in the high school auditorium, while the Charleroi affair will be held in the Odd Fellows' Club of that town.

Paul J. Bleichner is general chairman of the South High banquet. Among the guests will be County Commissioner W. D. Mansfield, Joseph G. Armstrong, Jr., Alderman P. F. Riley, Dr. W. A. McGregory, William Pinkel, R. Rhody Brenlove, John C. Grau, J. M. McLaughlin, Coach Grover C. Washabaugh, Jess Quatse, all-America star of Pitt; Bud Devinney, of Duquesne, and Don Fletcher, of Carnegie Tech.

Luby DiMeolo, former Pitt star and now assistant coach at New York University, and Jess Carver, of the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph, will be among the speakers at Charleroi.

School Notes

Poised to rebuild his team owing to graduations, coach Bill Donahue, former Carnegie and basketball star at Carnegie Tech, has developed a team at Central Catholic that is going to bear watching this season. The Guildmen showed a lot of class against George Woodman's speedy Carlton quintet, losing out by only two points.

Cousins opposed each other in the Clairton-Central Catholic game when John Smith, of Clairton, guarded Al Zeber, of Central Catholic. Both boys are captains of their teams, which also stood out brilliantly for Clairton during the past football season, also shines on the basketball court. He is a dead shot from all angles of the floor.

One of the strongest contenders for the W. P. I. A. L. championship this winter is Moe Rubenstein's smooth-working Armstrong quintet. The loss of Harry Yoos apparently has not weakened the Beaver valley quintet to any extent. Keep your eye on this team.

There dates for games abroad are open on the Fifth Avenue High school basketball card. Saturday is open, as are February 2 and February 5. Teams interested in filling these dates are asked to call Charles F. Briggs at Grant 10455.

Dick Myers, football coach at Peabody High School, has booked a game with Johnstown in Johnstown for Saturday, November 5.

Clifford B. Connelley Trade School is going to beat watching in the Section 1 race of the City League, judging from the showing of the team in the opening battle with Peabody. Coach Dickson's quintet has a lot of promise and with a little more accurate passing, that comes with active competition, this team is going to cause quite a bit of trouble for the other contenders. Schubert and Hopkins are a couple of sweet forwards who are hard to stop from scoring.

As long as South High has a Jeske in the lineup that quintet will prove a tough team to upset. South started out in the right direction with a decisive victory over John Irwin's Taylor Allderdice team. Jesse hails from a family of basketball stars, all of whom have played for South High. Coach Washabaugh's quintet looms as a good bet for the Section 1 title this season.

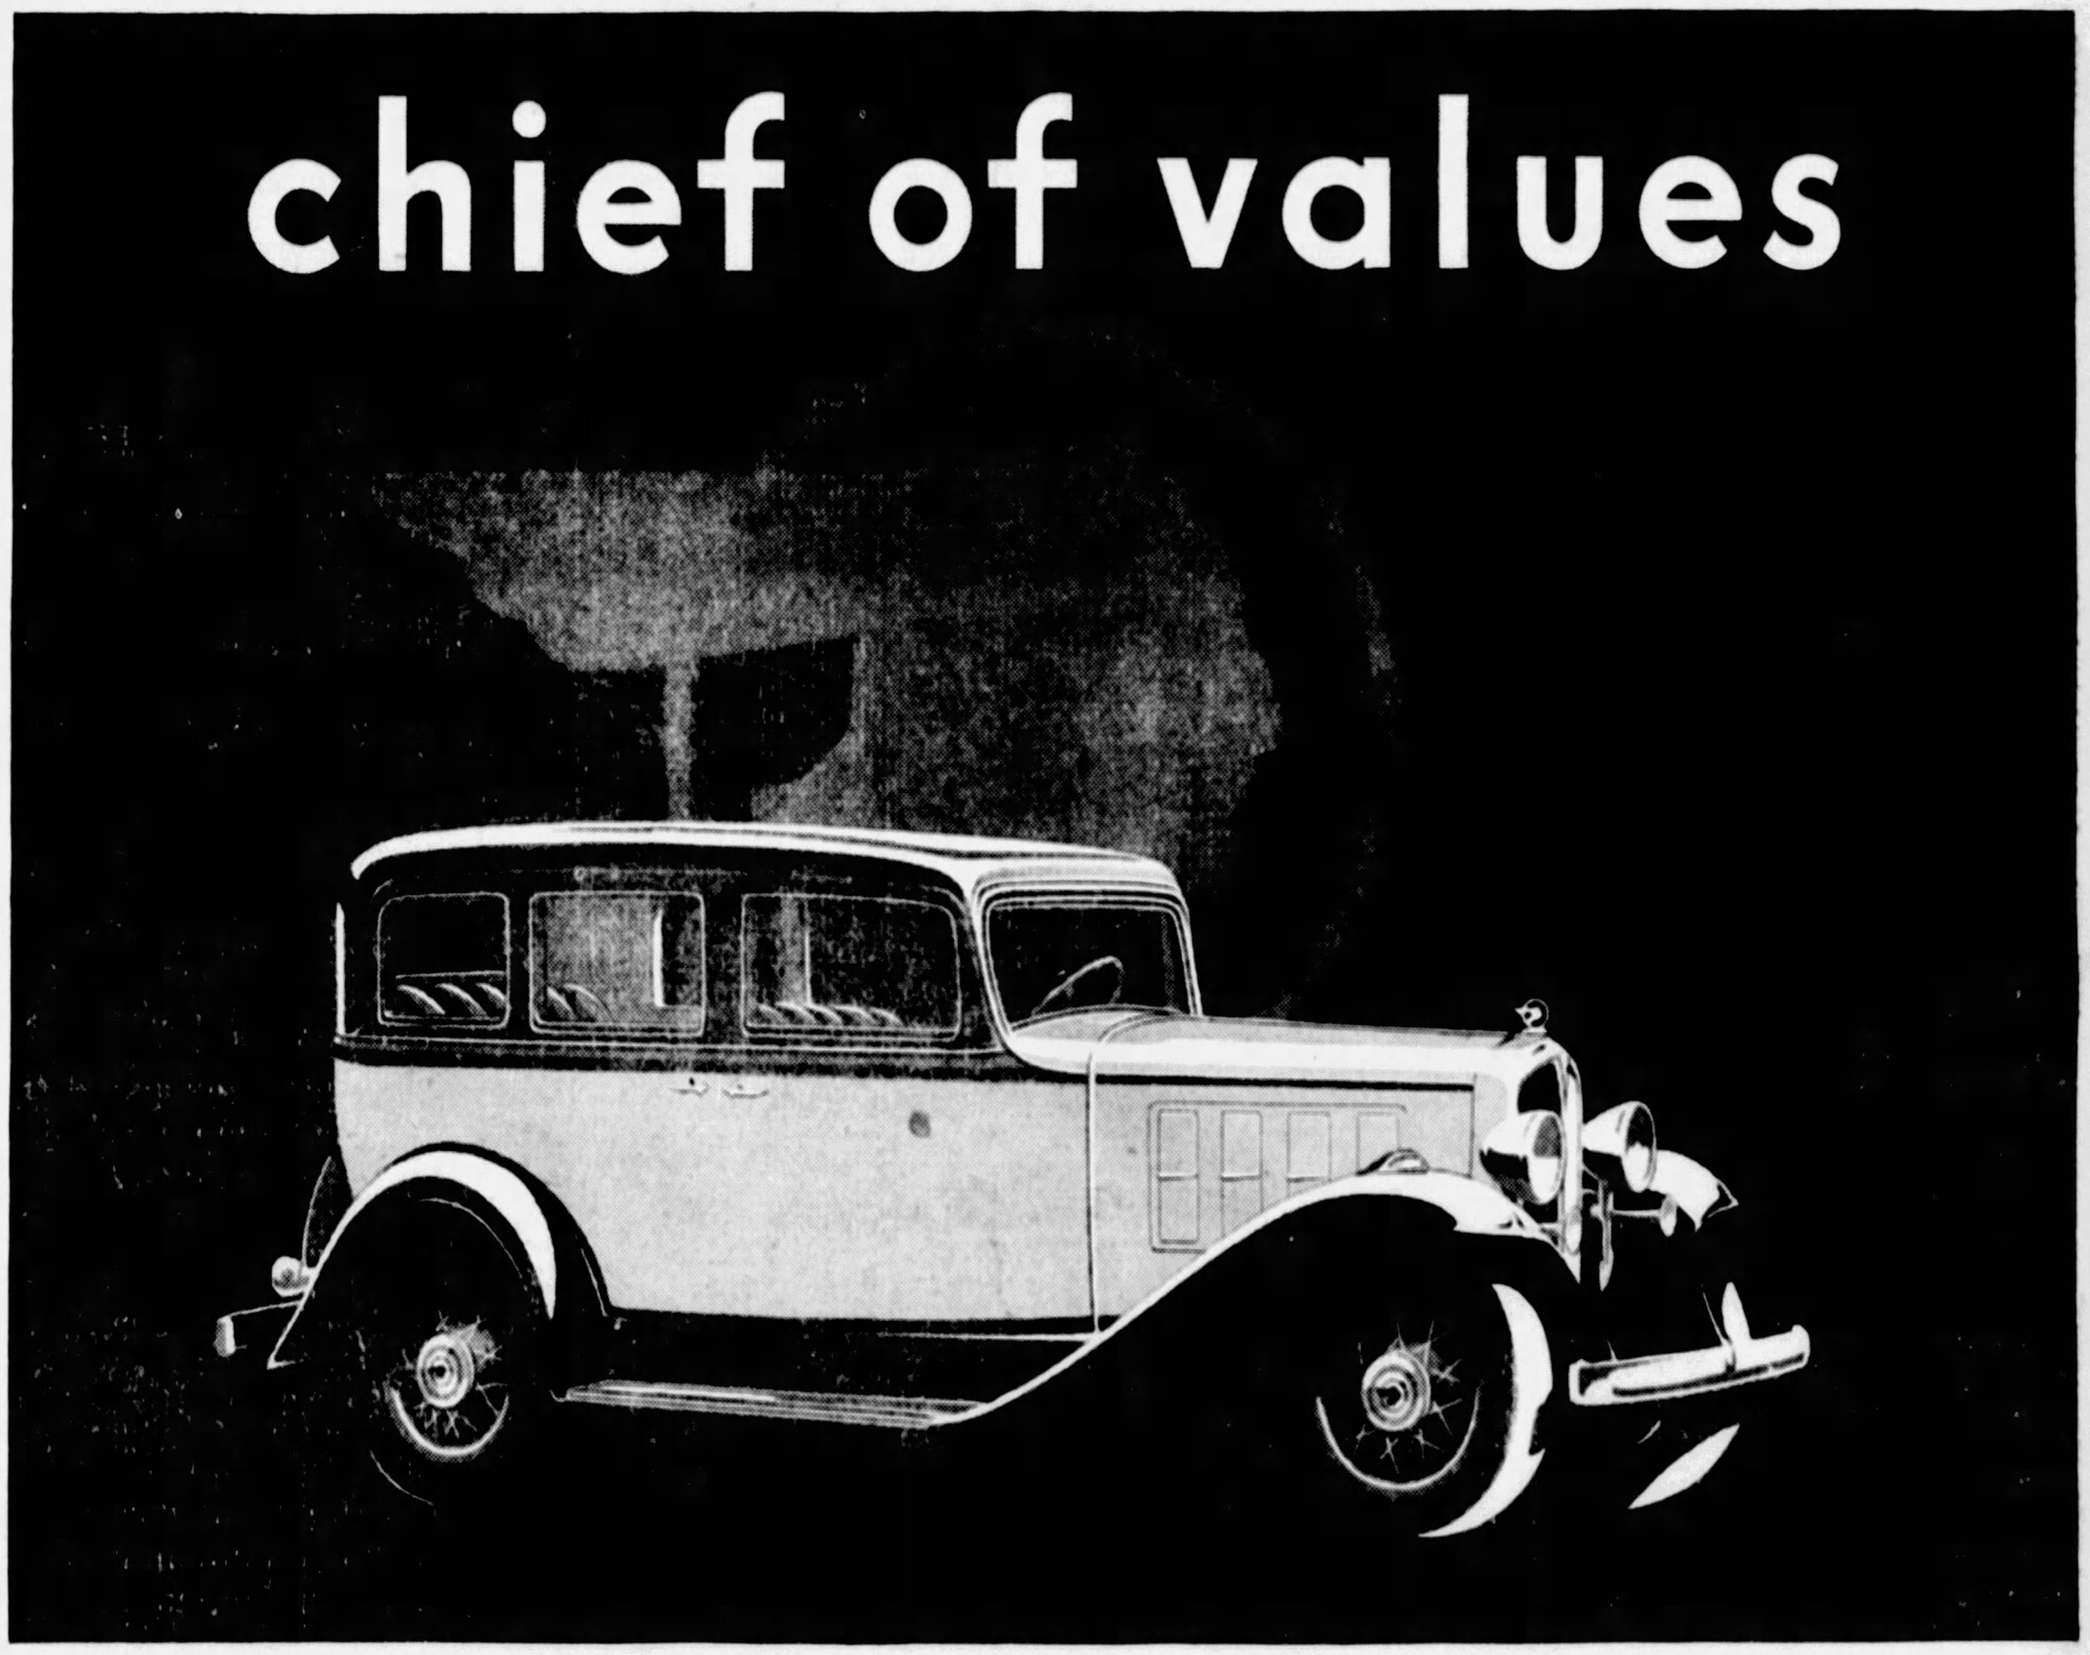
With a Horne-composed virtuosity of football stars, Clairton High boasts as the first big test for Hoerstead's powerful passers at Clairton tomorrow night. Beerbower, Arthur Smith and Eddie Johnson are on the Bear squad.

South and Connelley clash tomorrow afternoon in the feature attraction on the City League card. Both teams started with victories and their battle on the Connelley floor should prove a thriller.

Gimbels—where the promise is performed

PONTIAC ANNOUNCES A NEW 6, A NEW V-8

chief of values



THE NEW PONTIAC SIX

Brings the Important Developments of the Year to the Low-Price Field

You can now have real economy in motoring without denying yourself either comfort or fine performance. The new Pontiac Six, announced today, has riding comfort, great speed and power, modern styling—yet Pontiac's price is low, and its running cost is no higher than that of cars built for economy alone.

The transmission is Syncro-Mesh providing effortless shifting of gears. The new second gear is quiet. Then, you have free wheeling. . . . All three of these improvements at no extra cost.

There's a big, powerful motor for extra speed, extra pick-up, extra stamina. Yet this motor uses very little fuel.

Comfort is notably advanced, with Ride Control to adjust shock absorbers as you drive—long wheelbase—rubber cushioning at 47 chassis points—enclosed springs.

Interiors, too, present unusual values . . . rich, well-tailored upholstery, easy-reading new clock-type instruments, tastefully finished appointments. Examine this new Pontiac—let us demonstrate it. You'll agree it is an outstanding General Motors value. G. M. A. C. terms, if you wish.

Pontiac offers these important developments at no extra cost

SYNCRO-MESH
•
QUIET SECOND
•
FREE WHEELING
•
RIDE CONTROL
•
LONGER WHEELBASE
•
INCREASED POWER AND HIGH SPEED
•
GREATER ECONOMY
•
NEW, ROOMIER FISHER BODIES
•
RUBBER CUSHIONING AT 47 CHASSIS POINTS
•
ENCLOSED SPRINGS
•
RIDING COMFORT
•
FULL PRESSURE LUBRICATION

THE NEW PONTIAC V-8

Offers the Distinction of V-8 Performance at a List Price under $850

You know that only "luxury" cars have offered the brilliant, supremely reliable V-type motor. Now you can have it in Pontiac V-8 at a list price of less than $850 . . . the one car anywhere near its price offering the many advantages of V-type engine design.

And Pontiac V-8 also gives you Syncro-Mesh, quiet second gear, free wheeling, Ride Control—all at no extra cost. . . . Weight and length are what a powerful, fast car requires for fine balance and for roominess inside. Fisher craftsmen have contributed striking body design—rich interior finish—attractive appointments.

If you have owned smaller, less capable cars, the Pontiac V-8 will enable you to advance all your motoring standards without greatly increasing your expenditure.

If you are accustomed to driving expensive cars, Pontiac V-8 will give you most of the same advantages at far lower cost.

Test the Pontiac V-8 according to your own most exacting tastes. Let us show you how it has brought engineering leadership and luxury of riding at a price never before known in automotive history for a car of this type.

C. A. REHTMEYER, INC., BAUM BLVD. AT CRAIG ST. (MAyflower 4700)

LAYLOCK MOTORS, 3415 Forbes St., Pittsburgh, Pa.
COWLEY AUTO REPAIR, 1734 Cowley St., Pittsburgh, Pa.
DERRY & WEDD, 5414 Center Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa.
BRASECKER MOT. CO., 210 W. Ohio St., N. S., Pittsburgh, Pa.
HAGGERTY MOTOR CO., 1330 Reedsdale St., N. S., Pittsburgh, Pa.
LINCOLN GARAGE, 630 Ardmore Blvd., Wilkinsburg, Pa.
IRWIN-VONDERAU MOT. CO., 2046 W. Liberty Ave., Dormont, Pa.

HUGHES & TRUESDALE, 6th and Baldridge, Braddock, Pa.
HALL & MORRIS, Third St., Elizabeth, Pa.
HEIDELBERG MOTOR CO., Longuyex P. O., Heidelberg, Pa.
PERLMAN AUTO SALES, 422 Eighth Ave., Homestead, Pa.
17TH AVE. GARAGE, 17th and West Sts., Homestead, Pa.
PALMER'S GARAGE, 323 Olive St., McKeesport, Pa.
WEST PARK MOTOR CO., 315 Broadway, McKees Rocks, Pa.
BOCK & WATTERS, Public Square, Oakdale, Pa.
C. E. STONER & CO., 416-418 Oakmont Ave., Oakmont, Pa.
MORGAN AUTO SALES, 317 Worth St., Tarentum, Pa.
GRAHAM AUTO CO., 285 Braddock Ave., Turtle Creek, Pa.
BRANT'S GARAGE, West View, Pa.
WEXFORD GARAGE, Perry Highway, Wexford, Pa.
ASPINWALL GARAGE, 501 Freeport Road, Aspinwall, Pa.

POPE ADVANCES IN PRO SQUASH

W. VA. MATMEN TIE IN OPENER

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Jan. 7.—(AP.)—West Virginia University and Waynesburg opened the wrestling season here last night with the result a deadlock, 18-18. The summary:

118-pound class—Price, of Waynesburg, won over Sharpe, of West Virginia, on a fall in 4:41.

126-pound class—Fletcher, West Virginia, threw Flenn, Waynesburg, in 3:05.

135-pound class—Bailey, Waynesburg, threw Hart, West Virginia, in 4:30.

145-pound class—Ward, West Virginia, won over Winchell, Waynesburg, with a time advantage in 6:41.

155-pound class—Schoonmaker, West Virginia, threw Fazio, Waynesburg, in 9:58.

165-pound class—Zaninelli, Waynesburg, won over Price, West Virginia, with a time advantage in overtime.

175-pound class—Kline, of Waynesburg, threw Johnson, of West Virginia, in 7:45.

Heavyweight class—Fletcher, West Virginia, threw Vance, Waynesburg, in 2:47.

Referee—Professor Rider.

Sports Stars on Sun-Telegraph Program Over WCAE

Harry Keck, Bill McKechnie, Jewel Ens, Tony Piet

Charles J. Doyle, Rosy Rowswell, Dr. H. C. Carlson

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

MARINO BOXES FILIPINO

TONIGHT'S FIGHTS

Tony Marino vs. Frisco Grande and Young Rudy vs. Jimmy Monette, 10 rounds each, and Sharkey Lesko vs. Dick Dunkert and Frankie Consola vs. Clair Repole, 6 rounds each, McKeesport.

Tony Fabro vs. Ernie Carter, 8 rounds, and Bobby Dunn vs. Jackie Willis, 6 rounds, Philadelphia.

Max Schmeling opens exhibition tour, Paterson, N. J.

The boxing scene shifts to McKeesport tonight, with Promoter Jim McGirr offering a double-windup bill.

Tony Marino

Tony Marino, McKeesport flyweight, boxes Frisco Grande, of Buffalo, in the main event, with Young Rudy, of Charleroi, veteran welterweight socker, trading 'em with Jimmy Monette, of Aliquippa, O. in the other 10-rounder. Grande is a Filipino and a seasoned campaigner.

Sharkey Lesko, of McKeesport, boxes Dick Dunkert, of Clearfield, in the second bout, and Clair Repole, of Burgettstown, and Frankie Consola, of Swissvale, are in the opener.

Between Rounds

Johnny Checkos, boxing Beatrice Jones in the main bout of a seven-bout athletic card under the auspices of Kay Koerber of Chestnut Hall, Ambridge next Monday night, Checkos said he is training a horse to shoot for the St. Regis Catholic Church in Aliquippa on the night of January 25.

Walter Cobb and Jesse Stanton meet in a 10-rounder in Detroit, Friday night, with Maxie Strub boxing Ray Miller on the same card.

Al Brown is expected in town today by a delegation from Los Angeles to box his bout with Mose Bostic at Motor Square Garden next Monday night. He will get a physical examination and will have to work out in a local gym to prove his fitness to box Bostic following his two defeats at the hands of Speedy Dado and Jackie Wilson, the colored boy from Pittsburgh who is fast coming into prominence.

Entry blanks are ready at A. A. U. headquarters for the A. M. A. junior championship boxing tournament to be held at the Stevenson Building, Jan. 15-16. The officers in personal junior tournaments are not eligible to compete.

JACKETS PLAY WINDSOR

(Continued from Page Twenty)

yet has been written into the records. The probable lineup:

Pittsburgh		Windsor
Cook	G	Kerr
Berlott	F	Hagerman
Fraser	F	Brown
Rankin	C	Haynes
Robbins	G	Lewis
Barrick	G	Cook

Referee, Andrew Phillips; Arthur Ouellette, Detroit; Umpire, Matty Mathews, Pittsburgh.

Edgren May Return To Boxing Comish

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—(INS.)—Gov. James Rolph, Jr., may confer today with Robert Edgren, nationally-known boxing writer and cartoonist, who resigned from the California State Athletic Commission Tuesday.

Gov. Rolph said he hoped Edgren would reconsider his resignation and remain on the commission.

In his resignation letter, Edgren intimated that the commission was not working in harmony.

SPORT LEADERS SHINE ON AIR

William B. McKechnie, manager of the Boston Braves; Jewel W. Ens, new coach of the Detroit Tigers, and Dr. H. C. Carlson, coach of the University of Pittsburgh basketball team, were headline performers last night in the weekly sports program of WCAE, Voice of the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

The unusual show staged by the sports department of the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph was even bigger and better than advertised. The advance lithographs stated that McKechnie, Ens and Carlson would furnish all the high spots, but when Harry Keck, sports editor, arrived on the stage to turn his master-of-ceremonies trick, he found a couple of added attractions.

PUT ON PROGRAM

The baseball end of the program was augmented by the appearance of Anthony Pietruszki, who is Tony Piet to the fans. Anthony, a Chicago boy, who starred at second base for the Bucs in the closing weeks of the past season, came here to visit with relatives. When Tony read of Jewel Ens and the others involved in the affair, he made tracks for the WCAE Studio, where he parked himself while awaiting the gang. So it is quite needless to state that Piet was a part of the gala event.

Another eleventh-hour feature was furnished by A. K. (Rosy) Rowswell, a Pirate follower who made good as a humorist and reader of the professional circuit.

After being introduced by Announcer Jack Keough, Harry Keck took charge of the extensive program. Harry gave an outline of the card, the sports editor paying a tribute to the baseball men as well as to the good doctor who discerts basketball.

Keck then introduced Charles J. (Chilly) Doyle, baseball writer, who interviewed Bill McKechnie and Jewel Ens on baseball questions.

BILL PICKS CARDS TO COP

McKechnie stated with emphasis the Cardinals would repeat their honors in the National League. He is one of the best-posted men in the game, and when he nominates the present world champs as the best club in the National League, you can bet there is one Scot who has pondered well his thoughts before putting them out for the fans.

McKechnie also dwelt upon the ball question. He is convinced the sphere in use in 1931 was just about the right thing, as it makes for better baseball. Bill predicted the majors and minors some time would get together on a uniform ball.

In answer to a query regarding the most valuable player in the league last season, Skipper Bill decided that the honor was a tossup between Capt. Frank Frisch, of the new world champions, and Eddie Brandt, his own southpaw pitcher.

Ens quoted Joe McCarthy, Yankee manager, as saying the Yanks had a fine chance to dethrone the Athletics as champs in the American League, provided McCarthy gets high-class pitching.

TRAYNOR VALUABLE—ENS

Jewel thought Pie Traynor was the most valuable player in the National League. Ens gave some fine reasons for choosing Traynor, and he said it probably would be a sorry day for the Pirates when Pie quits as a player.

Ens selected an all-Star National League team, his club being based on 1931 achievements. His team follows:

First base, Terry, Giants; second base, Frisch, Cardinals; third base, Traynor, Pirates; shortstop, English, Cubs; left field, Klein, Phillies; center field, L. Waner, Pirates; right field, Cuyler, Cubs; catcher, Wilson, Cardinals; pitcher, Meine, Pirates.

Ens elaborated on the pitching and catching job. He named five or six hurlers who were almost on the same scale, adding that the league had none to compare with Grove and Earnshaw of the Athletics. He thinks Hartnett, of the Cubs, is as good as Wilson over their careers.

Dr. Carlson's discussion on the long tour of the passing Panthers was excellent. The Pitt mentor is a versatile fellow and when he gets up to make an address or to give a recital of events he offers real entertainment. Later he was interviewed by Harry Keck, the quiz having to do with the football game played between Southern California and Tulane on New Year's Day.

The timeliness of Dr. Carlson's part in the program was emphasized in the fact that he and his squad had just arrived from their jaunt to California yesterday.

Sport Vignettes

Just a story in the papers telling that Frank A. Householder, 36, Oakmont postmaster, died in the Pittsburgh Hospital on Monday after being found shot in the head in the sorting room of his postoffice . . . Only a few lines lost in the maze of the day's news.

Let's go back a few years . . . It is 1912 and Frank (Tig) Householder is beginning a brilliant career as a football, baseball and basketball player for Oakmont High School . . . This continues through 1915 and then he pitches for independent teams in Oakmont and Verona and turns down offers to join minor league teams to remain with his widowed mother . . . He marries and is happy . . . Then, about six years ago, while working at the Edgewater Steel Company plant, a steel casting falls on one of his feet, necessitating its amputation . . . Several more amputations follow until the leg is cut away almost to the thigh.

Let Ben Bright, well-known local sportsman and swimming coach, tell the story from this point . . . "As long as three years ago," he says, "Tig told me he had given up all hope of ever having a completely successful operation and that he could not bear the severe pain much longer."

Just a piece in the papers telling how they found poor Tig, father of two children, lying on the floor of his postoffice, a bullet in his temple and a revolver at his side . . . "A great fellow and a swell athlete was Tig," says Ben Bright, who knew him well and the story behind the piece in the papers.—HARRY KECK.

LOCAL FIVE ABROAD

The South Pittsburgh basketball team will travel to Uniontown tonight, where they meet the Five-County League entry in a league contest.

RENAISSANCE TO PLAY

The Schneider basketball team of the West Penn League plays the Renaissance club of New York Negro champions at Pythian Temple, Center avenue, tomorrow night.

POLO HANDICAPS ARE REDUCED

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Thomas Hitchcock, a member of America's "big four" for the last 10 years, remained the country's premier polo player as the United States Polo Association announced a wholesale reduction in handicap ratings yesterday.

Hitchcock, handicapped at 10 goals since 1921, was one of the few top notch players not affected by the general downward trend. Winston Guest, nine-goal internationalist, was shoved down to eight goals, as was Eric Pedley, Californian, leaving the country without a nine-goal player.

Four outstanding players, J. P. Mills, of Yale; Stephen (Laddie) Sanford, J. Watson Webb and R. E. Strawbridge, Jr., were reduced from seven to six goals. Mike Phipps, Yale star; Seymour Knox, of Buffalo, and Lindsey Howard, of California, joined the six-goal group in the only important increase approved by the association.

The following list shows how the United States Polo Association rates the leading players of the country:

10 goals—Thomas Hitchcock, Jr.
8 goals—Winston Guest, Eric Pedley, Elmer Boeseke, Jr., and Cecil Smith.
7 goals—E. A. S. Hopping, Stewart Iglehart, Devereux Milburn, Gerald Balding, Arthur Perkins, J. C. Rathborne, Adrian Rowan, H. P. Talbot (Rube) Williams.
6 goals—J. P. Mills, Stephen (Laddie) Sanford, J. W. Webb, R. E. Strawbridge, Jr., M. G. Phipps, Seymour Knox, Landers Howard, Rodman Wanamaker, H. E. Talbot, Jr., W. R. Tevis, Jr., Malcolm Stevenson, L. E. Stoddard, H. C. Phipps, F. W. Hopping, Harry Payne Whitney, Jr., Winston B. Coit, J. Chester Chadwick, Jr., C. Crawford, Carleton F. Burke, G. H. Peter Bostwick, and Edward Baldwin.

Basketball Card

GAMES TONIGHT

NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE.
Akron Goodyears at Y. M. H. A.

WEST PENN LEAGUE.
Morry at Goulios.
Penn Fire at Schneiders.

COUNTY AMATEUR LEAGUE
Downtown Y at Tarentum Y.

GREATER PGH. LEAGUE
J. P. Rooneys at Crafton Kibbys.

METROPOLITAN LEAGUE
B. & O. at Penn Cadets.

SCHNEIDER LEAGUE.
Lyceum Comets at St. Paul.

INDEPENDENT.
Pittsburgh Preps at Y. M. H. A. Res.

BADGER LEADER QUESTIONED

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 7.—(INS.)—The autocratic control of the Wisconsin Athletic Council which resulted in the resignation of Director of Athletics George Little and Head Football Coach Glenn Thistlewaite, was revealed in disclosures made by a legislative investigating committee today.

Prof. J. F. A. Pyre, chairman of the council, quizzed by the committee, was asked to name one specific reason for requesting Little's resignation.

"I don't think I can give any," Pyre replied. "He had a bungling way and was vacillating."

Asked why Thistlewaite received the solid backing of the faculty members of the council for appointment as Little's successor after he had been asked to resign as football coach, Pyre said:

"It was to show that the faculty had control of the matter."

Possible recommendation to the board of regents that it overrule the university council in accepting Little's resignation, was admitted by members of the committee.

PERLITA COPS CLASSIC

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Perlita, an Uruguayan-owned horse, yesterday won the $6,000 Prix Jose Pedro Ramirez, Uruguay's greatest turf event, with Miss Purity and Radiance second and third.

FLOHR CHESS CHAMP

HASTINGS, England, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—The international chess masters tournament ended here yesterday in the victory of S. Flohr, of Czechoslovakia, who defeated F. D. Yates, British champion, in the final round and wound up with a score of 8-1.

YESTERDAY'S MUTUELS

AT JEFFERSON PARK.

2 races paid	$112.60
1 race paid	168.30
2 races paid	253.80

LOCAL STAR VICTOR OVER KINSELLA

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Walter Kinsella, veteran star, failed to survive the second round as the national professional squash racquets championship advanced to the quarter finals.

Kinsella won his first round match from John Tully, of Philadelphia, but fell in the second round before Ben Pope, of Pittsburgh. The scores were 15-6, 12-15, 15-9, 15-9.

Jack Summers, coach at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, led the way into the quarter finals with a three-set victory over John O'Donnell, of New York, 15-9, 15-10, 15-13. They drew first round byes.

Other survivors were Frank Ward, New York; Lief Nordley, Ardsley, N. Y.; Tobey Hansen, New York; Dan Martella, Wilmington; J. B. MacGuire, New York, and Allen Cummings, Greenwich, Conn.

In a first round match, Pope defeated J. Doherty, Philadelphia, 15-11, 15-10, 15-11. He meets D. Martella, of Wilmington, Del., tomorrow.

Forbes

'Reconstruction Year' Is Forbes' Name for 1932

By B. C. FORBES

THIS SHOULD prove reconstruction year—1931 was deflation year.

NO GREAT progress need be expected immediately. The financial world contends that some readjustments remain to be made, including readjustment of building wages, in addition to railway wages. Considerable 1931 wreckage must be cleared up. Assets locked up in closed banks will have to be marketed. The new year, it has already been proved, will not be without scattered bank failures. Necessitous liquidation of collateral held against weakened loans may continue a factor for some little time.

Mr. Forbes

The change of the calendar has not changed fear into confidence.

THE TEARING-DOWN process, however, has been thorough-going in most directions. Constructive measures now are in order.

Congress is expected to prove helpful. High hopes are entertained of the proposed billion dollar reconstruction corporation, designed to extend credit almost wherever needed. The National Credit Corporation is beginning to function in earnest for the succor of solvent but hard-pressed banks. The Federal Reserve law promises to be broadened, to permit of wider use of its credit-granting facilities.

"Inflation," the bugbear of arm-chair theorists safe in their jobs and not burdened with responsibility for filling pay envelopes, is little feared.

There is a stronger disposition than customary to look for reasonable tax legislation. Even substantial cutting-down of federal expenditures is regarded as possible, perhaps probable.

EUROPE, IT IS felt, cannot this year duplicate its 1931 series of major disturbances. Britain's national government has restored calm. That some practical solution of Germany's grave financial troubles will be found is not seriously doubted here.

Instead of the raising of additional tariff barriers throughout the world, the drift now is toward negotiated reciprocity.

THE YEAR STARTS on a very low commodity price level. Almost every raw material is unusually cheap. Inventories of finished goods are light. In most lines—though not all—flagrant over-production has been checked.

THE PREVAILING mental state does not suggest that general recovery will be witnessed forthwith. Apprehension is still widespread. The bulk of hoarded money has not yet been redeposited in banks. Payments to depositors in closed banks are being made lamentably slowly. Spending proceeds very gingerly. Savings banks are doing distinctly better than retail stores.

IT MAY TAKE several months for constructive forces now being set in motion to change appreciably the economic picture. After further ups and downs, with perhaps more downs than ups, the tide will, however, inevitably turn—just as it always has in the past.

The writer cannot subscribe to the pessimists' theory that existing conditions must be regarded and accepted as normal. It is inconceivable, for example, that the best American corporate bonds and stocks should permanently sell at current levels, that commodity prices will not again advance, that new financing will not by and by expand, that existing unemployment will not greatly diminish, that nothing better than such experiences as have been suffered during 1931 will be the perpetual lot of the people of this young, vigorous, aggressive, progressive, enterprising, infinitely rich and resourceful nation.

(Copyright, 1932, by B. C. Forbes.)

Extraordinary Opportunities

To Save by Selecting Your Suit and Overcoat in This Great 40% OFF SALE

All $35 Suits & O'Coats, $21
All $40 Suits & O'Coats, $24
All $45 Suits & O'Coats, $27
All $50 Suits & O'Coats, $30
All $60 Suits & O'Coats, $36
All $70 Suits & O'Coats, $42
All $75 Suits & O'Coats, $45

All Other Garments at Like Reductions

FULL DRESS AND TUXEDO SUITS HALF PRICE

Were $50 and $65
Now $25 & $32.50

No Charge for Necessary Alterations

George W. Wilson
The Men's Store of Pittsburgh
Chamber of Commerce Bldg.
Smithfield St. at Seventh Ave.

COME TO BE EXAMINED

Chronic Blood, Skin and Nervous Troubles Scientifically Treated. Results Are What You Want!

Nerves and Blood Are Life

According to how you have lived your life is found the strength mentally and physically. If you have weakened your nerves or your blood is impure or impoverished, consequences will follow. Better take care of yourself in time. Why delay and get worse?

Other diseases treated scientifically. Come to me in confidence today. Laboratory tests made.

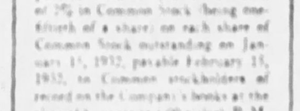
Sufferers from gas, bloating, indigestion, heartburn, palpitation, acidity and other disturbances of the stomach—intestinal disorders, elimination—rheumatic aches and stiffness, nerve exhaustion, dizziness, constipation, skin troubles, eczema and other are treated. Electricity in many forms used. Medicinal hypodermic injections if desired for your individual needs.

A Visit Will Tell. Come to Me. Why Delay and Suffer?

DR. [illegible]HN [illegible]R—6[illegible]8 S[illegible]field St., Pittsburgh

Hours 9 to 5, 7 to 9. Thursday & Thursday, 9 to 5. Sundays & Holidays, 10 to 1. One of Your Friends Treated Privately So You Can Return Home the Same Day. DOCTOR FOR YES.

RENT A CAR THIS LOW COST WAY



Use it for Business or Pleasure

—NO RED TAPE

HERE you'll find just the car you want when you want it. Select the one you prefer—sedan, coupe or roadster, Buick or Chevrolet, brand new. You drive it away. No red tape. The mileage rates are surprisingly low and include gas, oil and 5-way insurance protection. You keep the car as long as you wish—an hour, day, week or month. Our service is friendly, convenient and inexpensive—day or night. One trial will convince you. Come in or phone.

HERTZ DRIV-UR-SELF STATIONS

Grant Bldg., 300 Grant St.
Tel. Grant 5050
6208 Broad St. Tel. Hiland 5050

Dividend Notices

Middle West Utilities Company

Notice of Dividends

Common Stock—The Board of Directors of Middle West Utilities Company has declared a quarterly dividend of 2% in Common Stock (being one-fiftieth of a share) on each share of Common Stock outstanding on January 15, 1932, payable February 15, 1932, to Common stockholders of record on the Company's books at the close of business at 3:00 o'clock P. M. on January 15, 1932.

$6 Convertible Preferred Stock, Series A—The Board of Directors of Middle West Utilities Company has declared on each share of its $6 Convertible Preferred Stock, Series A, a quarterly dividend of $1.50 in cash or (at the election of the holder, filed on or before January 15) of three-eighteenths of a share of Common Stock, payable February 15, 1932, to the holders of record on the Company's books at the close of business on January 15, 1932.

EUSTACE J. KNIGHT,
Secretary.

STATEMENT of THE

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

AT PITTSBURGH, PA.

Report of Condition December 31, 1931

RESOURCES		LIABILITIES
Cash and Due from Banks	$14,986,615.00	Capital	$ 6,000,000.00
U. S. Government Securities	20,399,883.91	Surplus	6,000,000.00
Loans and Discounts	39,884,811.57	Undivided Profits & Reserves	3,431,863.13
Other Investments	24,308,681.32	Deposits:
		Individual, Corporation, Bank and United States Government	73,649,074.32
		Due to Federal Reserve Bank (Against U. S. Govt. Securities)	3,850,000.00
		Circulation	6,000,000.00
Overdrafts	818.20	Acceptances, Letters of Credit, etc.	649,872.55
	$99,580,810.00		$99,580,810.00

DIRECTORS

ROBT. WARDROP, Chairman of the Board
P. W. MORGAN, Vice Chairman of the Board

FRANK F. BROOKS.....President
W. D. GEORGE.....Real Estate
J. H. HILLMAN, JR.....Chairman of Board, Hillman Coal & Coke Co.
A. L. HUMPHREY.....President, Westinghouse Airbrake Co.
GEORGE T. LADD.....President, United Engineering and Foundry Co.
D. T. LAYMAN, JR.....Henry Phipps Estate
A. M. MORELAND.....Retired Manufacturer
P. W. MORGAN.....President, First National Bank, Wilmerding, Pa.
GEORGE E. PAINTER.....Vice President, Union Storage Co.
E. W. PARGNY.....President, American Sheet & Tin Plate Co.
A. C. ROBINSON.....President, People-Pittsburgh Trust Company
CLYDE C. TAYLOR.....Vice President & Cashier
VERNON F. TAYLOR.....Banker & Oil Operator, Indiana, Pa.
BENJAMIN THAW.....Trustee, Thaw Estate
ROBERT WARDROP.....Director, Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland
E. T. WHITER.....Vice President, Penna. R. R. Co.
JOHN M. WILSON.....President, National Supply Co., Pittsburgh, Pa.
WILLIAM P. WITHEROW.....Capitalist
LEMUEL W. YOUNG, JR.....President, South Penn Oil Co.

Federal Street Branch — Federal Street and Park Way

ADVISORY BOARD

W. D. COTTERELL — J. BOYD McKOWN
W. L. GUCKERT — J. BRUCE ORR
EDWARD G. LANG — FRANK F. BROOKS
J. F. McCANDLESS — CLYDE C. TAYLOR

EVENING SUN-TELEGRAPH MARKETS

Stocks Advance — Local List Irregular

MARKET RISES AFTER EARLY HESITATION

Rails With Gains of 2 to 5 Points Lead Rest of List to Higher Levels

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Wall street took a squint or two through its rose-tinted spectacles today, as the recovery in security prices persisted through the second successive trading session.

While yesterday's upturn had been viewed as primarily a technical rebound, and had been regarded with considerable skepticism in some quarters, a markedly better feeling was manifest in prominent financial circles today.

After a little early hesitation, the share market pushed upward under the leadership of the rails. Advances of 2 to 5 points were registered in such issues as Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, New York Central, New Haven, Northern Pacific, Atlantic Coast Line and Baltimore and Ohio. Elsewhere in the list, similar gains appeared in such issues as United States Steel, American Can, Eastman, American Tobacco B, Liggett & Myers B, Case, Coca Cola and others.

While railroad leaders point out that real improvement in revenues must await a revival of general business activity, it was stated in important banking quarters that possible railroad financial crises which had caused considerable worry, now seemed definitely averted.

While Wall street feels that further dividend paring is in store, some of its worries on that score were quieted by the remarks of Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., president of General Motors, in an address in Boston. Mr. Sloan felt that the rights of the stockholders justified the drawing upon large surpluses for the maintenance of dividends in lean times.

Further private banking advices from abroad tended to bear out yesterday's reports of progress toward a Franco-British understanding on German credits and reparations, although in one important banking quarter, it was said that tentative agreements thus far appeared to be merely "in principle," and that final solution might require considerable time and patience.

DIVIDEND NEWS

Rhine Westphalia.

Rhine Westphalia Electric Power Corporation declared a dividend of $1.06 on the American shares, payable January 22 to record of January 15. On December 17, 1930, the company paid a dividend of $2.14 0

Exchange Buffet.

Exchange Buffet Corporation declared a dividend of 6½ cents, payable January 30 to record January 15. In two preceding quarters, dividends of 37½ cents were declared.

* * *

DIVIDENDS UNCHANGED

	Period	Record
Adams Mills Corp. 5pc p	Feb	1—Jan 16
Ball Tea Co. of 1930 q	Feb	1—Jan 16
Tide Water Oil pfd 2.5 q	Feb	1—Jan 16
Atlas Powder pf $1.10 q	Feb	1—Jan 16
Penn-Dixie Cem. pf 7 q	Feb	1—Jan 16
Corn Prod. pf $1.75 q	Mar	1—Jan 15
Do pf $1.62½ q	Feb	1—Jan 15
Borden Chem. pf $1.75 q	Jan	1—Dec 19
Am. Ld. & Trac. pf $7 q	Feb	1—Jan 15
Monroe Calc. Mach. 5c q	Jan	28—Jan 16
Am. Machine & Fdry. 5c q	Feb	1—Jan 16
Intl. Cigar Mach. 62½c q	Feb	1—Jan 16
Loew's Bos. Theatre 15c q	Feb	1—Jan 16

CORPORATE EARNINGS

National Railways of Mexico reports for year ended December 31 1930 deficit of $4,300,835 Mexican gold pesos after expenses, interest charges against deficit of $5,790,870 pesos, reserve for depreciation and loss deficit on December 31, 1930, amounted to 167,606,726 Mexican gold pesos against deficit of 153,109,919 Mexican gold pesos on December 31 1929

Vick Financial Corporation reports book value of common stock was $3.77 a share as of December 31 1931, against $7.56 on June 30, 1931 and $7.38 on December 31 1930

A. G. Spalding and Bros. and subsidiaries report for year ended October 31, 1931 net loss of $1,011,266 after depreciation, interest, federal taxes and provision for doubtful notes and accounts, against net profit of $1,635,481 in the previous fiscal year

Manhattan Shirt Company reports for year ended November 28 1931 net profit of $182,713 after interest, etc., compared with net loss of $.96,826 in the preceding fiscal year

Manati Sugar Company in the fiscal year ended October 31, 1931 had net profit of $1,051,421, against loss of $146,797 in the previous period

Metal Market.

LONDON, Jan. 7—Standard copper spot £28 7s 6d; future £29 the electrolytic spot £31; future £32 10s. Tin spot £140 10s; future £142 10s. Lead spot and future £15 7s 6d. Zinc spot £14 12s 6d; future £15.

Dividend Notices

A. M. BYERS COMPANY,
1805 Clark Bldg., Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Board of Directors has declared a quarterly dividend of 1¼% on the preferred stock of this company, payable February 1st, 1932, to stockholders of record at close of business on January 16th 1932. Checks will be mailed.

FRANK G. LOVE,
Secretary and Treasurer.

Bank Statements

REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF
THE ARSENAL BANK OF PITTSBURGH,
Located at 4200 Butler street, Pittsburgh, Allegheny County, Pa., as of the 31st day of December, 1931.

RESOURCES

Reserve fund		$ 214,033.82
Nickels and cents		802.67
Cash items		49.36
Exchanges for Clearing House		6,143.53
Checks and discounts	941,885.79
Bonds and stocks	692,025.17
Bonds, mortgages and judgments of record owned	3,750.00
Office building and lot	$55,988.60
Furniture and fixtures	16,275.88
		72,264.28
Total		$1,930,963.51

LIABILITIES

Capital stock paid in	$ 100,000.00
Surplus fund	230,000.00
Undivided profits, less current expenses and taxes paid	11,623.41
Reserve	110,000.00
Demand deposits	475,019.31
Time deposits	874,224.07
Dividends unpaid	1,050.00
Bills payable and rediscounts	125,000.00
Other liabilities not included in above	16.12
Total	$1,930,963.51

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, County of Allegheny, ss:

I, John Grine, cashier or treasurer of the above-named institution, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

JOHN GRINE,
Cashier or Treasurer.

Sworn and subscribed to before me this 6th day of January, 1932.

WILLIAM POW,
Notary Public.

My commission expires March 7, 1935.

Correct—Attest:
H. S. DAVISON,
F. E. SNYDER,
D. W. VAUX,
Directors.

NEW YORK BOND MARKET

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—(AP.)—Transactions in the most active bonds on the New York Stock Exchange today were as follows; 000 omitted in sales column (United States bonds in dollars and thirty-seconds of dollars):

U. S. GOVERNMENT BONDS

Sales		High	Low	Last
158	Liberty 3½s 32 47	96 20	96 28	96 28
67	Do 1st 4¼s	99 7	99	99 5
158	Do 4th 4¼s 38	99 12	99 6	99 10
103	Treas 4½s 47-52	101 8	100 26	101 1
85	Do 4s 44-54	97 20	97 10	97 13
2	Do 4¼s 46-56	99 12	99 6	99 8
41	Do 4¼s 43-47	99 12	99 6	99 8
8	Do 3½s 43-47	99 8	99 30	99 8
73	Do 3½s 41-43M	99 8	99 24	99 8
305	Do 3½s 46-49	99 8	99 24	99 8
71	Do 3½s 47-52	81 8	81 31	82 31

CORPORATION BONDS

Sales		High	Low	Last
2	Abr & Straus 5½s 43	75	75	75
5	Alaska Gd 6s A	25	10	10
5	Allis Chal. 5s 37	81	81	81
1	Do 5s 37	24	24	24
2	Do 5s 50	24	24	24
4	Allis Chal. 5s 37	81	81	81
57	Am & For 5s 2030	39¼	38¼	39
1	Am Ice 5s 53	76	76	76
15	Am I G C 5½s 49	65	65	65
124	Am Inter 5½s 49	71	69¾	71
45	Am Metal 5½s 34	50¼	50	50
7	Am Smelt 5s 47	92	92	92
3	Am Sug Ref 6s 37	103¾	103¾	103¾
14	Am T&T 5½s 65	103¾	103¾	103¾
12	Do cvt 5½s 36	100½	100	100½
58	Do 1st 5s 65	98	98	98
34	Do 5s 65	97	97	97
26	Do cvt 4½s 39	103¾	103	103¾
13	Am W W&E 6s 75	75½	74½	75½
10	Am W Pap 6s 47	44	44	44
9	Armour Del 5s 43	84	84	84
70	Do 4½s 39	77	77	77
1	At&SF cvt 4½s 48	91	91	91
43	Do gen 4s 95	87	87	87
66	Do 4s 95	87	87	87
12	At C Line 1st 4½s	74	74	74
1	Atl C L&N cvt 4½s	63	63	63
10	Atl & Yad 1st 4s	68	68	68
	Atl Refg deb 5s 37
	B & O rfg 4s 95
6	Do 1st 5s 48	85	85	85
5	Do rfg 5s 95	82	82	82
1	Do rfg 5s 2000 D	82	82	82
66	Do 4½s 33	76	76	76
45	Do cvt 4½s 60	51	51	51
2	Do gold 4s 48	79½	79½	79½
	Do 4s PLE&WVA
1	Bang & Aroos 6s 51	60	60	60
7	Bell T Pa 5s B 48	101	101	101
14	Do 1st 5s C 60	101	101	101
1	Ben Ind Ln 6s 46	75	75	75
4	Beth Steel rfg 5s42	93½	93½	93½
1	Do gen 5s 68	94¾	94¾	94¾
18	Book'M 6½s 37 61	61	61	61
8	Brin Bd gen 5s49A	102	102	102
73	Brin Man Tr 6s 45	84	84	84
4	Brin U Ga 1st 5s53	101	101	101
14	Bud Glo 6½s 51	92	92	92
20	Buf R&P 5½s 57	47	47	47
2	Bush Term cn 5s55	47	47	47
	Do 4s 52
	Cal Pack 5s 40	61	61	61
	Can Nat Rys 4½s 56	78	78	78
6	Do 5s 54	74	74	74
1	Can N F 5s 60 Oct	83½	83½	83½
14	Can Nor of To 4s	84	84	84
1	Do gen 6½s 46	93	93	93
2	Cent Ill E&G 5s 51	71	71	71
1	Cent New Eng 4½s	62	62	62
	Cerro de Pas 6s 47
30	Ches & O gn 4½s92	92	92	92
5	Do rfg 4½s A&A	81	81	81
10	Do rfg 4½s 95 B	76	76	76
	CB&Q 4½s 77
14	Do gen 4s 58	84	84	84
7	Chi & E Ill 5s 51	53	53	53
22	Chi Gt West 4s 59	52	52	52
1	CM&StP gen 4½sE	64	64	64
	Do gen 5½s B	84	84	84
78	CMStP&P 5s A	58	58	58
173	Do adj 5s 2000	9	9	9
48	C & N W cv 4½s36	22	22	22
5	Chicago Ry 5s 27	44	44	44
1	CRI&P 4½s 34 A	55	55	55
11	Do 5s 34	60	60	60
	CH&SF 5s 50 A	28	28	28
1	Chic Un Sta 5s A&B	106	106	106
1	Chi & W In 6s 33	100	100	100
4	Chile Con 5s 47	45	45	45
32	Con G A E 6s 43	85	85	85
1	C I L & P 2020Bdfd	97	97	97
17	Cin Gas&El 5½s 56	97	97	97
	Do 5s61 CWM dfd	65	65	65
4	Cin Un Ter 5½s52	97	97	97
16	Do 4½s 77 C	72	72	72
1	Colo Ind 6s58	75	75	75
2	Columbia G 5s 52	84	84	84
	Comm Tab Fin 6s41	106	106	106
1	Con Gas NY 5½s48	103½	103½	103½
2	Do 1st 5s 45	101	101	101
12	Conqum Pow 5s52	100	99½	99½
	Cr Zellerbach 6s49
	Cuba N Sug 7½s42
1	Cumberland T&T 5s51	100½	100½	100½
7	Del & Hud rfg 4½s	74½	74½	74½
5	Del P&L 4½s 71	81	81	81
	D & R G W gn5s55
	Do rfg 5s 78
66	Do 4½s 53	76	76	76
45	Do cvt 4½s 60	51	51	51
1	Do gold 4s 55	79½	79½	79½
	Do 4s PLE&WVA
1	Rang & Aroo 6s 51	60	60	60
7	Bell T Pa 5s B 48	101	101	101
1	Do 1st 5s C 60	101	101	101
1	Ben Ind Ln 6s 46	75	75	75
4	Beth Steel rfg 5s42	93½	93½	93½
1	Do gen 5s 68	94¾	94¾	94¾
18	Book'M 6½s 37 61	61	61	61
8	Brin Bd gen 5s49A	102	102	102
73	Brin Man Tr 6s 45	84	84	84
4	Brin U Ga 1st 5s53	101	101	101
14	Bud Glo 6½s 51	92	92	92
20	Buf R&P 5½s 57	47	47	47
2	Bush Term cn 5s55	47	47	47
	Do 4s 52
	Cal Pack 5s 40	61	61	61
	Can Nat Rys 4½s56	78	78	78
6	Do 5s 54	74	74	74
1	Can N F 5s 60 Oct	83½	83½	83½
14	Can Nor of To 4s	84	84	84
1	Do gen 6½s 46	93	93	93
2	Cent Ill E&G 5s 51	71	71	71
1	Cent New Eng 4½s	62	62	62
	Cerro de Pas 6s 47
30	Ches & O gn 4½s92	92	92	92
5	Do rfg 4½s A&A	81	81	81
10	Do rfg 4½s 95 B	76	76	76
	CB&Q 4½s 77
14	Do gen 4s 58	84	84	84
7	Chi & E Ill 5s 51	53	53	53
22	Chi Gt West 4s 59	52	52	52
1	CM&StP gen 4½sE	64	64	64
	Do gen 5½s B	84	84	84
78	CMStP&P 5s A	58	58	58
173	Do adj 5s 2000	9	9	9
48	C & N W cv 4½s36	22	22	22
5	Chicago Ry 5s 27	44	44	44
1	CRI&P 4½s 34 A	55	55	55
11	Do 5s 34	60	60	60
	CH&SF 5s 50 A	28	28	28
1	Chic Un Sta 5s A&B	106	106	106
1	Chi & W In 6s 33	100	100	100
4	Chile Con 5s 47	45	45	45
32	Con G A E 6s 43	85	85	85
1	C I L & P 2020Bdfd	97	97	97
17	Cin Gas&El 5½s 56	97	97	97
	Do 5s61 CWM dfd	65	65	65
4	Cin Un Ter 5½s52	97	97	97
16	Do 4½s 77 C	72	72	72
1	Colo Ind 6s58	75	75	75
2	Columbia G 5s 52	84	84	84
	Comm Tab Fin 6s41	106	106	106
1	Con Gas NY 5½s48	103½	103½	103½
2	Do 1st 5s 45	101	101	101
12	Conqum Pow 5s52	100	99½	99½
	Cr Zellerbach 6s49
	Cuba N Sug 7½s42
1	Cumberland T&T 5s51	100½	100½	100½
7	Del & Hud rfg 4½s	74½	74½	74½
5	Del P&L 4½s 71	81	81	81
	D & R G W gn5s55
	Do rfg 5s 78
66	Do 4½s 53	76	76	76
45	Do cvt 4½s 60	51	51	51
2

NEW YORK CLOSE WITH NET CHANGES

‡Indicates actual number of shares sold. All other sales figures are in hundreds of shares (00 omitted). Closing prices in this table. Year's high and low corrected to the previous close (Volume of sales computed to 2:10 p. m.)

FINAL QUOTATIONS—Ticker stopped running at 3:07½ P. M.

A

1931-32 High	1931-32 Low	Stocks and An Div Rate $	Sales	High	Low	Close	Net Chge
14¼	2	Abitibi Pow & Pap	1	2¼	2¼	2¼	...
52	4¼	Abitibi Pow & Pap pf	1	6	6	6	...
39	18	Abrah & Straus 2	1	28	28	28	- 1½
38½	8½	Adams Express	12	4¾	4¾	4½	- ⅛
88½	22¼	Adams Mills 7	1	25¼	25¼	25¼	0
28½	10	Addressograph Int Cp 1	1	11	11	11	...
11⅜	2	Advance Rumely	2	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜	...
20	12⅛	Affiliated Prod 1.60	85	18½	14	14⅜	- ⅛
109⅜	46⅜	Air Reduction 3	88	51⅜	49¾	50	⅜
20½	7	Alaska Juneau .40	48	18¾	12⅜	18½	0
1⅜	1⅛	Allegheny Corp	89	1⅜	1½	1⅜	⅛
89⅛	2	Allegh'y Cp pf w w	1	8½	8	8⅜	- ⅜
8½	1⅛	Allegh'y Cp pf x w	2	2¾	2½	2½	...
59	1¾	Allegh'y Cp pf ww x	1	8½	8¼	8¼	+ ½
182¾	62¼	Allied Chem & D 6	271	70⅛	67	67¼	- 1⅜
42¾	10⅛	Allis Chalmers 1	2	12⅜	12	12⅛	- ⅜
18½	7⅜	Alpha Port Cem 1	1	9	9	9	- ⅛
28	11¼	Amerada Corp 2	11	13	12⅜	12⅝	0
29⅝	8⅛	Amer Acric Chem Del	1	6½	6½	6½	0
62⅜	12⅜	Amer Bank Note 2	8	16	15	16	- ⅛
38	18½	Amer Brake Shoe 2	1	14¼	14¼	14¼	- ¼
129⅜	54⅛	American Can 4b	849	61½	58½	60⅝	- 1⅜
28⅜	4½	Amer Car & Fdy	8	7⅜	6½	7	- ⅛
48⅜	29	American Chicle 2½	2	30⅝	30⅝	30⅝	- ⅛
21¼	8	Amer Colortype	...	...	8⅝	8⅝	...
14⅛	8	Amer Com Alcohol	2	7½	7½	7½	0
16	2	Amer Encaustic Tiling	1	8⅝	8⅝	8⅝	- ⅜
88¼	7⅜	American Europ Sec	...	9	8½	9	- ⅛
51⅜	6¼	Amer & For Pow	51	8	7½	7½	- ⅛
100	20	Amer & For Pow pf 7	4	29	28	28	0
90	18	Amer & For Pow 6 pf 6	8	25	25	25	0
79½	10	Amer & For Pow 2nd pf	6	14½	13½	13⅝	- ½
10⅝	4	Amer Haw Steam	1	8	8	8	...
8	1	Amer H & Leath	2	2½	2	2½	...
80	4	Amer H & Leath pf	4	10	10	10	2
64	37	Amer Home Prod 4.20	7	45	44½	44½	- ½
81⅜	10½	American Ice 2	8	14	14	14	0
86	5	Amer Internat	80	8½	8¼	8¼	- ⅛
80⅝	5	Amer Locomotive	2	6⅝	6½	6½	- ⅛
84½	20⅝	Amer Locomotive pf 7	1	81	81	81	+ ¼
48⅝	16	Amer Mach Fdy	5	20	19⅝	19⅝	+ ⅝
7	1¼	Am Mach & Metals	2	2⅜	2	2⅜	...
28⅝	4¾	American Meta	2	6½	6¼	6½	- ⅛
64⅜	11⅝	Amer Pow & Lt 1.60	65	16¾	14¾	15½	- ⅝
84	84⅛	Am Pow & Lt pf 6	8	42¾	41	42¾	- 1⅜
102	44½	Am Pow & Lt 6½ pf 6	8	51	50	50	- ¼
21⅛	5	Amer Rad & Stand San	108	8¼	7⅛	8	- ⅛
87⅞	7⅜	Amer Roll Mill	10	8¾	8¼	8¼	- ¼
66	19¼	American Safety Raz 4	4	25⅝	25⅜	25½	- ⅛
1⅜	⅛	American Snuff A com	5	½	½	½	0
88½	12¼	American Sug Ref 5	21	15¾	14⅜	14⅜	- ⅛
51¼	5	Amer Tel & Tel	6	7	6	6⅝	- ⅛
48⅛	33	American Tobacco 2	4	38½	38⅝	38½	- ⅛
60	34½	Amer Sug Ref 4	2	37⅜	37¼	37⅜	- 1⅝
11⅜	8½	Amer Sumatra Tob	12	6	4¼	4¾	...
301⅜	107¾	Amer Tel & Tel 9	866	116½	113⅝	116	...
128⅝	60½	Amer Tobacco A	8	70¾	68	69½	1½
132⅝	64	Amer Tobacco B 5	80	78¼	70¾	71	...
80¾	28⅛	Amer Wat Wks 3	42	30½	28¾	28¾	- ⅛
107	64½	Amer Wat Wks 1st pf 6	1	70⅜	70⅜	70⅜	...
11⅞	2¾	American Woolen	1	8¾	8¾	8¾	- ⅛
40	18¼	American Woolen pf	8	20½	19	19½	- ¼
8¾	2½	Amer Zinc & Lead	11	8	8	8	...
48⅛	8	Anaconda Copper	88	10⅝	10⅛	10⅛	...
26½	6	Anaconda Wire & Cb	1	6½	6½	6½	0
86	18	Anchor Cap Corp 2.40	8	18	14½	14⅝	- ⅛
18	8	Archer-Daniels M 1	...	10½	10½	10½	...
72	30	Armour of Del pf	4	34½	32	34	- 1¼
4½	⅝	Armour of Ill A	8	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜	0
2¾	⅜	Armour of Ill B	16	⅞	⅞	⅞	- ⅛
47	5½	Armour of Ill pf	1	7	7	7	0
9	1⅜	Armour Creameries	9	2¾	2½	2½	...
28⅜	1¼	Armst Cork Co	5	2⅝	2¼	2⅜	- ⅛
29⅝	5½	Asso Investors	5	7	5¾	6	...
208⅝	75½	Atchison T & S Fe 10	74	84½	81	82½	2½
120	25	Atlantic Coast Lines	5	84	82	84	- ½
28⅝	8⅜	Atlantic Refining 1	82	10¾	9¾	9¾	- ⅝
54	17½	Atlas Powder 3	6	19¾	19¼	19¾	...
998⅝	84½	Auburn Automobile 4a	885	186	126½	130⅝	- 1⅜
2½	½	Auto Sales Corp	1	½	½	½	...
6¾	3	Avalon Corp	18	3¾	2⅝	2⅝	- ⅜

B

27⅞	4⅜	Baldwin Locomo	9	6	5¾	5½	- ⅛
87⅞	12⅜	Baltimore & Ohio	17	17⅜	15¾	16⅜	- 1⅛
80½	22	Bal Rwy & Ohio pf 4	2	33	30½	33	4½
66⅝	18	Bang & Aroostook 2.50	5	20	19¾	20	...
14½	4	Barnsdall Corp A	53	5¼	4½	5⅛	- ⅛
81	37	Beatrice Creamery 4	5	42	41	42	...
62	37½	Beech-Nut Packing 2	1	41	41	41	...
80⅝	54½	Beth Str Rly pf 2.50	8	61⅛	61½	61½	- ⅛
28⅛	12⅜	Bendix Aviation 1	107	17⅜	16⅜	16⅝	0
46⅛	19¼	Best & Co 2	9	28	22¾	23	1
70⅝	16⅛	Bethlehem Steel 5	94	20	18½	19⅜	- ⅛
128⅝	60	Bethlehem Steel 7% pf 7	1	64½	64½	64½	- ½
29	6	Blaw Knox 4a	1	7⅜	7⅜	7⅜	...
48	15½	Bohn Alum & Brass 1½	2	19½	19½	19½	- 1½
76⅜	24¼	Borden & Co 3	81	39	38⅝	38⅝	- ⅛
30⅝	9	Borg-Warner 1	29	10⅝	9½	10⅛	- ⅛
66	10	Boston & Maine R R	1	10¾	10¼	10¾	...
22⅝	7½	Bragg-Mfg Co 1⅝	8	9	8½	9	- ⅛
69⅞	30½	Brooklin Manh T 4	66	38⅝	32½	33¾	- ⅝
94¼	68	Brooklin Manh T pf 5	4	72	71	71½	...
64¼	46	Brooklyn Queens T 5	1	46½	46¼	46¼	...
9⅜	1⅜	Brunswick Terminal	4	1¾	1½	1½	- ⅛
8⅝	1½	Budd Mfg	1	2	2	2	0
18	2⅝	Budd Wheel	1	2½	2⅜	2⅜	- ⅛
28	8⅜	Bullard Co	5	4¼	4¼	4¼	0
62¼	10	Burroughs Add Mach 1	4	12¼	11	12	0
1⅜	⅜	Butte & Superior	5	⅝	...	½	0
20⅜	5	Butterick	1	4½	4	4½	...
69¾	10½	Byers (A M)	19	18	12½	12⅝	- ⅝

C

88	8	California Packing	5	9½	9¼	9½	+ ¼
11⅝	2	Calumet & Hec	1	8⅝	8⅝	8⅝	+ ⅝
16⅜	5⅝	Campbell W & C 1.40	6	7¾	6¾	7⅛	+ ⅛
48	10	Canada Dry Ale 1.20	1	11⅞	11⅞	11⅞	+ ⅛
48⅝	19⅝	Canadian Pacific 1¾	28	12⅝	12¼	12⅝	- ⅛
98	17	Canton Mfg 1.60	1	18	18	18	...
16	4½	Capitol Admiral	1	5½	5½	5½	- ⅛
181½	81¼	Case (J I) Thresh M	808	87¼	85¾	85¾	- ⅛
82⅝	10⅛	Caterpillar Trac 2½	9	13⅝	13	13	0
80⅝	9⅛	Cerro de Pasco Cop 1	25	13½	12⅝	12⅞	- ⅛
28⅜	8¼	Checker Cab Mfg	1	6	6	6	0
46⅜	23⅝	Chesapeake & Ohio 3½	165	29⅝	27¾	28½	- ⅝
84⅜	13¾	Consolidated Corp 3	45	17½	16¼	16½	- ⅛
1	⅛	Chicago & East Ill pf	7	1¾	1½	1⅝	- ⅛
7⅜	3½	Chicago Gt Western	9	4¼	3½	3⅝	- ⅛
37⅞	7½	Chi Gt Western pf 2	118	12½	11¼	11½	- ½
8⅜	1½	Chicago Mil & St Paul	14	2⅝	2	2⅜	- ⅛
15⅜	2¼	Chicago Mil & St P pf	27	3⅝	3	3⅜	- ⅛
48½	5	Chi & Northwest	65	8	6½	7¼	- 1¼
116	18½	Chi & Northwest pf	1	19	19	19	- 1
18⅝	8¼	Chi Pneumatic Tool	10	4¾	4	4½	- ½
85	6⅝	Chi Pneumatic T pf	1	8½	8	8½	...
66½	7⅜	Chi Rock I & Pac	17	11⅜	10	10¾	- ⅝
101	14	Chi Rock I & Pac 6 pf	6	21½	16¼	21½	- 5¼
38⅝	5½	Childs Co	4	6¼	5¾	6¼	- ⅛
28⅝	11¼	Chrysler Motor 1	264	14¾	13⅝	14	- ⅝
87½	26½	City Ice & Fuel 2.40	1	27	26½	27	- ½
4⅝	⅛	City Stores	20	1	1	1	0
22⅝	8¼	Clark Equip 1	1	8¾	8¾	8¾	...
84¼	18	Clett Peabody	1	18½	18½	18½	...
170	97½	Coca-Cola 5a	185	110¾	104¾	107½	- 2½
80½	24	Colgate Pal Peet 2½	4	28	27⅝	28	- ¼
17⅜	6½	Collins & Aikman Cor	1	8¼	8¼	8¼	- ¼
22¼	6½	Colo Fuel & Iron	6	8½	7¾	8½	...
111⅝	80	Columbian Carbon 3	88	96⅝	88½	94½	- ½
48⅝	11⅝	Colum Gas & El 1⅛	88	18¾	18¾	18⅝	- ⅜
109½	64	Columbus & S pf 6	1	68	68	68	+ 1¼
22⅝	8	Com Credit 1.60	6	9	8½	8¾	- ⅛
85⅝	19¾	Com Credit A 2	1	20	20	20	...
84	18½	Com Invest Tr 2	12	17½	17	17¾	- 1
21½	6⅝	Commercial Solvents 1	78	9¼	8⅝	8⅝	- ⅛
19	8	Commonwealth & So 36	110	4	3⅝	4	- ⅛
100⅝	46	Commonwealth & Sou pf 6	7	64¼	61¼	64	- 3
14⅝	6½	Congoleum-Nairn 1.40	5	8⅝	8¼	8¼	0
80⅝	6⅝	Congress Cigar 1	5	8¾	7⅝	8	- ⅛
87¾	20	Consolidat Cigar 3	...	21	21	21	...
18	8¼	Consol Film Ind	8	8	8	8	1½
18⅜	7⅜	Consol Film pf 2	8	10½	9¼	10⅜	- ⅛
109⅝	55⅜	Consol Gas 4	284	62¾	60¾	60¾	- ¾
107	88	Consol Gas pf 5	5	93	91¾	93	2
15⅞	8½	Consol Laundries 1	...	...	9½	9¾	0
8⅝	¼	Container Corp A	1	2	2	2	...
8	¼	Container Corp B	6	⅝	½	½	...
80	4½	Contin Baking A	5	6	5½	6	- ¼
8¾	½	Contin Baking B	8	⅝	½	½	0
77½	40	Contin Baking pf 8	2	42¼	42½	42½	...
62⅜	30¼	Continental Can 7½	20	38¼	34½	34⅝	- ¼
81⅛	18¼	Contin Insurance 2.40	12	22	20¾	21¼	- ¾
4½	1	Contin Motors	7	1¾	1¾	1¾	0
12	5	Contin Oil	88	6½	6	6¼	- ⅛
12	⅛	Contin Shares	16	⅛	⅛	⅛	- ⅛
86⅝	86⅛	Corn Prod Ref 3	24	42¾	41	42	- 1¼
18	2⅜	Coty Incorp	5	8⅝	8	8⅜	- ⅜
8⅝	2¼	Crosley Radio	1	4½	4	4	- 1
88⅛	18¾	Crown Cork & Seal 2.40	...	14⅝	14¼	14⅜	- ⅛
2¾	¼	Cuban C Prod	2	⅝	½	½	0
48⅝	29	Cudahy Packing 4	8	32	31½	32	- 1¼
100	20	Curtis Publish 4	4	28⅝	27	28⅜	- 1¼
8¾	1	Curtiss-Wright Corp	28	1½	1¼	1½	- ⅛
8½	1¾	Curtiss-Wright Corp A	4	2¾	2¼	2½	- ⅛
41	7¼	Cutler-Hammer	4	8¾	7¾	7¾	...

D

28	8¼	Davison Chemical	15	4¾	8¼	4	½
167½	64	Delaware & Hudson 9	8	77	71½	75½	4½
102	17¾	Delaware Lack & West	80	28¼	24½	26	- 1½
46⅝	8½	Denver & R G West pf	2	8½	8	8½	...
196	109	Detroit Edison 8	2	118	118	118	- 1
28	10⅝	Diamond Match 1	7	18½	12¼	13¼	- ¾
18½	6¾	Dome Mines 1	1	7½	7½	7½	...
24	11	Dominion Stores 1.20	8	14½	14¾	14¾	- ¼
21½	7¼	Doug Aircraft 1a	1	8½	8½	8½	...
27	19⅝	Dresser Mfg A 2½	1	20¼	20¼	20¼	- ¼
18	10¼	Dresser Mfg B 2	1	11	11	11	...
78¾	42½	Drug Incorp 4	61	52½	51½	51¾	- ¼
107	47¾	Du Pont de Nemours 4	847	54⅜	52¼	53	- ½
124½	94	Du Pont de Nemo deb 6	4	99½	98¼	99½	- 1¾

E

18¼	2¾	Eastern Roll Mill	5	8¼	8¼	8¾	- ¼
186⅝	78	Eastman Kodak 8b	95	81¼	77⅝	79⅛	- 1⅝
21⅛	4¼	Eaton Axle & Spring 3	17	6⅝	6¼	6	- ⅛
11¼	½	Eitingon Schild	3	1	½	½	- ⅛
69	7½	Eitingon Schild 1st pf	8	11¼	11¼	11⅜	- ¼
74⅜	20	Electric Autolite 4	98	29½	27⅞	28¼	- ⅛
4¼	¼	Electric Boat	6	2	1½	2	- ⅛

E

60¾	9	Electric P & Lt 1	79	12⅝	11½	11⅝	- ¼
108½	41	Electric P & Lt pf 7	2	50	49	50	+ 1
98¼	32	Electric P&Lt 6% pf 6	2	42	42	42	- 1
66	23	Electric Stor Battery 4	9	28	26⅛	28	- 1¼
9⅛	2	Elec & Music Ltd	5	8⅛	8	8¼	- ⅛
45⅝	28½	Endicott-Johnson 3	2	29	29	29	- 1⅜
49	18	Engineers Pub Ser 1.60	1	18¾	18¾	18¾	- ⅛
85⅛	18⅜	Equitable Off Bldg 2½	5	19	19	19	0
89⅜	5	Erie R R	18	7¼	6½	6¾	0
45½	6⅜	Erie R R 1st pf	6	9¼	8½	9¼	- 1¼
40½	5	Erie R R 2nd pf	1	6¾	6¾	6¾	+ ¼

F

24	4⅛	Fashion Pk Asso pf	1	5	5	5	...
27½	10½	Feder Dept Stores 1	8	14	13	14	- 2
21½	12⅝	Firestone T & R 1	1	14⅛	14⅛	14⅛	- ⅛
66⅛	49⅝	Firestone T & R pf 6	2	50¾	50¾	50¾	0
68	41	First Nat Stores 2½	13	47½	46½	47½	- 2
...	⅛	Fisk Rubber	1	¼	¼	¼	0
19¾	4	Follansbee Bros	1	4¼	4¼	4¼	- ⅛
31¾	9¾	Food Mach 1⅜	1	8⅛	8⅛	8⅛	...
64½	8	Foster-Wheeler	9	9⅛	9¼	9⅜	- ⅛
82½	16⅝	Fourth N Invest	2	18¼	18	18	- ⅛
88⅝	2½	Fox Film A	5	3½	3¼	3½	- ⅛
48¼	18¼	Freeport Texas 3	24	17⅞	17⅛	17¼	- ⅛

G

7⅛	2¼	Gen Am Invest	8	2¾	2¾	2¾	...
78⅜	28	Gen Am T Car 4	10	30½	28½	30	- 1⅝
47	9⅝	Gen Asphalt 2	4	12½	11¾	12½	...
25½	9½	General Baking 2	5	13⅝	13	13	- ¼
9⅜	1¾	General Bronze	1	3	3	3	...
48½	25	General Cigar 4	2	30½	30¼	30¼	- ⅛
54⅝	22¼	Gen Electric 1.60	474	24⅝	23⅝	24⅜	- ⅛
12⅛	10⅜	Gen Electric special .60	5	11⅜	11	11⅜	0
56	29½	General Foods Corp 3	42	34¼	33⅜	33⅝	+ ½
8½	1¼	Gen Gas & E A 6%	10	1⅞	1¼	1⅞	- ⅛
50	29¼	General Mills 3	6	33	33	33	+ ⅛
49	18	Engineers Pub Ser 1.60	1	18¾	18¾	18¾	- ⅛
85⅛	18⅜	Equitable Off Bldg 2½	5	19	19	19	0
89⅝	5	Erie R R	18	7¼	6½	6¾	0
45½	6⅜	Erie R R 1st pf	6	9¼	8½	9¼	- 1¼
40½	5	Erie R R 2nd pf	1	6¾	6¾	6¾	+ ¼

F

24	4⅛	Fashion Pk Asso pf	1	5	5	5	...
27½	10½	Feder Dept Stores 1	8	14	13	14	- 2
21½	12⅝	Firestone T & R 1	1	14⅛	14⅛	14⅛	- ⅛
66⅛	49⅝	Firestone T & R pf 6	2	50¾	50¾	50¾	0
68	41	First Nat Stores 2½	13	47½	46½	47½	- 2
...	⅛	Fisk Rubber	1	¼	¼	¼	0
19¾	4	Follansbee Bros	1	4¼	4¼	4¼	- ⅛
31¾	9¾	Food Mach 1⅜	1	8⅛	8⅛	8⅛	...
64½	8	Foster-Wheeler	9	9⅛	9¼	9⅜	- ⅛
82½	16⅝	Fourth N Invest	2	18¼	18	18	- ⅛
88⅝	2½	Fox Film A	5	3½	3¼	3½	- ⅛
48¼	18¼	Freeport Texas 3	24	17⅞	17⅛	17¼	- ⅛

G

7⅛	2¼	Gen Am Invest	8	2¾	2¾	2¾	...
78⅜	28	Gen Am T Car 4	10	30½	28½	30	- 1⅝
47	9⅝	Gen Asphalt 2	4	12½	11¾	12½	...
25½	9½	General Baking 2	5	13⅝	13	13	- ¼
9⅜	1¾	General Bronze	1	3	3	3	...
48½	25	General Cigar 4	2	30½	30¼	30¼	- ⅛
54⅝	22¼	Gen Electric 1.60	474	24⅝	23⅝	24⅜	- ⅛
12⅛	10⅜	Gen Electric special .60	5	11⅜	11	11⅜	0
56	29½	General Foods Corp 3	42	34¼	33⅜	33⅝	+ ½
8½	1¼	Gen Gas & E A 6%	10	1⅞	1¼	1⅞	- ⅛
50	29¼	General Mills 3	6	33	33	33	+ ⅛
49	18¾	General Motors 3	417	22⅝	21¾	21⅞	+ ⅛
108⅝	79¾	General Motors pf 5	3	81⅝	81	81⅝	+ ⅝
28	4	Gen Outdoor Adver A 4	1	6½	6½	6½	0
28	4	Gen Pub Service	3	4	3¾	3¾	+ ⅛
84½	20½	General Ry Signal 6	12	28	28½	28	- 1½
9½	⅝	Gen Realty & Util	9	1	⅝	1	- ⅛
74⅛	18	Gen Realty & U pf ww	4	18½	18¼	18¾	+ ⅛
57⅝	12	Gen Refractories 1	3	13	13	13	0
18⅝	⅛	Gen Theatres Equip	16	⅝	⅝	⅝	+ ⅛
88½	9¼	Gillette Saf Raz	44	13¾	12⅜	13	+ ⅛
76⅛	48	Gillette Saf Raz pf 5	14	52¼	50	50	0
18⅜	8⅜	Gilsden Co	2	8¼	8¼	8¼	- ⅛
9⅜	3¾	Gobel Incorp	13	6¼	6¼	6¼	+ ⅛
42¼	14½	Gold Dust 2.50	67	19¼	18	18⅝	- ⅛
20⅜	8¾	Goodrich (B F) Co	10	4¾	4¼	4⅝	- ⅛
58⅝	12⅞	Goodyear T & Rub 1	18	15½	15	15	0
91	55	Goodyear T & R 1st pf 7	3	46½	44¼	46½	- 2½
18⅝	8½	Gotham Silk Hos	27	10	8¾	9½	- ⅛
66	19¼	Graham-Paige Mot	26	3½	3	3⅜	- ⅛
22⅝	8¼	Granby Copper 1.60	6	6¾	6¼	6⅝	- ⅛
28½	1½	Grand Silver Stores	2	2¾	2¼	2¾	- ⅛
18⅜	6⅝	Grand Union	1	7¾	7¾	7¾	...
46	21	Grand Union pf 2	4	26	25	25¼	- ⅝
42	24½	Grant (W T) Co 1	16	28¼	27½	28¼	- 2¼
69⅛	15⅝	Great Northern pf 1	88	22⅝	19⅝	20½	- ⅝
28½	10	Great Nor Ore ctfs 2	11	12½	12	12⅜	- ⅛
11⅞	5¼	Great West Sugar	2	6	6	6	+ ⅛
6¾	1	Grigsby-Grunow	15	1¾	1⅜	1⅜	+ ⅛
87½	4	Gulf States Steel	1	8½	8½	8½	...

H

9⅝	1¾	Hahn Dept Store	2	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝	0
19⅝	11	Hall Print 1.20	2	11⅜	11⅛	11⅜	- ⅛
44½	11½	Hahnlson-Walk R 1	8	14	13	13¾	- 1⅛
7⅜	½	Hartman Corp B	1	1½	1½	1½	- ⅛
1	⅛	Hayes Body	1	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜	- ⅛
100	60	Helme (Geo W) 7b	1	71¾	71¾	71¾	...
18	6	Hercules Motor .50	1	6½	6½	6½	0
108⅝	68	Hershey Chocolate 6	2	80	79¾	80	- ¼
104	70½	Hershey Choc pf 4	1	81	81	81	...
8½	1⅜	Hoe (R) Co	1	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜	...
19⅜	5¼	Hollander & Sons	1	7	7	7	- 1
188	81	Homestake Mining 2.50	6	180¼	180	180¼	- 2¼
9⅝	2½	Hood-Rersh B	5	2¾	2¾	2¾	0
68	52½	Household Fin pf 4	1	66¼	66¼	66¼	...
68½	18⅝	Houston Oil	21	21	18½	20	2
14⅛	8	Houston O

INVESTMENT TRUSTS

	Bid	Asked
A B C Tr Shares D	1/8	1/4
Do E	1/8	1/4
Am & Gen Sec A	4½
Do B	60
Do $3 pfd	30
Am Br & Con 6 pfd	5	12
Am Comp Tr Shares	5	7½
Am Cdrs 6 pfd	5	9
Do 7 pfd	7	13
Do 1.70 cum	40½	01
Do ctf pfd ctfs	10	20
Do 1.40 cum	01	02
Am Inv Stocks	1¼	2¼
Asso Stand Oil	3¼	4¼
Atlantic Sec pfd	16	20
Do war		1
A T & Pa. Inf. units	14½
Do com wts		¼
Do pfd wts	14
Bankers Nat Inv	15	19
Bankvilla Corp	6	8
Basic Industry	2
Bl-Metl Type Inv	15	17½
Central Nat Corp A	12	15
Do B	2	5
Century Trust Shares	17	18
Chain & Gen Equities	½	1
Chartered Invest	1	2
Do preferred	45	50
Chicago Exchange A	¼	1
Do B
Cumulative Trust Shares	3½	5½
Corporate Trust	2 05
Do AA	1 90	2 15
Do accum ser	1 80	2 15
Crum & Foster	13	16
Do 8a pfd	80	85
Crum & Foster Ins	14	16
Do 7a pfd	74	77
Deposit Bank Shares N Y	3
Do A	2¾	3¼
Deposited Shares A	2¾	3¼
Diversified Trust A	6
Diversified Tr B	6
Do C	2 55	2 85
Do D	4½	4¾
Equity Invest	30½
Do pfd	49
Equity Trust Shares	2 50	2 75
Five Year Fixed Trust	3¼
Fixed Trust Shares A	6¾
Do B	3¼
Fund Trust Shares A	3¼	3½
Do B	3¼	4
Granger Trade	4
Gude Winmill Trad	25
Incorp Investors	17	18½
Incorp Invest Equit	1¾	2¾
Industrial Trust Shares	2 15	2 30
Int Sec Corp Am A	6
Do B	05
Int Sec Am 6s pfd	6	11
Do 6½s pfd	5	12
Inv Tr Corp Am A	3¼	4½
Investors Royalty	1
Leaders of Industr A	3½
Do B	3¼	3¾
Do C	3¼	3¾
Low Priced Shrs	2¾	3¼
Major Corp Shrs	2¾	3¼
Mass Invest Tr	15¾	16¾
Mutual Inv Tr A	4	5
Mutual Manage		2½
Nation Wide Sec		1
Nat Trust Shrs	2	3
Nati Tru Shrs	3¾	4
N Y Ba Tr Shrs	3½	4½
Nor Am Tr Shares	2 30
Do 1935	2 10	2 35
Do 1936	2 10	2 35
Northern Secur	30	40
Oil Shares units	3¾	5¾
Old Col Inv Tr	1	2
Old Col Ar Assoc	13	15
Petrol Trad A	4	6
Public Serv Tr	3½	5
Repros Tr Shares	1 45	5 60
Second Int Sec A	1
Do B	¼
Do $6 1st pref	6	11
Secur Corp Gen $6 pref		85
Selected Am Shares	2 20	2 60
Selected Cumulative Shares	3¾	6½
Selected Income Shares	3¾	6½
Selected Manage Trust	3 30	3 70
Shawmut Bank	3
Spencer Trask Fund	12½	14
Stand All Am Tr	4¼	5¼
Stand Am Tr Shares	3 06	3 36
Stand Capital Trust	4½	5
Stand Invest Trust	4½	5
Super of Am Tr A	1	3½
Do B
Do C
Do D
Trust Shares of Am	4½	5½
Trustee Stand Inv C	1 85	2 15
Do D	1 90	2 10
Trustee St Oil Shrs B	3¾	5¾
Trusteed N Y C Bank	4¾	6¾
Trusteed Am Ba Sh	3¾	5¾
Do A
Twentieth Cent Fixed Tr	4¾	5¾
Two Year Trust Sh	8½	10
United Fixed Shrs	2½	3
Unit Fdrs 1.70 com	02	03
United Ins shrs	3¾
United Manu Tr	6½
U S & Brit Int Ltd A	5¾
Do $3 pfd	5½	10
U S Elec Li & Pow A	14½	18½
Do B	3¾	4¾
Universal Tr Sh	2¾	3¾

Death Notices 1

BERNER—At his home, 165 Beaver road, Etna, Pa., on Tuesday, January 5, 1932, at 11 p. m. CHRISTOF, husband of the late Barbara Berner, nee Bauer, and father of Peter F. and Herbert J. Berner, aged 71 years. Funeral from the residence of his son, 2005 Liberty avenue, Pittsburgh, on Saturday, January 9, at 8:30 a. m. High mass of requiem at St. Mary's Church, Sharpsburg, at 9 o'clock. Friends invited.

BOYD—On Tuesday, January 5, 1932, at 10:50 p. m., DORA I. BOYD. Funeral services at the family residence, 437 Forest avenue, Bellevue, Friday, at 2 p. m. Friends are invited. Please omit flowers.

BOYD—On Wednesday evening, January 6, 1932, at 8:45 o'clock, MARGARET F., widow of J. M. Boyd. Funeral from the late residence, Mrs. James Dixon, 322 Lehigh avenue, Munhall (Homestead Park). Services at the First Baptist Church, Ninth avenue and McClure street, Homestead, on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

BRUMM—On Tuesday, January 5, 1932, at 4:30 a. m., ELIZABETH GLOSS, BRUMM, wife of Louis Brumm, in her 69th year. Funeral from her late residence, 2149 Pringle street, Troy Hill, North Side, on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Friends invited.

CASSIDY—On Wednesday morning, JOHN J. Funeral from residence of his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Jones, 1311 Franklin street, North Side, on Saturday morning, January 9, at 8:15 o'clock. Solemn requiem high mass at St. Andrew's Church at 9 o'clock. Friends are invited. (Connellsville and Uniontown, Pa., papers please copy.)

COCHRAN—In New York City, on January 6, 1932, ROBERT DAVIS COCHRAN, son of the late Mansfield B. Cochran. Interment private in Pittsburgh, Pa.

DAVIS—At the residence of her father, Howard E. Padgett, 116 Ulysses street, Mt. Oliver, on Tuesday, January 5, 1932, at 2:25 p. m., GRACE PADGETT DAVIS, wife of John H. Davis. Funeral services at the parlors of Willard Crater & Sons, Virginia avenue and Pennsylvania street, Mt. Washington, on Friday, January 8, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends and members of Adah Chapter No. 54, O. E. S. are invited. Eastern Star services Thursday evening, January 7, at 9:30 o'clock.

DAVIDSON—On Wednesday, January 6, 1932, at 1:30 a. m., BERTHA ED. LEVIA DAVIDSON, wife of James D. Davidson, in her 48th year. Funeral services at the late home, 2457 Waverly street, Braddock, Pa., on Saturday, January 9, at 2 p. m. Interment in Versailles Cemetery, McKeesport, Pa.

DENK—On Wednesday, January 6, 1932, at 12:20 a. m., FRANK DENK, father of Frank J. Denk, Mrs. Mary McGeever and Mrs. Clara Schuler. Body from the residence of Frank J. Denk, 141 South Twenty-fourth street, on Saturday at 8:45 a. m. Requiem mass at St. Joseph's Church, Mt. Oliver, at 9:30 a. m. Friends and members of B. P. O. E. No. 11 respectfully invited. Interment St. George's Cemetery.

DONAHUE—On Wednesday, January 6, 1932, at 4:25 p. m., MARGARET M. (NORA), wife of Patrick Donahue, in her 61st year. Survived by five daughters, Mrs. John E. Sullivan, Mrs. James F. Burke, Mrs. E. C. Gilbert, Mrs. D. H. Gibson, Mrs. John J. Hodge, and Miss Margaret Donahue. Funeral from late residence, 28 Emerson avenue, Crafton, Pa., Saturday, at 8:30 a. m., thence high mass at St. Philip's R. C. Church at 9 a. m. Friends invited.

EDMUNDS—On Tuesday, January 5, 1932, at 5:30 p. m., CATHARINE M. EDMUNDS, wife of Thomas H. Edmunds. Funeral services at her late residence, 30 Taylor street, Crafton, Pa., on Friday at 2:30 p. m.

ELRICH—On Tuesday, at 1:15 o'clock, CHRISTOPHER, son of the late Frederick and Dorothy Elrich, aged 60 years. Funeral from the residence of his niece, Mrs. Armand J. Hufnagel, 1 Hufnagel street, Neville Island, on Friday at 2:30 o'clock. Friends and members of Brick Layers Union, Local No. 2, invited. Car No. 22 to Second street, Neville Island.

EVNATTEN—At her residence, 1133 Termon avenue, North Side, on Thursday morning, January 7, 1932, at 8:30 o'clock, MARGARET HOLTZHAUSEN, wife of Robert E. Snatten. Remains at the parlors of David A. Minnin, 911 Arch street, North Side. Notice of time later. Delight Chapter, O. E. S., No. 270, Pennsylvania Court, No. 1, U. D. A., Pythian Sisters, North Side Temple No. 1, are invited.

FARRELL—On Wednesday, January 6, 1932, at 9:20 p. m., GRACE A. FARRELL. Funeral services at the residence of her brother, H. P. Farrell, 119 Barr avenue, Harris Terrace, Crafton, Pa., on Friday at 8 p. m. Friends invited.

FOSTER—Suddenly, at New York City, N. Y., on Wednesday, January 6, 1932, AUDREY C. FOSTER. Remains at the home of the T. B. Moreland Co., North Highland avenue at Ridge street, East End, where services will be held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment private. Arrive in Pittsburgh Friday morning.

GINGRICH—At St. Francis Hospital, Pittsburgh, on January 6, 1932, at 1:35 a. m., H. P. GINGRICH, aged 71 years, father of H. E. Gingrich of Bethlehem, Pa., formerly of Emsworth. Funeral services at the home of Cray Bros. Co., 480 Lincoln avenue, Belvedere, on Thursday, at 8:30 p. m. Interment Friday morning.

GRUBBS—On Tuesday, January 5, 1932, at 8:30 p. m., MATILDA THOMAS GRUBBS, widow of Philip Grubbs. Funeral from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Selma Ferguson, Howes Hollow road, near Carnegie, Pa., on Saturday, January 9, at 8:30 a. m. Requiem mass at St. Joseph's Catholic Church at 9 o'clock. Friends invited.

GUMBER—EDWARD J., husband of Ella Gumber, father of Ulli Gumber, street, Brackenridge, Pa., in the 33rd year of the Allegheny Valley Hospital, January 6, at 5:15 p. m. Funeral services in the Trinity Lutheran Church, Tarentum, on Saturday, at 2 p. m. Interment in St. Ann Cemetery.

HUMES—On Tuesday, January 5, 1932, at 6:30 p. m., HARRIET HUMES, aged 72 years, wife of the late Harry S. Humes. Services at the family home, 111 Tenth street, Aspinwall, on Friday, January 8, at 2:30 p. m. Friends are invited.

ERCER—On Tuesday, January 5, 1932, at 6:45 p. m., LEONORA TAYLOR MERCER, widow of Robert Mercer. Funeral services at the residence of her niece, Mrs. Ralph S. Davis, 1 Hart avenue, Crafton, Pa., on Friday, at 11 a. m. Friends invited. (Columbus O. papers please copy.)

MITSCHNER—On Wednesday, January 6, at 12:10 p. m., at his home, 253 Jeffer son street, Rochester, Pa., WILLIAM ALEXANDER MITSCHNER. Funeral services at his home, Friday evening, January 8, at 9 o'clock. Additional services will be held in the Presbyterian Church, Belle Vernon, Pa., Saturday, January 9, at 2:30 p. m. Interment in Belle Vernon Cemetery.

McCONNELL—On Tuesday, January 5, 1932, at 8:45 a. m., MARY (MAUDE) DUNN McCONNELL, widow of Thomas J. McConnell and sister of Edward F. Dunn, at her residence, 495 Walter avenue, Eighteenth Ward. Funeral on Friday, January 8, at 8:15 a. m. Solemn high mass of requiem at St. Canice's Church at 9 a. m. Friends invited.

ROBIN—At New York City, FANNIE ROBIN, beloved wife of the late Max Robin. Funeral services will be held at the home of her brother, Dr. Henry Fox, Kelsmont, 5325, Forbes street, Squirrel Hill, on Friday, January 8, at 2 p. m. Interment in West View Cemetery.

ROSENTHAL—On Wednesday, January 6, 1932, at 5 a. m., BARNEY ROSENTHAL, beloved husband of Sadie Rosenthal, aged 66 years. Funeral from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Harry C. Bash, 1328 South Negley avenue, Squirrel Hill, on Friday, January 8, at 10:30 a. m. Interment in Tree of Life Cemetery.

SHIELDS—On Wednesday morning, January 6, 1932, at 8 o'clock, EMMA VICKERY, widow of Charles R. Shields, of 1659 Morningside avenue. Remains at the home of the T. B. Moreland Co., N. Highland avenue at Ridge street, East End, where services will be held on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment private.

SPENCER—Suddenly, on Tuesday, January 5, 1932, at 5 p. m., HERBERT McK. Spencer, husband of Elizabeth Hilands Spencer, aged 64 years. Funeral services at his late residence, 18 Hilands avenue, Emsworth, on Friday at 2 o'clock. Friends are invited.

STERRETT—On Tuesday, January 5, 1932, at 9:30 p. m., Mrs. West Penn Hospital, ANNA STERRETT, wife of Robert M. Sterrett, of 214 North Negley avenue. Funeral services at H. Samuels's, 537 Neville street, on Thursday, afternoon at 4 o'clock. Interment private.

SHERRILL—On January 2, 1932, at 12:31 a. m., DORIS THOMAS SHERRILL, wife of A. C. Sherrill. She is survived by five children, her mother, Mrs. T. W. Thomas, of Niles, O., and brother, A. Paul Thomas, of New York.

WEIS—On Wednesday morning, January 6, 1932, at 8:45 o'clock, AGNES M. MEEKIN, beloved wife of A. H. Weis, at her home, 2000 North Graham street, East End. Survived by her husband, one son, Carl H., one sister, Mrs. A. C. Wolz, one brother, John S. McMeekin. Services Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Dr. Wallace officiating. Interest in Allegheny Cemetery.

MOUNT ROYAL MAUSOLEUM
Westminster Abbey of Pittsburgh
Mt. Royal Cemetery—Mt. Royal Boulevard
"space available—Above ground entombment"
Empire Building Atlantic 1629

ALLEGHENY COUNTY MEMORIAL PARK
INFORMATION PHONE ATLANTIC 9847

Florist 1-C

GIDAS OAKLAND FLORAL 3707 FORBES STREET SPRAYS $3 FUNERAL BASKETS $5

Funeral Directors 1-D

FUNERALS COMPLETE
FROM $135.00 UP
Grime & Blair
4113 Main St. Schenley 9660

Lost and Found 2

DINNER RING, aquamarine, setting in Herman's store or vicinity. Monday, reward. Cravaglia 718.

DOG, striped or ticked, male white long hair, body and short tail; name Ted; reward. 1349 Swissvale ave. N. S. LI 2931.

DOG, brown Pomeranian answers to name of Tony, lost in Squirrel Hill district, reward. Call Hazel 4800.

DOG, Boston bull, lost last Sat., expecting pups soon, reward. Emerson 1741.

FUR scarf, Greystone, at Waverly ave. Reward. Inquire 5818 Wellesley ave. Emerson 1111.

PACKAGE, containing mitten and cap, marked Porter National Bank, reward. Call Hazel 4317.

REWARD FOR RECOVERY OF TAN FORD COUPE, MODEL A 3971170, LICENSE NO. B-8005. CALL FAIRFAX 3486.

WRIST WATCH, white gold, Elgin, lost New Year's Eve on Ferry at St. St. Mary's Church; reward. HE 5353.

WRIST WATCH, Ladye Bulova, Gimbels or downtown, Saturday. Carrie 0406.

Special Notices 3

WATCHES clnd. repd. $2 to the original $2.50 repairman, Jule, 602 Keenan Bldg.

WATCH Crystals, 1c. Main Spring, $1. Freeman, Room 406, 624 Diamond st.

Male Help Wanted 4

EXPERIENCED wholesale grocery salesmen. Apply 2021-23 Forbes st.

LEARN A TRADE

Automobile mechanics, electric refrigeration, parachute construction and packing, draftsmanship, welding, battery and ignition, individual classes every day and Tuesday and Thursday evenings. Catalog free. Visitors welcome.
PITTSBURGH SCHOOL OF TRADES
436 Penn Ave. Dept. T Pittsburgh, Pa.

MEN—There's a reason why the Refrigeration Training School and Shops, Inc., is the largest in America. See them first before starting. Day, Eve. Trade. They don't teach. They TRAIN you. Their shops are open day and evenings at 104-106 Boulevard of Allies.

5 MORE MEN
Help out 11th annual's price offer, must be neat, have references and be satisfied with $5 earnings daily to start. Reasons. Empire Bldg. Employment Manager.

WANTED—Live wire representative, up-to-date Chicago tie cutting company, selling orders, commission basis, men of personal power preferred. Write B 114 Sun-Telegraph.

WANTED—Ride on excavating, brick work, plastering, cement and carpenter work. 1701 Webster ave.

YOUNG MEN—Over 21, neat, willing to start at about $25 weekly; work hard; furnish references; need 12. 314 Empire Bldg.

Female Help Wanted 6

BUSINESS position for alert woman; good salary. Write B 110, Sun-Telegraph.

COLORED man wants a housekeeper, no children, one that wants a home. Box 21, Braddock, Pa.

DEMONSTRATORS (4) with or without experience, full training given, guaranteed salary to start, opening just made. Call Mr. Fitzsimmons, Fitzsimmons Hotel, for appointment.

LEARN to operate Burroughs electric calculator, automatic bookkeeping and Burroughs typewriter billing and bookkeeping machines; low tuition terms. 615 Liberty ave. Atlantic 3114.

Small grocery, white, serving beauty culture, GRIFFITH BEAUTY SCHOOL, the 2nd floor, 627 Penn ave. Fri. Sat. FREE MARCELS. Finger waves, 25c.

WANTED—Woman to act as hostess for pants shop in nearby town. Good wages already work to right party. Must be able to instruct female help. References. Apply Jos. Lev., in care of the Wm. Penn Hotel, Saturday afternoon.

WOMAN—30 or over who can devote 6 or 8 hours daily to pleasant, dignified work; good salary; permanent connection; exceptional opportunity for woman selected. Call for appointment. Atlantic 2656.

Male Help Special 5

LEARN to drive; routes at hand; guaranteed. Ben Foreman, Grant 0132.

Male & Female 8

Earn Money at Home

Men, women, students. We will furnish without cost everything necessary for you to earn $5 to $15 daily at home. Write Postoffice Box 798, Pittsburgh, for particulars.

Work Wanted 10

COL. man and wife as cook and housekeeper, private family; ref. Greensburg 2043-J.

FURN. repd., install, sheet mtl. work, fully all kinds, work guar., reas. FI 2215-W.

PAPERHANGING, $3 room, A-1 work, go anywhere, 18 years exp. Emerson 0927.

PAPERHANGING, VERY REASONABLE; REDUCED RATES. FAIRFAX 4358.

PAPERHANGING, with paper, $6.50 & up; up without paper, rear price. MA 7994.

PAPERHANGING — EXPERIENCED. LEHIGH 0970-R.

PITTSBURGH ASSN. IMP. OF POOR. Free Employment Bureau.
SKILLED MECHANICS, HANDY MEN, Carpenters, Pay are, Plumbers, Electricians, etc., Coal Carriers, Housework, Orderlies, Hands, Gen. Farmers, Pork and Sheet, etc. Capable dependable, family men personally known to us. Help a new man to work. Free Employment Bureau, 428 Tennessee Way, Atlantic 8181.

Sale, Business Opportun. 12

DAIRY, complete with modern equipment, ready for business, 900-gal. cap. MI 1802.

T. LEHANON automatic, $85, 3 rooms, bath, 2-car garage, cash, competition, near schools. Lehigh 3014.

Situations Wtd., Females 11

A NEAT colored girl wishes week's work, stay nights. Box 93, Trafford, Pa.

CHILD'S nurse, trained, with high-class refs., desires care of infant or children; can do chamberwork and work or waiting; mod. sal. Emerson 2148, Katherine.

COOK, experienced, with city ref., desires gen. housework. Grant 1965-R, 5 to 6 p. m.

EXPERIENCED laundress desires day work. Fisk 3235-R.

EXTRA good all-around couple, colored, general housewoman, cooking, driving, general housework, girl, cooks, cash, etc., etc., chamberwoman. Atlantic 2187.

FAMILY wash, curtains stretched neatly done, called for & del., ref. HI 1296-J.

GIRL wants work as chambermaid or waitress. Call HA 4173-M.

HSKPR.—Young woman in widower's home, no obj. to small child. Write A. M. 104 Sampson ave., Ingram. Walnut 2803-W.

NEAT colored girl wishes part time job. Call GR 0663.

JEWISH woman wants work as practical nurse or housekeeping by week or permanent; if necessary will stay at night; best reference required. Schenley 1873.

PRACTICAL NURSE. Will take maternity cases or care for old persons. Fairfax 9293.

WANTED—General housework by colored girl; references. Homestead 1221-M.

YOUNG colored girl wants housework or waitress, good ref. Grant 1692-W.

Wanted, Business 14

SHOE repairing: men, ladies and boys, 75c; children's 50c; ladies and children's heels, 25c; men's 50c; free delivery. MO 5466.

BLINDS CLEANED MO 3141

PAPERHANGING, painting, $3 rm. up. 20 years exp. Mr. Meehan, CE 0729-J.

Detectives 14-A

MORSE Secret Service investigates anyone anywhere. Phone Carrick 1401.

Business Schools 15-A

DAY NIGHT—Bond or Gregg shorthand. BOYD BUSINESS COLLEGE, 20 years in Pgh. 535 Penn ave.

School & Instructions 16

Beauty Culture The School for the Better Trade Day and Night Classes. Liberal Terms Arranged. Free employment service to our graduates.
GRIFFITH BEAUTY SCHOOL
2nd Floor, 627 Penn ave. Atlantic 4054

Learn Beauty Culture

$5 weekly. Day and night classes. Truly a school of profession. Free catalogue. 207 Fifth Ave. Atlantic 0881.

KENMORE BEAUTY COLLEGE
Teaches all branches. Free manuals. Atlantic 0784. 204 Fifth ave.

ELOCUTION—Or piano lessons. The pieces given first season. Montrose 7181.

Dancing Academies 17

Thousands of Satisfied Pupils at L. B. DON MARTINI Studios. Only Real Ball Room in 10 teachers (no stage) rates 212 Shadyside.

Personals 18

WILL contract to give stenographic or other service for period of 1 year for $375, payable in advance, urgent. Write Y 114 Sun-Telegraph.

DR. JANE BLANCHARD'S true medicine for women. Nothing to equal it. 2817 East street, North Side.

VIBRATORY sun tan, Violet Ray for colds, neuritis, nervousness, soreness. SC 3256.

MASSAGE—Elec. vibrty. treatments, spec. attention to afflicted persons. FA 2949.

RENT my modernistic apt. for parties, bridges, etc. Call Schenley 7292.

Liquor & Drug Treat. 18-B

LIQUOR AND DRUG DISEASE
ARE YOU SACRIFICING your life, position and home? Information and literature free.
SHADYSIDE SANITARIUM
FORMERLY KELLY INSTITUTE
265 Shady Ave. Emerson 9382

Transfer & Storage 19

HASLEY BROS., Reliable Local & Long Distance Transfer, storage, coal, long distance moving. FA 4764. Gable, CE 5576.

HARMAN & SONS
Send rel. via Hart Pgh. N.Y. Chi. Bos. 206 Fahnestock at AT 6037 ext. FA 3057.

Coal, Oil & Wood 21

SCREEN small sizes, $3.25; large sizes, $3.50 a mine; $2.75 del. Carnegie 667-J.

BEST screened Pittsburgh lump, special $5.25 delivered. Marlborough 6218.

CLEAN lump, shoveled or chuted in cellar, 14 ton, 2 ton loads. Linden 4665.

Beauty Parlors 23

THE BOND STREET BEAUTY SALON is offering their regular $5 steam oil permanent wave for only $2. 604 Fifth Ave. Atlantic 0784.

FOR RENT Furnished Rooms 30

A HOME for BUSINESS and PROFESSIONAL people, attrac. every conv.; 5 min downtown; FA 5422, 930 N. Lincoln.

ASPINWALL—Room, oval bath, $4 week; 2 people, $2.25 each; pvt. home. ST 2180.

Attractive suite of 2 rooms at the Nella Vue, 217 Roup st., just opened; newly furn.; single or en suite; steam heat; or cafe garage. MO 3809.

BAUM BLVD., 4747—Nice rm., widow's prv. home, furn. heat, reas. EM 9620.

BAUM BLVD., 5926, large front rm. for 1 or 2 all conv.; near MA 5733.

BOB-VIEW Ave., 1408, Rm. & board for couple in widow's home, nice rm., home privileges, good meals. LE 7668-M.

BROOKLINE—Nice rm. for 1 or 2 gents every conv. Hardy Bros. LE 7674-M.

E. E.—160 S. Negley—Very large front suit, 1 or 2 bed-living, suits, suit 1 of 2 girls reas. home like. MO 8419.

E. E.—Mt. Lebanon, kind very nice rm. for 1 or 2, $5 to $6, h. w. ht. Crestwood 3491.

E. E.—5807 Hays st.—Brand rm., 1st fl. apt. steam ht., board opt. MO 4571.

E. E.—Attractive bachelor quarters newly papered and furnished, Roland 2054 even.

EDWIN Ave., 1703, N. S.—Nicely furn. room, h. w. ht., reasonable. FA 6767.

MT. LEB.—Ideal home for 1 or 2, unique, phone, private family. Lehigh 3805.

MT. LEBANON—Lovely rm. new home all conv. for 1 or 2, reas. LO 0467-R.

NEGLEY Ave., S. 370—Beautiful private home, has large, very attractive front room, bath connected, also garage.

NORTH Ave., W. 1132—2-rm. apt., pvte bath, $40 fr.; also sleep. rm., $5 mod.

OAKLAND DIST.—Young lady or couple to share beautiful apt. Schenley 8125.

POINT BREEZE, large bedrm., conv. pvte bath, suit 2, $6 each. Montrose 2741.

SQ. HILL, 4207 Wisdom—Cozy rm., pvte home for 2 reas. gent, $5. HA 6364.

SQ. HILL, Rm. or rm. and board for 2 reas. to 4 car line; reas. HA 2022-W.

SQ. HILL, beautiful rm. for 2 gents, very convenient, priv. bath. HA 1415.

WILK. Penn ave.—Nice room, very quiet, $25 mo., breakfast opt. CH 7700.

Unfurnished Rooms 31

BEECHVIEW, 2 rms., kitchen, tiled bath, range incl., reasonable. LE 4141.

SOUTH HILLS Dist., 3 lovely rms., 2nd fl., modern conv., 2 car free, $25. LE 1565-R.

MT. WASH., 820 Southern ave., 4 rooms, bath, laundry. Everglade 1922.

Business AND Professional Directory

Beauty Schools

LEARN finger waving, marcelling, haircutting, French method, by internationally expert, pvt. lessons, 641 Liberty ave., 2d fl.

COMP. inst. under the supv. of Frederic G. Jacobi, inter. authority. Malkon Frederic Beauty School, 201 9th ave. AT 0884.

GRIFFITH graduates are always in demand. Griffith Beauty School, 627 Penn ave.

Dentists

$10 PLATES all cases all guaranteed perfect fits. Dr. Cooper, 109 Diamond st.

Hot Water Heating

$395 installs complete 6 radiators, no cash needed, easy terms. Commonwealth Engineering Co., Law Finance Bld. AT 0080.

Plumbing and Heating

$375 HOT water system, complete, installed. C. A. E. Co., 109 Market st. CO 1551.

Rabbits and Supplies

NGLEWD Rabbits, Ward & Clifford, 960 Merr. p. ave. FE 9110.

Skin Specialists

DR. F. C. GEHRE, skin specialist, 402 Nixon Bldg., Atlantic 1108.

Window Shade Cleaning

BLINDS, 25c—Cleaned and turned, Sterling 2858.

FOR RENT Housekeeping Rooms 32

BROOKLINE well furn. home for 2 girls, radio, piano, frig., everything for; no cats, city, $10 wk. ref. LE 6454-J.

DALLAS AVE., N.—2 lovely rms., sink, range, for adults, all conv. MO 7699.

E. E., IVY ST.—2 apts., 1 small, 1 large, efficiency, also housekeep. suite, 626 S. Negley. Roop apts., bus, car. MA 1136.

E. E.—2 lovely rms. and alcove, 2nd fl., front, furn. heat, very reas. Hi 3471-J.

E. E., 5811 RIPPEY—2 lovely rms., conv., sink, range, porch, furn. heat, EM 0144.

E. E., 7763 Baxter st., 2 nice furnished rooms, complete, reasonable. PE 9897.

HOMEWOOD, 7839 Hamilton—3 lovely rms., complete, frigid. etc., $19; adults.

KNOXVILLE, 426 Charles st.—2 lvly. front rms., bedrm., kitchen, reas. EV 1447.

KNOXVILLE, 318 Rochelle St.—2 nicely furn. rms., everything incl. EV 7480.

N. S.—1313 Western ave.—Bed-living rm. and kitchen, $6 week. Fairfax 3681.

PERRYSVILLE AVE., 2102—3 rms., priv. bath, complete hsekg., $6 wk. FA 1588.

WESTERN AVE., 816, N. S.—Light hsekg. apt., rms., running water, all conv., also sleep. rms., weekly, cheap. CE 4586.

MENTION THE SUN-TELEGRAPH WHEN ANSWERING ADVERTISEMENTS.

Wanted, Boarders 33

E. E.—Will board 1 or 2 children, in private home. Reas. EM 9799.

WILKBG.—Room, board; private home, reasonable. 903 savannah ave. PE 7622.

MENTION THE SUN-TELEGRAPH WHEN ANSWERING ADVERTISEMENTS.

Wtd., Rooms & Board 34

ANTED—Good Catholic home for a 12-year-old boy in McKeesport that best of reference required and exchanged for same. Any farm where husband is employed will be considered; small family pfd. AT 9920 or write R 114 Sun-Tele.

Apartments 35

Oakland Apartments,

$25.00 TO $57.50 MONTH

Desirable apartments, 2, 3, 4 and 5 rooms, both mod.-ern, heat furnished. Atlanta 4232.

WILKG., 559 Trenton ave.—Eff. apt., mod., 2 rm. bath, Murphy bed, $30; $5 sc. Sole.

1426 PENN AVE., Wilkinsburg, 4 rooms and bath, $50. Call Court 5500.

Apartments, East End 36

Will Sub-Let IN Wendover Apartments

Attractive unfurnished 4-room apartment; possession immediately. Call Mr. Browne, Grant 6500.

DITHRIDGE APARTMENT AT BIG CONCESSION

Present tenant will turn over lease of a choice four-room apartment at considerable reduction of present rental; immediate possession.
CALL MR. RODGERS, Grant 6500.

TAYLOR ST., 220—3 rooms, bath, steam heat, janitor service, $42.50; 4 rooms, bath, etc., $50.00; open for inspection. Scott & McClure, Atlantic 6444.

EAST END AVE.
Corner apartment of 6 rooms, bath, janitor service, one month free.
SAMUEL H. BLACK CO., Atlantic 2749.

3200 FORBES ST.—Living rm., laundry, outdoor bed, dinette alcoventte, $40. MA 2742.

6 ROOM duplex at 1026 N. Highland ave. Sun or rent.

Apartments, South Hills 37

The Finest in South Hills

Apartments and homes, unlimited rental list. South Hills Real Estate Company, 2899 W. Liberty ave., Lehigh 5400.

PRINCESS ANN APTS.

321 Beverly rd., Mt. Lebanon. Beautiful furnished or unfurnished apartments at attractive prices. Manager on premises. LEHIGH 6493.

DUPLEX first floor, 5 rooms and bath, all modern conveniences, 1 block from car line, bus stop at door, 12 minutes to city. 115 Melville st. Phone Carrick 1949.

Apartments, North Side 38

Perrysville Dist.—Attractive 3 rms., private bath, unfurnished condition, $35. Atlantic 9200.

ONE MONTH FREE.
Two Hill 3-rm. apts. at $25 & $30. AT 2740.

City & Suburban 39

WILK.—Brick, 5 rms., bath, flat, nicely papered, good coal, reduced. CH 0200.

REDUCED to $30—205 27th st., near P. R. R., 6-room brick house. Grant 2252.

BELLEVUE—7-rm. brick, bath, furnace, fireplaces. Perrysville 276.

East End 40

JACKSON, near Sheridan, 12 rooms, 6 baths, fine condition, rare chance for quick sale, reasonable rent. Owners, Hazel 3242, any time.

OAKLAND, $18—Small house, 3 rms., h. w. heat, good coal, Schenley 0933.

264 PAULSON AVE.—10-rm. brick two-family, suit 2 families, $65. CH 7260.

North Side 41

SUPERIOR AVE.—6 rms., bungalow, bath, hot water heat, $27.50 mo. 1 mo. free. Lando Realty, 331 4th ave. CO 4447.

SHADELAND ave., 2021, N. S., 6-r. bungalow, $45 month. Linden 4007-J.

South Hills 42

CARRICK, 324 Carrick ave.—6 rooms, bath, garage, large lot, 30% of will sell reasonable. Everglade 2395 week days.

Bellevue, West View, Avalon, Ben Avon 43

BELLEVUE Apartments $40 up; houses $22.50 up. J. O. Bower, Linden 0200.

Furn. Apts. & Houses 45

San Juan—120 N. Homewood ave. Homes 4311.

Furnished cashier apts. and single rooms.

NEGLEY ave., S. 370—Beautiful private home has very attractive furnished apt., also garage, exclusive location.

ABERDEEN, 3 rms., bath, furnished, conveniently located, Polaris 1349-J.

WANTED—Refined woman to share apartment with same. Write B 102, Sun-Tele.

E. E., 6018 Station ave., 2 rms., pvt. bath, Kelly Hgtd. heat, gas, free. EM 0160.

E. E.—BEAUTIFULLY FURN. APT., 2 RMS. BATH, $75. MAYFLOWER 2026.

SE. N. S. Park, 3-4 rm. furn. apt., pvte bath. PA 7840 or 4000.

Offices & Desk Room 50

Westinghouse Bldg.
Executive space, single or en suite. AT 4000.

$5.00 MO. Office address, phone calls taken, also desk space for a number; 201 Investment Bldg. AT 4000.

DOCTOR'S offices, complete service, modern rental. Anderson Bld. AT 4800.

FOR SALE City & Suburban Houses 60

SALE
Forbes, Nr. Magee St.
14 brick duplex. Lot 110x134 ft. through to Watson st. Price reduced to $75,000.
Suitable terms. Apply owner. See
COMMONWEALTH REAL ESTATE CO.
Commonwealth Bldg., Fourth Ave.

East End Houses 61

HIGHLAND DISTRICT HOME
ONLY $8,500
Seven rooms, bath, furnace, garage, a real home in a splendid location.
SAMUEL H. BLACK CO.
FARMERS BANK BLDG. AT 2749.

SQ. HILL—Brick, 6 large rms., tile bath, h. w. heat, gar. $6,750. HA 7922.

6-ROOM duplex at 1026 N. Highland ave. Sun or rent.

North Side Houses 62

DAVIS AVE., NR. CALIFORNIA
RENT $1,200 PRICE $8,350
Frame dwelling, containing 2 rms. and bath on 1st fl., 4 rms. and bath and 1 of 5 rms. and bath. Court 1371a.

FOR SALE Dormont, Mt. Lebanon 63

NEW LOW PRICES
Terms to suit, new homes, South Hills Real Estate Company, 2899 W. Liberty ave., Lehigh 5400.

APT. BLDG.—5 apts., rent for $250 a month, for quick sale $10,000. GE 7756.

THE BEAST OF THE CITY -:- -:- A Story of Fatal Beauty That Lurks In All Big City Jungles -:- -:- By JACK LAIT

Vice Ring Leader Arrested After Competitors Are Found Murdered

(Continued from Page 17.)

men, both large and strong, gazed into each other's eyes.

A police car ground to a noisy stop at the curb in front of No. 10 River street. Four men, burly and businesslike, leaped out of the car and elbowed their way through the crowd of excited foreigners. The chauffeur sat silently at the wheel and the radio in the car spat out the singsong message:

"Calling cars Number Fifty-three . . . Number Seventy-seven . . . Number Seventeen . . . Four men murdered at No. 10 River street . . . Four men murdered at No. 1 Oh . . . Hold . . . Reserves and emergency headquarters detail on way . . ."

Meantime an ambulance, red headlights glimmering ominously, stopped short across the street. Directly behind that came a low-slung dark roadster—Capt. Jim Fitzpatrick and two of his homicide detail, Big John Makowsky and Tom Deegan stepped out. The captain, pushing people out of his path, led the way, the other two following.

They went through the double-door entrance of the warehouse, guarded by two patrolmen.

"Straight back, captain," said one of the officers. Capt. Fitzpatrick nodded. The warehouse was dark and forbidding. Outside could be heard the fog-horns of river boats and the street lights were struggling through the veil of mist which had settled over the neighborhood. In the rear, in a small room cluttered with tools and harness, was a small group of newspaper reporters and detectives. The scene was illuminated by a lantern sitting on the floor.

FOUR FOUND DEAD

"Good evening, Coroner," said Capt. Fitzpatrick, edging inside the circle.

A small, rotund man with a big cigar in his mouth and a derby hat pushed back on his head, looked up. He was kneeling beside the body of one of four men, stretched out on the floor in all the grotesqueness of violent death. The Coroner waved at the four corpses. "I just cut them down—they were all hanging from that rafter."

He got up and brushed off his trousers.

"How long's it been?" asked the captain, face set, unemotional.

"Two days at least."

"Who found them?"

"I did, captain," spoke up a policeman. "Some kids, playing here, run on these guys hanging off the beam and beat it out to me."

"Where's the kids?"

"Outside—Haley's got 'em."

Capt. Fitzpatrick turned to Lieut. Makowsky.

"Go buzz the kids, Mac," he said. Makowsky nodded and walked away. The captain looked down at the four bodies, touched one with the top of his shoe, and said:

"The Dopey Boys! They were overdue. That's little Tomato Nose Georgie there, isn't it? Roll him over." He looks better'n I ever saw him."

The Coroner drew the Captain aside.

"Listen, each one of these birds had a nickel in his fist. It was wrapped in with tape. Looks to me like a job you worked on not so long ago."

"Huh! So that's it," mused the captain, rubbing his chin. "I might have known it. Those hoodlums wouldn't lay off. They were too ambitious."

GO AFTER SUSPECT

He turned to Lieut. Deegan.

"Frisk the place, Tom," he said.

"Okay, Chief," sang out Tom.

One of the reporters approached the captain.

"How about a little statement, cap'n," he began.

"Statement!" spluttered Capt. Fitzpatrick. "What do you want me to say? Well, these are the Dopey Boys, the whole four of 'em. They've been hanging around here for two days. They always hung around wrong places. Looks to me like they were murdered. Big mystery. And I suppose you'll go back and tell your editor that the police department is baffled."

He walked over where the four frayed ends of ropes dangled.

"Fightin' Jim Fitzpatrick and his Happiness Squad," muttered the reporter, joining his comrades. "Always a smile and a blessing for everybody. I guess I'll go telephone the glad tidings to the desk."

The reporters started out. Capt. Fitzpatrick walked around the room, inspecting the walls and kicking into piles of rubbish. Finally he took one long look at the four bodies, lying like so many bags on the floor, shrugged his shoulders and went outside.

"Where to, Fitz?" asked Mac.

"Cellis'," snapped the Captain.

Both Tom and Mac whistled.

"The Big Boy, eh?" asked Mac.

"Yep. I'm going to cut him down. I think I've got him this time at the end of his rope."

* * *

Guiseppe Belmonte, oily, greasy doyen of murder, seduction and corruption, tapped a fat forefinger meditatively on his glass-topped desk. He spoke in low, almost inarticulate tones.

LAWYER HIRED

"I don't think he'd be sucker enough to pick on me or pick me up," he said, turning his furtive, pin-head eyes first on the pretty blonde flash at his right and then on the hawk-faced man who sat across the desk from him.

"Of course he wouldn't!" exclaimed the man. "What's he got on you? He's just itching to make a monkey out of himself—and I wouldn't be surprised if he didn't bring along a couple of reporters, so they could blurb how 'Fightin' Jim Fitzpatrick bearded the lion in his den.' Don't worry."

Belmonte's eyes twinkled. He drew from a vest pocket a long, black saltwater stogie, broke it in half, stuffed one part between his thick, lecherous lips, and tossed the other on the floor. He waved a hand toward the girl who lighted and held the match.

"Well, I'm payin' you twenty grand a year to choke off raps like this," continued Belmonte, as he leaned back and blew the smoke ceilingward. "You legalers are smart. You know how to talk. When you don't know nothin' you got plenny to say. I know plenny, but I ain't got nothin' to say."

He grunted in satisfaction and sank further back in his chair. The lawyer grinned in silence. The girl glanced at one and then the other, and finally rose and walked over to the window, which was draped with dust and looked out on the foggy river.

OVERLORD OF SIN

The room on the second floor front of the Riverside Warehouse was fitted up like an office. The floor was carpetless, the walls bare and there were a half-dozen chairs scattered about. The mahogany, glass-topped desk was the only piece of furniture that represented the syncritic ideas of Belmonte. He had other places in abundance—his rococo apartment uptown, fitted out in extravagant style, his office at Cellis', which seemed more like a millionaire's quarters than a place of business, his hide-away in the Lumington Hotel, where he assembled his lieutenants.

But in the Riverside Warehouse, where he visited rarely, he maintained the only semblance of a legitimate business. Here he dealt in produce, apparently, but every crate of cabbages and every barrel of apples that came in went out of the place half-filled with booze bottles.

Overlord of sin and gin, Belmonte had a finger in every shady deal and every dark project in the metropolis. He flew the banner of outraged liberty and catered to the whims of those who sought pleasures and vices which the law forbade—easy women, hard liquor, gambling, dope.

In giving the people what they wanted he affected a profound justification. He did not confess himself a law-breaker. If millions clamored to ignore the laws he could see no reason why he should not profit. And in his own world he made his own laws. ran his joints high, wide open and handsome, and ruled by the primitive code. He employed thousands of people who would otherwise have been jobless, donated to the poor, enriched public officials, turned over a million a month and had the satisfaction of seeing so many enjoying themselves.

CONTROLS POLITICIANS

The entire metropolis was his apple. He tolerated no interference. He allocated various districts to his underlings and they were accountable to him and to him alone. He settled all complaints with a gun in one hand and cash in the other. With votes and money he controlled the politicians and the police and with bullets he controlled his business. His initials were G. B. but they called him B. B. —Big Boy.

So the impending visit of Capt. Jim Fitzpatrick, of the homicide squad, in connection with the murder of the four Dopey boys, was a laugh. He had received the telephone call from Cellis that the captain and two of his men had been there and were on their way to the Riverside Warehouse. He had expected this call and for that reason had retired to this one place which he publicly exploited as the source of his income.

"This Capt. Fitzpatrick," his attorney was saying, "is a little bit too damn serious. They say you can't organize him. He won't take dough. I don't know how he holds his job. But we'll see about that, too. If he gets too forte."

"They've all got their price," sneered Belmonte, screwing his fat face into grimace.

"Well, this is a case where you don't hate to plunk down a dime. They haven't got a thing on you."

"Anyway, I hate coppers."

Just then the three heard the hum of the freight elevator. The girl turned from the window.

"There's a car down front," she said simply.

PLACED UNDER ARREST

They remained silent and heard the elevator stop at the second floor. Then came the sound of footsteps, reverberating through the building. There was no knock on the door and it opened unceremoniously. Capt. Fitzpatrick, followed by Mac and Tom, walked in. Fitz surveyed the room with a quick panoramic glance and kept straight toward Belmonte. The two lieutenants stood beside the door.

"Hello," greeted Belmonte, without rising. "Take a seat. What can I do for you?"

"Him?" queried Daisy. "He sprung me, and him a copper!"

"Put your coat and hat on," snapped the captain, glaring hard at him. Belmonte registered surprise and looked at his attorney. The girl got up and walked over to the window, digging out her lip stick.

"Say, what's grippin' you now—I'm sittin' here peaceably, goin' over my accounts—what's the idee?" Belmonte shrugged.

"You heard me—you're going down to headquarters. I know all about those accounts you're figuring out. How many new customers you've got—and how the Dopey Boys ain't running booze any more. Ge' up!"

"That Dopey outfit?" queried Belmonte, a hurt expression on his face. "I don't pay any attention to penn'ante chicken feed like that."

"Except when they try to muscle in on you—like Maxie Eymans did. Then you string 'em up with nickles in their mitts."

"If somebody settled those fellas, I don't know a thing about it—see?"

Capt. Fitzpatrick walked around the des' and grabbed Belmonte by the coat.

"Come on, you big tub of grease!" he exclaimed, yanking him out of his seat. Belmonte looked appealingly at his attorney, whose face was expressionless. But Capt. Fitzpatrick jerked him over to Tom and Mac.

"Fan him!" he ordered.

"Hey! You can't do ——"

"Shut up! Do you want the works right here?"

AUSED GIRL'S RELEASE

The two detectives began a methodical search of his pockets. Capt. Fitzpatrick walked over to the girl.

"What's your name, sister?" he asked.

"Well, you can call me Alice, Mary or just plain Greta!"

"Those names are too Christian for you—hanging out with this scum."

"Say! who'n hell asked you?"

The captain ignored her and crossed to the attorney.

"Well, Michaels, still on the old detail, eh?"

"Now look here, captain," began the attorney. "You're biting off more than you can swallow."

"Listen, shyster. Save that gas and oil for the courtroom." The captain jerked his thumb toward Belmonte. "He might be needing it soon—and bad."

"Okay, captain," sang out the attorney, flipping an imaginary speck from his coat lapel. "You know it all—that's why you get what I pay my clerk."

"Well, boys, let's go—we'll take this guy for a ride," clicked Capt. Fitzpatrick, advancing on Belmonte. Tom had taken the gangster chief's coat and hat and was forcibly putting them on him. He stood a bewildered figure, between the two officers, still glancing toward his attorney, who said not the slightest attention to him.

Capt. Fitzpatrick gripped his arm and led him out the door, which slammed after him. The attorney and the girl said nothing until they heard the elevator stop at the ground floor.

"So that's the famous Fitz," breathed the girl as she turned away from the window.

"Yep—himself. He thinks he's pulled a swift one. May even get his picture in the papers for this."

Michaels reached for the telephone.

"Garfield seven—three nine four eight," he called. Then he leaned on his elbow, and looked at the girl.

"I'm going to tell you something that may interest you."

But he got his number.

"Hello! Pearson? Michaels. Draw up the papers right away. Send them over to Judge Tandy. Yeah, they took B. B. down to headquarters. Make it snappy. I want them there before those cops pull a boner and give Belmonte a message. . . . I'll juggle the rest. Okay."

He hung up the receiver and sighed.

"I guess that'll hold them," he said. Then, "Oh, yes. I was going to tell you something. You saw that guy, Fitzpatrick? Well, he was the party who sprung you out of Bedford, Daisy. You should thank him. He found out how you had been framed, and he raised the holler that broke your fall. I guess you never saw him before, and he never saw you, but I think you ought to know him."

"Him?" queried Daisy, in surprise. "He sprung me? Gawd! And him a copper?"

(Continued Tomorrow.)

(Copyright, 1932, by International News Service.)

Today's installment of "City Wed" appears on another page.

SUN-TELEGRAPH-WARNER THEATERS JUNIOR KOMIC CLUB

There will be a surprise announcement at meetings of the 17 chapters of the Sun-Telegraph Warner Theater Junior Komic Club Saturday morning. The announcement will refer to the meetings on January 16.

There was a peppy meeting at the Memorial, McKeesport, Saturday. The meeting opened with the "Star-Spangled Banner," reading of the club pledge, club cheers and the club song. Horton Spur, of the Circus Capers, entertained the members and acted as master of ceremonies. At the close of the exhibition there were rope contests for boys and for girls. Mr. Spur awarded the prizes to Michael Evans and Jean Dudgeon.

PRIZES AWARDED

A live rabbit was given to Esther LaWinter for the best drawing in colors of a rabbit.

The door prizes were won by George Martin, Joetta Popp, Lucille Martin and Bill Kurstin.

The program closed with a tap dance by Dennis Smith, accompanied by Robert Nelson playing the guitar and Henry Miller the harmonica.

One of the big features of the meetings of Manor Chapter of the Sun-Telegraph-Warner Theaters Junior Komic Club is the distribution of birthday cakes every Saturday to boys and girls whose birthdays fall within the week. Manager Blowitz notifies them in advance and they find a big cake bearing their own name awaiting them.

Another big celebration has been arranged for Etna Chapter Saturday morning. There will be a Komic Club Carnival matinee, with balloons and souvenirs for everyone. Jack Barry will present a junior dancing revue on the stage.

Last Saturday Schenley Chapter had, as guest entertainers, the trombone players from the Schenley High School Band. Tampa, the magician, gave a half hour of comedy tricks, and the Schenley Banjo trio contributed several numbers to the program.

Harmonica contests will now get under way in real earnest at Prince (Ambridge) Chapter. At the meeting last Saturday harmonicas were distributed to the children who have been attending regularly.

The officers elected to serve for the coming four weeks at the Davis Chapter are: Joseph Mowod, Helen Affif, Sadie Mowod, Jimmy George, William Sholdo and Matt DePetino.

NEW CARNEGIE CHAPTER

Inaugurating the policy to extend the activities of the Sun-Telegraph Junior Komic Club, new chapters will be announced as fast as they can be organized. The first of these will hold its initial meeting at the New Carnegie Theater next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, and Manager C. C. Montague has arranged an unusually interesting program of entertainment for the youngsters of his neighborhood. At this first meeting a representative of the Sun-Telegraph will be on hand to outline the purposes of the club, and a special force of clerks will be employed for the enrollment of charter members.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

The Sun-Telegraph-Warner Theaters Junior Komic Club extends greetings to the following members who will celebrate their birthdays tomorrow:

Kenyon: Mike Herman.

Belmar: Edward Pavrer, Anthony Donatelli, Nancy Lewis, Joseph Callahan.

Etna: Loretta Devorak.

South Hills: Dinna Luport, Robert Leathers, Mary Hallagher, David Grana, Paul Garvey, Georgine Zeigerfuss, Robert Brooks, Junior Mallory.

Davis: William Stiegerwald, Zellic Pomerantz, Geneva Stanley, Albert DiTomasso, Morris Cantor, Jeannette Cohen, Steve Lasko.

Rowland (Wilkinsburg): William Hughes.

Manor: Katherine Colover, Yolande Lebowitz, Ruth Freedman.

Prince (Ambridge): Nick Bowerzak, Donnie Truchan, Maru Sociosky, Rudolph Hanzevach, James Flavarus, William Hritsik.

THIMBLE THEATER

Now Showing—"After the Bandits Departed"

By Segar

THE BANDITS DIDN'T FIND ANY MONEY IN OUR SUIT-CASES, BUT THEY SCATTERED OUR CLOTHES ALL OVER THE DESERT
THEY THREW THINGS AROUND LIKE THIS JUST FOR MEANNESS. HELP ME PICK UP, POPEYE
I WISH THIS NIGHT WAS OVER—WE MUST GET TO DAD'S RANCH IN THE MORNING
THERE'S JUST ONE THING MISSING
NO THEY AIN'T—I HUNG 'EM ON THAT BIG CACTUS OVER THERE
!
ARF
ARF
SEGAR

POLLY AND HER PALS

They Meet Their Waterloo

By Sterrett

HON, HECK! HON, DERN! AN' HON, DOUBLE DERN!
WHAT BUSINESS IS IT OF YOURS IF I SHARPEN MY PENCIL WITH SAM'LS RAZOR?
HON, PA HAS SWORN OFF SWEARING AND SWATTING FOR NEW YEARS, AND COCOA AND I ARE DOING IT FOR HIM!
OH, YEAH?
STERRETT

THE NEBBS

Too Late

By Hess

YESTERDAY AMBROSE WAS SERVED WITH DIVORCE PAPERS AND HE DOESNT SEEM TO RELISH IT A BIT.
WHAT DO YOU THINK HAPPENED NOW! I GOT A NOTICE FROM THE SHERIFF THAT SYLLY WANTS A DIVORCE—WHAT SHALL I DO?
I TOLD YOU, BEFORE THIS THING WENT THIS FAR, TO GO BACK AND SQUARE YOURSELF—NOW THE BEST THING YOU CAN DO IS TO SEE ATTORNEY AL SABATH
HE'LL CHARGE ME A LOT OF MONEY AND I DONT WANT TO GET A DIVORCE FROM SYLLY—I'D RATHER BUY A FEW TRINKETS AND SEND 'EM TO HER IF I COULD MAKE UP
I'M AFRAID IT'S PAST TRINKET TIME—I DON'T THINK YOU COULD GET BACK WITH FURS AND DIAMONDS—WHAT YOU WANT TO DO NOW IS SEE HOW CHEAP YOU CAN GET OUT OF THIS.
SHE AIN'T GOING TO GET NO MONEY OUTTA ME—SHE DIDN'T HAVE NOTHIN' WHEN I GOT HER—SHE HAD ONE DRESS—THAT WAS SO SHINY WHEN THE SUN HIT IT IT LOOKED LIKE A WIND— SHIELD
THE JUDGE OR JURY ARE GOING TO TELL YOU WHAT YOU'LL GIVE HER—YOU'RE GOING TO HAVE AS MUCH TO SAY ABOUT IT AS THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS HAS ABOUT ANYTHING
1-7

TIM TYLER'S LUCK

Lost Souls

By Lym Young

THE PRINCESS AND HER PARTY'LL HAVE PLENTY OF TIME TO ESCAPE DEEPER INTO THE MOUNTAINS, IF I WARN THEM—TONIGHT—!
—AND THEY'LL HAVE TO CLEAR OUT AT ONCE, BECAUSE THE COUNT'S SOLDIERS'LL SURE FIND THEM IN THE MORNING!
HELLO—I DON'T REMEMBER COMING ALONG HERE! GEE—I HOPE I'M—I'M N—NOT L—LOST!
YOU MEAN YOU WANT ME TO WEAR THAT OUTFIT? BUT I DON'T KNOW HOW TO COOK!
IN THIS UNIFORM AND WORKING IN THE CASTLE KITCHEN, YOU WILL BE MUCH SAFER FROM DETECTION, MY FRIEND—!
WELL, WHAT DO YOU WANT ME TO TRY COOKIN' FIRST, CHEF?
YOUR DUTIES WILL BE PEELING POTATOES AND WASHING DISHES!

BRINGING UP FATHER

The Hypocrite

By McManus

BUT MAGGIE! I WANT TO GO TO THE CLUB-I WONT BE OUT LATE
DONT LIE TO ME-I SHOULD THINK YOU WOULD BE AFRAID TO LIE SO MUCH DOESNT YOUR CONSCIENSE EVER BOTHER YOU?
I CANT UNDERSTAND HOW YOU CAN STAND THERE AND TELL A LIE LIKE THAT?
MRS. MINNIE APPOLIS IS ON THE PHONE AN WANTS TO SPEAK TO YOU-
?
TELL HER I'M OUT!
1-7

TILLIE THE TOILER

She May Change Her Mind

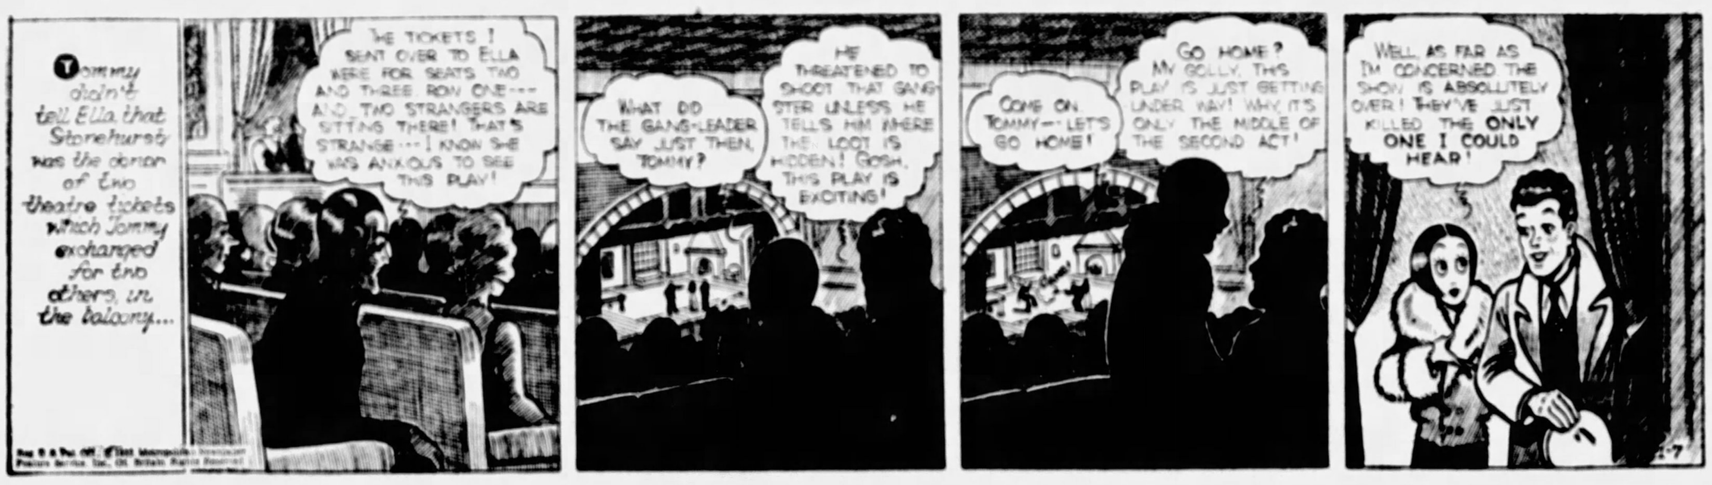
By Westover

A FELLOW IN A CAR SPATTERED MUD ON MY DRESS YESTERDAY AND THEN HE WANTED TO BUY ME A NEW DRESS - CAN YOU IMAGINE IT, MAC-? IT'S SILLY-I CAN HAVE MY OLD DRESS CLEANED
FOR MISS JONES FROM THE SNAPPY DRESS SHOP
MY GOSH! THAT'S FROM THAT FELLOW I WAS TELLING YOU ABOUT, MAC - TAKE THAT DRESS BACK, BOY-I'M NOT ACCEPTING DRESSES FROM ANYBODY I DON'T WANT TO EVEN SEE IT
OH BOY! WAIT A MINUTE
CHANGE YOUR MIND!
NO, BUT I JUST WANT TO TAKE IT INTO ANOTHER OFFICE AND SHOW IT TO MY FRIEND BUBBLES
OKAY, MISS
CONTINUED

ELLA CINDERS

Plays That Are Seen and Not Heard

By Plumb and Conselman



Tommy didn't tell Ella that Stonehurst was the donor of two theatre tickets which Tommy exchanged for two others in the balcony...
THE TICKETS! SENT OVER TO ELLA WERE FOR SEATS TWO AND THREE ROW ONE--- AND TWO STRANGERS ARE SITTING THERE! THAT'S STRANGE--- I KNOW SHE WAS ANXIOUS TO SEE THIS PLAY!
WHAT DID THE GANG-LEADER SAY JUST THEN, TOMMY?
HE THREATENED TO SHOOT THAT GANGSTER UNLESS HE TELLS HIM WHERE THE LOOT IS HIDDEN! GOSH, THIS PLAY IS EXCITING!
COME ON, TOMMY--- LET'S GO HOME!
GO HOME? MY GOLLY, THIS PLAY IS JUST GETTING UNDER WAY! WHY, IT'S ONLY THE MIDDLE OF THE SECOND ACT!
WELL, AS FAR AS I'M CONCERNED THE SHOW IS ABSOLUTELY OVER! THEY'VE JUST KILLED THE ONLY ONE I COULD HEAR!

THE BUNGLE FAMILY

Going Down

By Tuthill

GEORGE YOU LOOK TIRED AND YOUR FACE IS RED. HAVE YOU GOT A COLD AGAIN?
THAT ISN'T FEVER. I'M MERELY BURNED UP OVER SOME OF THE RUMORS FLOATED AROUND TOWN THAT THE BOTTOM IS DROPPING OUT OF THE GOLDEN BOUNTY MINE.
WHAT DIFFERENCE DOES IT MAKE WHAT PEOPLE SAY IF THE MINE IS-?
BECAUSE STORIES LIKE THAT SCARES STOCKHOLDERS SILLY. TWO OF THEM CAME IN FOR FIRST AID TODAY BOTH WERE AS NERVOUS AS NEAR-SIGHTED BULL FIGHTERS
WELL OF COURSE I DON'T UNDERSTAND ABOUT STOCKHOLDERS AND ALL THAT. BUT-
RUMORS HAVE THE SAME AFFECT ON STOCKHOLDERS AS SNUFF HAS ON AN ELEPHANT. THE ONLY WAY I COULD TAKE THE JERKS OUT OF THOSE BABIES TODAY WAS FEED THEM BIGGER AND BETTER RUMORS.
I KNOW SOMETHING ABOUT RUMORS. YOU WERE A SORT OF BUG ON THEM EVERY TIME YOU BOUGHT A FAKE STOCK.
THIS AFFAIR IS DIFFERENT. A REAL GOLD MINE. NOT JUST ONE OF THOSE OUTFITS WHERE A PROMOTER BUYS A SMALL SHOVEL, A BIG PRINTING PRESS, AND DOES MOST OF HIS DIGGING WHILE RE-SELLING PROSPECTS ON THE IDEA THAT THEY CAN GET SOMETHING FOR NOTHING.

MICKEY MOUSE

The Bogey Man

By Disney

DON'T TELL A SOUL, BUT HORACE HORSE-COLLAR AND I ARE GOING TO BE MARRIED SOON
MY GOODNESS, YOU DON'T KNOW HOW LUCKY YOU ARE-I'VE NEVER FOUND A MAN
I SUPPOSE YOU LOOK UNDER YOUR BED EVERY NIGHT-- LIKE THE REST OF US?
OH, YES OF COURSE- BUT I'VE NEVER EVEN FOUND ONE THERE- TEE HEE
WELL, IT'S TIME FOR ME TO GO UP TO BED-GOOD-NIGHT
HO-HUM! PARDON ME!
EEEEEEK!
BOO!
THAT'S GRATITUDE FOR YOU!

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

All Donations Gratefully Received

By Walsh

SEE, I PRINTED ON HERE- "EVERY LITTLE BIT HELPS THE UNEMPLOYED. P.S.- EVEN A PENNY" I THOUGHT MAYBE YOU WOULDN'T MIND PUTTIN' THE BOX ON THE COUNTER--AN' MAYBE FOLKS WOULD PUT MONEY IN IT!
BY GOLLY, DOTS A FINE IDEA!
HA, HA--- EVEN A PENNY ---THATS RICH--- WHAT GOOD WOULD A PENNY DO TO A GUY OUT OF WORK???
PLEASE DONT LAUGH, MISTER--- A PENNY AINT MUCH- BUT TEN PENNIES WOULD BUY A LOAF OF BREAD!
BESIDES, IF YOU WANT--- YOU COULD PUT IN A NICKEL OR A DIME ---EVEN IF YOU PUT IN A DOLLAR, NOBODY WOULDN'T BE MAD AT YOU!
THE KIDS RIGHT--- I'LL JUST SLIP IN HALF A BUCK!
A DIME WON'T BREAK ME!
ME, TOO
GEE, MR. SHULTZ ---AIN'T THEY GRAND!?
DARRELL McCLURE

COOK-COOS

By TED COOK

(Copyright, 1932, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

"Wage-cutting has its drawbacks," says industrial report, "but it has probably resulted in a lot more men being gainfully employed."

For the employer.

* * *

Headline says—

WIDE USE OF FILMS IN EDUCATION SEEN

But what most of us would like to see is a wider use of education in films.

* * *

CHICAGO MOTHER GOOSE

Rock-and-rye Baby Bunning,
Daddy's gone a gunning
For to get the dirty skin
Of that "rat" who muscled in.

—L. J. BROOKS

* * *

Simile—

Full of tradition as a Congressman's speech.

* * *

Little Willie, calm and placid,
Squirted dad with prussic acid.
Mother said, "It's for the best:
"Pa couldn't stand the acid test."

* * *

Milestone on the path to better understanding—

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—Proving his theory that public men do not hear what is said to them when they are introduced to common citizens, Stewart H. Redner, law student, said "I killed my grandmother today," as he shook hands with Gov. Bucker. "I'm very glad to make your acquaintance," said the Governor.

* * *

Q. & A. DEPARTMENT

Dear Sympathetic Aunt Bella—

Would you kindly tell me if it is correct to take home from a party the place cards, decorated nut holders and other bits of table decorations?—Anxious.

Anx—

Such things is all right for a starter, maybe, but this is what I would call pretty small potatoes. Drop around some afternoon and you'll get a whiz outta hearing about the time Aunt Bella got away with a case of gin, the dining room table and a pedigreed airedale pup. Heh, Heh. I can't think about it yet without gettin' hysterics.

—Aunt (Regular Guy) Bella.

LET BY VERY POPULAR IN MANCHURIA

By Congressman Frisby

OOLONG, Jan. 7.—Well, here I am. Not only am I your Personality Congressman, but I have been voted "Mister America" by the troops. Gen. Ma asked me to take charge of a big Pep Rally, arranged by the Y. M. C. A., to bring about better relations between the opposing armies. Not being able to speak Japanese or Chinese it was a little difficult to take charge without a moment's notice, but I hit upon the plan of illustrating songs in pantomime. The above picture shows me illustrating "Over There." The number was so popular that both armies shortly afterward fired a salute of 3,481 guns in my honor.

* * *

BULLETIN

(News Item)

"To be a success a girl should be careful of overuse of her lipstick, eat spinach, get eight hours of sleep and avoid gossip according to rules adopted by officers of the Phi Pi Phi Sorority."

* * *

Women who snore
Are hard to adore.

* * *

And More David postcards—

Wise-cracking men are often shaved By ladies cool and argent-haired.

* * *

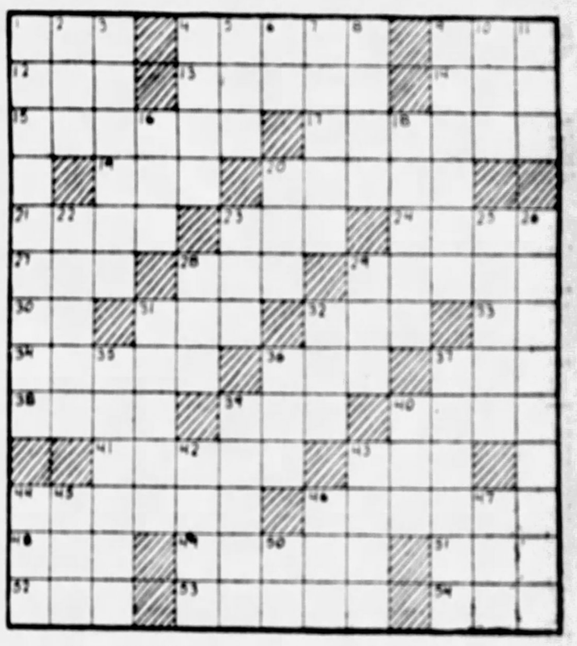
FAMOUS LAST WORDS

But I suppose you just write whatever comes into your mind, don't you?

* * *

Back up.

Today's Crossword Puzzle



HORIZONTAL.

1—Aeriform fluid.
4—Who was the leader of the Massachusetts insurrection of 1786-7 demanding reduction of taxes?
9—Evil.
12—Illuminated.
13—Cloth of flax.
14—Period of time.
15—What beautiful youth, loved by Venus, was killed by a wild boar?
17—What statesman, father-in-law of Lindbergh, died recently?
19—Incline the head.
20—Less.
21—Boil slowly.
23—Play on words.
24—Mud suspended in water.
27—Sailor.
28—Vehicle.
29—Direct.
30—Upon.
31—What motion picture actress became popular in "It?"
32—Twice.
33—One of the United States. (abbr.).
34—Member of the Ethiopian race.
36—Dine.
37—Winnow.
38—What is the missing name: The most famous novel by Charlotte Bronte is "Jane ——?"
39—Unit of weight.
40—What Dutch painter is best known for his "Laughing Cavalier?"
41—Supply with permanent fund for support.
43—Moist.
44—Seesaw.
46—What is the name of the colored member of the "Our Gang" comedy group?
48—Part of a circle's circumference.
49—Measure of capacity in metric system.
51—Extinct flightless bird.
52—Golf mound.
53—What is the popular name for members of Columbia University's athletic teams?
54—Kind of tool.

VERTICAL.

1—What English statesman and prime minister of the Victorian Age was called the "Great Commoner?"
2—Abet.
3—What is the missing name: Mrs. Winifred Sackville ——, who died recently, was a well-known educator?
4—Glided.
5—Possessive pronoun.
6—Indefinite article.
7—The Arabia Felix of the ancient Romans is partly in what kingdom?
8—Ice in the form of white crystals.
9—Who created the character of Peter Pan?
10—Past.
11—Moisture appearing on flowers at night.
16—At this time.
18—Ceases from work.
20—Dressed pelt.
22—What famous American chief justice decided the Dred Scott case?
23—Foot of any animal.
25—Licit.
26—What province of the Union of South Africa has its capital at Pretoria?
28—Cry of the pigeon.
29—Drink in small quantities.
31—What motion picture actress starred in "Pagan Lady?"
32—Small cake.
35—In what country did the dramatists Aeschylus, Aristophanes and Euripides, reside?
36—Scatter seeds.
37—Which wife of Bluebeard discovered his secret?
39—Japanese gateways.
40—Possessive pronoun.
42—Small valley.
43—Armed combats.
44—Make lace.
45—Before.
46—Swampy land.
47—At the present time.
50—Towards.

Herewith is the solution to yesterday's puzzle.

(Copyright, 1932, King Features Synd., Inc.)

WHY PITTSBURGH IS GREAT
River Tonnage Is Greater Than World's Largest Ports

Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

BE A PITTSBURGH BOOSTER
To Your Friends in Other Cities

THURSDAY, JANUARY 7, 1932

Established 1927 by Pitt Publishing Co. Pittsburgh, Pa. President, William Randolph Hearst, Vice President and Publisher; H. M. Bitner, Secretary-Treasurer; A. W. Clark, Associate Editor; C. W. Dunniger, Managing Editor; Dwight Fee. Entered as second class matter at the postoffice at Pittsburgh, Pa.

National advertising representatives, Paul Block and Associates, 24 Park avenue, New York; Palmolive Bldg., Chicago; General Motors Bldg., Detroit; Little Bldg., Boston; Guarantee Trust Bldg., Philadelphia; 625 Russ Bldg., San Francisco.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for re-publication of all news credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein. All rights of re-publication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

Federal Aid Needed

The Hearst Plan for a $5,000,000,000 Bond Issue for Public Works Would Solve the Problem.

The mayors and burgesses of numerous Western Pennsylvania communities, among them Johnstown, Jeannette, Bellevernon, South Brownsville, New Kensington, Fallston, Rochester and New Brighton, have told Senator James J. Davis they need federal aid to relieve destitution.

Mayor Kline suggests Pittsburgh may need it if the people fail to pay their taxes promptly.

There is one way in which federal aid can be given without resort to the dole, and that is by embarking on a gigantic program of public works which will furnish employment to the army of jobless men.

William Randolph Hearst proposed months ago that a federal bond issue of $5,000,000,000 be voted by Congress for the purpose. Scarcely a day passes that something does not turn up to call attention afresh to the wisdom of the proposal.

Gov. Gifford Pinchot voiced the opinion of a multitude of thoughtful people yesterday when he spoke in approval of the Hearst plan.

Right here in Western Pennsylvania there are a number of big jobs that the federal government might well undertake at this time. There is the canal to connect the Ohio River with Lake Erie, for one thing, a project that the businessmen of the Pittsburgh district and of Youngstown, Wheeling and other cities have been urging for many years, and for which a survey was made long ago.

Then there are the storage reservoirs which the Flood Commission of Pittsburgh has proposed to protect not only Pittsburgh but the whole Ohio Valley from floods. The storage reservoirs would be established at the headwaters of the Allegheny and Mongahela on sites picked out by engineers just after the disastrous flood of 1907. William Hard, the writer, mentioned these flood protection works in a magazine article published a decade or more ago as just the kind of public enterprise that should be undertaken in times like these to relieve unemployment.

Waterway improvements such as have been suggested would furnish federal aid to a vast number of men and would go a long way towards silencing the demand for a dole.

Kline Trial Date Set

Unexpected Serving of Subpenas in the Mayor's Case Is a Shrewd Move.

The people of Pittsburgh hail with satisfaction District Attorney Andrew T. Park's announcement that Mayor Charles H. Kline is to be placed on trial on the malfeasance charges on January 19.

The public undoubtedly has been restive over the delay. It has been awkward for the city and awkward for Kline that he should officiate as Mayor while under indictment.

After all the evidence has been gathered it is advisable to call criminal cases, especially cases in which defendants of such power and influence as Mayor Kline are involved, at the earliest possible date.

Witnesses' memories become impaired as time passes, and there is danger that they may become ill or leave the city.

Park made a shrewd move, by the way, in unexpectedly serving surprise subpenas on a number of witnesses before announcing the trial date. The dodging of a subpena by Representative Samuel J. Grenet, whose testimony was desired by the grand jury investigating the City Treasurer's office, showed what may happen.

Park deserves credit for his announced intention to keep after Grenet "if it takes a year to find him," notwithstanding that the investigation is over.

Restitution in Order

Recovery of Taxpayers' Money Said to Be Lost by Schooley's Transactions Should Be Sought.

Prosecution of Roy D. Schooley and of two others alleged to have been associated with him in irregularities in the City Treasurer's office, has been made certain by the grand jury's action.

But the matter should not be permitted to end with prosecution. Steps should also be taken to recover for the city the taxpayers' money that the grand jury finds was lost.

The losses are alleged to have occurred in various ways. One of the most flagrant leaks in the treasury lay in the practice of remitting, illegally, penalties and interest on delinquent taxes owed by influential persons.

A partial audit has already shown losses of $9,500 incurred in this manner, the grand jury reports, and the audit has not been completed.

Other losses, the presentment states, were sustained through accepting bad checks in payment of taxes. One such check for $1,210, is still unpaid, we are told.

It will not be easy to recover all these losses, but the effort should be made.

Simplifying Astronomy

The Planetarium Sought for Pittsburgh by the Academy of Science and Art Would Do It.

Notwithstanding the efforts of teachers and scientists to explain the movements of the heavenly bodies in such a way that they can be understood by people of ordinary intelligence, astronomy remains a closed book to a large section of the population.

There are many persons who do not clearly understand the differences between the planets and the fixed stars and would have difficulty if called upon to tell what causes the changes of season, or why the moon waxes and wanes or to explain any of a number of other ordinary astronomical phenomena.

More power then to the astronomical section of the Academy of Science and Art in its effort to get a planetarium for Pittsburgh, a project to be discussed at its meeting in the Downtown Branch of the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow night.

A planetarium would simplify astronomy for the great majority of the people as nothing else could.

SUN-TELEGRAPH'S PLATFORM

For Pittsburgh and Western Pennsylvania

1—A better, cleaner, more beautiful city.
2—Rapid Transit.
3—Repeal or modification of 'blue law.'
4—Establishment of Pittsburgh metropolitan district.
5—Town Hall seating at least 15,000.
6—Voting machines to insure honest elections.
7—Development of river transportation.
8—Development of air transportation.
9—Electrification of railroads.

'A Wreck on Shore Is a Beacon at Sea'

You who may be navigating
In the bridge of that new vessel,
Steer a course that keeps her distant
From those fatal reefs and breakers;

See the shattered ships so plainly
Warning you of past disasters!
See the mournful hulks that lie there;
Learn your lesson from the wreckage.

Not Pleasant When Angry

The Prince of Wales Photographed Some of These 'Big Ones.'

TWO BULL ELEPHANTS RESTING IN THE SHADE

Not long ago the Prince of Wales, tired, perhaps, of laying cornerstones and making public speeches, went off to Africa to do some shooting and photography.

You see above samples of gigantic elephants, photographed with the Prince's moving picture camera. He called his pictures "An Amateur Photographer in Africa."

When the bull elephant is in a gentle mood, resting like the two in this picture, he is pleasant enough. The elephant has nothing against man, except that man insists on shooting him to get his big tusks, to make footstools of his feet, or to have his head mounted complete as proof of human courage.

Usually the courage isn't very great. It is easy to shoot an animal as big as a barn from a safe distance.

The British are proud of the fact that their young prince did so much shooting with a camera, and incidentally ran serious risks.

The Reuter News Agency, for instance, reported one of the Prince's adventures as follows:

"Sport is apt to become hazardous if a nasty-tempered bull elephant becomes aware of a photographer at close quarters. Such an animal was encountered on March 15. He came tearing down, and was soon within 30 yards of the Prince, who was still working his camera, intent on picturing the angry, oncoming bull. The hunters were obliged to stop the charge by shooting, and the picture was still being taken when the great beast crashed to the ground, the length of a cricket-pitch from the camera."

That bull elephant probably wished he had allowed the Prince to take his picture in peace, if he wished anything.

It is too bad that these huge creatures are being killed off, soon to disappear, undoubtedly.

But there is consolation in the knowledge that all the great animals are carriers of disease germs of one kind or another, hot houses in which germs live and perpetuate their kind.

If, for instance, all the crocodiles were killed, there would be no more "sleeping sickness." The germ of sleeping sickness develops in the blood of the crocodile only. The tse tse fly that implants the germ in human beings and in cattle gets the germ from the crocodile's blood.

We sigh sympathetically when we think of a giant like the one in this picture crashing to the ground with a bullet in its surprised brain.

But the sound of the crash is music to the ears of native Africans. It means to them all the meat they can eat, and that is a good deal.

Marry-Go-Round

By HELEN ROWLAND

These Modern Lovers

Love is the magic spell which transforms a bald spot into a halo, gilds drab hair with refined gold and turns feeble-minded wisecracks into jewels of wit.

* * *

To a woman of 20, a kiss is an adventure, to a woman of 30, an experiment, to a woman of 40, a reassurance, and to a woman of 60 a compliment.

* * *

When a man transfers his love to another woman, his wife has a chance of winning it back; but when he transfers it to golf, business, booze or his own sweet self-indulgence, she's a permanent widow.

* * *

Girls are flagrantly frank and candid these days; and about the only thing that a sweet young thing would blush to admit is that she's never been kissed.

The world is full of yes-husbands; some of them fine and unselfish; some of them merely henpecked—but most of them just too busy and indifferent to answer back.

* * *

Every successful beauty shop is a monument to woman's unquenchable desire to be some man's "rib."

* * *

When a girl resents being kissed or mauled these days, a man is never discouraged. He regards it merely as a conventional gesture through which she feels she must go, in order to arouse his interest.

* * *

A good woman can sometimes lead a man in the way he should go—but not before he has started going some other woman's way.

When a man has to acknowledge that he is crazy about his own wife, nowadays, he somehow always acts a little guilty and apologetic about it.

(Copyright, 1932, King Features Synd., Inc.)

Wise Words

Laugh while you can. Everything has its time.—Voltaire

What you see, yet cannot see over, is as good as infinite.—Carlyle

He that has light within his own clear breast
May sit i' the center and enjoy bright day;
But he that hides a dark soul and foul thoughts
Benighted walks under the mid-day sun.
Himself is his own dungeon.
—Milton.

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY

By O. O. McIntyre

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—The rise and fall of burlesque, so ably chronicled in Bernard Sobel's jubilant romanza, "Burlycue," reveals an astonishing list of stars whose incubating ground was rowdy fields of slap-stick. Indeed out of the frenzied zig-zag came the modern musical revue.

Threaded through the tinseled pageant are such names as Al Jolson, W. C. Fields, George Jessel, Alexander Carr, Fred Stone and Dave Montgomery, James Barton, Leon Errol, Frisco, Gus Edwards, Fannie Brice, Sophie Tucker, Eddie Cantor and Weber and Fields.

Today burlesque in New York is confined to a robust and carnal continuous show at movie prices exploited by Billy Minsky, who used to be a newspaperman himself. In the outland, burlesque is caustic comedy a coming generation knows little about.

Early burlesque was rooted in the miasmatic fungi of honky-tonks—the term of the day for museums, saloons and dance halls. Such sterling performers as June McCree, Shaw and Lee, Harry Fox, Hoey and Lee, McIntyre and Heath, Charlie Murray, Grace La Rue and Joe E. Brown came out of this obscurity.

Frances White and her glass slick coiffure were discovered in a Pacific honky-tonk by the late William Rock. And Frances rose to Broadway stardom. Unhappily some of the greater funmakers did not reach the heights they often deserved.

No comedian today was a greater laugh-provoker than Sliding Billy Watson. But he never transcended burlesque. The late Joe Welch, a superb performer, could bring the same lumpy choke as David Warfield, another recruit from burlesque. But Joe carried on heroically, blind and paralyzed, in cheap variety to the end.

Jean Bedini was the burlesque scout unearthing gold among dross. He salvaged George White from obscurity, gave Cantor his first engagement in burlesque and found Clark and McCullough. And Joe Cook in his memoirs says, "Bedini started me in the show business."

Recently I attended a gathering which included the last of the burlesque queens—Rose Sydell. I saw her in affluence, a jeweled, plumed and Amazonian creature in tights who graced "London Belles." Remember? I expected somehow to behold a faded, broken old lady. Instead I saw a tall, striking blonde as fashionably dressed and imperious as those cool and definite matrons emerging from a matinee at the Met.

* * *

I told her of days when I sat goggly-eyed in People's Nigger Heaven in Over-the-Rhine Cincinnati to watch her. Her attitude toward her profession has a touch of old Roman bravado. One might have been talking to Mrs. Pat Campbell about an early London triumph. Miss Sydell, in private, is the wife of William Campbell, long her manager, and their married life has been of singular devotion. In Brooklyn they own a block of apartment houses and escape from rigors of a northern winter by occupying their villa in Florida.

* * *

Rose Sydell's prosperity is reminiful that two of the wealthiest American actors are former burlesque players—David Warfield and Fred Stone. Each, fortunately, invested earnings in real estate and the crash affected them but little.

* * *

Down in Jamaica, L. I., lives another valiant burlesque trouper—Al Reeves. The descriptive Mr. Sobel describes him as "denoting the Dickens idea of la joie de vivre." He wears a pint-sized yellow diamond and cuff links of walnut-sized sapphires along with a vest that might blanket next year's derby winner. Few oldsters forget his banjo studded with chip diamonds and the anti-climax when the drum burst into an illuminated American flag.

(Copyright, 1932, McNaught Synd., Inc.)

LISTEN, WORLD

By Elsie Robinson

Those people who blame themselves, who stand right up, look you straight in the eye and tell you frankly that it's all their own fault, that they're no good anyway—

I used to admire people like that.

"How honest and brave they are!" said I to myself. "It takes a lot of courage to do that. I wish I were as brave. And they're modest, too, or they wouldn't call themselves such names. Yes, they are fine people. They deserve respect and sympathy and help."

That's the way I once thought about self-blamers. I still think that way in certain cases. I still think that it requires courage, honesty and fine intelligence to take the blame for one's own foolishness, and that those who do so sincerely are worthy of our deepest respect.

But I no longer think that all self-blamers are sincere. You learn a lot about humans when you run a column like this, and one of the first things you learn is that self blame is not always the brave, honest, humble act it seems.

IT IS SOMETIMES A VERY SLICK RACKET — A GREAT GAME FOR EGOTISTS WHO WANT TO GRAB THE SPOTLIGHT, AND FOR MOOCHERS WHO WANT TO GET SOMETHING FOR NOTHING, AND FOR COWARDS WHO WISH TO DUCK RESPONSIBILITY.

People who crawl out of consequences by making excuses are contemptible, but it's really quite easy, and much smarter, to dodge grief by taking the blame.

There, for instance, is Bill Jones. Everybody likes Bill. Everybody is sorry for him and wants to help him. Pretty tough to be facing a hard winter with a sick wife, two little kids and not a penny in his pocket! Yes, it's true that Bill didn't work last summer when he might have had a job; but—

SOMEHOW YOU CAN'T BE HARD ON BILL, BECAUSE BILL ALWAYS BEATS YOU TO IT BY BEING SO HARD ON HIMSELF.

Bill will tell you frankly, with an honest gulp in his throat, that he's nothing but a bum. He'll assure that he doesn't deserve a bit of help. He may even add that if he had a spark of manhood he'd put a bullet through his worthless head.

Whereupon you'll instantly forget all the stern things you want to say to Bill, for after all, "there must be something mighty fine in a chap like that or he wouldn't be so honest."

Oh, yeah?

Far be it from me to discourage charity from anyone to anyone. I'll freely admit that I'd fall for Bill's racket as quickly as you would, neighbor. But let's not kid ourselves; it is a racket. Bill's self-blame is as effective, and socially as vicious, as the gangster's machine gun, and the result is identical. Bill and the gangster BOTH GET BY WITH MURDER.

And what are we going to do about it?

We aren't going to do anything about it; not, at least, for a very long time. For here's the tough truth:

THE SELF-BLAMER GETS BY BECAUSE WE REALLY LIKE HIS STUFF.

It flatters our conceit and magnifies our own importance to have him contrast his weakness with our strength. It makes us feel like little tin gods to have him come crawling to us for aid. And so we come across.

Well, if it isn't one shell game it's another.

Barnum knew his humans.

(Copyright, 1932, King Features Synd., Inc.)

Isn't It So?

The greatest aid to the improvement of morals is age.

It is natural for some folks to act artificial.

Beauty clay is the ground in which a woman tries to bury her past.

There really is safety in numbers. In a small town the neighbors won't let you get away with anything.

Habit gets the best of some men. Many a man who worked his way through college is now working his son's way through.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW?

By S. H. Connolly

Mark each statement as "true" or "false:"

1. The abbreviation A. D. means before Christ.
2. The world bijou means a jewel.
3. A virtuoso is one skilled in eating.
4. Ben Jonson was a contemporary of Shakespeare.
5. Bassanio is the lover of Juliet.
6. Excalibur was the sword of King Richard.
7. "Measure for Measure" is set in Vienna.
8. "Sheridan's Ride" is a poem about the Revolution.
9. Bellona was the Roman goddess of war.
10. The Olympic games were held every four years.

Match correctly:

11. Gigantic	salutary.
12. Mutilate	disciple.
13. Follower	supine.
14. Beneficial	lacerate.
15. Torpid	elephantine.

Answers to today's test:

1. False (in the year of our Lord). 2. True. 3. False (skilled in art, taste, etc.) 4. True. 5. False (of Portia). 6. False (of King Arthur). 7. True. 8. False (Civil War). 9. True. 10. True. 11. Elephantine. 12. Lacerate. 13. Disciple. 14. Salutary. 15. Supine.

(Copyright, 1932, by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

ONCE OVERS

By J. J. Mundy

You would be chagrined and mortified if called seriously "superstitious."

You would be ashamed to have anyone think you were governed by signs and sayings.

However, if you dream of water, or of black horses, you think you are going to be ill.

If the water is muddy and comes over your feet you are plainly scared.

Now and then you have spells of counting to see if you are in a group of 13 and if so you feel sure that one of you is going to die within a year.

Every one of these signs has been exploded many times, but you continue to allow your mind to think of such silly stuff.

You ought to have a hobby or something to occupy your mind in an intelligent manner and then you would not think of such nonsense.

A young woman left a good place where she was working because she had been to a fortune teller who predicted that her employer was going to die soon.

She did not want to be there for the event so she left the place and the woman for whom she worked has lived 10 years since and is still going.

It is the ignorant who are pitifully afraid of what they call "signs."

But when superstition invades the homes of refined and educated people what can be expected of the less fortunate. Better rid yourself of it.

(Copyright, 1932, International Feature Service, Inc.)

The Rhyming Optimist

By ALINE MICHAELIS

Lullaby

Blue eyes, pink lips,
Chubby hands and feet,
Come now; dream ship,
Sail in dream sea's fleet.

Blue eyes, closed now;
Chubby hands, relax;
Droop, head—white brow
Crowned with curls like flax.

Dream ship prancing
Over seas unknown;
Fairies dancing,
Sea-king on a throne.

Blue eyes, pink lips,
Funny hands and feet
Board the dream ships,
Very strange and fleet!

Dream ships sail on
Over dream seas' foam;
Landing in early dawn
At the port of home!

Text For Today For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.—Luke, ix:26.

(The text for today is suggested by the Rev. Albert G. Merkens, pastor, First Trinity Lutheran Church, East End.)

EAST END METROPOLITAN

Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

THURSDAY, JANUARY 7, 1932

EAST BOROUGHS DISTRICT NEWS

POLICE OUSTED IN BOROUGH POLITICAL UPHEAVALS

LEAVING 'THE PIT' FOR LAST TIME

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

JOHN W. GRIEST . . . LAST TRIP 'UP' AT PUMPING STATION AFTER 39 YEARS' WORK THERE

VETERAN SORRY TO RETIRE

Floods, blizzards and epidemics—all of which vitally affect a city's water supply—did not bother John W. Griest, of 436 Lincoln avenue, East End, who for 39 years has kept the engines working in the Brilliant Pumping Station, Washington boulevard. Monday his services were rewarded by the city upon his retirement.

On his way to the station for the first time on February 15, 1893, he was nearly drowned when he fell into a water hole caused by high river conditions. He worked during the flood of March, 1907, when the water was so deep in the boiler room that he feared it would put out the fires. He fought his way through blizzards and other storms so that Pittsburgh could be given drinking water.

P. J. Connelly, chief engineer of the station and Griest's superior for 30 years, is glad that he is receiving the pension but doesn't like to see him leave. He said:

"I hate to see John go, but he deserves the pension for the faithful work he has done. I could always count on his being here and I always knew that he would do his work well."

Griest was excited when he left, but his only comment was:

"Gee, but I hate to leave it all!"

Author to Lecture In Y. M. H. A. Series

Everett Dean Martin, author of "Liberty" and noted educator and sociologist, will be the fifth speaker on the lecture series of the Y. M. & W. H. A. next Wednesday evening in the Morris Kaufmann Memorial Auditorium, Bellefield avenue.

Other books which Dr. Martin has written include "The Behavior of the Crowd," "The Meaning of Liberal Education" and "Psychology."

School for Jobless Resumes January 15

The Wilmerding Shcool for Unemployed will open its second semester in the Wilmerding Christian Association Building January 15. New subjects will be included in the curriculum, including business arithmetic, English and applied psychology.

Five additional teachers will be maintained on the faculty. At the close ofthe last semester, 132 certificates were awarded.

Swimming Pool For Bloomfield Urged

Bloomfield district Italian Citizens' League has petitioned Council to provide a community house, swimming pool and bathhouse in the district, explaining that more than 2,500 residents have no proper recreational facilities. The petition was signed by 724 residents.

The league committee, which suggested the bathhouse as a necessity, includes John Mascio, chairman; Paul Infandy, Tony Cantracchio and Nick DeSanders.

OBERLIN CLUB'S CONCERT HERE

Music lovers of East Liberty heard the Oberlin College Glee Club in a concert in the East Liberty Y. M. C. A., 122 Whitfield street, Friday, as part of its annual holiday tour. The itinerary extends through Ohio, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Maryland, Virginia and Washington, D. C.

The Oberlin Glee Club had its beginning during the year 1879-80.

Squirrel Hill Trade Board Election Set

Officers of the Squirrel Hill Board of Trade will be elected at a meeting January 18. The nominating committee includes Frank L. Dugan, James C. Sims and Clyde F. McKee.

One hundred and fifty new members were taken into the organization during 1931, according to a report by the membership committee.

Vandergrift Pastor Accepts Unity Call

The Rev. John McGeoch, pastor of the Vandergrift United Presbyterian Church, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Unity United Presbyterian Church. This pastorate has been vacant for more than a month since the resignation of the Rev. Robert Youard.

Ladies of G. A. R. Install Officers

Installation of officers was held Tuesday night by Major A. M. Harper Circle No. 4, Ladies of the G. A. R., in the I. O. O. F. Hall, Eighth street, Braddock. A bean bake was held in conjunction with the meeting.

HELPING HAND IN M'KEESPORT

McKeesport will have a Helping Hand Association similar to the one operating in Pittsburgh if favorable action is taken on a petition in Common Pleas Court asking for permission to form an organization to feed, lodge and care for homeless and unemployed men in the district.

The directors of the organization are Watson M. McKee, Kenneth J. Stickrath, Ralph P. Austin, Gust Blair, Raymond L. Morgan, Charles J. Koughan, Louis Levine, E. E. Peters, Jr., and Felix Weil.

Beth Shalom Juniors Hold Dance Tonight

Beth Shalom Junior Sisterhood will hold a card party tonight at the El Tower Apartment Hotel. Miss Ann Berman, Darlington road, is general chairman, with Miss Lea Kramer, Crombie street, as co-chairman.

Worker from China To Talk in Edgewood

Mrs. A. C. Crawford, of Soochow, China, will describe conditions in that country at the eleventh annual luncheon of the Woman's Association Friday in the Edgewood Presbyterian Church. Mrs. H. H. Lambert will preside.

North Braddock Joins Utility Fight

3 CHIEFS FIRED AS COUNCILS REORGANIZE

Shakeups in Wilkinsburg, Swissvale, E. Pittsburgh; No Changes in Braddock

East Boroughs this week launched their reorganized councils on the political waters, with wholesale firing of borough employes taking place in some districts. The reorganization meetings were held Monday night.

Three new members took office in Wilkinsburg's council meeting at which Police Chief Wallace Bishop was ousted by a vote of 5 to 3. Patrolman James Harris succeeds Bishop.

The new Wilkinsburg council members are Dr. George H. Kirkpatrick, Sheridan P. Heep and Harry R. Rowland.

SWISSVALE SHAKEUP

In Swissvale a general shakeup in the police department followed the installation of three new council members. William Brisbin, Dr. George Seitz and James F. Fagan.

Acting Chief William Cusack was demoted to a patrolman, four policemen were dismissed, and Motorcycle Patrolman Thomas Cummings was appointed chief. The new officers are Daniel Webster, Henry Axon, James Herrington and Raoul Wagner.

Wade Ewing is borough secretary of West Homestead, as a result of Monday's reorganization meeting. His appointment fills the vacancy left by the death of N. C. Dean. Charles E. Beatty retains the council chairmanship.

TURTLE CREEK CHANGES

When Turtle Creek Council met Monday, Howard C. Davis was made chairman, succeeding P. D. McLean. Elmer Little was retained as borough secretary and Bertram Kenyon was elected solicitor.

R. J. Hawley is the only new member of Council.

John J. Navish was removed as chairman of East Pittsburgh Council at its 1932 reorganization meeting Monday. He was succeeded by Frank Graham. W. J. McCoy replaced Frank Kelly as chief of police.

Other borough officers include treasurer, C. I. Miller; secretary, Paul Orso; superintendent of and fire chief, Charles Stack.

No changes in the official personnel of Braddock were made at its meeting Monday.

THE ENVY OF LIBERTY AVENUE!

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

COWBOY HAROLD HANNAN ON HIS JERRY, TEASING 'JIGGS'

'STRIP' COWBOY BOASTS PONY

The spirit of Buffalo Bill and Kit Carson lives again in the haunts of boys in the Strip. A band of daring Rough Riders and cowpunchers is running rampant these days under the leadership of 10-year-old Harold Hannan, son of Constable Luke Hannan, who calls his home at 2703 Liberty avenue, "The Ranch."

Harold is a real cowboy, with pony, chaps and sixshooter. And when he charges down Penn avenue in search of Indians, he invariably is trailed by a yelping escort of boys and dogs, with his two canine pets, Prince and Jiggs, leading the band.

Unfortunately, Harold has only one pony, so the band must take turns at riding down the enemy.

Harold's mother's kitchen porch is the rendezvous of the boys, and she complains that if their eyes are off Jerry for a minute he likes nothing better than to saunter into her kitchen to eat whatever may be on the table at the time.

PROTESTS GROW ON GAS, WATER, LIGHT RATES

Wilkinsburg Rally Aided By Verona and Oakmont; Pinchot Calls State Meet

Developments today in the public utility rates fight in East communities include:

1—Entrance of North Braddock into the battle by organization of a Citizens' Committee.

2—Gov. Pinchot's calling a state-wide rate meeting in Harrisburg for January 14.

3—Decision to hold joint rate meeting of Wilkinsburg, Oakmont and Verona in Wilkinsburg, January 20.

With interest in the rate battle rapidly spreading throughout Western Pennsylvania, North Braddock has joined forces with other East communities in urging a reduction in gas, telephone, electric and water rates.

A Citizens' Committee has been formed and is distributing petitions throughout the borough in protest against present rates.

The members of the committee are: Florence E. Davis, Harry L. Wagner, Milton Koontz, A. Blitz and E. A. Wering.

These petitions are addressed to the Pennsylvania Public Service Commission.

FAIR RATE MEETING

Wilkinsburg, Oakmont and Verona, represented in the Western Pennsylvania Fair Rate Association, are making plans for the next meeting of the association, to be held in Wilkinsburg, January 20. More than 20 municipalities from Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver and Westmoreland counties are planning to send representatives. The constitution of the organization will be presented for adoption at this time.

At the meeting of the Fair Rate Association in Oakmont last week, public ownership and operation of utilities was indorsed. The demands include lower gas, electric, telephone, water and transportation rates; tax rates for utilities equal to those of other business properties and homes, and election of legislative representatives pledged to the association's aims.

PINCHOT GIVES SUPPORT

Gov. Pinchot has promised his support to the Fair Rate Association and has called a statewide fair-rate meeting in Harrisburg for January 14.

Braddock and the Homewood-Brushton Board of Trade are making efforts to obtain lower electric rates. They have not entered the association and are not making any efforts to secure other reductions.

Science, Art Group See Films Tonight

Members of the Academy of Science and Art of Pittsburgh will view motion pictures prepared by the University Film Foundation in co-operation with Harvard University, tonight in the lecture hall of Carnegie Institute.

The films are "The Last of the Wood Engravers," "The Silversmith," "The Romance of Rubber" and "The Romance of Silk."

MEMBERS OF 'MARATHON SWIMMERS'

MISS RUTH ALTER MISS SARAH HORWITZ

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

MISS FANNIE GLAZER MISS ROSE HORENSTEIN MISS ETHEL BRODIE

Members of the newly organized "marathon swimming class" at the Y. M. & W. H. A. Classes are twice a week and each night members must swim an increased number of "pool lengths."

WORK TO START ON POSTOFFICE

Work on McKeesport's new $90,000 postoffice is expected to start within the next few weeks following the letting of contracts for the new structure.

Bids have been received from the following concerns: J. J. Bendik, of Uniontown, stone, $39,800, brick, $86,400; Nicholas Company, of Philadelphia, stone, $90,690, brick, $94,100; William Gore, of Philadelphia, stone, $99,852, brick, $94,271.

Postmaster Barton Hershey has announced that the new building will accommodate, besides the postoffice, a branch of the United States Customs Service and a branch of the United States Army Recruiting Service.

Homewood Y. P. U. To Elect Officers

Members of the reorganized Young People's Union of the Homewood-Brushton district, will hold their first business meeting next Monday night in the Homewood Presbyterian Church. Officers will be elected at this meeting.

The nominating committee includes John Thomas, Clyde E. Danaldson, Mildred Busch, Mrs. Robert Fischer, Mary Loomis, Elizabeth Petridge, Helen Haber, John Titus and John Mason.

Widow Given Post On Mifflin Board

Mrs. Lydia H. Strang, Bellwood, has been appointed by Judge William H. McNaugher to fill the vacancy on the auditing board of Mifflin Township created by the death of her husband December 1. The township commissioners and political leaders gave their support to Mrs. Strang.

Other contestants for the office were Clara Taylor, of Homeville, and Edward A. Hillegas, of Duquesne Annex.

Braddock Rotarians Told of Opportunity

"Over the Crest" was the subject of a talk given by Dr. L. D. Spraughy before the Braddock Rotary Club last week, in which he said that all should climb the hill and see the "wonderful view of opportunities that stretches beyond."

LINCOLN ROAD OUTLET URGED

The Civic Club of Lincoln Avenue District has requested the County Commissioners to make an estimate and survey on the proposed extension of Lemington avenue through Washington boulevard as a new outlet to the outer Lincoln avenue district and "feeder" to the new Allegheny River boulevard.

It is pointed out by officers of the club that improvement of the extension would provide a shortcut to Washington boulevard, Highland Park, the Highland Park Bridge and the Allegheny River boulevard.

Unemployed also could be given work in grading the highway, according to the club sponsors.

Pitt Dean Addresses Women's Peace Body

Mrs. William Cosel, chairman of the international relations committee of the Woman's Club of New Castle, and Thyrsa Amos, dean of women at the University of Pittsburgh, were speakers at the monthly meeting of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, Tuesday, at the Chamber of Commerce Building.

Trade Drive Opened By Arsenal Board

The Arsenal Board of Trade has launched a drive to get new merchants for the Lawrenceville district. The committee in charge of the drive includes Louis Gadowski, chairman; Dr. A. L. Lewin and Charles M. Lea.

Wilkinsburg Defeats School Police Veto

Wilkinsburg Council last week passed an ordinance over Burgess Turner's veto giving Council control of school police. Turner asserted that the Board of Education had equal authority in the appointment of the school police who are paid jointly by the school district and the borough.

New Pipe Lines Laid At Pumping Station

Installation of pipe line connections at the new Brilliant Pumping Station, near Washington boulevard, was begun last week and is expected to be completed within the next five months at a cost of $18,630, according to Director of Public Works Lang.

County Legion Drum Corps Heads to Meet

The drum and bugle corps committee of the Allegheny County American Legion will meet January 10 at 2 p. m. in the clubrooms of the Homewood post, Kelly and Lang streets.

East Borough Scout School Enrolls Men, Women

East Borough Boy Scout Council will open its eighth annual Scouters' Training School Monday in the Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf, Edgewood.

The school is open to men and women. Men over 18 years of age may enroll, and women will be instructed in seven courses, it has been announced. The school will be held during the next 12 weeks.

Courses include elements of scouting, by R. B. Probst; principles of scoutmastership, by Walter Hugo; first aid, by R. M. McCreanor; games and recreation, by K. T. Williamson; cubbing, by C. E. Lutz, and Indian lore, by McClellan Shinn.

Special short courses and their leaders follow:

Committeemanship, F. B. Kniskern; sea scouting, Nils Wahlberg; reed craft, William Leeds, and nature study, by Jan Sharpe.

Bloomfield Fights Traffic Hazard at Schools

Coincidental with Director of Public Safety Clark's warning to City Council that the ordered decrease in the personnel of the Pittsburgh police department would deprive school children and pedestrians of traffic safety, the Bloomfield Board of Trade has charged that lack of traffic policemen at school hours and at night have made Liberty avenue a dangerous speedway.

John E. Loibl, president of the board, at its meeting last week said:

"There is insufficient protection for school children, and motorists constantly disregard all rules of speed."

The board also voted to ask Council to make repairs on Liberty avenue and other important streets in the district.

FEW UPSETS MARK OPENING SCHOLASTIC FLOOR CONTESTS

WILKINSBURG DEFEATED AT ASPINWALL

Rankin and Munhall Score Impressive Victories; Peabody High Five Loses

By JULIUS LEVIN

Few upsets marked the inaugural contests in the W. P. I. A. L. basketball races on Tuesday afternoon and evening, the majority of the favorites coming through their opening games as was anticipated by their supporters.

Scott High of North Braddock, defending W. P. I. A. L. champion, did not engage in any league warfare due to a recount in its section caused by the withdrawal of Duquesne and Norwood.

Wilkinsburg, coached by Eddie Carroll, former Washington-Jefferson star, was one of the few favorites to fall by the wayside, the High City quintet bowing to Aspinwall 18-14.

RANKIN TRIUMPHS

Jack Rosenberg's sharpshooting Rankin quintet kept its season's record clean by swamping Foxy Mills' Turtle Creek Independents 28-10. Rankin, which is going to be a real threat in the title race, looms from its past season showing.

Coach Dick Tallman's Munhall quintet, always powerful in the league scrimmage with a strength over the powerful Duquesne High machine coached by Ray Henry, Duquesne always turns out a winning quintet and Munhall's victory adds much prestige to the Toline combination. Munhall squeezed out a 20-18 victory after a gruelling battle.

Clairton, also scheduled for league competition, was pressed to defeat a scrappy Central Catholic High team, 23-21. This team, coached by Bill Donohoe, former Carnegie Tech basketball and football star, is going to figure prominently in the local basketball race.

PEABODY UPSET

Hugh Lambe's Peabody team did not fare so well in its City League opener with Connellsville and as a result was forced to a hard 33-28 lacing on the Peabody floor. Johnny Dickson, Connellsy coach, appears to have a winning combination, and this team is likely to make a strong bid for the Section 1 title.

Edgewood, the home of perennial basketball winners under the excellent coaching of Walter Pickett, started its league season by swamping Oakmont, 24 to 16. Ham Hudson's Braddock quintet showed fine form in defeating Monongahela, coached by Tuffy McMillan, former Wilkinsburg and Pitt star, 43 to 22, and East Pittsburgh doubled its score on Putnam to win, 28-14.

League warfare will be renewed on all battlefronts on Friday.

INSURANCE KEPT IN WILKINSBURG

Wilkinsburg School Board's insurance contract, totaling more than $2,000,000, will be let to 36 insurance companies having representatives in the borough following the board's decision not to renew its policy with an out-of-state company which has no representatives in the borough.

This action was taken at a special board meeting in order to divide the premium of approximately $16,000 among resident taxpayers. Only firms belonging to the National Board of Fire Underwriters will benefit by the decision.

Under the new arrangement the premiums will be slightly higher than before, according to board officials.

Insurance is carried on the six fireproof school buildings which are under the school board's jurisdiction as the largest single property owner in the borough.

A. B. McMurray made the motion to supersede the present insurance arrangement. It was seconded by Robert W. Allison.

Jewish Women Here Give Bundle Bridge

The Pittsburgh section of the National Council of Jewish Women was holding a bundle bridge-luncheon this afternoon at the Schenley Hotel. Receipts will be turned over to the organization's service shop at 212 Oakland avenue.

Specimens of the work of the blind, peace league novels, shoe clipping book and bound bulletin are on exhibition.

Wilkinsburg Women Arrange Victory Day

Members of the Wilkinsburg Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold their annual Victory Day celebration January 20 at a buffet luncheon at the Penn-Lincoln Hotel.

A day of prayer was to be observed in the First Presbyterian Church from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. Special invitations have been issued all Wilkinsburg ministers.

Swissvale Sketch Club to Give Play

"The Bad Man" is the play to be presented by the Sketch Club of Swissvale in February. Donald J. Madigan, Westmoreland street, is business manager of the club.

STATE'S OLDEST DRUGGIST

WILLIAM HENRY PLOUGH, OLDEST DRUGGIST IN THE STATE

DRUGGIST, 75, STILL ON JOB

Pennsylvania's oldest registered druggist today is busy adding hours of work to his fifty-ninth year of compounding prescriptions for Pittsburgh's people. William Henry Plough, Shamrock street, East End, who says he might be obliged to retire at the age of eighty-five, celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday last week at the register of Martin and Vanderhoof, Oakland druggists.

Born in Westmoreland county, Plough came to Pittsburgh as a youth to work as a coal miner after attending school for three years.

When he was 16 he was apprenticed at McLaren's drugstore in East Liberty. His work there took him to Sam Holland's store at Liberty avenue and Smithfield street, to Christie's pharmacy and finally established him in his own business in the Duquesne pharmacy, 518 Smithfield street.

He lives with his daughter, Mrs. B. C. Speicher. He has two other children, a daughter, Mrs. H. H. Irwin, and a son, William Plough, Jr.

"Our COAL will give you money's worth—a precious gift from Mother Earth."

Just Call Churchill 7100

D. J. KENNEDY CO.
7535 THOMAS BLVD.
East End, Pittsburgh

BUILDERS are these prices
LOW?

We have bought the bankrupt stock of the Camp Construction Company of Cleveland, Ohio, and are able to offer Lumber and Building Materials at exceptionally low prices. Compare our prices. All materials sold with a money-back guarantee.

WHEELBARROWS — Various kinds of wooden and iron Wheelbarrows; heavily built; $1.50

DOORS — All kinds of new doors for any purpose. $1.25 up

GARAGE DOORS — Standard sizes complete with hardware to fit any garage. $10.00 set

Shingles — Red Cedar shingles. Now is the time to do your repairing while prices are low. $4.85 sq.

Rubberoid Roofing — Heavy, Light Roofing. Choice grade at $1.50 per roll.

Make Us An Offer!
6,000 ft. 1/2", 3/4", and 1" Rope.
4,000 ft. heavy Copper Cable.
8,000 ft. 3/8" Steel Cable.
12,000 pieces steel Scaffold Hangers.
1 Electric Slate Router.
1 Coil Water Heater for Construction Work.
50 Pulleys, All kinds.
Coal Stoves, Egg shape.
Tie Rods.

WALL-BOARD — Standard sizes. Made of the best material. 3c ft.

Sash — All kinds, all sizes. 25c up

ROUGH LUMBER
50,000 ft. 2x10", 8 to 18 ft. long
50,000 ft. 2x6", 8 to 18 ft. long
50,000 ft. 2x4", 8 to 18 ft. long
20,000 ft. 2x6", Factory Flooring
$17.00 Per Thousand Delivered

Before building or repairing get our prices on all kinds of Lumber, Builders' Supplies and Materials.

OPEN SUNDAY AND EVENINGS
$15 Orders Delivered by Truck

CITY LUMBER CO.
Yards, 7414 Susquehanna Street
PENHURST 4080-1-2
Between Homewood and Braddock Aves.

BOARD SEEKING WILKINSBURG TAX REFUND

Petitions by Citizens Ask Reduction in Borough And School Assessments

Wilkinsburg School Board has voted to request Tax Collector Walter K. Elder to make refunds of one eighth of 1 per cent on all taxes collected since June, 1931.

Elder recently informed the board that he would abide by its decision in the refund matter which has been under consideration for several weeks.

Last June the school board voted to increase Elder's salary rate by 1/8 of 1 per cent of his collections. Subsequently the board's solicitor ruled that this action was illegal.

The board also is to be presented a petition within the next few days requesting a reduction in school taxes. It has been learned from taxpayers who are circulating the papers which also demand a reduction in the borough tax. Charles Sager, West street, is chairman of the taxpayers' committee and cites reduction in many incomes as reason enough for tax reduction.

The petition reads in part:

"As you know, most of the property owners and renters have had a reduction in income from 20 to 60 per cent. We feel that taxes should be lowered as much as possible to conform with the present situation."

Glenwood Bridge 'Death Pole' Removed

Glenwood's "death pole" at the approach of the Glenwood Bridge where five persons were killed last year, was removed last week by the Duquesne Light Company upon complaint of residents of the borough.

Swissvale Relief Meeting Monday

The Swissvale Relief Association will meet Monday evening in the borough council chamber. All organizations and churches have been asked to send representatives.

We serve with discernment and experienced authority. The sincere manner in which we care for all details is widely spoken of.

Graphic Outlines of History
By M. A. HANLON

Indian Pueblo

Sixty or more Indian villages like this of untooled stone were discovered when the southwestern part of the United States was conquered. Eastern tribes lived in "wig wams," buffalo-hunting Indians dwelt in tepees, while the Iroquois lived in log houses.

Funeral Director

M. A. Hanlon
6350 FRANKSTOWN AVE.
PHONE HILAND 3921
EAST LIBERTY PITTSBURGH
"Ambulance Service"

2 HOMES SOLD IN EAST END

Two eight-room brick dwellings and garages, 101 Carnegie place, have been sold by G. H. and E. J. Bonner to William and C. M. King for $25,000. The sale was transacted by the Finance Realty Company, represented by W. M. Whitefield and A. M. Thomas.

Five frame houses in Tioga and Albion streets, Thirteenth Ward, were given as part payment. They were valued at $15,000, according to the brokers.

TRADERS MEET IN SHADYSIDE

Officers will be elected and complete organization plans outlined tomorrow night by members of the new Shadyside Board of Trade meeting in the Liberty school, 5500 Ellsworth avenue.

The membership now includes 50 merchants of the district.

The temporary committee arranging the organization program includes Thomas L. Noonan, Charles W. Young, T. Murray Locklin, Charles Bishop and Frank Zwingel.

Senator David A. Reed has been invited to be the first speaker before the board.

MACKIE BROTHERS
WILKINSBURG

JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE

IRISH All-Linen TOWELING
5-Yard Pieces
59c piece

PRINTS NEW PATTERNS
12½c yard

81x90 MOHAWK SHEETS
79c each

81x99 MOHAWK SHEETS
89c each

36-IN. UNBL'CHED MUSLIN
6c per yd.

BIG REDUCTION ON ALL ODDS AND ENDS

1003 WOOD ST.
ONE DOOR FROM PENN AVE.

WALMER OF WILKINSBURG
WEEK-END SPECIALS
Chain and Catalogue Prices

Large Lux Flakes, 19c
Sani Flush, 23c
Old Dutch Cleanser 6c
Hot Water Bottle, 59c
Electric Irons, 74c
SEE OUR WINDOWS

CHAS. W. WALMER HARDWARE CO.
716 PENN AVE. WILKINSBURG

DON'T GUESS THE TIME—
Call Hiland 5800

Photograph of the Picturesque Palm-Fringed Tropical Beach at Port Office Bay on the South Sea Island That Was the Modern Garden of Eden

On the Right Is a Pictorial Map of Floreana Island, One of the Galapagos Group Where Another Dream of an Earthly Paradise Has Been Destroyed

Trials of a Modern ADAM and EVE

Other Features...
In Next Sunday's AMERICAN WEEKLY

QUEER THINGS PEOPLE HAVE CARRIED AROUND TO "BRING LUCK"
COLLEGE PRESIDENT BREAKS UP CO-EDS' PETTING PARTIES
NEW THINGS SCIENCE DISCOVERED IN 1931
TOO "INDELICATE" FOR EVEN A "FOLLIES" GIRL TO WEAR
A HOSPITAL THAT MOVES WITH THE SUN ALL DAY LONG

BEFORE the serpent put in an appearance, Adam and Eve certainly enjoyed an ideal existence in the Garden of Eden. Since then, many attempts have been made by couples who have sought another earthly paradise for a dwelling place.

The latest and, perhaps, the most carefully planned of these back-to-nature experiments was recently made by a German doctor, and a woman companion, whose photograph is shown on the right.

Their dreams of an earthly paradise, however, did not last long. Almost nothing turned out as the couple expected it would. Their experiences may be disillusioning, but there are thrills—plenty of them!—in the exceptionally interesting description of their experiment—appearing next Sunday—in The American Weekly. Be sure to read it!

HERE'S Dr. Frederick Ritter, the German Physician, and Fraulein Dore Koerner, Who Abandoned Civilization, Determined to Live a Back-to-Nature Existence on the Island of Floreana. This Photograph Was Taken by the Commander of an American Yacht Who Happened to Visit the South Sea Island.

THE AMERICAN WEEKLY
Greatest Circulation in the World
—America's most interesting Weekly Magazine—
Distributed every Sunday with
SUN-TELEGRAPH

COMEDY AND TRAGEDY :-: In Film Offerings For Coming Week :-: ON EAST END SCREEN

Marilyn Miller In Enright Feature

There will be love songs, tragedies of the old homestead, laughs from Charles Ruggles and old-fashioned mystery on the screens of East communities theaters this week and next.

Marilyn Miller's latest talking picture, "Her Majesty, Love," opened at the Enright yesterday and will continue through Friday. With Miss Miller are four notable comedians, Leon Errol, W. C. Fields, Chester Conklin and Ford Sterling. Starting Saturday at this theater is "The False Madonna," with Kay Francis, Conway Tearle and William Boyd.

REGENT

On Monday the Regent will offer "Surrender," to be followed Wednesday by "Girls About Town."

ROWLAND

"Frankenstein" will open at the Rowland Monday for three days. "Petrod and Sam" and "Way Back Home" will be the double bill to follow this picture Thursday and Friday. Saturday's picture will be "Beloved Bachelor."

SCHENLEY

The Schenley will show "Possessed" Monday and Tuesday to be followed Wednesday and Thursday by "Blonde Crazy." Friday's picture will be "Cuban Love Song." On Saturday this screen will feature "Ruling Voice."

MANOR

"The Champ" will be the screen feature at the Manor Monday and Tuesday, to be followed Wednesday and Thursday by "Possessed." Friday's double bill will include "Friends and Lovers" and "Once a Lady." This theater will offer "The Spider" Saturday.

ARSENAL

At the Arsenal Monday and Tuesday will be "Blonde Crazy," followed Wednesday and Thursday by "The Champ." Friday's screen offerings will be "Beloved Bachelor" and "Twenty-four Hours." On Saturday patrons at this theater will see "Dangerous Affair."

PLAZA

Joe E. Brown will be seen at the Plaza Monday and Tuesday in "Local Boy Makes Good." This picture will be followed Wednesday and Thursday by "Blonde Crazy." On Friday "Mad Parade" and "Girls About Town" will be shown.

Committeemen Heading Squirrel Hill Relief Work

CLYDE F. McKEE — I. J. MIDDLEBERGER — JOHN R. FORREST — ALEX MEANOR

THOMAS O. HASLEY

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

MEMBERS OF THE RELIEF COMMMITTEE OF THE SQUIRREL HILL BOARD OF TRADE . . . HELPING NEEDY OF THEIR DISTRICT

SQUIRREL HILL SPEEDS RELIEF FOR NEEDY

Food, Clothing, Shoes, Coal Given to 100 Families; New Headquarters Open

The Squirrel Hill Board of Trade has secured headquarters for its Fourteenth Ward relief work at 5825 Forbes street and has given aid to more than 100 needy families.

Alexander P. Meanor has been placed in charge of the headquarters, where all donations of food, clothing and other articles are received and distributions made.

A shoemaker has been installed by the committee to repair shoes, free of charge, for needy persons in the ward. About 50 tons of coal have been given away by the committee, along with 75 pairs of shoes, clothing, food and other necessities.

George W. Lupton, chairman of the relief committee, is urging all residents of the ward to give what they can to help. The Board of Trade has donated $100 and is receiving donations from the individual members. Not only money is wanted, but anything that might be of use to the less fortunate, Lupton explains.

Alexander P. Meanor, secretary of the relief committee, believes that it should be an easy matter for the ward to handle its relief cases if all co-operate. He said:

"The Fourteenth Ward is next to the largest in Pittsburgh and has the largest payroll of any ward between here and Chicago. We have 250 families who must be taken care of during the winter. This should be an easy job for such a community."

Other members of the Squirrel Hill Board of Trade relief committee are C. W. Lupton, chairman; Miss Edith Abrams, Henry Cohn, P. F. Casey, Mrs. Howard Dowling, Margaret Frew, John R. Forrest, Philip Kumpf, Margaret Meanor, Clyde McKee, James C. Owen, George Russler, Lewis Schwartz, Regina Seibert, M. F. Whalen, Frank Zappala and Frank Young.

WILKINS ZONING LAW CHANGES UNDER FIRE

756 Petitioners to Appeal Ordinance to High Court; Injustice to Poor Cited

Efforts will be made to repeal a zoning ordinance, passed by Wilkins Township Commissioners after a public hearing last week, by Attorney William McDowell, representing 756 persons who presented a petition at the hearing in opposition to the ordinance. Appeal will be made to the Supreme Court on the grounds that the action is unconstitutional.

McDowell believes that it is unjust to the poorer property owners.

The ordinance was passed by a 4-to-1 vote. Two of the commissioners voting for the bill, C. E. Bradfast and August Endres, finished their term of office this week. William Bayer also was in favor of the act. Albert W. Hosbach was opposed to it.

Hosbach explained that he was opposed to passage of the ordinance because he believed that it was a last-minute action and should have been left for the new commissioners.

The new zoning laws were introduced with the view of making Wilkins Township a model community. They state that new construction must come up to a certain standard and must conform with present dwellings in the restricted zones.

John F. Stack, associate of McDowell, who made an address at the hearing in behalf of those opposed, believes the passing of the ordinance will not end the fight. He said:

"This is a big thing and has not come to an end. You will hear a lot more about it before it is definitely settled."

Turtle Creek Club Hears Thrift Talk

Mrs. Mae Beatty talked on Thrift before the Turtle Creek Woman's Club Tuesday at the home of Mrs. W. W. Lantz, Charles street, Turtle Creek. Assisting hostesses included Mrs. J. L. Kemerer and Mrs. W. F. Plotner.

American Biographies in Miniature

ANDREW CARNEGIE
1837-1919

Born in Scotland, November 25, 1837. He was only 11 when he came to America and started work in a cotton mill. Became a telegraph operator, fought in the Civil War, and investing in the Oil and Steel industries amassed a fortune. At 64, he sold his holdings for $600,000,000 and devoted the rest of his life to philanthropy.

John A. Freyvogel Funeral Director
3406 Fifth Ave. Mayflower 1665-1666

Large Ferns..... $1
Large Ivy Plants..... 50c
GIDAS
OAKLAND FLORAL CO.
3707 Forbes St. MA. 1753

ALL BRANCHES
Beauty Culture
Taught by Experts
Phone Us For Appointment
Claffey's
BEAUTY SHOPPE & SCHOOL
Homestead 208 E. 8th Ave. Homestead 1048
E. Pittsburgh 109 Electric Ave. Valley 8

DON'T GUESS THE TIME
Call Hiland 5800

CHILD TRAINING TALKS LISTED

Parent education will be the theme of a series of four lectures beginning January 12 under auspices of the College Club of Pittsburgh. Each lecture will be followed the following week by round-table discussions.

W. H. Lunden, instructor in sociology at the University of Pittsburgh, will speak on "Religious Education in the Home, School and Church" at the opening lecture. Mrs. Charles C. Cooper will lead the discussion meeting January 19.

Other lecturers will be Dr. George Mohler, director of the Child Guild Center, "Mental Hygiene of Parent-Child Relationship;" Dr. Manuel Conrad Elmer, head of the department of sociology and director of graduate training for social work at the University of Pittsburgh, "Family Adjustment and Social Change," and Martin P. Scwarowsky, principal of the Fanny Edel Falk Memorial School, "The Child Training Motif in Education."

Homewood Legion Gets Battleship Trophy

An engraved shield, made of armor plate cut from the battleship Pittsburgh, was presented to the Homewood American Legion Post yesterday.

It is the George W. Dawson trophy, awarded by the Allegheny County Legion committee for the largest post representation in the Armistice Day parade. The presentation was made in the Homewood Realty Building, Kelly street.

Officers of the state and county organizations attended the meeting. Post Commander Foster was in charge of the program.

VANG POLOISTS MEET OHIOANS

The undefeated Vang polo team, leaders in the indoor city league, will meet the Mill Creek Riding Academy riders of Youngstown in a match in Hunt Armory Saturday night. Two weeks ago the Pittsburgh players went to Youngstown and defeated the Ohio players in a thrilling match.

The Vangs have had an exceptionally good record this season, beating the old Shadyside team twice. The Vangs include in their lineup Howard Adams, the former Yale student; Vose Babcock, well-known local rider, and George Vang, prominent business man and one of the ardent polo advocates.

Paul Mazumun, who plays with the Vangs on many occasions, has been signed as coach. He will direct the play of the Vang team and also act as substitute during the games.

Parents Honored By Y.M.-W.H.A. In Homestead

A parents' testimonial banquet was held Sunday evening under auspices of the Homestead Y. M. & W. H. A. in the Moose Temple, Eighth avenue. Benjamin Lercher was the principal speaker.

The banquet committee included Mrs. Mark Fischel, E. A. Keidel, Jerome Schwartz, Jack Lembersky, Robert Sacvitch, Ida Friedlander, Elsie Rosenbaum and Florence Solomon.

HARRIS TO GIVE PIANO RECITAL

Henry Harris, Pittsburgh concert pianist, will be the guest artist with the Y. M. & W. H. A. Choral Society at its initial 1932 concert January 17 in the Morris Kaufmann Auditorium in the "Y" Building, Bellefield avenue.

Mr. Harris returned from Europe about a year ago after achieving a notable success in concert work.

Harvey B. Gaul is conductor of the choral society.

Men of Beth Shalom Plan Benefit Show

The Men's Club of Congregation Beth Shalom will sponsor a benefit movie entertainment January 17 in the Fulton Theater. The committee includes Max Lewis, chairman; Meyer Fiman, Max Pearlman, Abe Weil, Henry W. Stone, Harry Averbach, Charles Mandelblatt, Harry Freedman, Samuel Berman, A. Gorenstein, Harry Elinoff and Max Moses.

Sisterhood Day At Beth Shalom

Beth Shalom Sisterhood will celebrate its annual sisterhood day Monday in the ballroom of the new synagogue, at which time the new officers will be installed. Mrs. Frank Rubenstein is chairman.

Committee workers include Mrs. M. J. Goodstone, Mrs. Goodman, A. Rose, Mrs. J. H. Marcus, Mrs. Sam Berman, Mrs. Aaron Olbum, Mrs. L. Lehrer, Mrs. Meyer Fiman, Mrs. I. Skirboll, Mrs. H. Elinoff, Mrs. L. Simon and Mrs. L. Victorhaus.

Seventh Ward G.O.P. Club Picks Officers

Officers have been elected by the Seventh Ward Independent Republican Club and plans have been begun for the organization's spring program. The officers are J. Garfield Houston, chairman; Mrs. Frank J. Boyle, vice chairman; D. W. Kinsey, secretary and Mrs. Olive Walker, treasurer.

The organization will hold a mass meeting in Peabody High School within the next week.

New Year Dance Held By Dads of De Molay

The sixth annual New Year's dance of the Dads' Association, Order of DeMolay of Western Pennsylvania, was held Friday night in Syria Mosque. Samuel Starkey was general chairman.

Tech Woman's Club Hears Mrs. Teller

Mrs. S. A. Teller, wife of the director of the Irene Kaufmann Settlement, was the principal speaker at the Wednesday meeting of the Woman's Club of Carnegie Institute of Technology. Her subject was "Being a Neighbor in a Large City."

Hostesses were Miss Martha Eggers, Mrs. H. S. Hower, Mrs. Harold L. Lang, Mrs. W. H. Michener, Mrs. C. B. Stanton and Mrs. H. A. Steiner.

Crescent Hill Women Give Dance Program

A dancing and musical program featured the Tuesday meeting of the Crescent Hills Women's Club in the Westinghouse Community House. The entertainment was directed by Mrs. C. T. Pearce, a former member of the Roxy Theater chorus.

Following the entertainment, Mrs. H. S. Myer reviewed current news. Hostesses included Mrs. F. E. Burke, Mrs. Hauser, Mrs. S. Miller and Mrs. E. L. Harder.

Club Hears Talk On 'Superstitions'

"Superstitions" was the subject of a talk by Mrs. May Kolb at yesterday's meeting of the Wednesday Afternoon Club of Wilkinsburg at the home of Mrs. G. F. Feleer, 1052 Edgerton avenue, East End.

Clubwomen Divide Work in 4 Groups

Following the plan of the State Federation, the East Liberty Woman's Club has divided into four principal groups, each of which will have a distinct program. The four chairmen are Mrs. Mary Walter, American citizenship department; Mrs. E. C. Corner, home department; Mrs. A. F. Ernest, welfare department and Miss Mabel Kepple, department of education and fine arts.

Other committee heads include Mrs. H. B. Nicholson, social; Mrs. Ira W. Marshall, ways and means; Mrs. Edward Ertle, community service.

WORK STARTED IN MUNHALL

Excavation work has been started on the new network of sewers in Munhall Borough. This work will require about three months before the sewers can be laid, according to borough officials.

When the project is completed, every district in Munhall, including Homestead Park, will have proper sewage facilities, the officials point out.

The contract was let to the McCrady-Rodgers Company.

Consider Your Future Home in Beautiful
WILKINSBURG MANOR
Boulevard lighting system, paved streets, lots reasonably priced.
HUSS BROTHERS
BAUM BOULEVARD AT HIGHLAND
MONTROSE 6061

ENRIGHT
STARTS SATURDAY
Her Love Was Counterfeit!

KAY FRANCIS
—As—
"THE FALSE MADONNA"
Paramount's Drama
With
WILLIAM BOYD
CONWAY TEARLE
—On Stage—
Complete New Program of VAUDEVILLE
FIVE SENSATIONAL ACTS

CHORAL'S GUEST ARTIST

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

HENRY HARRIS . . . PITTSBURGH CONCERT PIANIST PLAYING

Mr. Harris, guest artist for the Y. M. & W. H. A. Choral Society's concert January 17 in Morris Kaufmann auditorium.

COAL CHUCKLES

"SHOW-ME" AL, IS THIS LAD'S NAME- HIS DOUBTING WAYS HAVE WON HIM FAME—
WHEN OUR GOOD COAL HE WISHED TO TRY— JUST ONE TEST TON WAS ALL HE'D BUY!
BUT NOW HE BUYS IT BY THE LOAD- FOR TO TRUE COMFORT IT'S THE ROAD!
LET US SEND YOU A TEST TON!
EAST LIBERTY COAL AND SUPPLY CO.
6624 HAMILTON AVE.
PHONE—MONTROSE 6181—EAST LIBERTY
"SATISFACTION ELIMINATES COMPETITION"

MANSMANN'S
5911-19 Penn Ave., Hiland 6900, East Liberty
January Sales
prove to be the housewives' blessing with such low prices on quality household needs. Read the list.

January Clearance of soiled Pillow Cases, Sheets, Towels, Bridge Sets, Luncheon Sets, Table Cloths and Napkins. They are all first quality goods that have been soiled by handling. 1/3 off
$1.95 Patchwork Quilts 1.47
Attractive patterns—with muslin backs.
36-in. Unbleached Muslin 10 Yds. 77c
Good quality for many home uses.
Irish Linen Huck Towels 4 for 1.00
Size 17x32—hemstitched towels.
70x80 Plaid Sheet Blankets 2 for 1.00
Block plaids in various colors.
36-in. Fast Color Prints 10c Yd.
Variety of new spring patterns.
Comfort and Blanket Covers 1.00 Each
Full size—neat printed patterns.
Heavy Linen Tea Toweling 4 Yds. 1.00
17-inch—heavy, absorbent quality.
36-in. White Indian Head 17c Yd.
Special price on this good cloth.
36-in. Hope Bleached Muslin 10 Yds. 87c
Special price on soft finish muslin.
Irish Linen Tea Toweling 5 Yds. 1.00
This good toweling specially priced.
$2.95 Cotton Filled Comforts 1.97
Double bed size—printed covers.
Double Face Casement Cloth 5 Yds. 1.00
35-inch rayon cloth—ecru color.
Part Linen Tea Toweling 10 Yds. 1.00
Get a good supply at small cost.
Good 42x36 Pillow Cases 10c Each
A very low price for these.

BUILDING BEGUN AT MT. MERCY

Construction of the new activities building of Mt. Mercy Academy and College, Fifth avenue near Craft avenue, has been started. The new building will be erected in the northeast corner of the campus and will overlook both rivers and downtown Pittsburgh.

The structure will be of brick and stone. It will house a gymnasium, swimming pool, auditorium and other activities rooms.

Under present plans the building will be opened in the spring.

New Dramatic Club Meets in Homewood

The second meeting of the newly-organized Homewood Dramatic Club will be held tomorrow in the Homewood branch of the Carnegie Library. Officers will be elected.

The membership of the club includes Paul Robinson, Rachel Morring, Lillian Crouse, Hazel Crouse, Grace Noden, Helen Yoder, Peggy McCallum, James De Marchi, Ruth Emmerich, Christopher Sullivan, Louise Gaibe, Norman McCormick, Lester Brecht, Ruth Beckett, Helen Ward, Helen O'Leary, Evelyn Hollahan and Wendell Pa[illegible].

Triangle Club Hears Wilkinsburg History

Mrs. Luther Shultz was to give a review of the last 40 years of Wilkinsburg history before the Triangle Club of Wilkinsburg today in the home of Mrs. C. A. Dunlap, 810 South avenue. [illegible] president of the Italian Citizens' Club, is [illegible] president.

Schoolgirls Sewing for Poor Relief Organization

MISS BETTY STEELE — MISS MILDRED STOEHR — MISS DOROTHY OCHS

MISS MARGARET GARRY — MISS CECILE KUSH — MISS HELEN MOFFETT

WILKINSBURG JUNIOR HIGH SEWING CLASS GIRLS . . . THE CLOTHES THEY MAKE GO TO THE BOROUGH'S NEEDY FAMILIES

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

Turtle Creek Club To Install Officers

Installation ceremonies will be N. Officers and vice president. A held January 26 when N. [illegible] secretary, and N. D. Dunlap, 810 South avenue, president of the Italian Citizens' Club; Claudio, treasurer.

Club of Turtle Creek assumes of- Other officers to take over their posts at this time include

DAILY SHORT STORY

Enemies Made Friends

The bark of a dog, unless it be a bark of welcome, is not a particularly pleasant greeting to a man returning to his suburban home after an arduous day in the city. As a further injustice, Tom Conners was a part owner (by marriage) of this diminutive though belligerent Scottie who sought to bar his way up the front steps. Tom proceeded into his house and the dog, wisely enough, did not try to make an hors d'oeuvre of his stepmaster's ankle. The barking seemed merely to indicate that Tom was accepted as a necessary nuisance.

Tom's wife, Lois, was more cordial. "My dear," she said as she kissed him, "you look positively browbeaten. Have a hard day?"

"Only so so."

"There's just time to wash up supper's practically on the table. I'll be giving Chippie his dinner while you're washing."

Tom sighed wearily. "Do that. And be sure he has enough to eat. The poor thing seemed a bit ravenous when I came in." This mild bit of sarcasm was no less than justified.

Lois smiled sympathetically. "Why don't you try making up to him? You know you really like dogs."

"Make up to him?" Tom snorted. "I might as well try being chummy with a porcupine. He seems to bitterly resent the fact that I live here too. Likely as not, he's jealous because you married me instead of Julian Stone!"

If dogs are actually bothered by jealousy, this might easily be the reason for Chippie's surliness toward the lesser half of the household. Julian Stone had been a competitor of Tom's in the pathways of romance, and two years back one of his gifts to Lois had been this same Chippie, who at that time was a most docile puppy.

ATTACHED TO DOG

A year after that, Julian had been present at Lois' wedding, but in the role of an usher instead of the bridegroom. By that time, Lois had become so attached to the dog that neither she nor Tom saw any reason for not assuming the animal along with the other responsibilities of matrimony.

"My wedding gift," as Julian aptly put it, "was a bit premature, but it will probably last longer than some of the other trash you've got!" Tom, Lois and Julian had all laughed then.

Julian, a former classmate of Tom's, had accepted his loss of Lois to Tom with sincere sportsmanship, but Chippie most certainly did not take to the new state of affairs. His extreme dislike was at first accepted by Tom as a joke that would soon lose its pungency, but now, after a year, it began to be the least bit monotonous.

Custom has it that a man's house is his castle. Of Lois, Tom was still rapturous; the impish little snapper of a dog that constantly affronted him with the only fly in the domestic ointment. Tom respecting Lois' genuine affection for the dog, wouldn't have parted the two for the world. A puzzle indeed!

READS PROOFS

The next morning as Tom took his seat on the city bound express, he drew from his brief case several proof copies of books that his firm, a publishing house, had on their forthcoming lists. Tom's job was to write advertising that put them in the best seller class. Most of the volumes were novels and didn't present apparent difficulties. However, there was one book, a treatise on certain phases of psychology by an obscure German professor, that was bound to be a sticker. Wondering why in the world it was being published, Tom resigned self to struggling through it during the interm of the train ride.

It was an onerous task, for Tom had but small interest in the mathematical side of psychology. The first chapters were a blur of psychoses, complexes, stimuli, and what not. It was not until he came to the middle of the book that Tom's interest became real instead of forced concentration. The portent of the chapter entitled "Animals and Humans" presented bits of fact that were no less fascinating.

TOM SMILES

"Reactions in experiments with animals," Tom read, "are often useful in studying complex human emotions. . . . For example, the emotion of jealousy may be supplanted by substituting another and more powerful stimuli for a totally opposite feeling that of love. . . ."

The smile that Tom wore as he entered his office that morning was not because he had garnered any brilliant ideas for advertising copy. It was for an entirely different reason altogether.

* * *

On the train that night Tom carried a small closed basket from which issued at time to time certain plaintive cries. When he arrived home, Chippie greeted him with barks that were even more vociferous than usual because of the unfamiliar scent that floated from the basket to the dog's nostrils. Assailed by last minute fears of his plan, Tom opened the basket and gingerly released a puppy that was almost an exact miniature of Chippie.

"What in the world!" gasped Lois, as she entered the room in time to see this little drama.

CONGRATULATES SELF

Tom, too busy watching Chippie and the puppy, didn't answer. Chippie raved first at the puppy, then at Tom, who certainly was responsible for the puppy's presence, even in the mind of a dog. After another glance from Chippie to Tom, one that spoke volumes of psychology, there began a canine romp that necessitated removal of both animals to the back yard. Lois followed them out, while Tom stayed inside basking in the evident triumph of an amateur over complexes.

When his wife returned, he congratulated himself verbally: "Lucky I happened to find a dog so like Chippie. Saw the creature in a shop as I was running for my train; a minute more and the pup was mine. Fast work, I'd call it."

"Yes, indeed!" Lois eyed him curiously.

"Let's call it Julian, shall we?"

"As you like, dear," Lois answered. "We can name the dog after Julian all right, but—"

"But what?"

"We'll have to call it Julia!"

(Copyright 1931, International Feature Service, Inc.)

Y. M. H. A. to Give Membership Dance

The Y. M. & W. H. A. will hold a membership dance Sunday night in the Morris Kaufmann Memorial Auditorium. This is the third in the "Y's" series of dancing parties for members and friends.

On this same evening, from 8:30 to 10:30 o'clock, entries in the association's one-act play contest will be presented.

STUDENTS SEW FOR NEEDY

Students in the Wilkinsburg Junior High School sewing department are not only putting their studies to practical use but have sacrificed their own wants for those of the needy in the community. The students are giving all their finished articles to the Wilkinsburg Relief Association.

The new procedure was introduced in the department by its new instructor, Miss Virginia Blair.

Squirrel Hill Club To Hear Parent Talk

Members of the Squirrel Hill Community Club will hear Miss Miriam Schoenfield, field secretary of the southwestern district of Pennsylvania Jewish religious school committee, Friday in the home of Mrs. O. C. Colwes, 3324 Beechwood boulevard. She will speak on "The Parent to the Child."

Those on the committee responsible for the meeting include Mrs. W. Scott Miller, Mrs. T. W. Ferris, Mrs. H. R. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. H. W. Blunt, Mrs. J. A. Guthrie, Mrs. Elizabeth Hancock, Mrs. L. F. Herwick and Mrs. S. J. Waldschultz.

PATENTS GIVEN 10 INVENTORS

Ten East communities men have been assigned patents on various mechanical inventions.

They are Uncas A. Whitaker, Wilmerding, fluid controlled means for automatic train pipe coupling; Atlee B. Saurman, Pittsburgh, and John B. Webb, Wilkinsburg, terminal structure; Thomas H. Thomas, Edgewood, electric signal system; Frank Gaston, Tarentum, sheet handling clamp; John N. Good, Wilmerding, electric-pneumatic brake.

Joseph C. McCune, Edgewood, casement window and locking apparatus; Frank I. Smith, Wilkinsburg, blast furnace charging equipment; Vladimir K. Zworykin, Swissvale, photo-electric tube and vacuum tube; Frank N. Nicholson, Edgewood, railway traffic controlling apparatus, and Noble C. Shaw, Swissvale, electric relay.

BUY THE NEW MODEL
PHILCO BABY GRAND
5-Tube Set in a beautiful walnut cabinet. Complete, only $36.50
$5 Down Payment
Balance Monthly
TERMS
7 Convenient Stores
Camera Radio Shops
5641 Penn Ave. Montrose 6200
6123 Penn Ave. Hiland 7823
East Liberty's Oldest Radio House

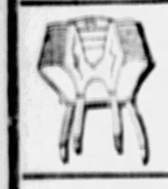
WE'VE FITTED FEET FOR FIFTY YEARS
P. LUDEBUEHL & SON
PENN AND FRANKSTOWN, EAST LIBERTY — TWO STORES — WOOD AND SOUTH, WILKINSBURG
January Clearance Sale

To every thrifty person who knows the high quality of our Footwear, this sale presents an opportunity to buy good shoes at a savings price.
WOMEN'S DEPARTMENT
STETSON, MATRIX and LUDEBUEHL'S expressly made Shoes.
MEN'S DEPARTMENT
STETSON, BOSTONIAN, ARCH PRESERVER and LUDEBUEHL'S expressly made Shoes.

GRANT'S
PENN AVENUE at SHERIDAN
East Liberty
Values in Women's Wear are greater Right Now!
Here are things you need every day in the week—and you'll have to admit they are amazingly low priced. In fact, we hardly believe these prices will go any lower as everything points to better times. You will save more than usual by shopping NOW!
Share in this special purchase of Women's Chiffon Hosiery

Regularly worth 69c pr.
50c pr.
Every pair FIRST QUALITY thread silk, with lisle reinforced tops, toes and heels. Every woman can certainly use such wonderful hose for so little money.
Mighty pretty Bib Aprons on sale for 10c each

Handy to slip over your good dresses. Charming percale prints which ordinarily sell for a great deal more.
Women's Crepe Nightgowns 50c
Made of permanent crepe which requires no ironing. Generous sizes—50 inches long. Trimmed with smart contrasting prints. Sizes 16-17.
Grant merchandise is of reliable quality — despite the very low price!
Women's Celanese Hosiery
Yes, indeed you can't beat them for wear and looks. Gorgeous lace tops—fine gauge celanese.
39c pair
Percale Dresses of fine quality 50c

Keep yourself looking trim at very little expense. It is almost unbelievable to offer such smartly styled frocks at 50c. Sizes 16-52.


Smooth Fitting Girdles 50c
Wrap around girdle with side hooks, made of strong brocades and satins. Very desirable for the average figure. Sizes 26-36.
Freshen up your stock of Rayon Lingerie for only 25c each

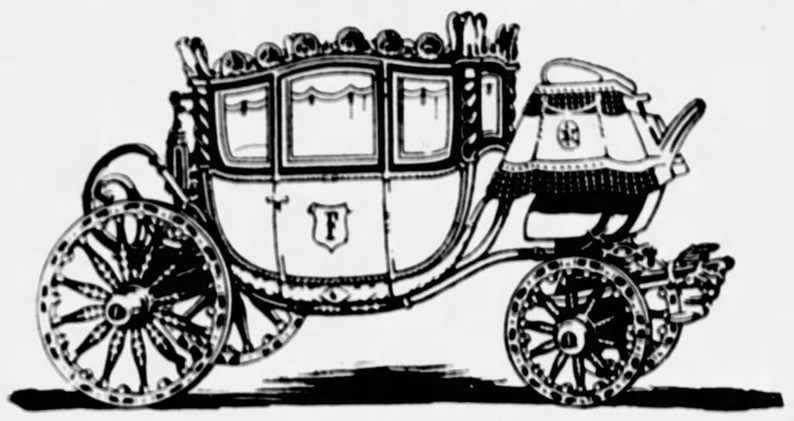
No need to get low on undies when you can buy such pretty ones for 25c. Step-ins, panties, bloomers, trimmed with lace or tailored.
Here are the finest Broadcloth Slips you can buy for 25c

That is not an idle boast—we went to a lot of trouble to make them the finest. Splendid grade of pink or white broadcloth. Deep 6 inch hem—full standard sizes from 36-46.
"Grant's for Values!"

Automatic Hot Water
$15 Down
18 months to pay
Complete full pressure hot water service is assured for many years with the Copper Kompak. A size for every home requirement. The copper tank is guaranteed for 20 years!
Peoples Natural Gas Company

You can make a COACH like this!


Much reduced reproduction of the Prize Napoleonic Coach which can be constructed from four-color paper cut-outs, to be furnished Sun-Telegraph readers FREE!
Beautiful 4-Color Cut-out FREE to all
Boys! Girls! Here's an opportunity to get a four-color cut-out design which you can easily assemble into a wonderful Petite Napoleonic Coach. This cardboard cut-out is designed after the famous Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild Napoleonic Coach. When completed the coach pivots, has wheels that turn, and runs like a real coach. Get next Sunday's Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph, clip coupon which will appear and exchange for beautiful free coach cut-out. Complete plans for constructing coach and rules of contest will be sent with this fine cardboard cut-out.
Boys and Girls, 16 or Under, May Engage in Contest Offering
$500 in CASH PRIZES
For Best Coaches Assembled
◆
You do not have to enter contest to get a COLOR Cut-out
◆
Clip Coupon from Next Sunday's
SUN-TELEGRAPH
Take advantage of this opportunity! You'll find it great sport building the coach. Whether you enter the contest or not, you can obtain the beautiful lithographed four-color cut-out without cost.
Get a Napoleonic Coach FREE!